Wonderful - Counsellor - The mighty God - The everlasting Father - The Prince of Peace

And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.

Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

And knew her not till she had brought forth her first-born son: and he called his name JESUS.

Matthew 1:21 - 26

Anticipation

"Where is He that is born King of the Jews for we have seen His star in the east." Matthew 2:2 (KJV)

Well my friend the Christmas Season is officially upon us. Christmas time, one of the busiest times of the year. It is a time of great anticipation. Businesses anticipate their greatest profit of the year in just the last few weeks of December. Even internet companies like E-bay anticipate the greatest sales of all time - despite the grinch-ers who want to hold on to doom and gloom economic reports. On the other hand there are grocery stores who have literally stocked their shelves to the ceiling anticipating an enormous amount of food to be purchased for the biggest Christmas parties and dinners ever. Consumers will not disappoint the economy this year they anticipate finding the greatest values for those perfect gifts. Is that largely due to the dooms-day scenario? Well - perhaps some of it is... but for the most part, people are looking past that day to the Christmas festivities like never before. Children are trying their best to be extra good, anticipating the arrival of Santa with extravagant toys. Employees work a little harder at this time of year anticipating that Christmas bonus. From that first hallowed manger, Christmas has been a time of anticipation. Prophets and wise men anticipated the coming of "the King". Their teachings foretold it. The angels anxiously anticipated the coming of the Christ child with song and the heralding of "Glory to God in the Highest, and on Earth, Peace and good will unto men". (ref., Luke 2:14) We could use a little peace right now for sure! Mary and Joseph were anxious as they traveled among the crowds to Bethlehem in anticipation of the birth of Jesus. The Scriptures tells us in Luke 2:5 that Joseph went with his espoused wife who was GREAT with child, and we know that all of Heaven, even the Father looked down with great anticipation of the coming birth of THE SAVIOR! Oh I know... it's that same old story you've heard a thousand times before, and it's what you tell the children "is the reason for the season". But do you believe it? I wonder how many times already you have told your children to be good because Santa's watching. I wonder how many times you will tell the children to be good because Jesus watching. This Christmas season among all the anticipations of shopping, cooking, eating, working, family get together and Christmas parties, don't forget the true meaning of Christmas IS "JESUS". Another cliché? Not if you receive it. It's the Gift tied in a crimson red ribbon - in the shape of a Cross.

CHURCH OF THE COVERED DISH by Thom Tapp

YES, I WANTED THE NEW MULTIMEDIA SYSTEM BUT...

Cousin Leroy

As Bubba was relaxing in his recliner one Sunday afternoon the phone rang...

Bubba: "Hello"

Leroy: "Hey Bubba it's Leroy, can you come pick me up? Car trouble again."

Bubba: "I reckon so. (sigh) What went wrong with it this time?"

Leroy: "I am pretty sure it's the brakes."

Bubba: "Well, I'll be right there. Where are ya?"

Leroy: "I'm in the drugstore."

Bubba: "And where's the car?"

Leroy: "It's in here with me."

Can You Hear Me Now

A man was telling his neighbor, "I just bought a new hearing aid. It cost me four thousand dollars, but it's state of the art. It's perfect." "Really?" answered the neighbor. "What kind is it?" "Oh, no problem. It's 2:33."

Kiss Me

Jennifer was a pretty 18 year old girl. In the week before Christmas she sauntered up to the curtain counter, and was trying to decide which of the many types of tinsel she would buy. Finally, she made her choice and asked the spotty youth who was manning the fabric section. 'How much is this gold tinsel garland'. The spotty youth pointed to the Christmas mistletoe above the counter and said, 'This week we have a special offer, just one kiss per metre'. "Wow, that's great", said Jennifer, 'I'll take 12 metres'. With expectation and anticipation written all over his face, the boy measured out the tinsel, wrapped up the garland, and gave it to Jennifer. She then called to an old man who had been browsing through the Christmas trees and said, 'My Grandpa will settle the bill.'

A Cheerful Giver

On one particular Sunday, the pastor was emphasizing the importance of everyone giving their tithes and offerings. He went on to challenge the people to give enthusiastically because II Corinthians 9:7 says in it that "God loves a cheerful giver." As the plate was passed, a little boy in the second pew, quickly slipped off his neck tie and placed it into the offering plate. His mother, absolutely mortified, asked him what in the world he thought he was doing. The boy replied, "The pastor said put your ties in the offering plate and do it joyfully. I love that man!"

The Fourth Wise Man

Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem, Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him. Matthew 2:1-2

There is a story by Henry Van Dyke, called 'The Legend of the Other Wise Man'. Of course it is only a story and the Bible doesn't even say that there were just three wise men. We have assumed there were three because they presented three gifts. In Van Dyke's story there was a fourth. He was called Artaban. He along with the other three wise men discerned from the heavens, and from studying ancient writings, that a king was about to be born in Israel. So he sold all his possessions and purchased three gems, a sapphire, a ruby and a pearl, to give to the new born king. But on his way to meet with the other three wise men to begin their journey he missed them because he had stopped to save a poor man from dying, for which he had to sell his sapphire. He continued his journey alone. He arrived at Bethlehem too late. Herod's soldiers were already killing the innocent boys ages 2 and under. Artaban saved a baby boy's life by bribing a fierce soldier to spare him, but the price was the ruby. Now he only had one gift for the king. For years he wandered, seeking the king, and found himself in Jerusalem at Pass-over, which was in an uproar. They were crucifying three men, one of whom they had called the King of the Jews. Surely this was whom he had sought for over 30 years. In the crowds going to Golgotha a young girl pleaded for help. She was to be sold as a slave to pay her father's debts. He stopped and gave the one gift he had left – the pearl as her ransom. As he stood there in the strange darkness late that afternoon an earthquake shook the city, and a dislodged slate fell onto Artaban, wounding him fatally. As he died, grieving over his failure to give his gifts to the King, the young girl saw him look up and, in puzzled wonder, she heard him ask "But LORD, when did I see you hungry and fed you, sick or in prison, and came to you? 33 years I have sought you, but have never seen your face, nor ministered to you", the little maid then said she heard a voice saying "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me". At last the fourth wise man had found the new born king. In this story we find the true meaning of this season...we find that it is not in the "getting" but in the GIVING. Knowing that when we give to others we have given to Him. So as we celebrate the miraculous event of the birth of our Saviour may we never lose sight of the greatest gift ever given to mankind when the Father gave His only begotten son for a world that was lost and dying. And may we in turn give that gift to the world not just during this time of year but every day of our life. LORD help us all to go and be the light that we are suppose to be and to share the love of Jesus with everyone we can while we still have the time to do so. In closing I want to wish each and everyone of you a very Merry Christmas. May the LORD bless and keep you is my prayer. Pastor Billy R Douglas

REESIE'S RECIPES

Ambrosia Pie

- 1 (11-ounce) can mandarin oranges in light syrup
 - 1 (8 1/4-ounce) can crushed pineapple in heavy syrup
 - 1 (8-ounce) package cream cheese, softened
 - 1 (14-ounce) can sweetened condensed milk
 - 2 1/2 cups frozen whipped topping, thawed and divided
 - 3/4 cup flaked coconut, toasted
 - 1 (9-ounce) graham cracker crust (extra serving size)
- Garnishes: maraschino cherries, pecan halves, additional toasted flaked coconut

Drain oranges and pineapple, reserving 2 tablespoons pineapple syrup. Gently press oranges and pineapple between paper towels to remove excess moisture. Beat cream cheese at medium-high speed of an electric mixer until creamy. Gradually add reserved pineapple syrup and milk, beating until smooth. Fold in 1 1/2 cups whipped topping. Gently fold in orange-pineapple mixture and 3/4 cup coconut. Spoon filling into crust. Cover; freeze until firm. Let pie stand at room temperature 20 minutes before serving. Dollop remaining 1 cup whipped topping on top of pie. Garnish as desired.

Cinnamon Raisin Bread Pudding

- 4 large eggs, lightly beaten
- 1 1/2 cups milk
- 2/3 cup maple syrup
- 1/2 cup whipping cream
- 1/3 cup firmly packed brown sugar
- 1 tablespoon vanilla extract
- 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 1/2 cup raisins
- 1 1/2 (1-pound) loaves day-old cinnamon-raisin bread
- Powdered sugar

Combine first 7 ingredients in a large bowl; stir in raisins. Cut bread into 1" chunks; add to egg mixture in bowl. Stir gently. Cover and chill overnight. Pour soaked bread mixture into a lightly greased 9" springform pan. Place springform pan on a jellyroll pan. Bake, uncovered, at 350° for 50 to 55 minutes or until a knife inserted in center comes out clean. Let cool in pan 10 minutes. Carefully remove sides of springform pan; sprinkle bread pudding with powdered sugar.

Chocolate Cherry Bread Pudding

- 1 (6-ounce) jar maraschino cherries
- 3 large eggs, lightly beaten
- 3 cups chocolate milk
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted
- 1 tablespoon cocoa
- 6 cups cubed French bread
- 1 cup (6 ounces) semisweet chocolate morsels

Drain cherries, reserving 1 tablespoon cherry juice. Coarsely chop cherries. Combine eggs, 1 tablespoon cherry juice, milk, and next 3 ingredients in a large bowl, stirring well. Add bread cubes, and let stand 15 minutes, stirring occasionally. Stir in cherries and chocolate morsels. Spoon mixture into a lightly greased 9" square pan. Bake, uncovered, at 350° for 50 minutes to 1 hour or until set. Serve bread pudding warm or at room temperature.

White Chocolate Pecan Pie

- 1/2 (15-ounce) package refrigerated piecrusts
- 1/4 cup butter or margarine, melted
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup light corn syrup
- 3/4 cup chopped pecans, toasted
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 2 large eggs, lightly beaten
- 6 (1-ounce) premium white chocolate baking squares, chopped*
- 1 cup pecan halves

Unfold piecrust, and press out fold lines; sprinkle with flour, spreading over surface. Place crust, floured side down, in a 9" pieplate; fold edges under, and flute. Bake at 450° for 5 minutes. Combine butter, sugar, and corn syrup; cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until sugar dissolves. Let cool slightly. Add chopped pecans and next 3 ingredients; stir well. Pour filling into prebaked piecrust; sprinkle with two-thirds of chopped white chocolate. Top with pecan halves. Bake at 325° for 50 to 55 minutes or until set. Cover with aluminum foil during last 10 minutes of baking to prevent excessive browning. Let cool on a wire rack. Place remaining chopped white chocolate in a small heavy-duty, zip-top plastic bag; seal bag. Submerge bag in hot water until chocolate melts. Remove bag from water. Snip a tiny hole in one corner of bag, using scissors; drizzle chocolate over pie.

Emmanuel - God With Us

"Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us." Matthew 1:23

Jesus' birth, death, and resurrection were all foretold by Scripture (I Cor. 15:3-4). Oh, what blessings are ours for God became man, dwelt sinlessly amongst us, and took upon Himself the wrath of God which justly should have been poured upon you and me. All this to say, "Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us." "God with us," this is such a title of blessing, comfort, and peace. Why can you go through sickness, persecution and death? It's because God is with you. Why can you withstand being wronged, maligned, and gossiped about? It's because God is with you. Though your family reject you and stand against you, though you find yourself culturally, socially, and even ecclesiastically stand alone, you are not alone; God is with you. Remember when the Apostle Paul felt all alone? 2 Timothy 4:16; "At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge." He felt as though everyone had forsaken him. He felt all alone and rejected. But alas, he knew that even if everyone upon this earth should stand against him, he was NOT alone, for God was with him. Look at that next verse: 2 Timothy 4:17; "Notwithstanding the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion." Oh shout and give praise to the Lord, brothers and sisters. Trust in the Lord and allow Him to be of comfort and cheer to you, for God is with you! Romans chapter 8 reminds us that NOTHING shall separate us from the love of God. What an awesome blessing that is. God sent His only begotten Son into time, into this world, that we might have pardon, forgiveness, and an abundant life. He sent Jesus to be with us and to lead us to life eternal. By God's grace we are given an opportunity for God to be with us and comfort us, if we will but believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and be saved. God continues to be with us to protect us and deliver us. He desires to see us walk faithfully in Him in all manner of holiness. Because God is with us we can walk victoriously through every trial, tribulation, and difficulty which comes our way. Look at the next verse Paul shares with us in 2 Timothy 4:18, "And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen." Woohoo! God IS with us! Friends, God and you make a majority regardless of whom or what stands against you. He makes a way to escape every temptation, He puts a song in your heart, and He sends encouragement your way when you need it. If God be for you who can stand against you? No one and nothing can stand against you successfully when you are faithfully standing on God's side. Remembering this first advent of Christ's coming to earth, this Emmanuel, God with us, we should also remember that there is soon coming a second advent. Yes, Jesus will someday return for those who are His own. He is coming for those whom He is with, what glory that will be! Oh to see His face! Yes, He is with us now, but what glory that will be when my Jesus I shall see! There will be no more struggle, no heartache, no pain, for Emmanuel has come again! God is with us; and we shall be with God. Press on friends! Brother Steve Huston 103 N. Division Ave. Fremont, Michigan 49412

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. 2 Timothy 4:7-8

I Give You JESUS

For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given and the government shall be upon his shoulders; and his name shall be called wonderful, counselor, the mighty God, the everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace.
Isaiah 9:6

As December 25th approaches and we exchange gifts with our loved ones, and celebrate the birthday of Jesus. I am reminded of a song titled 'I GIVE YOU JESUS' So if you are facing the holidays and feel like there is no hope for you.. I GIVE YOU JESUS. If you have no peace and need peace....I give you the PRINCE OF PEACE. If you are sad I give you Jesus. He is our joy. If you are lonely....I give you Jesus...he is love. In Acts 3:6 Peter said Silver and Gold have I none, But such as I have, I give unto thee..... so I may not have material gifts to give you....But I give you Jesus.

The Sleeping Church - Part 01

By: Evangelist Mike Heltsley

Judges 16:10-21

And Delilah said unto Samson, Behold, thou hast mocked me, and told me lies: now tell me, I pray thee, wherewith thou mightest be bound. 11 And he said unto her, If they bind me fast with new ropes that never were occupied, then shall I be weak, and be as another man. 12 Delilah therefore took new ropes, and bound him therewith, and said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And there were liers in wait abiding in the chamber. And he brake them from off his arms like a thread. 13 And Delilah said unto Samson, Hitherto thou hast mocked me, and told me lies: tell me wherewith thou mightest be bound. And he said unto her, If thou weavest the seven locks of my head with the web. 14 And she fastened it with the pin, and said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awaked out of his sleep, and went away with the pin of the beam, and with the web. 15 And she said unto him, How canst thou say, I love thee, when thine heart is not with me? thou hast mocked me these three times, and hast not told me wherein thy great strength lieth. 16 And it came to pass, when she pressed him daily with her words, and urged him, so that his soul was vexed unto death; 17 That he told her all his heart, and said unto her, There hath not come a razor upon mine head; for I have been a Nazarite unto God from my mother's womb: if I be shaven, then my strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man. 18 And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, Come up this once, for he hath shewed me all his heart. Then the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and brought money in their hand. 19 And she made him sleep upon her knees; and she called for a man, and she caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head; and she began to afflict him, and his strength went from him. 20 And she said, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and said, I will go out as at other times before, and shake myself. And he wist not that the Lord was departed from him. 21 But the Philistines took him, and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters of brass; and he did grind in the prison house.

Summary: In the past 50 odd years we have seen moral compromise in the body of Christ and our nation. Put another way, when did the church fall asleep? What caused the church to fall asleep? Are we to remain sleeping or wake up the sleeping giant? Where was the church when prayer was taken out of schools in 1962? Or when abortion was legalized in 1973? Or when same-sex marriage started to gain momentum to the point that Christian businesses are persecuted for refusing to bake a wedding cake for a gay couple? When did the church fall asleep? What caused the church to fall asleep? And how can we wake up the so-called sleeping giant? I don't have all the answers, but what I do know is the church didn't fall asleep overnight. Of course, Samson was living in compromise, which opened the door to Delilah's seduction. Paul clearly warned us in 2nd Corinthians 2:11 - Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices which implies the Lord will reveal the enemy's devices, schemes, plots and plans if we walk in connection with His heart—and that's where many of us miss it. If we are living in compromise, we're likely to become spiritually drowsy—but we won't fall right to sleep any more than we enter deep sleep the second our head hits the pillow. Even if the enemy does lull us to sleep through weariness, apathy, compromise or blatant sin that threatens to sear our conscience like a hot iron, the Holy Spirit is simultaneously working to convict our hearts so we'll wake up. Of course, it's easier to wake up when you are just drifting off than when you are in a dream state where reality is skewed. Let us delve into God's Word and go to Judges 16 and catch up with Samson's narrative which apparently is a fair representation of the church today. Are we to remain sleeping or wake up the sleeping giant? Introduction: Samson had the Nazarite call and so did Jesus. His strength was not attributed to the long hair he supported but the Spirit of God prevailing over him. He was supposed to be anointed, dedicated and given up to God living in the world but not be of it. Purity and holiness were supposed to be his top priority in his life. The alluring world had impacted him so much that he had literally given up his calling. You've heard it said the enemy doesn't fight fair. Well, that's a spiritual warfare understatement if I've ever heard one. The devil is a dirty fighter—and he's just as subtle as he is dirty. He never sleeps or slumbers, but he works to put us to sleep through apathy, complacency and waves of weariness. Indeed, Satan has been working since the Second Great Awakening to put the church back into a deep sleep. He had some stops and starts. The Azusa Street Revival, the birthplace of the modern Pentecostal Movement, revived the saints at the beginning of the 20th century. But that slumbering spirit crept back in unawares. We were sleeping when prayer was taken out of schools, and we were sleeping when abortion was legalized. Some segments of the church are waking up and fighting in the culture wars, but the majority is still listening to the enemy's lullabies. Judges 16:19 - And she made him sleep upon her knees; and she called for a man, and she caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head; and she began to afflict him, and his strength went from him. Our scripture passage is more or less a vivid depiction of the contemporary church. Be sure and join us in next month's issue for part 02 of this powerful teaching.

God's Simple Plan of Salvation

My Friend: we are about to ask you the most important question of your life. Your joy or your sorrow for all eternity depends upon your answer. The question is: Are you saved? Do you know Jesus Christ as your personal LORD and Saviour? It is not a question of how good you are, nor if you are a church member, but have you put your faith in Jesus? Are you sure you will go to Heaven when you die? The Bible makes the plan of salvation plain and simple. Romans 10:13 says For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. Call on Jesus today. Put your faith and trust in him and ask him to forgive you of your sins and to be your LORD and savior and you will be born again...SAVED!! Do this today, tomorrow may be to late! Please write or call us if you have made the decision to accept Jesus. We would love to send you some material to help you with your new life with the LORD.
