For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called

Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God,
The everlasting Father,
The Prince of Peace.

Isaiah 9:6

And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.

Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us. Matthew 1:21-23

Happy Birthday Jesus

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men. Luke 2:14

Happy Birthday Lord Jesus Christ

We love You...may God keep us all

Little stranger in a manger little stranger sweet and mild

Mother Mary there with Joseph watches o'er you, their holy child

Searching for you to adore you came Three wise men led by a star

Little stranger in a manger they'll find heaven where you are

Choirs of angels are singing this night of your birth

Praise and glory to the highest in a stable here on earth

JESUS IS THE REASON FOR THE SEASON

Church of the Covered Dish

Cousin Leroy

Leroy decided to go ice fishing. He collected his gear, went out onto the ice, pulled out an auger and started drilling. When he heard a loud voice from above: "There are no fish there." So Leroy moved to another spot and starts to drill. Again the loud voice from above says: "There's no fish there, either." Undaunted, Leroy then tried a third spot. Once again the loud voice said: "Nope. Not there either." The look on Leroy's face then becomes confused and getting a little nervous. He looks up and calls out: "Are you God? To which the loud voice responds: "No. I'm the hockey arena manager."

Listen Up

Little Johnny was in kindergarten. There was another boy in his class who wasn't listening to the teacher. The teacher said to the boy, "Since you don't want to listen, you sit at that table by yourself." After a few minutes, Johnny raised his hand and said, "I don't want to listen either. Can I sit with him?"

Frozen Window

A wife texts her husband on a cold winter's morning: "Windows frozen."

Her husband texts back: "Pour some lukewarm water over it."

The wife texts back 5 minutes later: "Computer completely messed up now."

Do You Love Me?

HUSBAND: Honey, do you love me just because I inherited a fortune from my father?

WIFE: Of course not, darling! I would love you regardless of who left you the money.

The Good Samaritan

A Sunday school teacher was telling her class the story of the Good Samaritan. She asked the class, "If you saw a person lying on the roadside, all wounded and bleeding, what would you do?" A thoughtful little girl broke the hushed silence, "I think I'd throw up."

Black Friday

It was black Friday the morning after Thanksgiving and the crowd was huge and getting restless. A small man pushed his way to the front of the line only to be shoved back. On his second try he was picked up and thrown to the end of the line, On his third attempt he was knocked to the ground, stepped on and thrown to the back of the line. "That does it" he murmured "If they hit me one more time I wont open the store!!

The Operation

An older gentleman was on the operating table awaiting surgery and he insisted that his son, a renowned surgeon, perform the operation. As he was about to get the anesthesia, he asked to speak to his son. "Yes, Dad, what is it?" "Don't be nervous, son; do your best, and just remember, if it doesn't go well - if something happens to me - your mother is going to come and live with you and your wife."

Bedtime Prayers

When my daughter, Kelli, said her bedtime prayers, she would bless every family member, every friend, and every animal (current and past). For several weeks, after we had finished the nightly prayer, Kelli would say, "And all girls." This soon became part of her nightly routine, to include this closing. My curiosity got the best of me and I asked her, "Kelli, why do you always add the part about all girls?" Her response, "Because everybody always finish their prayers by saying 'All Men!'"

“Christmas Is...”

John 3:16-18

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. 17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. 18 He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

How do you explain the meaning of Christmas in just a few words? Well the best way I know is this: John 3:16 - For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. No one could outdo what God has done. No one could give a greater gift than God has already given. I would like for us to consider the meaning of Christmas and what it should mean to each and every one of us. Christmas means a lot of things to a lot of different people. To some it is -a time of shopping and spending -a time of drinking and carousing -a time of traveling and entertaining But, what is the real meaning of Christmas? What message should it convey to every one of us? To me, Christmas is...I. A TIME OF REMEMBERING Remembering the great love that God had for each and every one of us. He loved us so much, that He spared not His only Son that we might be saved. Remembering the uniqueness of His life, His teachings, His miracles, His prophesies, His death and His resurrection. Remembering all those humble but great people surrounding the Christmas story...people like Joseph & Mary, Zacharias & Elizabeth, Anna, Simeon, the shepherds, the wise men, etc. Secondly, to me, Christmas is...II. A TIME OF LOVING People make a special effort to be a little kinder, a little more considerate of others, and a little more generous during the Christmas season. They get involved in such things as Christmas caroling, toys for the needy, meals for the misfortunate, etc. It is a time for reaching out to others with love and concern. God so loved the world-let us never forget that!!! In all of our preaching, teaching, evangelizing, etc. let us always remember that the motivation for all this is the love of God for lost sinners. He really cares about us. So should we care as He cares. So should we love, as He loves. III. A TIME OF GIVING For God so loved the world, that He gave...Love cannot look with indifference on the hungry, and the sick, and the lonely, lost souls of this world. Love must give. God gave all He could give. He gave His only begotten Son. This gift was freely given, lovingly given, graciously given to all of us, who were undeserving sinners. Christ shared our human nature that we might receive His divine nature. Day by day, those who receive Him are being transformed into His image, until we all come into the full stature of the perfected children of God, washed in the blood of the Lamb. IV. A TIME OF FORGIVING God was willing to forgive us. He was willing to show mercy to a sinful, lost, and dying world. Do we possess His forgiving spirit? Or, is our spirit a judgmental one, that looks down upon others? Is there someone we need to forgive today? V. A TIME OF RESCUING God rescued us by His love and mercy. He saved us from perishing. Without Christ we are without life, and headed for an eternity without God-forever separated from the God who made us and longs to save us. He wants us to inherit eternal life. We are all descendents of a dying race. But for the grace of God, we would all likewise perish. VI. A TIME OF CHANGING The Christ of Christmas changes us. He makes us new creatures. All things become new for us. We have new goals, new ideas, new direction, new hope. Christ changes people for the better. VII. A TIME OF REJOICING We are rejoicing in God's unmerited grace, in the release of forgiveness and rejoicing in a new life with a new mission So what does the coming of Christ into this world mean to you? Have you received Him as Lord & Savior? If not, I encourage you to come to Him now.

REESIE'S RECIPES

Tootsie Roll Fudge

- 1 teaspoon plus 2 tablespoons butter, divided
- 2 cups Tootsie Roll Midgees
- 2 tablespoons peanut butter
- 3-3/4 cups confectioners' sugar
- 2 tablespoons milk
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1 cup chopped Diamond of California® Pecans
- 1/3 cup green and red M&M's

Line a 9-in. square pan with foil. Grease the foil with 1 teaspoon butter; set aside. In a heavy saucepan, melt the Tootsie Rolls, peanut butter and remaining butter over low heat, stirring constantly. Gradually stir in the confectioners' sugar, milk and vanilla (mixture will be very thick). Fold in pecans. Spread into prepared pan. Using a sharp knife, score the surface into 1-in. squares. Press a M&M's candy into the center of each square. Cool. Using foil, remove fudge from pan; cut into squares. Store in an airtight container.

Ho Ho Ho Cake

- 1 package Swiss cake rolls
- 2 3/4 cup cold milk
- 2 packages (3.9 oz each) instant chocolate fudge pudding
- 2 cups whipped topping

Cut each cake roll into 8 slices; set aside any chocolate coating that separates from rolls for garnish. Line a 9" spring form pan with cake slices, completely covering the bottom and sides. In a small bowl whisk milk and pudding mixes for 2 minutes. Let stand for 2 minutes or until soft set. Pour over cake. Spread with whipped topping. Sprinkle with any reserved chocolate coating. Cover and refrigerate for at least 2 hours before serving.

Strawberry Divinity

- 1 3/4 cup sugar
- 1/4 cup light syrup
- 1/2 cup water
- Dash of salt
- 1 cup strawberry preserves
- 2 egg whites stiffly beaten
- Red food coloring

Boil first 4 ingredients until it threads off spoon and is brittle when dropped into cold water testing dish. Add preserves, bring to a boil. Slowly add to stiffly beaten eggs beating constantly until gloss is gone. Add food coloring. Drop by spoonful onto wax paper.

Orange Pineapple Salad

- 1 carton cottage cheese
 - 1 package orange-pineapple jello
 - 1 can mandarin oranges
 - 1 small can crushed pineapple
 - 1 small container cool whip
- Mix ingredients in order and refrigerate.

Holiday Ham

- Whole boneless (fully cooked) ham
- 1 can Pineapple slices in syrup
- 2 pound bag brown sugar
- Reynolds wrap
- toothpicks

Place ham in big pan. Drain syrup from pineapples and set aside. Place pineapple slices on ham and hold in place with tooth picks. Mix together pineapple syrup and brown sugar (mixture will be thick). Pour mixture over ham. Cover ham with aluminum foil. Cook in oven at 250 degree's...one hour per pound..

Remove from oven...Cool ham...slice and drizzle brown sugar syrup mixture over ham.

Snickers Fudge

- 2 cups semi-sweet chocolate chips
- 1 (3 3/4 ounce) Snickers candy bars, chopped
- 1 (12 ounce) can milk chocolate frosting:

Line an 8-inch square pan with foil, extending foil over the edges. Spray lightly with nonstick cooking spray. Set aside. Microwave chips in medium microwave safe bowl on high for 1-2 minutes or until chips are melted, stirring occasionally. Add frosting and candy bars. Blend well. Spread in sprayed foil-lined pan. Refrigerate 1 hour or until firm. Remove fudge from pan by lifting the foil. Remove foil from fudge. Cut into squares.

Cheesy Green Bean Casserole

- 2 (10.75 ounce) cans condensed cream of mushroom soup
- 3/4 cup milk
- 1 (2.8 ounce) can French fried onions
- 2 cups shredded Cheddar cheese
- 2 (16 ounce) packages frozen cut green beans
- 1/2 pound Velveeta, sliced
- Ritz crackers
- Margarine, melted

Preheat oven to 325 degrees. Grease a 2 quart casserole dish. In a mixing bowl, combine mushroom soup, milk, cheddar cheese, and half of the onions. Mix together. Layer the bottom of a 2 quart casserole dish with 1/2 of the green beans. Pour half of the soup mixture over beans, and add half of the Velveeta. Repeat layering, top with crushed Ritz crackers and sprinkle with melted margarine. Bake for 30 to 40 minutes.

Ham Cheese Ball

- 2 (8 oz.) pkg. cream cheese
- 2 tsp. finely chopped green onion
- 1 tsp. lemon juice
- 1/2 tsp. paprika
- 1 (2.25 oz.) can ham spread
- 2 tbsp. diced pimento's
- 1 cup finely shredded cheddar cheese
- 2 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
- 1 tsp. mustard
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- Chopped pecans

Soften cream cheese in large bowl. Add rest of ingredients. Chill until firm. Shape into two balls. Roll in pecans. Serve with snack crackers

Pineapple Dream Cake

- 1 box Pineapple cake mix
- 1 3/4 cup milk
- 1 small box instant Vanilla pudding
- 1 (8 Oz) cream cheese, softened
- 1 small can crushed pineapple in syrup, drained
- 1/2 (8 oz) bowl cool whip

Prepare and bake cake as directed on box. Remove from oven and let cool. In a large mixing bowl mix milk and pudding until well blended. Beat in cream cheese. Gently stir in well drained pineapples. Fold in 1/2 of the bowl of cool whip. Spread over cake and refrigerate.

Shine as a Star

Numbers 24:17 I shall see him, but not now: I shall behold him, but not nigh: there shall come a Star out of Jacob, and a Sceptre shall rise out of Israel, and shall smite the corners of Moab, and destroy all the children of Sheth.

Daniel 12:3 And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever.

A National Geographic article published last year describing a real celestial event which took place at the time of the birth of Jesus reminded me of Risto Santala's explanation in his book, "The Messiah in the New Testament in the Light of Rabbinical Writings". He wrote about a conjunction of major planets that took place which could have led the wise men from the east, to Israel. Santala reports that in 1603, Johannes Kepler observed a conjunction of Jupiter and Saturn in the constellation of Pisces; he observed a "new, particularly brilliant and strangely colored star between Jupiter and Saturn, which soon faded." Kepler suggested that the Star of Bethlehem could have been such an event. Later, Alfred Edersheim wrote, "There can be no doubt that the most remarkable conjunction of planets — that of Jupiter and Saturn in the constellation of Pisces, which occurs only once in 800 years — did take place no less than three times in the year 747 A.U.C., or two years before the birth of Christ (in May, October, and December). This conjunction is admitted by all astronomers." Santala writes, "The constellations of the zodiac were generally identified with different nations, Pisces, for example, being considered the patron constellation of Syria and Palestine, and the revealer of the End Times. Saturn was associated with Palestine in Babylonian astrology, whereas Jupiter was the royal planet, foreshadowing a political Golden Age. Thus, when Jupiter conjoined with Saturn in Pisces it was obvious that the Ruler of the End Times had been born in Palestine." Whether or not this was the "star" the wise men saw is debatable, but it strongly suggests that a real and significant celestial event did take place roughly at the time of the birth of Jesus. As millions around the world are celebrating His birth this week, we ought to remember that one purpose for which God created the stars was, "for signs." [Genesis 1:14] But you also, are a sign...a sign of His birth and of His life. Whether you realize it or not, you also are a living, breathing, announcement of Messiah and of His light. And this holiday season, with the spiritual darkness so rapidly increasing, your calling and destiny is to SHINE!...to shine like the stars, in a darkening world, exactly in the same way that His coming to Bethlehem was announced, "a star out of Jacob"...What a destiny! Let us pray that as the season closes and the new year turns, we, His people, will be filled with the oil of his Spirit which will fuel this shining...even right up til the moment He comes, blazing back into this world...Hallelujah!

Jeffie and Grandpa

Jeffie was in his playpen and he was crying. Tears were rolling down his little cheeks, his face was red as it could be. He was crying, and he looked pitiful in his little baseball T-shirt and a diaper. Then Jeffie's Grandpa entered the room; Jeffie's little face lit up when he saw his Grandpa! He immediately reached out his little arms in supplication and said "Out Pa Pa out." What is a Grandpa to do? How can someone resist that? So Grandpa went over to the playpen, he bent over. He reached down to lift his little buddy from captivity and distress . . . Just then "Law and Order" walked into the room. Momma said "Jeffie, you stay right there! I'm punishing you because you have been naughty! Dad, leave Jeffie alone!" What is a Grandpa to do? Grandpa backs off and is thinking, "I can't just pick up a book and read it with Jeffie here. He would think I was uncaring and distant. I can't leave the room because he would feel like I have abandoned him." What is a Grandpa to do? But you know what? Love always finds a way. Since Grandpa couldn't take Jeffie out of the playpen, Grandpa climbed in with Jeffie! Grandpa said "If you are in the playpen buddy, I'm in the playpen too. What are you in for? What is your sentence?" Having Grandpa join him in his "prison cell" brought Jeffie great comfort and joy. In the midst of his captivity, Jeffie no longer felt so alone. What Jeffie's Grandpa did is also a picture of what Jesus Christ did for us when He came to Earth as a baby. God the Father yearned to reach down into our "playpen of captivity" and pull us out. He could not . . . because of our disobedience . . . because of our sin. What did God do? God climbed into our "playpen" with us! When Jesus Christ entered into our "playpen of captivity" and died for us, He took the consequences of sin and disobedience that should have been ours alone, releasing us from our captivity . . . allowing us the opportunity to experience the fullness of life God has for us - both here and forever! The message is simple, clear and personal: God with us . . . He loves you so much He sent His only Son, Jesus Christ! -author unknown-

THE WORD THE WORD THE WORD

"Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away." Mat 24:35 (KJV)

In The midst of all of this horror and terror we've been hearing about lately, comes a verse that serves as an anchor to the soul, and is so quickly passed over that most seem to not see it - for all of the horror that surrounds it. But, oh my friend, if we might grab hold of this verse on our way into sin; if we could grab hold of this verse in the midst of uncertain illness; if we could grab hold of this verse in the pale of our glory days and realize it's POWER and it's PROMISE - nothing would be able to cause us to stumble. Listen as I recite it to you today and drink it in my friend. Let me recite it one more time - can I? "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away." Mat 24:35 (KJV) What are the Words that will not pass away? Words of Grace and Mercy. Rom 3:23-26 "Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus." What are the Words that will not pass away? Words of Peace and Comfort 2 Cor 1:3-5 "Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God." (vs 4) What are the Words that will not pass away? Words of Restoration and Sanctification 1 Cor 6:8-11 "And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God." (vs 11) What are the Words that will not pass away? Words of Promise and Hope Ephesians 1:13,14; "In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory". What are the Words that will not pass away? Words of Life not just in this world but in the next. Hebrews 6:17-20 "Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which entereth into that within the veil;" (vs)19 Are you one who is numb this morning from the awesomeness of life's situations? Are you "...travailing in pangs waiting to be delivered;" yet it seems as though there is no comfort in sight? Are you lost in the hopelessness of an avalanche of bad things happening to a good person? I have good news for you today my friend. "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but HIS words... the WORDS OF THE ALMIGHTY GOD - HE THAT IS HOLY AND TRUE, SHALL NOT PASS AWAY." Mat 24:35 (KJV)

"I'll Be Home For Christmas..."

There is a well known Christmas song called "I'll Be Home For Christmas". One of the lines of the song says "I'll be home for Christmas, if only in my dreams". Most people especially during the holiday season take great comfort in being able to go back home and visit with loved ones...there is something about going home that makes us feel better, safer, more stable. This is why we find in the Bible that when the prodigal son hit bottom and felt hopeless and alone what did he do? He went back home...back to the

Fathers house. Even though he wasn't sure what he would find when he arrived, just the thought of "home" brought him comfort and hope when he had none. What he did find when he arrived back home was his Father with arms open wide to wrap him in the love that he so longed for. With this in mind we turn our thoughts toward our Heavenly home. If while here on Earth "home" means so much to us and gives us such a great feeling of comfort...the thought of our Heavenly home becomes even more meaningful. Heaven..."A country where no twilight shadows deepen Unending day where night will never be A city where no storms Will ever gather This is just what heaven means to me" ...that sounds like home to me. No more death, no more sorry no more tears or pain...no more saying goodbye. What joy that brings to our hearts. Many of us will gather around the table this Christmas and will look around and see an empty chair and think of those who are no longer with us, But let us take great comfort and joy in knowing that all those that left have left this life trusting in Jesus have made it home and they are truly the ones that are "Home for Christmas." In closing I want to share some words from a song that the LORD allowed me to write some time ago..."It was Christmas like no other we had gathered round his bed. You could feel the tears and sorrow as his time came to an end. As he motioned I walked over and he put his hand in mine. But the words I heard him whisper sent chills up my spine. And he said...I'll be home for Christmas I'll be walking on the streets of gold down by the crystal sea. Yes I'll be home for Christmas so don't you spend your time in sorrow and please don't weep for me." It is our prayer that you and your family have a blessed Christmas season and most of all that you know Jesus Christ as your personal LORD and Saviour and that one day we will see you at that great Homecoming around the Fathers table in our home in Heaven...Pastor Billy R Douglas

The Healer of Broken Hearts

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. John 14:1

The bible says that Jesus will heal the broken hearted. This week I have realized how true that is. A few days ago I lost my precious house dog Ginger. My heart has been so broken, people say get another dog but I don't want to do that. I need time to grieve, when we have a void we shouldn't always try to fill it right away. we could fill it with the wrong thing. But we need to allow Jesus to heal our broken hearts, then we will know its healed right. Now I'm not there yet but day by day I will be. Will you allow Jesus to heal your broken heart?
