The Talent

Hide not thy talent in the earth,
 However small it be;
 Its faithful use, its utmost worth,
 God will require of thee.
 His own, which He hath lent on trust,
 He asks of thee again;
 Little or much, the claim is just,
 And thine excuses vain.
 Go, then, and strive to do thy part,
 Though humble it may be;
 The ready hand, the willing heart,
 Are all heaven asks of thee.

The Lord has given to each one of us at least one gift, and probably many more than that. The most important thing in life is to find what gifts we have; secondly, to recognize that they are from God; thirdly, to be faithful and dependable in using them. Anything that is not used doesn't develop. A pianist said, "You know, I must practice every day. If I don't practice one day I know the difference. If I don't practice two days, those who hear me know the difference."

DECISION WITHOUT DELAY

During the early days of the ministry of Dwight L. Moody, the great evangelist launched a series of meetings in Chicago with promise of the largest crowds that he had ever addressed up to that time. He was speaking of the life of Christ, and on the first Sunday night, October 8, 1871, he took as his topic the trial before Pilate. As he came to the end of his message, he turned to Mat. 27:22, "What shall I do then with Jesus, who is called Christ?" He concluded, "I wish you would take this text home with you and turn it over in your minds during the week, and next Sabbath we will come to Calvary and the cross, and we will decide what to do with Jesus of Nazareth." It may have been an artistic device. But speaking of it in later years, Moody called that conclusion to his morning's address the greatest mistake of his life. Even while the song leader was singing the final hymn:

*Today the Savior calls;
 For refuge fly;
 The storm of justice falls,
 And death is nigh-*

the fire engines began to sound on the street on their way to their first contact with the great Chicago fire in which Moody's hall was laid in ashes, and in which it is estimated that over a thousand persons lost their lives. Moody never saw that congregation again, and some of those to whom he spoke on that night doubtlessly died.

For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation. 2 Corinthians 6:2

For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.
 Romans 1:16

The Church of the Covered Dish

Cousin Leroy

The preacher of Leroy's church was walking down a country lane and sees Leroy's son Junior struggling to load hay back onto a cart after it had fallen off. "You look hot Junior," said the preacher. "why don't you rest a few minutes, and I'll give you a hand." "No thanks," said Junior. "Paw wouldn't like it." "Don't be silly," the preacher said. "Everyone is entitled to a break and I know ole Leroy wouldn't mind. Come and have a drink of water." Again Junior said "I better not, Paw sure would be upset." Losing his patience, the preacher said, "What is Leroy some kind of slave driver or something? Tell me where I can find your Paw and I'll give him a piece of my mind!" "Well," said Junior, "he's under the load of hay."

The Joke

A preacher who always tried to open his sermons with some humor attended a conference to help encourage and better equip pastors for their ministry. Among the speakers were many well known and dynamic speakers. One of speakers boldly approached the pulpit and, gathering the entire crowd's attention, said, "The best years of my life were spent in the arms of a woman that wasn't my wife!" The crowd was shocked! He followed up by saying, "And that woman was my mother!" - The crowd burst into laughter and he delivered the rest of his talk, which went over quite well. The next week, the pastor decided he'd use that joke in his sermon. As he surely approached the pulpit that sunny Sunday, he tried to rehearse the joke in his head. It suddenly seemed a bit foggy to him. Getting to the microphone he said loudly, "The greatest years of my life were spent in the arms of another woman that was not my wife!" The congregation inhaled half the air in the room. After standing there for almost 10 seconds in the stunned silence, trying to recall the second half of the joke, the pastor finally blurted out, "and for the life of me I can't remember who she was!"

How Could You Have Forgotten?

While on a road trip, an elderly couple stopped at a roadside restaurant for lunch. After finishing their meal, they left the restaurant and resumed their trip. When leaving, the elderly woman unknowingly left her glasses on the table and she didn't miss them until they had been driving about twenty minutes. By then, to add to the aggravation, they had to travel quite a distance before they could find a place to turn around, in order to return to the restaurant to retrieve her glasses. All the way back, the elderly husband became the classic grouchy old man. He fussed and complained and scolded his wife relentlessly during the entire return drive. The more he chided her, the more agitated he became. He just wouldn't let up one minute. To her relief, they finally arrived at the restaurant. As the woman got out of the car and hurried inside to retrieve her glasses, her husband yelled to her, "While you're in there, you might as well get my hat and the credit card."

Fruitful Lives
Evangelist Chree Lynn Simms

"But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law." Gal. 5:22-23

You are producing fruit, no matter who you are, where you live, or what your purpose is. Fruit is abounding from your life. Your fruit is affecting every area of your life and it is affecting every person around you. Fruit also has seed inside of itself and those seed will become planted somewhere in the lives of those around you and (if left unchecked) will produce the same kind of fruit that was planted by your life. Jesus said, "Beware of false prophets which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree brings forth good fruit: but a corrupt tree brings forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit; neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that brings not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them." Matt. 7:15-20 Now here Jesus is talking about people who look a whole lot like sincere Christians. They may wear the same type of clothes, observe some of the same traditions maybe even go to the same meetings as you do, but they are dangerous and to be watched out for. But if they look like Christians and sound like Christians, how will you know them? Jesus said you would know them by their fruit. At this time I admonish you to sit down, get quiet for a few minutes and analyze your own fruit. The Lord led my sister, Carol to look up the opposites of every fruit of the Spirit. Every good thing has an opposite evil thing. The evil things are the bad fruit. The good things are the good fruit that will fill our lives with good things and will become planted also in the lives of others around us. Remember, fruit carries its own seed and will produce the same kind of fruit again that was given in the first place. It works the same way, whether good fruit is being produced or evil fruit is being produced. The opposite fruit of love is hate. Some opposite fruits of joy are misery, depression, negativism and a complaining attitude. Opposite fruits for peace are unrest, instigation of strife, nervousness and pessimism. Opposite fruits of longsuffering are impatience, harshness and a judgmental attitude. Some opposite fruits of gentleness are unrestrained anger, vengefulness, violence and roughness. Opposite fruits for goodness are hatefulness, meanness, vileness and perversity. Opposite fruits of faith are fear, worry and uncertainty. Some opposite fruits of meekness are brashness, boastfulness and pushiness. Opposite fruits for temperance are unrestraint, wildness and rebellion (against any authority). The purest and richest of the good fruit can only come into your life by a love relationship with your Heavenly Father and love of His Word and His ways. The good fruit (the fruit of the Spirit) will produce wonderful things in your life and in the lives of your loved ones. It will produce the life, the richness and the power of God Himself. The evil fruits will also produce, if you operate in them and eventually fill your life with heartache, hurt, hatefulness and misery... As for me, I crave the good things that only God can give so perfectly. How about you?

A Word In Season

Rodney L. Howell

Praise ye the LORD. Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise in the congregation of saints. Psalms 149:1

Today while spending time with the LORD I started to think about how blessed we are to be able to go to church. I mean most of the time the only person that stops us from going is ourselves. I cannot count the times in my past that I have missed church because of a ballgame that I wanted to watch or because I thought I was too sick or I was just too lazy to get ready. We have used every excuse in the book to keep from going to church and to be honest it is ridiculous. I have repented and begged God to forgive me for all the times that I missed for no reason and I urge you to do the same. There is coming a day when we could be forced to stay out of church it's already happening in other countries. There are people being persecuted, tortured and killed for even mentioning the name of Jesus. We need to pray really hard for these countries and the people in them. As Christians it is our responsibility. So the next time you start to miss a church service because of some lame excuse...just think about how it would feel if you wanted to go and was told that you couldn't!! To be put in the position to where you cannot go to church is a horrible feeling. I know from my own personal experience. In closing lets all go to church and get behind our pastor and run the race for Jesus like never before...for his return is closer than ever. Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. 1 John 3:2 Until next time God bless you all.

Where Are God's Best Gifts?

Earthly thrones are generally built with steps up to them; the remarkable thing about the thrones of the eternal kingdom is that the steps are all down to them. We must descend if we would reign, stoop if we would rise. Some think that God put His best gifts on a high shelf for them to reach up to them. It does not take long, however, for a Christian to realize that the best gifts are in the lower shelves, and that they can only be attained through humility and the role of a servant to others.

"It Could Always Be Worse"

Sister Nancy Willis

BELOVED THINK IT NOT STRANGE CONCERNING THE FIERY TRIAL WHICH IS TO TRY YOU, AS THOUGH SOME STRANGE THING HAPPENED TO YOU.
1 PETER 4:12

As I write this my mind goes back to when I first got married and I remember one night I was ironing my skirt to go to church and I burned a hole in it. About this time my husband came home and he wanted to know what was wrong with me. I told him what I had done and he said don't worry about it, because it could always be worse. I went on to church and a little while later my husband came in church and said our home had burnt. We had lost everything. As you may well have guessed it was much worse. Whatever storm you may be going through remember it could always be worst. I read a story about a man who was carrying a cross and he told the Lord it was too heavy to carry. The Lord took him into a room and there were many crosses, the Lord told him to pick out the one he wanted to carry. After looking around a minute he said I will take this small one. And then he realized it was the same one he had been carrying. Remember we don't know what the next five minutes holds, we could be quietly eating our supper and the phone rings or a knock on the door telling us our spouse or kids or maybe another loved one has been hurt or killed in an accident, and this would change our lives forever. So remember whatever storm you are in it could always be worse.

CORNERSTONE
Rev. Billy R Douglas

Another Gospel

But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.
Galatians 1:8

This month we are going to start a special series entitled "Another Gospel". For the next few months (LORD willing) we will be looking at some of the false doctrines and teachings that are in many popular and main stream denominations today. Why are we doing this? We are certainly not doing this to belittle or judge those that are part of these religions or because we hate those people...nothing could be further from the truth. We love these people and are deeply concerned and saddened that millions of people are being deceived into believing false doctrines that are contrary to the word of God and that those false doctrines are damning souls to an eternal hell or at the very least they are holding God's people back from doing the work that we have been commissioned to do and that is to preach Jesus and the Truth of the Word of God to the lost and the dying.. We are going to start this series by looking into the teachings of what is probably the largest denomination in the world...the teachings of the Catholic church. We will be taking the actual teachings from the Catholic Catechism which is the document laying out the doctrines of this church.

"MARY MOTHER OF GOD"?

The Catholic Catechism teaches the following false doctrines..."the Church confesses that Mary is truly "Mother of God" and that from the first instant of her conception, she was totally preserved from the stain of original sin and she remained pure from all personal sin throughout her life." In other words although the Bible states that only Jesus knew no sin...2 Cor 5: 21 For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him...the church teaches that Mary was sinless. The Church teaches "The Virgin Mary . . . is acknowledged and honored as being truly the Mother of God and of the redeemer.... She is 'clearly the mother of the members of Christ' ... since she has by her charity joined in bringing about the birth of believers in the Church, who are members of its head." "Mary, Mother of Christ, Mother of the Church." The Catechism goes on to say "Mary's role in the Church is inseparable from her union with Christ and flows directly from it. "This union of the mother with the Son in the work of salvation is made manifest from the time of Christ's virginal conception up to his death"; it is made manifest above all at the hour of his Passion. ... enduring with her only begotten Son the intensity of his suffering, joining herself with his sacrifice in her mother's heart, and lovingly consenting to the immolation of this victim, born of her..." Plainly said, this teaches that Mary plays a role in the redemption process...not just that she gave birth to the Son of God and was the vessel from which he came BUT that she suffered as he did for our salvation and that still today she is "part of the redemptive plan"! The Bible in no way teaches this, as a matter of fact it teaches just the opposite. Col 2:9-10 For in him (Jesus) dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily. And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power: Act 4:12 Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name (Jesus) under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. Jesus himself said in John 14:6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. He did not say me and my mother he said I AM THE WAY! Now please be assured we believe that Mary was a blessed and obedient women are we are grateful for her obedience to the call BUT that being said...there is NOTHING to back up this false teaching...Mary plays no role whatsoever in the redemption plan. Salvation comes through Jesus plus no other! In our next installment of "Another Gospel" we will continue to look at the Catholic teachings concerning Mary...we will also be looking into their teachings on salvation, hell, the role of their priests and the Supremacy of the Pope as we go on with this teaching. It is our prayer that this series will be enlightening and helpful to you. Until next time may the LORD keep you is our prayer.

SALVATION CORNER

We have set aside this corner of THE TRUMPET to show God's Plan of Salvation. If you are unsure where you will go when you die, please listen to what God has said in His Word:

FIRST . . . GOD LOVES YOU!

"For God so loved the world that he gave His only Begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have Everlasting Life" Jn. 3:16

SECOND . . . MAN IS A SINNER, AND SIN HAS SEPARATED HIM FROM GOD!

"For there is not a just man upon Earth, that doeth good and sinneth not" Eccl. 7:20.

"For all have sinned and come short of the Glory of God" Rom. 3:23.

THIRD . . . JESUS CHRIST IS THE ONLY REMEDY FOR SIN!

"For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God . . ." I Pet. 3:18.

"Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under Heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved" Acts 4:12

FOURTH . . . YOU MUST RECEIVE JESUS CHRIST AS YOUR PERSONAL LORD AND SAVIOUR.

Jesus calls this experience the "new birth." He told Nicodemus: ". . . Except a man be born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God" Jn. 3:3.

We invite you now to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as your personal Saviour. "But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His Name" Jn. 1:12.

Pray this prayer and mean it with all of your heart:

Dear Lord Jesus, I now realize that I am a sinner. I accept the fact that You died for me on the rugged Cross of Calvary. I now open my heart's door and receive You as Saviour and Lord of my life. Please take Full control of me and help me to be the kind of Christian You want me to be. Amen.

If you prayed this prayer in all sincerity, you are now a Child of God. So that we might rejoice with you, we invite you to fill in the information below and mail it to the address on the back of this newsletter.

TODAY I ACCEPTED JESUS AS MY LORD AND SAVIOUR.

A Compromising Spirit

I heard a man of God say that every day of our lives we face compromise. I believe so many of God's children are not producing fruit in their lives because of the spirit of compromise. When I rededicated my life to the Lord and He filled me with His Holy Spirit, I had been living on my talent as a songwriter by writing songs of the world. Now I am writing only Christian songs because my life was changed, Praise God! No finances were coming in and I was crying out to the Lord. One day I received a telephone call from a major recording company saying, "Why don't you come and record with us?" I explained, "I am saved now and don't sing those songs anymore." The Producer said, "We know that, but you can put one Christian song on each secular album along with the secular songs." I had no money to help my children and the rent was due. I got down to pray, "Lord I know someone who is a Christian and she sings both Christian and secular songs. Why can't I? I need finances." I called her name and the Lord shut heaven up. I lost contact with the Lord. I knew what I had done. This was a Gethsemane time for me. "Betty Jean, are you going to trust your talent or Me?" I had to repent for bringing someone else's name and excuse into this "Gethsemane". There on my knees I cried out to the Lord, "Jesus, you've done so much for me, you've brought me out of darkness into your marvelous light!" I was willing to abandon the talent I had used for most of my life, singing and song writing. I lifted my hands to heaven and cried, "Lord, if I never sing again, I will serve you all the days of my life!" His presence came into that room and He said, "Child, you cannot go that way, you follow Me." I believe at that moment He blessed the gift and gave it to me with His blessed anointing. Friend, you will come to that place of compromise. If you truly let go of everything, all your dreams, talents or whatever stands between you and total surrender and say, "Lord, here am I, whatever you want of my life, I'm yours." You will be so glad because joy will fill your soul! And now God's children are facing a great spirit of compromise. It is an election year in America. Pray, Child of God. Are you on the Lord's side?

Be strong and of good courage, fear not, nor be afraid...for the Lord thy God. will not fail thee, nor forsake thee."-Deut. 31:6

Until next time, the Lord bless you,
His Handmaiden, Sister Betty Jean Robinson
