Vol. 15 No. 04

April 2011

After a hard winter we look forward to sun filled days. no matter the weather, Jesus can fill our lives with Sunshine, and Hope.

" Rain or Shine , anytime will be a sunny day...

If You Let The Son of GOD in to stay...

We serve a mighty GOD ,
If you Have a need ask him.

Matthew:21:22.

And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

He's ALIVE

And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead? He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee, Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

*And they remembered his words,
Luke 24:5-8*

THE OLD CANE-BOTTOMED CHAIR

As I grow older, memories seem to flow across my mind, and I have wondered, Lord, why do I know you when so many are lost? Oh, wonderful salvation! I remember a dream I had when I was 12 years old, in our little 3 room home in Kentucky, down by the creek. In my dream, there was a road before me and in a short distance it separated. One side went to the left and the other went to the right. A voice spoke to my heart and said, "Which road will you take?" One road led into the darkness, and the other led to a golden light, so warm and beautiful. And, I answered, "I will take the road to the golden light." When I was 13 years old, I walked the railroad track, barefoot, alone, to Sister Rice's house where the power of God was moving. I never knew the plan God had for my life. When the altar call was given, it seemed like a bright light covered over me, and in tears, I fell down at that old cane-bottomed chair that was the altar. I arose praising God. I went down the railroad tracks a poor, mountain girl, but I came back up the railroad tracks a child of the MOST HIGH GOD, poor no more and riches untold! Glory! There was no telephone and no set time when the saints, with their freshly ironed aprons on, would meet at Brother and Sister Lankford's little house to pray and testify. We sang, "He is mine, joy in my soul, peace in my mind, Jesus I know He is mine." We sang, "He sanctified my soul" (whatever happened to that beautiful word – "sanctified"?) "He gave me the Holy Ghost, Jesus I know He is mine." When we got to the verse, "I can feel Him now, Jesus I know He is mine," everyone was shouting and praising God. Before we would depart until the next day, we would sing, "Jesus I'm going through. I'll pay the price whatever others do; I'll take the way with the Lord's despised few." (I have heard it sung in this modern time, with the Lord's "happy few" because the "despised few" was negative.) Did Jesus not say in Luke 21:17, "And ye shall be hated of all men for My Name's sake"? Oh the influence of those old, sanctified saints lives on in my life. During our prayer time in the ministry, as we gather to pray for others, we will often recall our childhood years. Oh how the old saints loved us, and it seemed they were so near. Were they looking over the balconies of heaven? Are we fruits of their labors? Friends, Jesus is coming, and we will be gathered together again in that beautiful city. "I'd rather walk with Jesus alone, And have for my pillow like Jacob a stone, Living each moment with His face in view, Than to shrink from my pathway and fail to go through. Jesus I'm going through, I'll pay the price whatever others do; I'll take the way of the Lord's despised few; I started in Jesus and I'm going through." May the Lord bless you is my prayer! ## Cousin Leroy Stopping at the local diner after reading a sign advertising a "Unique Breakfast," Leroy asked the waitress what this was, and was told, "Baked chicken tongue." "That's disgusting, nasty & gross!" Leroy said. "I'd never eat something that came out of a chicken's mouth." "What would you like then?" the waitress asked. "Oh, just bring me some scrambled eggs," Leroy replied.

“How To Have Revival When Your Wood Is Wet”

1st Kings 18:19-24, 27-30, 36-39

Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel unto mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the groves four hundred, which eat at Jezebel's table. <sup>20</sup> So Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together unto mount Carmel. <sup>21</sup> And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word. <sup>22</sup> Then said Elijah unto the people, I, even I only, remain a prophet of the LORD; but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men. <sup>23</sup> Let them therefore give us two bullocks; and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under: and I will dress the other bullock, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under. <sup>24</sup> And call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the LORD: and the God that answereth by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered and said, It is well spoken. <sup>27</sup> And it came to pass at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry aloud: for he is a god; either he is talking, or he is pursuing, or he is in a journey, or peradventure he sleepeth, and must be awaked. <sup>28</sup> And they cried aloud, and cut themselves after their manner with knives and lancets, till the blood gushed out upon them. <sup>29</sup> And it came to pass, when midday was past, and they prophesied until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any that regarded. <sup>30</sup> And Elijah said unto all the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down. <sup>36</sup> And it came to pass at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and that I have done all these things at thy word. <sup>37</sup> Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that thou art the LORD God, and that thou hast turned their heart back again. <sup>38</sup> Then the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench. <sup>39</sup> And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, The LORD, he is the God; the LORD, he is the God.

<sup>2nd</sup> Chronicles 7:14 - If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

What is revival? Revival is not the fire falling. Revival is the result of preparation made by broken and contrite hearts that causes God to respond and send the fire. Revival is changed hearts and minds. God has chosen fire to be a symbol of His Presence. Fire destroys and fire refines. Fire led the children of Israel in the wilderness. Here fire consumes the sacrifice. When we desire revival then we desire for the fire to fall. Elijah called for a showdown with the religious order of the day. Elijah was driven with a passion to see his nation return to God and the contest on Mount Carmel is a biblical example for true Holy Ghost Revival. Step 1 - Prayer. The first is prayer, not the kind of prayer we often hear, but prayer that brought the people to their need. He prayed that it would not rain. The drought was to prepare the people to repent and to awaken their sleeping conscience through the door of human need. He prayed “earnestly”. Sometimes God has to get our attention in the natural world in order for us to listen in the spiritual world. Step 2 - Choose whom you will serve. There is no middle ground. Either Jesus or Satan. <sup>1st</sup> Kings 18:21 - And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word. Step 3 - Repair the altar. Elijah repaired the broken altar. <sup>1st</sup> Kings 18:30 - And Elijah said unto all the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down. Altars symbolize prayer, fellowship with God, dying to self, and yielding to the will of God. The fact that the altar was in a state of disrepair was a powerful symbol of just how far the people were from God. Step 4 - Remember. Elijah reminded them of who they were prophetically supposed to be. <sup>1st</sup> Kings 18:31 - And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, unto whom the word of the LORD came, saying, Israel shall be thy name: Step 5 - Prepare for a sacrifice. Elijah arranged the wood and the sacrifice. <sup>1st</sup> Kings 18:33 - And he put the wood in order, and cut the bullock in pieces, and laid him on the wood, and said, Fill four barrels with water, and pour it on the burnt sacrifice, and on the wood. Understand that revival comes from God but you and I have our part to do. We have to prepare the altar. Where there is no altar there will be no fire. Preparation is not an option. It is essential. Step 6 - Make it where God is the only one who can do it. Elijah drenched the altar with water. He made it impossible for a fire to light except it be God who did it. Nothing was going to happen except what God made happen. Water, in the Bible, is symbolic of the cleansing Word of God. Revival will not come without foundations built by God and a sacrifice drenched with the Word of God, no matter how difficult. We want the fire to fall. Step 7 - Watch God act. The fire came down. <sup>1st</sup> Kings 18:38 - Then the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench. Step 8 - Follow through. Sin was removed from the camp. <sup>1st</sup> Kings 18:40 - And Elijah said unto them, Take the prophets of Baal; let not one of them escape. And they took them: and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and slew them there. There was a dramatic result. The people forsook their sin. When revival falls upon us we will forsake sin too. All that Satan had built up was pulled down through one man who was committed to God. God has a destiny that he wants you to fulfill, but that destiny requires that you: 1. Leave the middle ground. Take a stand for Jesus. Confront the enemy. 2. Repair your broken altar. Make prayer and worship a priority in your life. Prepare your life for sacrifice. 3. Call upon God today. 4. Turn from sin. Repent of every known sin in your life. 5. Follow through so that the sin will not return again.

And in Hell He Lift Up His Eyes...

And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried; And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments... Luke 16:22

The passage of scripture above is taken from the story that Jesus told in one of his sermons in Luke the 16th chapter. Contrary to the belief of the Jehovah's Witness Church and other denominations THIS IS NOT a parable...this is a true account. Jesus never calls this a "parable" as a matter of fact in this story Jesus even tells us the name of the beggar...that alone is enough to let us know that this was a true story and not just a parable. In the 3 1/2 years of Jesus ministry he spoke about hell some 70 times...think about that...70 times, and that's just what we find recorded in scripture. That tells me that this was something that Jesus took very seriously and something that he wanted people to know the truth about. Yet you will be hard pressed to find very many preachers of our day preaching on this subject. You will not hear it preached in the "MEGA" churches across our country. As a matter of fact the pastor of the largest Charismatic church in our nation not long ago made the statement that he doesn't even preach on hell. Why? Are they afraid they will offend their crowd? Afraid they will scare some of them? Well my friend if you do not know Jesus Christ as your personal saviour...YOU SHOULD BE SCARED! Because the next breath you take may be your last and if you leave this life without knowing Jesus you will go to hell. This rich man that died lost and undone without God and was in hell over 2,000 years ago...is still in hell today...think about that. At least 2,000 years have come and gone and he is still in hell today! If you read the story you will find that there is no way out...hell is eternal. And once the rich man found out that none could come to him to comfort him and that none could come out he begged Abraham to send Lazarus the beggar to WARN his family not to come to this awful place! I believe with all my heart that there are millions of souls in the pit of the damned that cry out...PLEASE SOMEBODY GO AND WARN THEM NOT TO COME TO THIS AWFUL PLACE!! They cry out for you to share the gospel...they cry out for Pastors to warn them don't come to this awful place!! We have preachers standing in front of thousands...millions each Sunday and all they will tell them is "you can be rich"...."you can be the best you"....you can have YOUR BEST LIFE NOW! Never warning them of the damnation and torment to come if they do accept Jesus as LORD and Saviour. What a terrible thought, to be one of these preachers that will not preach the truth. For if they do not change they will indeed hear these cries for themselves as they stand in the midst of the eternal flames of hell as the lost claw at them with weeping and gnashing of teeth and cry...WHY DIDN'T YOU WARN ME...WHY DIDN'T YOU WARN MY FAMILY...I watched you every Sunday on television...I came to your church and you NEVER...NOT ONE TIME talked to me about this awful place!! Please church share the message of Jesus with someone today because for them tomorrow may be to late! Warn them of hell.....tell them of heaven! Let them know that there is only one way to get to Heaven and that is to accept Jesus Christ and his finished work on the Cross...in this life for in eternity it will be to late! I would like to offer once again a sermon that I preached some time ago called "A Cry From Hell"...you can have this sermon on CD or Cassette free of charge...order more than one...share it with your pastor...family and friends...I believe it will stir your soul. Until next time...Pastor Billy R. Douglas

"Everlasting Love"

The Lord hath appeared of old unto me, saying, yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love, therefore with loving kindness have I drawn thee. Jeremiah 31:3

A couple years ago one of our kids got into trouble and for some reason she got mad at our whole family. Her and her husband cut themselves completely off from everyone who loves them. They blamed everyone except themselves. And all we did was try to help them and show our love for them. When they shut us out of their lives it hurt us deeply. We may not agree with everything they do, but we will never stop loving them. I got to thinking how we do this very same thing to the Lord. When things happen we get mad at the Lord and everyone around us. And they haven't done anything. We quit praying, quit going to church, we shut the Lord and everyone else out. When we are the only one to blame. All the Lord wants to do is love and take care of us. I asked the Lord what I could do to make things better with our family. And he showed me JEREMIAH 31:3 THE LORD TOLD JEREMIAH HE HAD LOVED HIM WITH AN EVERLASTING LOVE, AND WITH LOVING KINDNESS HE HAD DRAWN HIM. So I made sure I showed them my love. Even though their actions had hurt us deeply, we put that behind us, it was more important to show them love and kindness than dwell on our pain. And before long things began to get better.. In Proverbs 10:12 It says hatred stirreth up strife, but love covereth all sins. Just as Gods love draws us to him, so will our love draw other people to us. ## REESIE'S RECIPES

Peppermint Patti Pie

- 8 large York peppermint patties, broken into quarters
- 1/4 cup milk
- 1 (8 ounce) container frozen whipped topping, thawed
- 1 Keebler chocolate wafer pie crust

Place peppermint patties in a microwave-safe bowl and add milk. Microwave on HIGH for 30-45 seconds. Stir until candy is melted and mixture is smooth. Cool 5 minutes. Fold in whipped topping. Spread into crust. Cover and place in freezer for at least an hour.

Bubble Pizza

- 1 pound ground beef
- 1/4 pound sliced pepperoni sausage
- 1 (14 ounce) can pizza sauce
- 2 (12 ounce) packages refrigerated buttermilk biscuit dough
- 1/2 onion, sliced and separated into rings
- 1 (10 ounce) can sliced black olives
- 1 (4.5 ounce) can sliced mushrooms
- 1 1/2 cups shredded mozzarella cheese
- 1 cup shredded Cheddar cheese

Preheat oven to 400 degrees. Grease a 9x13 inch baking dish. Place ground beef in a large, deep skillet. Cook over medium high heat until evenly brown. Stir in pepperoni, and cook until browned.

Drain excess fat. Stir in pizza sauce. Remove from heat, and set aside. Cut biscuits into quarters, and place in the bottom of baking dish.

Spread meat mixture evenly over the biscuits. Sprinkle top with onion, olives and mushrooms. Bake uncovered in preheated oven for 20 to 25 minutes. Sprinkle top with mozzarella and Cheddar cheese. Bake an additional 5 to 10 minutes, until cheese is melted. Let stand 10 minutes before serving.

Coconut Candy Bar Cake

- 14 squares Semi-Sweet Chocolate, divided
- 1/2 cup butter or margarine
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 eggs
- 1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla
- 1 2/3 cups flour, divided
- 3/4 teaspoon baking soda
- 1/8 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup water
- 1 (14 ounce) package flake Coconut
- 1 (14 ounce) can sweetened condensed milk
- 3/4 cup whipping cream

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Place 4 of the chocolate squares and 1/2 cup butter in large microwaveable bowl. Microwave 1 to 1-1/2 min. or until butter is melted. Stir until chocolate is completely melted. Blend in sugar. Add eggs, 1 at a time, beating on low speed after each addition until well blended. Add vanilla; mix well. Add 1/3 cup of the flour, the baking soda and salt; beat well. Add remaining 1-1/3 cups flour alternately with the water, mixing until well blended. Pour into greased and floured 13x9-inch baking pan. Bake 30 min. or until toothpick inserted in center comes out clean. Cool completely in pan on wire rack. Mix coconut and sweetened condensed milk until well blended; spread over cake. Microwave whipping cream and 2 Tbsp. butter in large microwaveable bowl 2 min.; stir. Microwave an additional 30 sec. or until mixture comes to boil. Add remaining 10 chocolate squares; stir until chocolate is completely melted. Cool until mixture is of desired spreading consistency, stirring frequently. Spread over cake. Let stand until chocolate layer is firm.

Cheesy Corn Casserole

- 1 (8 ounce) package cream cheese, softened
- 6 tablespoons butter, softened
- 1 (15.25 ounce) can whole kernel corn, drained
- 2 teaspoons chopped fresh chives
- 1/2 teaspoon onion salt

Preheat oven to 325 degrees. Grease a small baking dish. Blend together the cream cheese and butter in a mixing bowl. Gently fold in the corn, chives, and onion salt, and turn the mixture into the prepared baking dish. Bake in the preheated oven, uncovered, until heated through and bubbly, about 40 minutes. Stir the casserole after the first 20 minutes. Top with shredded cheddar cheese.

“THE WORD...THE WORD...THE WORD”

“Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.” Matthew 24:35 (KJV)

In The midst of all of this horror and terror we've been hearing about lately, comes a verse that serves as an anchor to the soul, and is so quickly passed over that most seem to not see it - for all of the horror that surrounds it. But, oh my friend, if we might grab hold of this verse on our way into sin; if we could grab hold of this verse in the midst of uncertain illness; if we could grab hold of this verse in the pale of our glory days and realize it's POWER and it's PROMISE - nothing would be able to cause us to stumble. Listen as I recite it to you today and drink it in my friend. Let me recite it one more time - can I?

“Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.” Mat 24:35 (KJV)

What are the Words that will not pass away? Words of Grace and Mercy.

Rom 3:23-26 "Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus."

What are the Words that will not pass away? Words of Peace and Comfort

2 Cor 1:3-5 "Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God." (vs 4)

What are the Words that will not pass away? Words of Restoration and Sanctification

1 Cor 6:8-11 "And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God." (vs 11)

What are the Words that will not pass away? Words of Promise and Hope

Ephesians 1:13,14; "In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: In whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory".

What are the Words that will not pass away? Words of Life not just in this world but in the next.

Hebrews 6:17-20 "Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which entereth into that within the veil;" (vs)19

Are you one who is numb this morning from the awesomeness of life's situations? Are you "...travailing in pangs waiting to be delivered;" yet it seems as though there is no comfort in sight? Are you lost in the hopelessness of an avalanche of bad things happening to a good person? I have good news for you today my friend.

then Nahash the Ammonite came up, and encamped against Jabesh-Gilead: and all the men of Jabesh said unto Nahash, Make a covenant with us, and we will serve you. And Nahash the Ammonite answered them, On this condition will I make a covenant with you, that I may thrust out all your right eyes, and lay it for a reproach upon all Israel (I Sam. 11:1-2).

We find here that Saul began well, but he did not conclude that way. I Samuel 12:12 states that it was anxiety because of the threatened Ammonite invasion that influenced the people to demand a king. Their conduct illustrates the unbelief and rebellion of man's heart. They would rather lean upon a king whom they could see, and who was mortal, than upon a King unseen and Almighty. When God did give them such a king as they desired, they despised him (I Sam. 10:27). When Satan, symbolized by Nahash the Ammonite, invaded Israel, the first reaction of God's People was to yield to the enemy, and, in fact, to serve him. Such characterizes far too many in the modern Church. They have made a covenant with Satan, which means they have compromised the Word of God, which means they have become slaves to the Evil One. Satan's demands are always more than one can afford to pay. There can be no covenant made with Satan, not in any form or fashion. As stated, the demands of the Evil One were harsh. He demanded that every fighting man in Israel put out his right eye. Why the right eye? The shield, as held by the soldier of those days, covered the body, the shoulders, and the face, except for the right eye. With his right eye, the soldier would look over the top of the shield, thereby seeing how to fight the enemy. If that eye is blinded, he could not see to fight; he was, therefore, rendered useless. This is why Nahash demanded the blindness of the right eye. If it is to be noticed, the modern Church accepts false doctrine readily, plus most anything else that Satan has to offer. The reason? It has made a covenant with the Evil One, and the price is the blindness of the right eye, spiritually speaking; now they cannot see what is right or what is wrong. As stated, no covenant can be made with Satan—not of any nature. And let it be understood: If we make anything the object of our faith other than Christ and His Cross, we are, in effect, whether we realize it or not, making a covenant with Satan.

SALVATION CORNER

We have set aside this corner of THE TRUMPET to show God's Plan of Salvation. If you are unsure where you will go when you die, please listen to what God has said in His Word:

FIRST . . . GOD LOVES YOU! "For God so loved the world that he gave His only Begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have Everlasting Life" Jn. 3:16

SECOND . . . MAN IS A SINNER, AND SIN HAS SEPARATED HIM FROM GOD! "For there is not a just man upon Earth, that doeth good and sinneth not" Eccl. 7:20. "For all have sinned and come short of the Glory of God" Rom. 3:23.

THIRD . . . JESUS CHRIST IS THE ONLY REMEDY FOR SIN! "For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God . . ." I Pet. 3:18 "Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under Heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved" Acts 4:12

FOURTH . . . YOU MUST RECEIVE JESUS CHRIST AS YOUR PERSONAL LORD AND SAVIOUR. Jesus calls this experience the "new birth." He told Nicodemus: ". . . Except a man be born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God" Jn. 3:3.

We invite you now to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as your personal Saviour. "But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His Name" Jn. 1:12.

Pray this prayer and mean it with all of your heart: Dear Lord Jesus, I now realize that I am a sinner. I accept the fact that You died for me on the rugged Cross of Calvary. I now open my heart's door and receive You as Saviour and Lord of my life. Please take Full control of me and help me to be the kind of Christian You want me to be. Amen.

If you prayed this prayer in all sincerity, you are now a Child of God! So that we might rejoice with you, please write, call or email us today and we will send you some material to help you with your new walk with the LORD!
