The Resurrection

Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them. And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre. And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus. And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments: And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead? He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee, Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again. And they remembered his words,

Luke 24:1-8

He's Alive Again

He's Alive Again
The Stones Been Rolled Away
He's Alive Again
He's No Longer In the Grave
He's Alive Again
I Can Hear The Angels Say
Let All The World Rejoice
HE'S ALIVE

Cousin Leroy

Leroy was getting ready to go to work one morning as he and the wife were standing in the door before he left for work they saw the neighbors across the street. Buford was also leaving for work but as he was leaving he took his wife in his arms and gave her a big long kiss. Leroy's wife saw this and asked Leroy, Why don't you do that? Leroy stood there for a minute then replied. I hardly know the lady.

The Visit

The little boy greeted his grandmother with a hug and said, "I'm so happy to see you grandma. Now maybe daddy will do the trick he has been promising us." The grandmother was curious. "What trick is that my dear?" she asked. The little boy replied, "I heard daddy tell mommy that he would climb the walls if you came to visit us again."

The Mail

As the post master handed Carol her mail she said "This empty envelope must be from my sister Charlotte." "Now why would she send you an empty envelope?" replied the post master "Because we had an argument, and she's not talking to me." said Carol

Two Hats

In one small rural town the sheriff also fulfilled the role of the town's veterinarian. One night the phone rang, and his wife answered. An agitated voice inquired, "Is your husband there?" "He is, but tell me, do you need him as the sheriff or the vet?" the wife asked. "Both!" was the reply. "We can't get our dog's mouth open, and there's a burglar in it!"

Behold I Come Quickly

The young minister was in the middle of his sermon when his mind went blank. He was trying to quote a scripture from Revelation but the only part he could remember was "BEHOLD I COME QUICKLY". Then he remembered something that one of his professors taught him in college. If you get stuck just repeat the same line until you remember where you were at. So once again he said BEHOLD I COME QUICKLY...still nothing. So one more time he said BEHOLD I COME QUICKLY! About that time he tripped stumbled off of the platform and fell into the front row into the lap of one of the elderly sisters in the church. The minister embarrassed said "Oh please forgive me sister". To which the dear lady replied "It's not your fault Pastor. You warned me several times that you were headed this way."

Another Gospel

But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. Galatians 1:8

This month we continue looking at the false doctrines and teachings of the Catholic church. Once again we will be taking the actual teachings from the Catholic Catechism which is the document laying out the doctrines of this church and comparing them to what the Word of God says.

“Mary Mother of God”? Part 2

The Catholic Catechism teaches the following...“the Immaculate Virgin, preserved free from all stain of original sin, when the course of her earthly life was finished, was taken up body and soul into heavenly glory, and exalted by the Lord as Queen over all things, so that she might be the more fully conformed to her Son...In giving birth you kept your virginity... You conceived the living God and, by your prayers, will deliver our souls from death”. Again this shows the false teaching that Mary is somehow part of the plan of salvation and that somehow “her prayers” can deliver us. There is not one single scripture in the Word of God that even hints that this would be true. “Queen over all things”? “fully conformed to her son”? “her prayers will deliver our souls from death”? Absolutely none of these claims can be backed up with the Holy Scriptures...as a matter of fact they go against what the Scriptures teach! Jesus plainly told his disciples with no room for doubt that he is the ONLY WAY...the ONLY TRUTH...and the ONLY LIFE. And as for Mary’s prayers for us....the Bible teaches in Hebrews 7:25 Wherefore he is able (Jesus) also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. None of the writers of the Bible ever spoke of Mary as deity. NONE of them. The Catholic Catechism goes on to teach “... Taken up to heaven she did not lay aside this saving office but by her manifold intercession continues to bring us gifts of eternal salvation. ... Therefore the Blessed Virgin is invoked in the Church under the titles of Advocate, Helper, Benefactress, and Mediatrix.” None of this is Biblical. Not only does the Catholic Catechism teach that “Mary prays for us” BUT that we should also pray to Mary...“The Church’s devotion to the Blessed Virgin is intrinsic to Christian worship.” The Church rightly honours “the Blessed Virgin with special devotion. ...” The liturgical feasts dedicated to the Mother of God and Marian prayer, such as the rosary, an “epitome of the whole Gospel,” express this devotion to the Virgin Mary.” Once again there is no proof of this to be found in the Word of God. To teach that Mary is the “mother of God” and that prayers should be made to her while counting the beads of a Rosary is completely unbiblical. The Bible teaches from beginning to end that God the Father sent his Son Jesus to be the ultimate sacrifice and the ONLY WAY to Heaven. Jesus is... the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. John 1:29. Jesus is the way, the truth, and the life: John 14:6. Jesus is the one mediator between God and men...1 Timothy 2:5. Jesus is the only name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. Acts 4:12. Mary was indeed blessed and highly favoured to be the vessel chosen to birth our Saviour. We are grateful for her obedience and sacrifice...that being said, Mary herself would have went to hell had it not been for the shed blood of Jesus on the cross of Calvary. The Bible does not teach that she is deity or has any power to answer prayer or to somehow save a sinner. For a religion or a church to teach such a thing is heresy and certainly NOT the Gospel of the Bible. Next month we will continue our series and take an even deeper look at the false teachings of the Catholic Church. In the upcoming articles we will be looking at their teaching on salvation through the church, baptism and works. Purgatory, hell, prayers for the dead and more. It is our prayer that this series will be enlightening and helpful to you. Until next time may the LORD keep you is our prayer.

Grace For Grace (part 02)

Evangelist Mike Heltsley

1st Peter 5:10 - But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. And 2nd Peter 3:18 says we are to grow in Grace. With those things for an introduction, let's look at what Grace is able to do: 1 - GRACE IS ENOUGH TO SAVE ANY SINNER Titus 3:5-7 - Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; 6 Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour; 7 That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. It will reach all, from the best to the worst. Jesus said, I will in no wise cast you out. It was enough for me and it was enough for you. It was enough for the woman at the well. It was enough for the woman found in adultery. It was enough for Saul the Christian killer. It was enough for Peter the cussing fisherman. It was enough for Zacheaus the I.R.S. man. It was enough for the wicked jailer. It is enough for the poorest man on the earth, The richest man, The most intelligent, The most simple minded, The most powerful, The most famous, And the most wicked, vile, person on death row. His Grace is enough for anybody that will come to Him in faith, believing. It's enough. I am so glad that God saves ole sinners. I'm thrilled and amazed that He sets them free, The biggest surprise in saving ole sinners, Is that He would save an ole sinner like me. It's because His Grace is enough. Don't give up on that lost loved one, His Grace is enough. Don't think He will give up on you, His Grace is enough. 2 - GRACE IS ENOUGH TO KEEP ALL THAT EVER WERE SAVED Jude 1:24 - Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, We have eternal salvation. Not because we deserve it or because we earned it, but because of God's Grace. I don't understand it, but I know His Grace is enough. We have everlasting Life. You can't wear it out, your sin can't wear it out, it's everlasting because of God's Grace. Jesus said in John 10:27-29 - My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: 28 And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. 29 My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. ROMANS 8:31-39 - What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? 32 He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? 33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth. 34 Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us. 35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? 36 As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. 37 Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. 38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, 39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. Eternal means eternal Everlasting means everlasting Never perish means never perish Freely give means freely give God's Grace is enough to keep all that are saved. 3 - GRACE IS ENOUGH TO LIFT ANY MAN THAT IS FALLEN I wish we never failed. I wish all of us always did what pleased the Lord and there was never any reason to regret. I believe that it is the will of God that we do right and never fail, but we do fail, and Grace heaped upon Grace is enough to lift us from our failure. Hebrews 4:15-16 - For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. 16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need. In the story of the prodigal son we find that he started out a son, was a son even while we was away in sin, and ended up a son. How could that be? Grace heaped upon Grace. Grace made him a son, Grace kept him a son, and Grace lifted him up. It matters not how far you have fallen, Grace heaped upon Grace is enough to lift you up. Too many of us are like to older brother and want God's Grace to be selective. But thank God it's for ALL. It is enough to lift ANY that are fallen. Don't let the Devil keep you in the hog pen, come to the Father, He has Grace heaped upon Grace for you. It's enough, it's all you need. That fallen boy could never understand that new robe that was put over his sin ravaged body, but his father whispered, its Grace heaped upon Grace. He could never understand that ring that was put on his dirty finger, but his father whispered, its Grace heaped upon Grace. He could never understand the fatted calf and the party to welcome him home, but his father whispered, its Grace heaped upon Grace. Don't listen to the screams of the Devil, listen to the whisper of the Father. Don't listen to the screams of the brother, listen to the whisper of the Father. His Grace heaped upon Grace will lift you out of whatever your circumstance may be. It's enough. Until next time, let your light shine for Jesus! Evangelist Mike Heltsley

What Can the Righteous Do?

Pastor Steven Huston

Psalms 11:2-3 "For, lo, the wicked bend their bow, they make ready their arrow upon the string, that they may privily shoot at the upright in heart. If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?"

What a day we live in. As Americans we see how the wicked have bent their bow to shoot their arrows at the upright in heart by attacking the foundations of the Church (the Body of Christ), the church (religious institutions), the Constitution (the law of the land that protects our freedoms, including our religious liberties), our society (particularly the family, which is the God-chosen building block of it), and the list goes on; we find that we live in an ever-present question mark. That ever-present question mark is also ever-changing in many aspects; yet it remains, at its simplest, the same: "What can the righteous do if these foundations be destroyed?" As usual, the answer is simple, though hardly ever easy. When we recognize that God is ever-present and never-changing; His desire, expectations, and commands for us remain the same; and we remember that the greatest commands to love the Lord our God with all that we are and our neighbor as ourselves haven't changed; we KNOW what the righteous are to do. We are to continue walking in the sanctifying power of the Holy Spirit, regardless of what the enemy does. We are to continue growing in grace, being rooted and built up in Jesus. No matter how hard angry progressive thought assails against God's Word or His people, we are to continue living, walking, and talking in the way of holiness. The Left may destroy the foundations; but they cannot destroy what is right. God continues to say, "Be ye holy; for I am holy;" and He continues to make the paths of the righteous straight. That's simple, right? Although it's not so easy as we find ourselves facing our own fiery furnace or lion's den. But then again, how does one threaten a man with heaven? What can the righteous do? They can continue believing, proclaiming, and living the holy life to which they are called. They can recognize that the same God who brought Israel out of Egypt or pulled Peter out of prison or held the soul of the faithful who were sawn asunder is the same God we serve today. He is faithful and He will keep the righteous in life and in death. Remembering that all which assails us is Father-filtered, we recall the words of Spurgeon to mind, "A dauntless faith in God brushes fear aside like the cobwebs in a giant's path. No man can harm us unless the Lord permits. He who makes the devil himself to flee at a word, can certainly control the devil's agents. Maybe they are already more afraid of you than you are of them. Therefore, go forward, and where you looked to meet with foes you will find friends."

Listening To God

A former park ranger at Yellowstone National Park tells the story of a ranger leading a group of hikers to a fire lookout. The ranger was so intent on telling the hikers about the flowers and animals that he considered the messages on his two-way radio distracting, so he switched it off. Nearing the tower, the ranger was met by a nearly breathless lookout, who asked why he hadn't responded to the messages on his radio. A grizzly bear had been seen stalking the group, and the authorities were trying to warn them of the danger. Any time we tune out the messages God has sent us, we put at peril not only ourselves, but also those around us. How important it is that we never turn off God's saving communication!

Harold M. Wiest

I have refrained my feet from every evil way, that I might keep thy word. I have not departed from thy judgments: for thou hast taught me. How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth! Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way. Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path. Psalms 119:101-105

Reach Out And Touch The LORD

George Whitten

And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any, Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanch'd. And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me? And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that virtue is gone out of me. And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately. Luke 8:43-47

Isn't it interesting that of the multitudes thronging and pressing toward Jesus, only one really touched Him? What made Jesus notice her among all the rest? This woman was desperate. She had reached the end of her rope. She had probably spent all her money visiting every doctor she could find and done all she could do to help herself in the natural realm. I think she finally realized that what she truly needed was a touch from the Lord. The word "power" in this passage, in Greek, is "dunamis". Dunamis is the word from which the word dynamite is derived. As she reached for Him, dynamite power flowed out of the Lord and radically healed and changed her! Somehow, the world has us convinced that the solution to all our problems come from it! We tend to look to people and material things to satisfy our earthly desires instead of looking to the Lord! Do you need a touch from the Lord today? How much are you longing for Him? Let's abandon the ways we've been reaching out to the world for strength -- and determine to reach out to the Lord in faith and believe!

Hudson Taylor's Providential Career

The providences of God are marvelously displayed in the life of J. Hudson Taylor, who by prayer founded the China Inland Mission. Hudson Taylor said, "Prayer is sober, matter-of-fact transacting business for God." This is seen in Taylor's life in numerous cases; perhaps most strangely, however, in his call to be a missionary. J. Hudson Taylor's father was an evangelist, who felt a call to China; but he was unable to go. He and his wife dedicated their son, J. Hudson Taylor, to God before birth. When son Hudson was born, the evangelist and his wife asked God to take this offering as a sacrifice in place of their not being able to go to China. Hudson Taylor was a strange, wild, unconverted young man; one day he went into his grandfather's library and picked up a tract entitled, The Finished Work of Christ. Hudson felt the stir of conviction as he read that little booklet. Falling on his knees he dedicated himself to Christ. God accepted the offering of his life and from that time on, Taylor's career was China-ward. When Hudson Taylor told his mother of his conversion, he was surprised to learn that though she was some twenty miles away, at the very instant when he was converted, she was on her knees praying for her son's salvation and feeling assurance that God had heard.

There Is Peace In The Midst Of The Storm

Pastor Mike Vaughn

"And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful."
Colossians 3:15

Those in the mid-west have to deal with tornadoes. Those up north have to deal with cold, harsh winter storms. Here along the Gulf coast we have hurricanes. One thing that I learned as a child is that in the center of the worst hurricane, there's a calm called the "eye" of the storm. Perhaps your going through a spiritual storm. My friend, there is a calm in the center of your storm. It's called the heart of God. He is near. He is the "I AM" in the midst of your storm. I'm reminded of the words of a song that say's " there is peace in the time of trouble, there is peace in the midst of the storm, there is peace tho the world be raging, in the shelter of His arms." When your going through a storm remember, it will pass. Rest in His peace. It's a supernatural peace. The world can't give it and the world can't take it away.

You are loved with an everlasting Love, Mike

In The Shelter Of His Arms

When my soul was disturbed with sorrow When My heart was burdened with sin
Jesus opened His arms of mercy And tenderly took me in

There is peace in the time of trouble There is peace in the midst of the storm
There is peace though the world be raging In the shelter of His arms

There are storms that we all encounter Do not fear they will do you no harm
In the Lord you will find protection In the shelter of His arms

There is peace in the time of trouble There is peace in the midst of the storm
There is peace though the world be raging In the shelter of His arms

A Word for TODAY!

By Sister Michelle Deuling

Verse for Today: Matthew 25:14-30 Additional passages for Today: Luke 19:12-27; Luke 16:10

Thought for Today: Excuses convict more than help. Excuses often causes more anger or hurt.

Story for Today: Amanda found the seed packets and all the necessities to get the girls started on their very own flower garden. The triplets, her granddaughters, had just turned 10 years old and their mom had been looking for extra projects that would help them learn life skills. Amanda was thrilled with everything she had found. Some of the seeds took more care than the others; but, that would be good to teach other lessons. Samantha was a life long friend of Amanda's. The two came up with this plan after Samantha shared about the need for flowers for the special community festival that would be happening toward the end of summer. Amanda could envision the girls selling their flowers to make the money to buy more seeds and still have extra spending money to really teach a good lesson. Cassandra thought her mom's idea was excellent and she began making preparation to teach a unit on Botany. Floriculture, specifically, as this would teach everything they needed to know about how to care for the flowers. Sophia, Isabella, and Charlotte thought the idea was very exciting. They all did well with their studies and learned a lot about the different kinds of flowers that their grandma had shown them. On the day of their final lesson, their grandma brought the seeds to give the girls. To Sophia she gave seeds for lilies, daisies, lilacs, lily of the valley, and orchids. To Isabella she gave carnations and sunflowers. The pansies were given to Charlotte. Each of the girls were given the location and tools needed to start their garden and instructions for their specific seeds. Sophia and Isabella went right to work preparing the soil and putting into practice all the lessons they just completed. If they had questions they went to their mom and she was happy to help them. Charlotte wasn't as excited about the project as her sisters were. She didn't want to let her grandma down and be a disappointment. She took the packet of seeds to her room and sat them on her desk. If she planted them in the wrong soil, they could die. If she didn't have them in the right location, they may not do well. If she didn't water them right they could have too much water or not enough. Maybe it would be best to just keep the seeds and sell them at the festival. They were given to her to care for as she thought best. Day after day the girls spent time on their gardens, at least Sophia and Isabella did. It wasn't long until the girls found little green shoots coming from the ground. Sophia was amazed at the growth and commented that some days it almost seemed like you could see them growing right before your very eyes. When the first buds started opening, Isabella was the first to race to the house to tell her mom. The wonder of God's creation was written all over the little girl's face. The day that Grandma Amanda pulled into the driveway to see the progress, two of the girls were very excited. Charlotte hung back trailing behind them. Amanda's heart soared as she saw the beautiful work that Sophia had accomplished. The lilies and daisies, lilacs and lily of the valley were beautiful and the orchids looked to be growing quite well! It was obvious that Sophia had spent many hours tending to the garden and had given these flowers great attention. All Amanda could think to say was, "WELL DONE!" Next they headed over to where Amanda could already see the beautiful sunflowers dancing in the breeze. The carnations were plenteous and also doing extremely well. Again, Amanda said, "WELL DONE!" and Isabella beamed with gratefulness. Charlotte wasn't as anxious to go to her plot, but, go they must. Upon arrival, Charlotte turned to her grandmother. "Grandmother, I didn't want to disappoint you by killing the seeds. I know they are precious to you and that the money from the sale is important." And with that she pulled the packet of seeds out of her pocket and gave them to her grandmother. Amanda was appalled. This granddaughter had done nothing with the gift she had been given. She had not put into practice any of the lessons she had learned from class. Looking at her, with sorrow and anger in her eyes she responded, "You knew what was needed, if you wouldn't do it, the least you could have done was to give them to your sister so she could care for them." With that she turned her back to Charlotte and gave the bag of seeds to Sophia asking her to plant them.

Questions for Today: What gift has God blessed you with? Are you using it for him? Will He say, "Well done"?

Prayer for Today: Thank you Heavenly Father for the blessings and talents you have given to each of us. Please help us to be faithful and pleasing in our use of them for your glory. In Jesus' Name we pray, AMEN!

Sermons on CD on the subject of Hell

Sadly there are many religions today that teach that Hell does not exist or that Hell is not an eternal place of torment. The Bible is very clear that not only does Hell exist but yes it is an eternal place of torment that awaits all who reject Jesus Christ as LORD & Saviour. In these sermons we take a look at this place called Hell as it is taught in the Word of God. The lost need to hear about Hell because they are one breath away, one heart beat away from going there for eternity. The saved need to hear about Hell because we should never lose sight of the fact that it is our responsibility to warn the lost of this awful place and to tell them about Jesus before it is to late.

A Cry From Hell (05/10/09) - Hell is Real (07/16/10) -The Torments of Hell (08/23/15) - Hells Burden (04/101/6)
Hell - The Real House of Horrors (10/28/18) - Four Lies About Hell (06/02/19)

This is not a "sermon series" but rather some of the sermons that we have preached on the subject of Hell over the years. Sermons are Free upon request...all love gifts to help cover costs are appreciated.

God's Simple Plan of Salvation

My Friend: we are about to ask you the most important question of your life. Your joy or your sorrow for all eternity depends upon your answer. The question is: Are you saved? Do you know Jesus Christ as your personal LORD and Saviour? It is not a question of how good you are, nor if you are a church member, but have you put your faith in Jesus? Are you sure you will go to Heaven when you die? The Bible makes the plan of salvation plain and simple. Romans 10:13 says For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. Call on Jesus today. Put your faith and trust in him and ask him to forgive you of your sins and to be your LORD and savior and you will be born again...SAVED!! Do this today, tomorrow may be too late! Please write or call us if you have made the decision to accept Jesus.
