The Refiners Fire

He sat by a furnace of sevenfold heat,
As He watched by the precious ore;
And closer He bent, with a searching gaze,
As He heated it more and more.

He knew He had ore that could stand the test;
And He wanted the finest of gold –
To mold as a crown for the King to wear;
Set with gems of a price untold.

So He laid our gold in the burning fire,
Though we fain would have said Him nay;
And He watched the dross that we had not seen,
As it melted and passed away.

And the gold grew brighter, and yet more bright;
But our eyes were so dim with tears,
We saw but the fire – not the Master's hand –
And questioned with anxious fears.

Yet our gold shone out with a richer glow,
As it mirrored a form above
That bent o'er the fire – though unseen by us –
With looks of ineffable love.

Can we think it pleases His loving heart
To cause us a moment's pain?
Ah! No, but He saw through the present loss
The bliss of eternal gain.

So He waited there with a watchful eye,
With a love that is strong and sure;
And His gold did not suffer a whit more heat,
Than was needed to make it pure.

But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap:
Malachi 3:2

VOICE OF THE LORD MINISTRIES

Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying,
Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?
Then said I, Here am I; send me. Isaiah 6:8

The Voice Of God

When we hear the voice of God
Speaking to our hearts,
Do we obey and follow Him
Or are we slow to start?
For when the Lord speaks to us,
We need to heed the call
And do the things He wants us to,
Giving to Him our all
I know at times it can be hard
To know the Father's will,
We need to listen to His voice,
For He speaks when all is still
Many times we fret so much
And rush so much about,
We then find all our busyness
May cloud our Saviour out
So this is why we take some time
To be still before the Lord,
So He can speak into our lives
And show us so much more.

Church of the Covered Dish by Thom Tapp

When the sign said "If you park here, you preach today!" I thought it was a joke...

Cousin Leroy

The teacher was helping Leroy, jr. put on his cowboy boots. He asked for help and she could see why. Even with her pulling and him pushing, the little boots still didn't want to go on. Finally, when the second boot was on, she had worked up a sweat. She almost cried when he said, "Teacher, they is on the wrong feet." She looked and sure enough, they were. It wasn't any easier pulling the boots off than it was putting them on. She managed to keep her cool as together they worked to get the boots back on, this time on the right feet. He then announced, "These aint my boots." She bit her tongue rather than get right in his face and scream, "Why didn't you say so?" like she wanted to. And once again she struggled to help him pull the ill-fitting boots off his little feet. No sooner than they got the boots off he said, "They're my brother's boots. But Maw made me wear 'em." Now she didn't know if she should laugh or cry, but she mustered up the grace and courage she had left to wrestle the boots on his feet again. Helping him into his coat, she asked, "Now, where are your mittens?" He said, "I stuffed 'em in the toes of the boots."

First Job

A young man, hired by a supermarket, reported for his first day of work. The manager greeted him with a warm handshake and a smile, gave him a broom and said, "Your first job will be to sweep out the store." "But I'm a college graduate," the young man replied indignantly. "Oh, I'm sorry. I didn't know that," said the manager. "Here, give me the broom, I'll show you how."

The Educated Man

A boy was sitting on a park bench with one hand resting on an open Bible. He was loudly exclaiming his praise to God. "Hallelujah! Hallelujah! God is great!" he yelled without worrying whether anyone heard him or not. Shortly after, along came a man who had recently completed some studies at a local university. Feeling himself very enlightened in the ways of truth and very eager to show this enlightenment, he asked the boy about the source of his joy. "Hey" asked the boy in return with a bright laugh, "Don't you have any idea what God is able to do? I just read that God opened up the waves of the Red Sea and led the whole nation of Israel right through the middle." The enlightened man laughed lightly, sat down next to the boy and began to try to open his eyes to the "realities" of the miracles of the Bible. "That can all be very easily explained. Modern scholarship has shown that the Red Sea in that area was only 10-inches deep at that time. It was no problem for the Israelites to wade across." The boy was stumped. His eyes wandered from the man back to the Bible laying open in his lap. The man, content that he had enlightened a poor, naive young person to the finer points of scientific insight, turned to go. Scarcely had he taken two steps when the boy began to rejoice and praise louder than before. The man turned to ask the reason for this resumed jubilation. "Wow!" exclaimed the boy happily, "God is greater than I thought! Not only did He lead the whole nation of Israel through the Red Sea, He topped it off by drowning the whole Egyptian army in 10-inches of water!"

Three Horse

An Old Indian was asked what his wife's name was. "Three Horse," he replied. "That's an unusual name, Three Horse. What does it mean?" "It's an old Indian name. Means Nag, Nag, Nag."

Rise Up AND GET!!

And he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, and get you forth from among my people, both ye and the children of Israel; and go, serve the LORD, as ye have said. Exodus 12:31

The above passage of scripture contains the words that Pharaoh spoke to Moses immediately following the tenth and final plague that the LORD smote Egypt with. In essence he told them to "rise up and get and go serve the LORD!" From the moment God called Moses to go down into Egypt the message he was to deliver to Pharaoh was a clear one "Let My People Go!" NOT Let My people stay!! God did not lift His hand against Egypt and deliver His people so that they would STAY in Egypt. He did not deliver them so that they would wander around in the wilderness for forty years complaining! He delivered them so that they would leave the land of Egypt and go and serve Him! He had promised them a land that flowed with milk and honey Yet even after they came up out of Egypt the first time they would face adversity they would long for the things that they had left behind! Sadly much of the same can be said of most of the church as we know it today. Saved but choosing not to leave Egypt which is a picture and type of the world behind. Or continuously longing for the things of the world instead of pressing toward the things that God has promised for all of those who will serve Him with their whole heart. The Spirit of the LORD is calling for the people of God to RISE UP GET OUT OF EGYPT AND GO AND SERVE THE LORD! GO and be the light that we are suppose to be! GO and let our light shine to a dark and wicked world that is spiraling out of control towards the eternal flames of hell!!! As people of God it is our job it is OUR DUTY to be a witness, to tell the world of this wonderful HOPE and LIFE that we have found in Jesus Christ! This is not a call "just for the preacher"...if you are a child of God it is your calling, your responsibility! It is not our calling or maybe I should say it is not our "first priority" to feed the hungry or to clothe the naked...all of that is fine and good and I am not saying that we should not do those things BUT our main goal...the task that we have been called and commissioned to do is to take the message of JESUS CHRIST and HIS FINISHED WORK to a lost and dying world. Time is running out and it is easy to see by the signs that the end is near and with that thought in mind the church needs to work like never before! We need to rise up and GO AND SERVE THE LORD!! Stop longing for the things of the world and cry out to have a thirst and a hunger for God like never before! Oh how I wish that the church today would chase after, hunger for the things of God the way that they do the things of the world. While countless souls die and go to hell the church continues to chase after fables and doctrines of devils. Romans 13:11 says "And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed." It is HIGH TIME for the church to awake, RISE UP, GET and SERVE the LORD!! The end is near, there is so much yet to be done and we can ill afford to be found idle or slothful! In Matthew 24:45 Jesus asked this question "Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season?" And then He answered it in the very next verse...Matthew 24:46 "Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing." Doing what?? Doing what He has called the servant to do!! I don't know about you but when He returns I want to be found a faithful and wise servant...I want to be found doing what He has called us to do! It would behoove us all today to pray and ask the LORD to help us to be the witness that we are suppose to be, to help us to be the light that we are suppose to be...to help us to do our part to reach the lost and the dying before it is eternally too late!! Oh God help us to RISE UP...GET OUT OF EGYPT AND GO AND SERVE YOU!!!

Until next time may the LORD bless and keep you is my prayer, Pastor Billy R. Douglas

Liberty In Jesus

With all the national and worldwide troubles, with financial and racial tensions, with losses of liberty and seemingly more to come, people are asking, "What can we do?" The good news—the answer is simple; the bad news—it's not easy. Simply said, "Jesus is the answer." But even Jesus said that it isn't easy. He tells His followers to count the cost and that they must strive if they would enter in. Jesus points to Himself as the Answer and says those He sets free are free indeed. Simple...but not easy. In truth, without spiritual freedom we aren't really free regardless of where we live. Please note, I said, "spiritual freedom" not "religious freedom." There's a world of difference. Religious freedom speaks to government "guarded" rights; spiritual freedom points to our ability to speak and live freely in Christ. There may be penalties to pay if we must transgress man's law; but as we live and speak IN Christ, we have true freedom which no man or government can take away. We will say with Peter, "We must obey God rather than man." Identifying the real problem isn't easy because issues and people tend to sidetrack us. Paul tells us that our trouble isn't with flesh and blood, but rather it's within the spiritual realm. (Ephesians 6) What caused such tyranny in England that would drive our Founding Fathers to take such desperate action? What would make them count the cost and choose to give up their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor? What causes such oppression and tyranny in our government and in our society today? It's a little three letter word that has troubled mankind from the beginning....SIN!!!!!!! It's the corrupt passions and vices of men that in all ages have been the overflowing source of tyranny. It's the same corruption that has brought about every kind of political and domestic oppression. It's sin that binds; it's sin that pushes us away from true freedom! It was sin that kept Adam from re-entering the paradise of the Garden of Eden. It's sin that keeps us from enjoying the fruits of the banqueting table of freedom and liberty as a nation; and it's our own sin that limits the freedom we have in Christ. What of political freedom? One preacher from our founding era states, "Politically, the general prevalence of real Christianity, in any government, has a direct and immediate tendency to promote, and to confirm within itself, political liberty. That is a truth that we experienced for a long time." But what of today? There is NO prevalence of real Christianity within our government, and sadly within the peoples of our nation. So, what are we to do? Isaiah 59 makes the issue of sin clear. God is still mighty, He still hears, His saving arm is not short...BUT....their sin is blocking His blessing. Isaiah goes on to describe the nation: none call for justice, all speak perverseness, they're blind and groping, they love falsehood, and have left truth lying in the street. Sound familiar? Look around and see if this doesn't describe our beloved country. What could Israel do? What can America do? The last part of Isaiah 59 describes Jesus, the Redeemer. It tells how He will come as their Victor. He will save those who will turn from their sin. It'll cost us something to enjoy liberty...it'll cost us our sin. To be free, we dare not lovingly hold on to it; we must let it go. The answer is to humble ourselves in repentance—the death of our ways and our will. It's repentance from sin to salvation and redemption from self to sanctification. Real national change, and lasting change, will only be found in the changed heart of its people. Our liberty will only be realized when we stop looking elsewhere and look only to Christ for it. But as we have said, it takes effort. God's people can't judge themselves by looking at the wickedness of their nation or even others in the church; that will only give them a skewed perception of the difference between the profane and the holy. Instead, as Isaiah looked upon the Lord, high and lifted up (Isaiah 6), allowing the prophet to see himself for the sinner he was, so we must look upon Jesus that we might see ourselves as we truly are and that we might be drawn closer to Him. Let us look upon Jesus with II Chronicles 7:14 in mind. "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land." Instead of maintaining our own ways before God, we Christians, not the world, are called to humble ourselves, confessing that what the Lord says is right, regardless of our traditions, desire, and habits. We are to be humble servants, ears and eyes alert with hands and feet ready for unquestioning service to the Son of God. We are instructed to pray—really pray—that God's will be done in our lives and in the life our nation. Humble prayers of confession and repentance. We must seek the face of God. In this busy world of increased entertainment and social media, with all the pulls that we feel, most do not truly seek God. Admittedly, we don't do it well; we learn more of God and seek Him through times of meditation upon our Bible reading, times of prayer—calling desperately upon Him and listening in our spirit for His still small voice, and being devoted to Him, trusting in His direction. Finally, we are given a call to repentance—to turn from our wicked ways. Unless we humble ourselves, pray, and seek God, repentance isn't possible. Repentance starts with a humble looking only to the face of the Savior, being changed into His image as we grow in Him. If we do these four things, God promises to do three: Hear our prayer, forgive our sin and heal our land. The need of healing in our land is so very great; the forgiveness of our sin is greater yet. What a blessed promise that a holy God would come down to heal His people.....and then their land. Real hope and change, real liberty—both personal and national—will only be found in humbly seeking God's face and repenting of our wickedness. God alone raises nations up and brings them down, but His people, following His instruction, can stay the hand of judgment for a time. What can we do? It's what each of us must do, repent! ## What the Word Of God Says About Transgender Issue conclusion

By Evangelist Mike Heltsley

The bible clearly tells us that homosexuality is a sinful perversion of God's gift of sexuality. Romans 1:18-32 – For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness; 19 Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them. 20 For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: 21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. 22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, 23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things. 24 Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves: 25 Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen. 26 For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: 27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet. 28 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient; 29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers, 30 Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, 31 Without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful: 32 Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them. This passage alone describes where we, as a society, are at today. In the Law, Transvestism was specifically forbidden – that is the wearing of the opposite gender/sex clothing. Deuteronomy 22:5 - The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for all that do so are abomination unto the Lord thy God. Also another possible reference to transgenderism is 1st Corinthians 6:9-10 - Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, 10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. The KJV calls it "male prostitutes – effeminate" which means "soft or feminine Which leads to these male prostitutes who might be transsexual men who act as women. Lastly, you may be asking...C. WHAT'S THE DANGER IN THIS TYPE OF THINKING? 1. If we rationalize one sin, we have no grounds not to rationalize ALL sin. (murder; rape; incest; stealing; lying; cheating;) James 2:10 – For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. 2. It puts our children at greater risk to ACCEPT this type of thinking (Makes it much easier for Satan – Did God really say?) 3. It puts our women and daughters at risk for those who just POSE as transgender for other perverted sexual desires 4. Further perverts God's created design of marriage and tearing down the home life. 5. Suicide rate among trans genders is an atrocious 41%. Conclusion: No matter if the gender distortion is genetic; hormonal, physiological or psychological The bible clearly and consistently labels any sexual activity outside of marriage or not between a man and a woman. As sin and rebellion against God's plan. The bible clearly teaches that we're all wicked sinners who have fallen short of God. The bad news is...that applies to everyone who has ever been born – to include you and me...just like the Corinthian church 1st Corinthians 6:9-10 - Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, 10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. (now remember – this letter was written to who? THE CHURCH) 11 And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. But the good news is but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. But just because I am under Grace now and not the law doesn't mean I can continue in my sin. If I meet someone who is transgender, my response hopefully will be one of love and compassion but not one of acceptance of the sin. Romans 5:20 – 6:2 - Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: 21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord. 6:1 - What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? 2 God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein? Ephesians 4:17-24 - This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind, 18 Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart: 19 Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness. 20 But ye have not so learned Christ; 21 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus: 22 That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; 23 And be renewed in the spirit of your mind; 24 And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. Listen, Jesus is the only hope for any and all sin...to include transgenderism No matter how sinful a life you have lived, Christ stands ready to forgive any sinner who turns to Him.

A Word for TODAY!

By Sister Michelle Deuling

Verse for Today: Proverbs 4:23-27 Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life. Put away from thee a froward mouth, and perverse lips put far from thee. Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee. Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established. Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil.

Thought for Today: Make Good Choices! Choose to serve Christ rather than self.

Story for Today: Jackie sat astonished at the thought of where she was today. Five years ago her life was that of a wild and carefree teenager. Today, at 23, she would be starting over. Well, as much as one can start over. She had been talking with Nikki, a true friend who stood by her through thick and thin. Nikki had shown Jackie how bad choices led to more bad choices, which led to more bad choices, and eventually led to destruction unless a person changed their ways. Jackie was ready for that changed life the day she arrived at the jail as an 18 year old prisoner. She believed Nikki and had proven the truth of what she was saying, spending the last 5 years of her life behind bars as a result. Jackie never thought things would turn out this way. She never imagined that she would get caught, tried, convicted, and sentenced her first year as an adult. She knew she deserved the punishment. She just never thought it would happen to her. Jackie was thankful for one thing that had come as a result of this horrible experience, a changed heart! Because of the change in her heart, she now had a close walk with God and Jesus was the Master of her life. She had Nikki to thank for that, Nikki and God! At first Jackie thought that if she just said a prayer everything would be alright; she might even get an early release. But, through the many weeks of Bible study with Nikki, she found that would not be the case. She realized that just like remodeling an old house, she too had some things that needed to be torn out and new things put in their place. Praise the Lord, God could do that! Nikki had shown her Proverbs 4:23-27 and explained that what we care about will determine our actions. When she spoke about bad things it caused her to care about the wrong things. If she was unreasonable in her speech, she was not guarding her heart. She needed to look at godly things if she wanted to make good choices. And these verses also warned her to look at where she was going. Choices have predictable outcomes and she needed to be aware and always proceed with caution. During the last five years, Jackie had been working on living out these verses. She had made a paper heart to remind herself that she was precious and needed to pay close attention at all times to what was going on when she talked (even to herself). She practiced making sure her words were true, honest, just, pure, lovely good reports, virtuous or praises. She made sure she was cooperative and kind to others, not being unreasonable. She stopped using bad words or words that weren't being used appropriately. She also decided to spend time learning about God rather than watching things for pleasure. And she determined never to watch things that would displease God. (So no more shows that used his name as a curse word!) And no more shows that glorified the bad guys or showed murder or drunkenness and other works of the devil. Everyday she would begin and end her day the same way, talking with God. She even took time to reflect on what she had done that day, to see if it pleased her Master or not. If not, she confessed and changed her ways. Then she found the source of the thing that was wrong so that she would recognize it in the future to avoid it. Jackie felt like she was a brand new house that had been completely gutted and remodeled with new fixtures. Today she would enter society a new person. She now had the tools to be able to make better choices and her focus was on serving Christ rather than self. She was headed for an eternal life with a beautiful mansion in Heaven rather than destroying her life here and ending up with a place in hell that awaits all who reject the Master!

Questions for Today: Do you know the outcome of the path you have chosen? Are you guarding your heart? What is the fruit of your mouth? What do you put before your eyes? Are you pondering the path of your feet? Will you choose to remove your foot from evil?

Song for Today: Make Me A Servant

Take some time today to pray: Ask God to show you if you are walking in the path that leads to eternal life or one that leads to destruction.

God's Simple Plan of Salvation

My Friend: we are about to ask you the most important question of your life. Your joy or your sorrow for all eternity depends upon your answer. The question is: Are you saved? Do you know Jesus Christ as your personal LORD and Saviour? It is not a question of how good you are, nor if you are a church member, but have you put your faith in Jesus? Are you sure you will go to Heaven when you die? The Bible makes the plan of salvation plain and simple. Romans 10:13 says For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. Call on Jesus today. Put your faith and trust in him and ask him to forgive you of your sins and to be your LORD and savior and you will be born again...SAVED!! Do this today, tomorrow may be to late! Please write or call us if you have made the decision to accept Jesus. We would love to send you some material to help you with your new life with the LORD.

A Time To Give...

To every thing there is a season, and a time...Ecc 3:1

It is time once again to ask for your help. This newsletter is just one of the many ways that this ministry is reaching around the Globe with the message of Jesus. Your financial support is so very important to keep this work going. Please prayerfully consider sending a love gift today.
