Fishers Of Men

(By Charles H. Spurgeon)

"Come, follow me," Jesus said, "and I will make you fishers of men." {Matthew 4:19}

When Christ calls us by his grace we ought to think of what he can make us. It is "Follow me, and I will make you." It is not "Follow me, because of what you are already." It is not "Follow me, because you may make something of yourselves," but "Follow me, because of what I will make you." It did not seem a likely thing that lowly fishermen would develop into apostles, that men so handy with the net would be quite as much at home in preaching sermons and in instructing converts. One would have said, "How can these things be? You cannot make founders of churches out of peasants of Galilee." But that is exactly what Christ did! We cannot be fishers of men if we remain in the same element with them. Fish will not be fishers. The sinner will not convert the sinner. The ungodly man will not convert the ungodly man. And what is more to the point, the worldly Christian will not convert the world.

Children Rain Is Coming

I remember as a child, growing up in the mountains of Kentucky, we would be planting and working in our large gardens when the clouds would cover the sun and the wind would begin to blow. Daddy would look at the storm clouds gathering and then call to us children, "Children, rain is coming. I can smell the rain in the wind." We would all head to the house until the storm was over. There are storms around us everywhere. I see whirlwinds of deception blowing all around us. I praise God for His Holy Word, for "His truth endureth to all generations" (Psalm 100:5). Child of God, don't let the enemy discourage you. The Lord said to me, in a great trial I was going through, "When you look down, my child, your enemy will seek to break you. From the dawn of each morning keep My name before you and utter praises unto Me. I watch you with eyes that never look away." Oh, thank you, Lord! Lord Jesus, send the wind and the Holy Ghost rain upon your church. Child of God, don't say "I'm too young, or I'm too old." Don't consider age or circumstances; live for the Lord with ALL your heart. Work while it is yet day - age doesn't matter now for we are all nearing eternity. Jesus is Coming!!

I'M FREE

(Author Unknown)

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I've found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembering joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me
God wanted me now; He set me free.

DRIVING MISS CRAZY

Two elderly women were out driving in a large car. Both could barely see over the dashboard. As they were cruising along they came to an intersection. The stoplight was red but they went on through it. The woman in the passenger seat thought to herself, "I must be losing it. I could have sworn we went through a red light!" After a few more minutes, they came to another intersection and the light was red again. Again she went right through it. This time the woman in the passenger seat was almost sure that the light had been red, but was really concerned that she was losing it. She was getting nervous and decided to pay very close attention to the road and the next intersection to see what was going on. At the next intersection, sure enough, the light was definitely red and they went right through it! She turned to the other woman and said, "Mildred! Did you know we just went through three red lights in a row? You could have killed us!" Mildred turned to her and said, "Oh dear, am I driving?"

Cousin Leroy

Returning home from work, Leroy was shocked to find his house ransacked and burglarized. He telephoned the police at once and reported the crime. The police dispatcher broadcast the call on the channels and a K-9 unit patrolling nearby was the first to respond. As the K-9 officer approached the house with his dog on a leash, ole Leroy ran out on the porch, shuddered at the sight of the cop and his dog, then sat down on the steps put his face in his hands and moaned, "I come home to find all my stuff stolen. I call the police for help, and what do they do? They send me a BLIND policeman"

“Finding Contentment At The Fountain”

Scripture Reference: Jeremiah 2:11-13

Hath a nation changed their gods, which are yet no gods? but my people have changed their glory for that which doth not profit. 12 Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the Lord. 13 For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

Leaders who didn't really know the Lord were setting idolatrous pattern for others. Hosea 4:6 - My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children. Two evils, first, Israel abandoned the Lord, their only source of spiritual sustenance. Secondly, Israel turned to idolatrous objects of trust. Jeremiah compared these with underground water storage devices for rainwater, which were broken and let water seep out, thus proving them useless. Does anybody know what an artesian well is? It's a source of water that literally shoots up out of the ground without any need for pumps or any artificial assistance. It's literally "living water." (A promise to every believer.) Paul spoke of this in, Philippians 4:11-13 - Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content. 12 I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. 13 I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me. Paul is saying, "Christians can live content regardless of their circumstances." Listen to Paul in Philippians 4:1-5 - Therefore, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved. 2 I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord. 3 And I intreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellowlabourers, whose names are in the book of life. 4 Rejoice in the Lord always: and again I say, Rejoice. 5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand. These two women were prominent church members, who were some of the first people meeting for prayer when Paul came to Philippi. Paul's saying was this: 1. Stay steed-fast. 2. Be in the same mind in the Lord. 3. Help others. 4. Always rejoice in the Lord. 5. Be Content. Going back to the text, Jeremiah gives God's people three things that constantly feed discontentment. *First thing that will constantly feed our discontentment, Greed. "When you dwell on what you don't obtain, you'll not enjoy what God has already given you." Be Satisfied! Proverbs 29:18 - Where there is no vision, the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he. Vision is important; however, enjoy the journey; Rejoice in the Lord on the way! *Second thing that will constantly feed our discontentment is, Fear. "Fear wants you to run from something that's not chasing you." It's the enemy's way of: 1). Robbing you of peace and stability. 2). Tormenting you with the what if's". 3. Keeping you from trusting God. Psalm 56:4 - In God I will praise his word, in God I have put my trust; I will not fear what flesh can do unto me. *The third thing that will constantly feed our discontentment, Seeking satisfaction in the wrong places. Haggai 1:5-7 - Now therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts; Consider your ways. 6 Ye have sown much, and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes. 7 Thus saith the Lord of hosts; Consider your ways. God is saying, "My people have forsaking the living water, and dug water holes that cannot hold water." Come to the fountain. John 7:37-38 - In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink. 38 He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. Don't hurry. (Jesus never was in a hurry and He redeemed mankind in 3 1/2 years.) Retire to worry. "Faith, 'sometimes' shouldn't say a word." Come to peace, it is well. (And the peace that surpasses.) Listen to the Holy Spirit. (He's not upset.) He'll speak. Go back to His word. (His word will stand!) Remember your foundation. (You're His beloved.) Please, Don't compromise...Don't accept substitutes! Colossians 2:10 - And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power:

"When you have no helpers, see all your helpers in God. When you have many helpers, see God in all your helpers. When you have nothing but God, see all in God. When you have everything, see God in everything. Under all conditions, stay thy heart only on the Lord." - Charles Spurgeon

REESIE'S RECIPES

Kool-Aid Pie

- 1 (0.13 ounce) package unsweetened Kool-Aid (any flavor)
- 1 (14 ounce) can sweetened condensed milk
- 1 (8 ounce) container Cool Whip, thawed
- 1 (9 inch) graham cracker crust

Whisk fruit-flavored drink mix with sweetened condensed milk in a bowl until thoroughly combined and thick. Gently fold whipped topping into mixture until light and fluffy. Spread filling into pie crust and refrigerate until set.

Jalapeño Popper Dip

- 1 4oz can diced jalapenos, well drained
- 1 8oz package cream cheese, softened
- 1 cup sour cream
- 2 cups shredded cheddar cheese
- 3/4 cup + 1/4 cup shredded parmesan cheese
- 1 cup Italian seasoned bread crumbs
- 4 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted
- 1 tablespoon dried parsley

In a mixer or by hand, combine cream cheese and sour cream. Add cheddar cheese, 3/4 cup parmesan cheese, and diced jalapenos, mix well. Spoon into 8x8 baking dish, spreading evenly. Blend bread crumbs, melted butter, 1/4 cup shredded parmesan cheese, and dried parsley, using a fork or your fingers, until crumbly. Sprinkle the buttery crumb topping evenly over the cream cheese mixture. Bake at 350 degrees for 15 minutes, or until hot and breadcrumbs are golden brown. Do not overcook. Serve with bread or crackers.

Bottoms Up Casserole

- 1 lb. ground beef
- 1/2 cup chopped celery
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 1/2 cup chopped green pepper
- 1 can tomato soup
- 1/2 tsp garlic salt
- 1/2 tsp onion salt
- 3/4 tsp Worcestershire sauce
- 1/8 tsp salt
- Dash of pepper
- 1 9" pastry shell

3 to 4 slices American cheese, cut into strips

Brown ground beef, celery, onion and green pepper, drain well. Stir in the next 6 ingredients. Spread evenly in bottom of pie pan. Place crust over meat mixture. Place pie on baking sheet and bake for 15 minutes on 400. Place large plate or platter over pie pan and turn out upside down. Top meat with cheese strips. Serve hot.

Squash Casserole

- 2 cups chopped squash
- 1 medium onion, chopped
- 1 small box ritz crackers
- 1/4 cup margarine, melted
- 1 cup grated cheese
- 2 eggs
- 1/2 cup milk

Salt and pepper to taste

Cook squash and onion until tender. Drain off liquid and mash. Beat eggs and milk, add to squash. Mix cheese, margarine and cracker crumbs (save some cracker crumbs). Pour into buttered casserole dish. Sprinkle remaining crumbs on top. Bake 20-30 minutes on 400.

God Is SO Good

"Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. James 1:17

In verses 12-18, the writer returns to his discussion of temptation. He emphasizes here the fact that God never tempts anyone. (although we are tested, and tried) I think it's important that we understand that "Evil does not come from God". But every "good and perfect gift" does. God always has, and always will be the source of all good. So, what's your take on God today? One of the Names that the Bible uses to describe God is "ABBA" - meaning "Daddy". There is no second guessing how God sees us in that word picture is there? In fact, God's WORD tells us over and over that he loves us, but he also says... "For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth." Proverbs 3:12; Hebrews 12:6; Revelation 3:19 Most in the WORLD sees Him as a God Of "Judgment, and a God of Wrath; and there are times when He must punish the wicked for their sin. But He would so much rather love them. In fact, He tells us that he chastens those that He does love. You and I get up every morning, as it is our routine... get ready for our jobs, and take off so as not to be late - forgetting all the time that it is He that wakes us in the mornings. It is He who has numbered our days, & counted the very number of hairs on our heads. It is He who listens to our heartbeat, and knows every thought and intent therein. It is He who hears our prayers, and has told us that He wants to give us the very desires of our hearts. (Psalm 37:4) What's more is - that our text for today doesn't just paint Him as a Gift Giver - but it proclaims the nature of His Parentage. He was the Father of Lights. This was the Same Father That hung the Galaxies in their place and then flung the stars across the heavens so that man would never be in total darkness. This was the same Father who took Abraham out beneath those stars and promised that his seed would be even greater that he could count. Then the writer goes on to say that "in Him", "...there is no variableness, nor shadow of turning". That's a hard thing to find in a Father today. In fact, that's a pretty tough thing to find in the character of most anyone that we meet on a Daily basis. How many times have you made promises to your children - and had to break them? What about your best friend? Your own Mother? Saying one thing and doing another, tends to leave a bad taste in the mouth. Our scripture reminds us today - that Our God is not like that. Our text tells us that this same "Father of Lights" is unchanging, and that there is "no shadow of turning" in Him. I can guarantee you that my Kids will never say that about their dad. But YOU AND I can be sure of it! What do you have need of today? Call on Him... He'll be excited to hear from you.

This Fight Aint Got No Rear!

Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Ephesians 6:10

Historian Shelby Foote tells of a soldier who was wounded at the battle of Shiloh during the American Civil War and was ordered to go to the rear. The fighting was fierce and within minutes he returned to his commanding officer. "Captain, give me a gun!" he shouted. "This fight ain't got any rear!" In Ephesians, Paul describes the armor that we should put on daily. Have you ever noticed that every part of the body is covered except for one? The back! The Lord didn't want us to run away and turn our back toward our enemy — it would leave us vulnerable, with no armor to protect us against his attack! And just as a dog would when he senses fear, if we run from the enemy, he will relentlessly chase us until we are broken. But if we take courage and stand strong in the power of God's might, then the battle will be the Lord's... and He has already won the victory! The battle is raging! It's time to take up our armor and face the enemy head-on! There's no turning back! We're in this together! There's so much work to be done!

Not Called!

"'Not called!' did you say? 'Not heard the call,' I think you should say. Put your ear down to the Bible, and hear Him bid you go and pull sinners out of the fire of sin. Put your ear down to the burdened, agonized heart of humanity, and listen to its pitiful wail for help. Go stand by the gates of hell, and hear the damned entreat you to go to their father's house and bid their brothers and sisters and servants and masters not to come there. Then look Christ in the face - whose mercy you have professed to obey - and tell Him whether you will join heart and soul and body and circumstances in the march to publish His mercy to the world." - William Booth

A Life Held Together By A Book Falling Apart

They that fear thee will be glad when they see me; because I have hoped in thy word.
Psalms 119:74

Recently my wife and I went to the funeral home to see my dear friend Marteen Kluck one last time...of course she wasn't there just the vessel of clay she used while on this earth. I didn't go to tell her goodbye...I had already done that at her bedside several days before. We walked up to the casket and there I saw in her folded hands an old worn out King James Bible...you could tell just how much she had read and leaned upon it through the years...it was held together with Duct Tape! I can't explain the way I felt standing there and seeing that. This woman that had been such a blessing to me over the years was even a blessing to me as I stood there that day. As I stood there the words to a song came to my mind that Billy Fields wrote..."My dad was held together by a book falling apart, You could trace the tear stained pages where it held when times were dark." I couldn't help but think of the many times that she must have turned to that ole faithful book...the WORD of God. In times of trouble, in times of fear. On those nights that sleep just wouldn't come because of her burden for her children I could see her burning the midnight oil as she read once again the promises held within its worn out covers. Yes God's Word had seen her through...time and time again. You see my friend...when the shout is gone, Gods Word will be there. When the feeling just aint there, Gods Word will be! In a world where it seems like everything and everyone changes from one day to the next I want to point you to something that will NEVER CHANGE! His Word has been from the beginning AND his Word will be forever more! It is eternal...IT IS TRUTH! And you can count on that!! So many people are always asking..."Where is God? What is His will for me? Why doesn't He speak to me??" Oh my friend...He has and HE WILL! Just open up His Word...cling to it...stand on it...TRUST IN IT! As I stood there that day I found in that moment of sorrow a JOY that I cannot explain....thank you JESUS for this great blessing and this WONDERFUL truth and please LORD tell Sister Marteen we will see her over yonder in a little while. Until next time may the LORD bless and keep you is my prayer. Pastor Billy R Douglas

For Ye Are Dead And Your Life Is Hid With Christ

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. Colossians 3:1-4

Throughout Scripture God's people are called to choose. (Deut. 30:19; Josh. 24:15; I Kings 18:21 - just to name a few) And man has had opportunity to choose from the beginning of time and onward. (Gen. 3; Prov. 1:29; 3:31; Isa. 7:15 - just to name a few more) Verse three states that since you are IN Christ in heavenly places, to seek earthly things would be inconsistent with your new resurrected state. It goes against the nature you now occupy WITH Christ IN God. Meditate on that for a minute. To seek earthly enjoyment instead of heavenly fulfillment would be akin to being set free from a jail cell only to longingly desire to go back there and desire to experience it all over again. The Apostle is telling you, "Don't go back to Egypt!" Israel looked longingly upon its cruel taskmasters with such inconsistent affection. John Eadie said it like this: "Attachment to things on the earth is unworthy of one who has risen with Christ, for they are beneath him, and the love of them is not at all in harmony with his position and prospects." There is great danger in looking to the temporal things instead of putting your focus and energies into heavenly, eternal things. This danger manifests itself in great loss. The chorus sings: "Turn your eyes upon Jesus, look full in His wonderful face; and the things of earth will grow strangely dim in the light of His glory and grace." Allow me to warn you that the opposite of this is true as well. If you turn your eyes upon this world; if you refuse to turn your eyes upon Jesus, then the things of heaven; the things of Christ will grow strangely dim. As the things of heaven grow dim to you it will be hard to see that they are growing dim because the alluring lights of this world, although they be false lights, are bright and you think you are fulfilled but you are not. The more joy you have the less entertainment you need. The less joy you have of Jesus, the more entertainment you need. You WILL fill the gap. You will either fill the gap, the void, with the reality of Jesus Christ or you will fill the gap with the fluff and shadow that continually needs more filling because it dissipates. You need more and more because it IS less. Oh dear ones, set your affection on things above. What you allow to replace what is rightfully Christ's will destroy you. Jesus is coming back for a pure bride; a bride that is spotless and without wrinkle. The things of this earth put wrinkles upon your face and upon your soul. Too many are willing to do without a fullness of Him because they have put so much else within, that it deadens the pain of His absence. Until He becomes your air, your food, your water, you may not recognize your great need for His fullness. Think on these things.

AS IS

One day in a thrift store I seen some flowers and these flowers were dirty, out of shape and next to the price tag was a tag that said AS IS. Well my husband said what are you gonna do with those dirty flowers? I said I have a purpose for them I'm gonna wash them, shape them and use them I have a purpose for them. My point is one day JESUS CHRIST looked down and seen this old DIRTY girl and he said Im gonna take her wash her with my blood, shape her, and use her for my purpose. AND HE HAS, HE TOOK ME LIKE I WAS, AND IS CONTINUEING TO SHAPE ME FOR HIS PURPOSE....
THANK YOU JESUS....

God's Simple Plan of Salvation

My Friend: we are about to ask you the most important question of your life. Your joy or your sorrow for all eternity depends upon your answer. The question is: Are you saved? Do you know Jesus Christ as your personal LORD and Saviour? It is not a question of how good you are, nor if you are a church member, but have you put your faith in Jesus? Are you sure you will go to Heaven when you die? The Bible makes the plan of salvation plain and simple. Romans 10:13 says For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. Call on Jesus today. Put your faith and trust in him and ask him to forgive you of your sins and to be your LORD and savior and you will be born again...SAVED!! Do this today, tomorrow may be to late! Please write or call us if you have made the decision to accept Jesus. We would love to send you some material to help you with your new life with the LORD.
