20/20 Vision, Walkin' Around Blind

Many years ago I heard an old Bluegrass song by the title, "20/20 Vision, Walkin' Around Blind." Today we live in a world of blindness as never before. People have a vision for popularity, vision for success in business for monetary gain, even to the point of setting their own goals. They have great "20/20 Vision" for their own flesh, yet they are "Walkin' Around Blind." They make great preparation for this physical life, although there is no thought of the next life, which is eternal. They are blind to the truth. Even Jesus said to the religious, "ye blind guides" (Matthew 23). There are blind guides in high places in our Nation. They are leading multitudes who have "20/20 Vision, Walkin' Around Blind." A man of God once said, "rejected light blinds." Because the truth has been rejected, blindness has entered even into the "church world." Instead of taking up our cross, we take up self-esteem, self love, and "how to be happy." It's all about acceptance in this life. There are thousands of books and tapes about "self," but very few about "dying to self." The Word of God tells us, "Seek the Lord while He may be found and call upon Him while He is near." Darkness and gross darkness is upon our Nation. Come to Jesus! He said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life." "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." Refuse to be one of those with "20/20 Vision, Walkin' Around Blind."

Until next time, His Handmaiden,

Sister Betty Jean Robinson

And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. John 3:19

"Bread Crumbs"

Praise is what occurs when we thank God for what He has done in our past, what He is doing right now in our present and what He is about to do in our future. Praise is always comely and right. God is always deserving of our praise. We are to enter into His courts with Praise! We come into His presence with thankfulness. However, worship occurs when we acknowledge God for who He is. When we state, "God, you are God, creator of the universe, the sea and sky and all that in them is." We are to give Him glory for who He is just because He is the one true living God. God is not on an ego trip. He does not need to hear from His highest creation in order to make His day. Nevertheless, there should never be a day where we fail to acknowledge Him as the God who controls all, holds all, and maintains all. And there should never be a day where we fail to praise Him for His marvelous acts of kindness, mercy, and grace which He bestows on all those who call on His name.

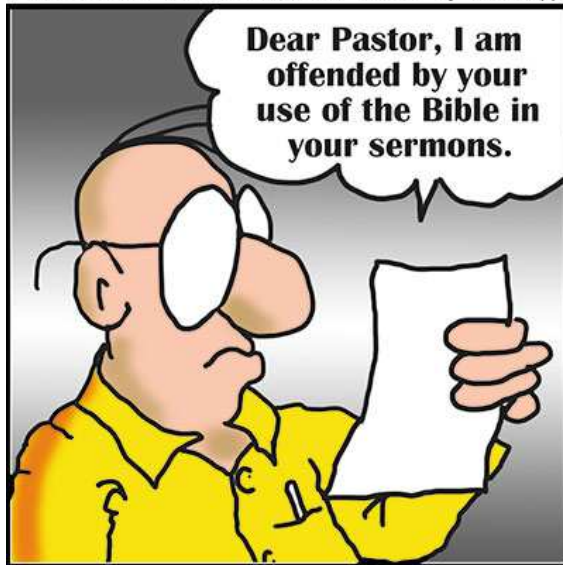

Psalm 34:1 - I will bless the LORD at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

His Voice

And they straightway left their nets, and followed him.
Matthew 4:20

They immediately left their nets. How often do we immediately do what God is asking of us? How often do we say Do you really mean that, God, or Do I have to do it now? We need to get into the habit of saying, Yes Lord, and immediately doing what he wishes. Just think what this world could be if every Christian, IMMEDIATELY, responded to the Lord's commands. Just think about the number of people who would be reached and brought into the Kingdom. I remember a lady telling about how one night the Lord told her to go to a certain house RIGHT THEN, she called a couple of ladies from church to go with her. When they got there she told one of the ladies to go up and knock on the door, the lady replied, the Lord told you to come here, you knock, so she did, and the man that lived in the house had tied up his wife and kids and was about to shoot them, and then himself, but because this lady went when the Lord told her, he intervened, now had she not went, these peoples blood could very well been on her hands. It's so important to be obedient to the Lord. Resolve that from this day forward you will respond to God's Words to you. Resolve that you will listen for and hear his voice clearly. That you will learn to recognize his voice, so you too can respond IMMEDIATELY... Sister Nancy Willis

CHURCH OF THE COVERED DISH by Thom TappCousin Leroy

Leroy and the misses happily married life almost went on the rocks because of the presence in their household of old Aunt Gertrude. For seventeen long years she lived with them, always crotchety, always demanding. Eventually, the old girl passed away. On the way back from the cemetery, Leroy confesses to his wife, "Darlin, if I didn't love you so much, I don't think I would of have put up with having your Aunt Gertrude in our house all those years!" His wife looked at him shocked. "Huh? My Aunt Gertrude!?" she cried. "I thought she was *your* Aunt Gertrude!"

At My Age

I've sure gotten old. Said one grandpa to the other. I've had 2 By-pass surgeries. A hip replacement, new knees. I'm half blind, can't hear anything, take 40 different medications that make me dizzy, winded, and have black-outs. I can't remember where I'm at half the time. Have poor circulation, hardly feel my hands and feet anymore. Can't remember if I'm 85 or 92. Have lost all my friends. But...Thank goodness, I still have my driver's license!

A merry heart doeth good like a medicine: but a broken spirit drieth the bones. Proverbs 17:22

Go!!

A minister was forced to stop by a traffic cop to pull over for speeding. As the cop was about to write the ticket, the minister said to him, "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy." The cop handed the minister the ticket and said, "Go thou and sin no more."

The Cross-eyed Dog

A man takes his Rottweiler to the vet. 'My dog's cross-eyed, is there anything you can do for him?' 'Well,' says the vet, 'let's have a look at him.' So he picks the dog up and examines his eyes, then checks his teeth. Finally, he says 'I'm going to have to put him down.' What? Because he's cross-eyed?' 'No, because he's heavy.'

Up Up and Away

A passenger in a two-seater airplane was far up in the sky when the pilot began to laugh hysterically. Passenger: "What's the joke?" Pilot: "I'm thinking of what they'll say at the asylum when they find out I've escaped."

Famous Last Words

"Are you sure the power is off?"

"He's probably just hibernating."

"I can do that with my eyes closed."

"I wonder where the mother bear is?"

"I'll get a world record for this."

"I'll hold it and you light the fuse."

"Trust me, I know what I'm doing"

"I'm making a citizen's arrest."

"It's fireproof."

"It's strong enough for both of us."

"I've done this before."

"I've seen this done on TV."

"Let it down slowly."

"Nice doggie."

"Now watch this..."

"Pull the pin and count to what?"

"That's odd..."

"This doesn't taste right."

"What does this button do?"

"Which wire was I supposed to cut?"

Enemies Of The Truth

Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

Galatians 4:16

In the above passage of scripture the Apostle Paul was writing to the church in Galatia, a people who at one time he proclaims in his own words would have plucked out their own eyes to give to him if needed. But now...because of false doctrine and the false teachers that they were giving heed to they treated him not as a they had before BUT as an enemy because of the truth that he taught. These are the same people who he called "foolish" and asked them the question "Who hath bewitched you that you should not obey the truth?". They were turning away from the truth that they had once known and were accepting "another gospel" a false gospel. Sadly that is exactly what we see with the seeker friendly church movement of today. So many people have been so indoctrinated with the "judge not...your ok I'm ok...only God can judge me" foolishness that when one dares to preach the truth of the Word of God it is as though they are treated as not a friend...but an enemy! Trust me this preacher knows what he is talking about because I have not only seen it I have experienced it personally. The smiling, fancy dressed preacher who stands before the masses each Sunday morning in his mega church has made it so that if you present anything else you are condemned by most of the church for doing so. Yet when we look into the Word of God at those who carried the Gospel...those who preached HIS WORD we find that those men would also be rejected because they would not have "fit in" with the popular crowd that we see today. John the Baptist's message from the wilderness was not, "Smile, God loves you." It was "O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come." Jeremiah was not put into a miry pit for preaching, "I'm OK, you're OK." It was for crying against the adultery, idolatry and other wickedness of his nation. Noah's message from the steps of the ark was not, "Something good is going to happen to you." He condemned the world and was a preacher of righteousness. Our LORD and Saviour Jesus Christ was not crucified for saying, "Consider the lilies, how they grow," but for saying, "Woe unto you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, children of the DEVIL, fools and blind guides, whited sepulchers, generation of vipers." I once read of a man with an axe who was attacked by a vicious dog, and in defending himself had to kill the animal. The owner was furious and asked the man how he dared kill his dog. The man replied that if he had not killed it, the dog would have torn him to pieces. "Well," said the owner, "why did you hit with the blade? Why didn't you just hit it with the handle?" "I would have," replied the man, "if it had tried to bite me with its tail." When dealing with sin, some people say, "Why don't you go about it more diplomatically? Why don't you choose less offensive words to describe it?" The simple answer is, "Sin kills, steals and destroys everything in its path and it cannot be fought off with a marshmallow and a cotton ball! Yes we must preach the Truth in love but the fact of matter is that it takes much more love to tell you the truth knowing that it might offend than it does to pet your flesh in an effort to sooth your conscious. LORD send us more men and women who will stand for the truth regardless of how popular it makes them...men and women who are seekers of YOU more than they are seekers of mans approval! Until next time Pastor Billy R Douglas

Whose Side Is God On?

During the US civil war Abraham Lincoln met with a group of ministers for a prayer breakfast. Lincoln was a man of deep, if at times unorthodox, faith. At one point one of the ministers said, "Mr President, let us pray that God is on our side". Lincoln's response showed far greater insight, "No, gentlemen, let us pray that we are on God's side." Lincoln reminded those ministers that religion is not a tool by which we get God to do what we want but an invitation to open ourselves to being and doing what God wants.

If it had not been the LORD who was on our side, when men rose up against us: Then they had swallowed us up quick, when their wrath was kindled against us: Psalms 124:2-3

REESIE'S RECIPES

Banana Pudding

by Bea Dame

- 1 large box instant vanilla pudding
- 1 can eagle brand milk
- 1 bowl of Cool Whip
- 4 bananas
- vanilla wafers

Make pudding as directed on box. Whip and then add eagle brand milk and 1/2 of cool whip. Layer wafers, bananas and pudding mixture. Cover with remaining cool whip. Sprinkle with vanilla wafers.

Onion Cheesy Taters

- 5 lb. bag red potatoes
- 1 pkg. Lipton onion soup mix
- 2 sticks butter, melted
- 8 oz. bag Velveeta shredded cheese
- 6 to 8 slices crisp crumbled bacon, optional

Cut potatoes in chunks leaving skin on. Put potatoes in a deep pan. Mix dry soup mix into melted butter and pour over potatoes, stir to coat well. Sprinkle with cheese and bacon. Bake on 425 for 20 minutes.

Chocolate Peanut Butter Eclair Cake

- 1 box chocolate graham crackers
- 2 (3 1/4-ounce) boxes vanilla instant pudding
- 1 cup peanut butter
- 3 1/2 cups milk
- 1 (8-ounce) container Cool Whip, thawed
- 1 can chocolate frosting

Spray the bottom of a 9x13 pan with cooking spray. Line the bottom of the pan with whole graham crackers. In bowl of an electric mixer, mix pudding with milk and peanut butter; beat at medium speed for 2 minutes. Fold in whipped topping. Pour half the pudding mixture over graham crackers. Place another layer of whole graham crackers on top of pudding layer. Pour over remaining half of pudding mixture and cover with another layer of graham crackers. Heat the container of prepared frosting, uncovered in the microwave for 1 minute. Pour over the top of the cake. Refrigerate for at least 12 hours before serving.

Pork Chop Casserole

- 1/2 of 5 lb. Bag of potatoes
- 3/4 cup milk
- 1/2 onion
- Shredded cheese
- 3 to 4 pork chops

In a baking dish peel and slice potatoes to fill the bottom of the pan. Dice onion on top of potatoes. Add milk to cover potatoes. Bake at 350 for 20 minutes. Remove from oven and add pork chops to top of potatoes. Bake for 45 minutes. Remove from oven cover with shredded cheese and bake once more until cheese is melted.

We Need the Fire Today!

A fire must be kindled, tended, and stirred! If you're camping you can't just say, "I want a fire and desire to be warmed." You need to gather wood, you need to start (kindle) the fire and you must tend it or it'll go out. You must stir that fire from time so it'll flare and warm. The same is spiritually true. If you are not getting blessed, if your prayer isn't resulting in fire, maybe your wood is wet. Our fires can get smothered by hanging around the wrong crowd, your wood can get wet from the music you listen to, the books you read, even the messages you listen to if you aren't hearing truth! What else can get your wood wet and your fire smothered? The Devil uses the fire extinguishers of gossip, hate, envy, anger and strife to put out God's fire. But let's not stop there; Satan desires to wet your wood until it won't kindle a fire at all. A lack of true repentance will wet your wood to the point you won't catch on fire. you need to repent, to show others how. We need to judge our television entertainment. We need to put on modest clothing. We need to forgive rather than seek divorce! We Christians need to forsake the bars and casinos. We need to give up all things which have a hold on us other than God. We need to forsake the things of this world and start clinging to the things of heaven! I am hoping to see men grow strong in the Lord; I am hoping to see women grow strong in the Lord! I want to see families and churches grow strong, I mean really grow and really become strong in the LORD and in the power of HIS might! I desire to see families strengthened by godly training to women and godly discipline to men. I desire to see the church build up its boys and girls, its husbands and wives, to see the Spirit guide, direct, teach and lead! The word of God must once more become authoritative in our homes and in our individual lives! I desire to see holy husbands, holy wives, holy children and holy families! O, how I long to see families that pray together, study the Bible together--seeking the face of God, families that will humble themselves and turn from their wicked ways as a family. I want this for my family and for your family as well. This is the time! Families that will be the building block of a strong society, that as they pray humbly and boldly God will hear their prayers...forgive their sin...AND HEAL THEIR LAND! Now THAT should preach just about anywhere; that would be a good revival message! Unfortunately, too many pulpits are quiet on these matters. Too many Church goers don't want to hear about these things nor discuss them. We need to Renew and restore! Oh how we need the fire to fall on our families but the family altar must be repaired for it has been breached by Satan and broken down by man. Replaced may be a better word; I think the TV is the new altar. Some bow to the King and Queen; you'd think they lived in England. They bow to King Sports and Queen Entertainment. All these entertainments are just Satan's substitute for the joy of the Lord. Leonard Ravenhill used to say that the more joy of the Lord we have the less entertainment we will need. The altar lay in shambles from misuse and from abuse. It must be repaired even as Elijah repaired the altar for Israel in his showdown with the prophets atop Mt. Carmel. Only after the place of prayer was repaired and a prayer from the man of God was offered did the fire fall. "And Elijah said unto all the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down... And it came to pass at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and that I have done all these things at thy word. Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that thou art the LORD God, and that thou hast turned their heart back again. Then the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench. And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, The LORD, he is the God; the LORD, he is the God." (1 Kings 18:30, 36-39) We must not only build up the altar of the Lord in our hearts and in our families but we must begin by tearing down the alters of the false gods we now serve. I spoke of sports and entertainment earlier; if these things have become gods to you, you must forsake them, put them away, not spend your time and money there. Too often we have the altar of self to contend with. We must start asking ourselves and allowing the Holy Ghost to answer whether these things are gods in our life or no. Fathers and husbands must repair the family altars so that the fire might fall once again. Wives must join in, using holy wisdom in discussing with their husbands and in supporting their husband's decision to draw the family nearer to the cross and our crucified, yet living, Saviour. Parents must focus more on being their child's parent rather than their friend. We must rather desire the holy fire that burns the carnality out of our lives rather than the friendship of the world that leaves us with the chaff and dross abundant in our lives! WE NEED THE FIRE! Not just fire, THE FIRE! Oh how the Holy Ghost must burn within! Let us turn ourselves over to the Lord with utter abandon! Let the fire fall on us today! Friends, hot fire will keep the dew and damp away but if you pour water on your fire, if you quench the Spirit, you're in trouble! O that we would pray fervently and let the fire fall on us today! Press on in seeking the FIRE!

“The Orphan Spirit” part 01

Evangelist Mike Heltsley

Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, 20 By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; 21 And having an high priest over the house of God; 22 Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. 23 Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;) 24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: 25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching. Hebrews 10:19-25

One of the key aspects of Christianity is that when we are born again we become sons (or daughters) of God. Galatians 3:26-29 - For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. 27 For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. 28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. 29 And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise. Romans 8:15 - For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. Ephesians 1:5 - Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will, It is the Father's intention that we know and enjoy the privileges and the sense of belonging that is inherent in being a part of the family of God. However, the Lord knew that it would be difficult for a person to truly believe that one can be adopted as a child of God, so, He sent the Holy Ghost to testify to us, to give us the confidence to cry out "Abba! Father!". Romans 8:14-17 - For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. 15 For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. 16 The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: 17 And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. An adopted child receives the un-revocable privilege of participating in the will and testament of the parents. He becomes an heir of all that the parents have. So, it is by adoption that we become heirs of the Father. Prior to coming into the family of God, we were spiritual orphans, cut off from God. The enemy continues to foster in us the same orphan spirit even after we come into God's family. Jesus recognized this in His disciples. John 14:18 - I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. John 16:7 - Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. John 15:9-16 - As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love. 10 If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love 11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full. 12 This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you. 13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. 14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you. 15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you. 16 Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you. Since He came to us in the form of the Holy Spirit, it further emphasizes the truth of Romans 8:16 - The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: An orphan is someone who had been abandoned by his/her primary care giver. This can be literal with physical abandonment or it can be spiritual. The kingdom of God is based upon relationships, and the central relationship is one of parent to child. For example: Titus 2:4 - That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children, 1st Timothy 1:2 - Unto Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord. 1st Corinthians 4:15 - For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel. We become orphaned when those who are caring for us abandon us to the vagaries of life, or when those who should care for us, do not do so. We may have an orphan spirit because of the nature of the parenting that we received. In some cases, you may have been literally abandoned, or adopted out. Perhaps you had an absent father, or an abusive mother. Maybe you had to raise yourself because of the financial situation in your family, or because of the number of children in the home. On the spiritual side, neglect happens at every level in Christianity. Leaders demand instead of admonish, berate instead of beseech, are busy with church life instead of Body life. While there are promises of parental love, the reality is little more than a request for the tithe, the Church is in desperate need of true fathers who know how to parent their spiritual children. Our spirit ceases to feel orphaned when we have confidence that we belong to a family - God's family, and that we are being cared for by the Father or one who has the Father's heart. It enables us to connect with our brothers and sisters, and yield ourselves fully to those in authority in the church.

God's Presence Is All Around Us

"And the angel of God which went before the camp of Israel, removed and went behind them; and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face and stood behind them" Exodus 14:19

"...lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." Matthew 28:20B

Do you ever feel like you are all alone, like no one cares for you? Do you ever feel as though there is no one there to watch over you and to protect you? My friend if you love God, I am here to tell you that His presence all around you. Exodus 4:19 says "And the angel of God which went before the camp of Israel, removed and went behind them; and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face and stood behind them" and Matthew 28:20B reads "...lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." In the 14th chapter of Exodus we read how Moses led the Israelites out into the desert. The Egyptians were following them. The Israelites were afraid they would be caught and destroyed. BUT, God protected them, He led them and He went behind them as their rear guard. When they were afraid He was their protector, when they were hungry and had physical needs He was their provider. When fear came over them He was their comforter. My dear brothers and sisters in Christ, God is all things to you and to me. We so often forget this. He surrounds you and His presence is around you at all times. God loves you, you are never alone (even when it may feel like it). "Know therefore this day, and consider it in thine heart that the Lord, He is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath, there is none else." (He is above you to watch over you) Deuteronomy 4:39 (KJV) "The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms; and He shall thrust out the enemy from before thee..." (He is underneath you to support you.) Deuteronomy 33:27

Be A Bold Voice For Him!

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth! Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion. Isaiah 52:7-8

In the 4th century lived a Christian named Telemachus, in a remote village, tending his garden, and spending much time in prayer. One day, he believed he heard the voice of God telling him to go to Rome, so he obeyed, setting out on foot. Some weeks later, weary from his journey, he arrived in Rome about the time of a great festival. The little man followed the crowd surging through the streets into the Colosseum. He saw the gladiators standing before the Emperor and proclaiming, "We who are about to die salute you." Then Telemachus realized that these men were going to fight to the death for the entertainment of the cheering crowd. So he cried out in a loud voice, "In the name of Christ, Stop!" Yet the games began, so he pushed his way through the crowd, climbed over the wall and dropped onto the floor of the arena. The entire Colosseum watched this tiny figure rushing toward the gladiators, crying, "In the name of Christ, STOP!!!" The gladiators thought it was part of the show and began laughing. But in a few moments, they realized it was not part of the show, and then the crowd became angry. Telemachus stood his ground, insistently pleading with the gladiators to stop their bloody show, when one of them plunged a sword into the saint's body. He fell to the sand. As he was dying, his last words were, "In the name of Christ, STOP!!!" Then a strange thing happened. The gladiators stood there looking at the tiny Christian lying there dead. A hush fell over the Colosseum. Way up in the upper rows, a man stood and made his way to the exit. Others followed. In dead silence, one by one, everyone left the Colosseum. The year was 404; and that day saw the last battle to the death between gladiators in the Roman Colosseum. Telemachus' martyrdom initiated an historic ban on gladiator fights by the Roman Emperor Honorius. Never again in the great stadium did men kill each other for the entertainment of the crowd. One tiny man's bold voice — one voice — reshaped Roman history, and saved thousands of lives, by fearlessly proclaiming the truth in God's name! You may be a little man, or woman, spending time alone with Jesus. And He may be preparing you in the quiet place, for a moment when you will be called to raise your voice in some public square or stadium, to fearlessly stand for His truth, even if it might cost your life. Remember Telemachus, whose voice changed the world because God's word was behind it. Boldness is not bravado, but is rooted in deep conviction based on deep relationship and unswerving obedience. And it's effects resound through history. So cultivate that intimate relationship with Him, and be ready to be launched into the arena of death-dealing humanity. Your lack of fear and your love for others will reveal the Jesus whom you love, to many souls. George Whitten www.worthydevotions.com

God's Simple Plan of Salvation

My Friend: we are about to ask you the most important question of your life. Your joy or your sorrow for all eternity depends upon your answer. The question is: Are you saved? Do you know Jesus Christ as your personal LORD and Saviour? It is not a question of how good you are, nor if you are a church member, but have you put your faith in Jesus? Are you sure you will go to Heaven when you die? The Bible makes the plan of salvation plain and simple. Romans 10:13 says For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. Call on Jesus today. Put your faith and trust in him and ask him to forgive you of your sins and to be your LORD and savior and you will be born again...SAVED!! Do this today, tomorrow may be to late! Please write or call us if you have made the decision to accept Jesus. We would love to send you some material to help you with your new life with the LORD.

A Time To Give...

To every thing there is a season, and a time...Ecc 3:1

It is time once again to ask for your help. This newsletter is just one of the many ways that this ministry is reaching around the Globe with the message of Jesus. Your financial support is so very important to keep this work going. Please prayerfully consider sending a love gift today.
