"Two Horses"

There is a field, with two horses in it. From a distance, each horse looks like any other horse. But if you stop your car, or are walking by, you will notice something quite amazing.. Looking into the eyes of one horse will disclose that he is blind. His owner has chosen not to have him put down, but has made a good home for him. This alone is amazing. If you stand nearby and listen, you will hear the sound of a bell. Looking around for the source of the sound, you will see that it comes from the smaller horse in the field. Attached to the horse's halter is a small bell. It lets the blind friend know where the other horse is, so he can follow. As you stand and watch these two friends, you'll see that the horse with the bell is always checking on the blind horse, and that the blind horse will listen for the bell and then slowly walk to where the other horse is, trusting that he will not be led astray. When the horse with the bell returns to the shelter of the barn each evening, it stops occasionally and looks back, making sure that the blind friend isn't too far behind to hear the bell. Like the owners of these two horses, We are not thrown away just because we are not perfect or because we have problems or challenges. Others are mysteriously brought into our lives to help us when we are in need. Sometimes we are the blind horse being guided by the little ringing bell of those friends who are placed in our lives. Other times we are the guide horse, helping others to find their way. Good friends are like that ... you may not always see them, but you know they are always there. Please listen for my bell and I'll listen for yours. And remember...be kinder than necessary-everyone you meet is fighting some kind of battle. Listening for Your Bell. submitted by Ministry Partner Marcie Eidsmoe of Mossyrock, WA

WRITTEN BY: BILLY R. DOUGLAS

For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

Romans 10:13-15

The Church of the Covered Dish

Cousin Leroy

Leroy's Uncle Fred had been a Christian man most of his life and was now in the hospital, near death. Leroy called the preacher to stand with the family. As the preacher stood next to the bed, Ol' Uncle Fred's condition appeared to deteriorate and he motioned frantically for something to write on. The pastor lovingly handed him a pen and a piece of paper, and Uncle Fred used his last bit of energy to scribble a note, then he died. The preacher thought it best not to look at the note at that time, so he placed it in his jacket pocket. At the funeral, as he was finishing the message, he realized that he was wearing the same jacket that he was wearing when Ol' Fred died. He said, "You know, Ol' Fred handed me a note just before he died. I haven't looked at it, but knowing Fred, I'm sure there's a word of inspiration there for us all." He opened the note, and read out loud, "Hey, you're standing on my oxygen tube!"

"Train Up A Child"

A father was reading Bible stories to his young son. He read, "The man named Lot was warned to take his wife and flee out of the city, but his wife looked back and was turned to salt." His son asked, "What happened to the flea?"

Casey asked her Sunday school teacher a question: "If the people of Israel are Israelites, and the people of Canann are Canannites, are the people of Paris called Parasites?"

A boy was watching his father, a pastor, write a sermon. "How do you know what to say?" he asked. "Why, God tells me." "Oh, then why do you keep crossing things out?"

A six-year-old was overheard reciting the Lord's Prayer at a church service: "And forgive us our trash passes as we forgive those who passed trash against us."

A child came home from Sunday School and told his mother that he had learned a new song about a cross-eyed bear named Gladly. It took his mother a while before she realized that the hymn was really "Gladly The Cross I'd Bear."

"JUST" AN INTERCESSOR
Evangelist Chree Lynn Simms

I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men;" 1 Tim. 2:1

I spoke recently to one of our dearest prayer partners. I thanked and praised her for diligently going before the Lord with our requests. I talked of how many prayers were answered and how powerfully the Word came forth at a meeting she had prayed for. As I talked, she became quiet and a little fidgety. Finally I asked what was on her mind. "Well," she halted, "You make me feel strange when you praise me like that, because I don't do anything really big in the Kingdom. I don't preach like you do and I can't sing. I don't write or teach or anything like that." She sighed. "I guess when it's all said and done, I'm just an intercessor." "Just an intercessor?!" I exclaimed into the phone. "Oh friend, what do you mean, just an intercessor? Don't you know that without the intercessors the rest of us can't do what we are doing? Without the intercessors the Kingdom of God won't grow! Without the intercessors, there would be no miracles and help for the people. Please don't refer to yourself as 'just an intercessor' any more." The genuine intercessor holds one of the most important positions possible in the Body of Christ. The God-called intercessor will diligently hold your name up before the Father day after day, asking and believing for your help. They will tirelessly pray and believe God over your situation until you receive the help you need. The true intercessor perseveres in prayer for the lost, the needy, the sick and the hurting. It is their God-call and becomes their heart song. All of us can intercede and should do so, we are commanded to do this by the God Who loves us, but some have been chosen by God and set in the great office of intercessor. These are special people, enduring and full of faith. It is a great honor to be trusted by God Himself to hold such an important position in His Kingdom. Intercessors are people who lie on their faces and pray for the man or woman of God before they step into the pulpit. They consistently seek God for an outpouring of His Spirit, that will save, heal and deliver. They pray protection and help for their leaders and you will never see an intercessor who is not blessed, because most of their prayers are uttered in secret places, behind closed doors, where only God can see, and when God rewards them, He rewards them openly, where everyone can see. Perhaps you have been called to this high position in God. Does your heart automatically cry out when you see someone who is hurting, needy or helpless? If so, don't ever despise your position. God has honored you and trusted you to be the one He can count on to get things done. May you ever be worthy of the faith He has placed in you. "Just an intercessor?" h-m-m-m What a wonderful thing to be!

A Word In Season

Rodney L. Howell

Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing. James 1:3-4

In the scriptures above it talks about being patient, but that is something we all could use a lot more of. On the natural side we know what it is like to want something so bad that we go out on a limb and find a way to get it before we really can even afford to. We are so impatient in this fast paced world that we live in that we don't even seek the Lord to see if it's his will before we make any kind of decision. And when we do pray about it we still seem to have trouble waiting for him to answer because we're so impatient. Romans 5:3 And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience; On the spiritual side it's a lot different because we have no choice but to wait on God. There are some of us today that are going through trials and it seems like the more we pray and plead with God to end it the worst things get. This trial that I am going through I have pleaded with God time and time again to end it, BUT the end has not yet come. I have had to learn to be patient and wait on the LORD. Isaiah 40:31 But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint. In closing just remember that we all have to be patient and wait on the LORD. We have no choice because he is our ONLY answer! Until next time God bless you all.

"Meditate"

Sister Nancy Willis

Psalms 63: 6-7 When I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee, in the nightes. Because thou hast been my help, therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

Have you ever felt like you just needed to get alone by yourself for a while. There was so much going on around you, you just needed to get alone, just you and the Lord, to think about thing, to meditate, just you and the Lord. David did this, he told the Lord he remembered him in the night watches, and because the Lord had in the past been his HELP, he knew that in the shadow of God's wings he could rejoice. He had to get away from everyone and everything that was around him, just be alone. David knew God was the same yesterday, today, and forever. If it worked in the past it will also work now. He is a God that does not fail!

Lord Let Me Give

I don't know how long I have to live
 But while I do, Lord, let me give
 Some comfort to someone in need
 By smile or nod-kind word or deed.

And let me do what e'er I can
 To ease things for my fellowman.

I only want to do my part,
 To "lift" a tired and weary heart.
 To change folks frowns to smiles again
 So I will not have lived in vain.

I do not care how long I live
 If I can give-and give-and give!

Make A Covenant With Our Eyes

Rev. Lindel E. Hinton

I made a covenant with mine eyes; why then should I think upon a maid? Job 31:1

Job made a covenant between his soul and God to control his eyes. We are told that 84% of our life is motivated by our eyes. King David's greatest sin was when he looked upon Bathsheba bathing on the rooftop. When sin had conceived, it brought forth death to many. We learn also in Joshua 7, how Achan said, "When I saw among the spoils a goodly Babylonish garment, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I coveted them, and took them;" How many times have we sinned when we see things and covet them? Let us make a covenant with our eyes so that we may be ready for the soon return of our LORD Jesus Christ.

Harvest Time

Rev. Lindel E. Hinton

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; Ecc 3: 1-2

I saw a farmer gathering or shelling his corn crop yesterday. The good thing is the farmer only planted a few bags of corn but he reaped several truck loads. It's the same with us when we get out of the will of God. We sow a lot of seeds to the flesh, and when they reach the maturity stage we wonder, "LORD, What did I do to deserve this?". We are only reaping what we have sown...same as the farmer. Thank God when we sow to the Spirit we reap life everlasting. We are only promised 70 years here on earth, but we can reap life everlasting if we sow to the Spirit.

Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. Galatians 6: 7-8

CORNERSTONE

What Kind Of Memory Will You Leave Behind?

Rev. Billy R Douglas

For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself. Romans 14:7

I remember hearing a preacher once tell the story of a man who had been an atheist all of his life. He had even written books on the subject and taught others that there was no God. The preacher went on to say that this man on his death bed came to know the LORD and that there was indeed a God. This man was over heard praying and pleading for God to "please let my influence die with me" knowing that he had convinced many that there was no God and now knowing the truth, the grief and guilt was more than he could bear. Sad to say the man shortly passed away but his influence still remains today. So it is with all of us...long after we are gone our influence will still live on. The choices we made the life that we lived...the influence we had on others will still remain. Stop for a moment, look at your life, the choices you make and ask yourself...what kind of memory or influence will you leave behind? If you don't like the answer to that question...you still have time to do it right!

SALVATION CORNER

We have set aside this corner of THE TRUMPET to show God's Plan of Salvation. If you are unsure where you will go when you die, please listen to what God has said in His Word:

FIRST . . . GOD LOVES YOU!

"For God so loved the world that he gave His only Begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have Everlasting Life" Jn. 3:16

SECOND . . . MAN IS A SINNER, AND SIN HAS SEPARATED HIM FROM GOD!

"For there is not a just man upon Earth, that doeth good and sinneth not" Eccl. 7:20.

"For all have sinned and come short of the Glory of God" Rom. 3:23.

THIRD . . . JESUS CHRIST IS THE ONLY REMEDY FOR SIN!

"For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God . . ." I Pet. 3:18.

"Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under Heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved" Acts 4:12

FOURTH . . . YOU MUST RECEIVE JESUS CHRIST AS YOUR PERSONAL LORD AND SAVIOUR.

Jesus calls this experience the "new birth." He told Nicodemus: ". . . Except a man be born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God" Jn. 3:3.

We invite you now to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as your personal Saviour. "But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His Name" Jn. 1:12.

Pray this prayer and mean it with all of your heart:

Dear Lord Jesus, I now realize that I am a sinner. I accept the fact that You died for me on the rugged Cross of Calvary. I now open my heart's door and receive You as Saviour and Lord of my life. Please take Full control of me and help me to be the kind of Christian You want me to be. Amen.

If you prayed this prayer in all sincerity, you are now a Child of God. So that we might rejoice with you, we invite you to fill in the information below and mail it to the address on the back of this newsletter.

TODAY I ACCEPTED JESUS AS MY LORD AND SAVIOUR.

Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled

I awoke this morning to a beautiful day - the second day of a new year. The temperature is sixteen degrees here in the Tennessee hills. I saw a little red fox trotting across the mountain outside my window. All of God's nature is asleep until spring. I'll put hay in the barn for the deer who come around often. Someone asked me, "What are your plans for the coming year?" I just said that I am going to keep living for Jesus, keep believing He is my healer, my sanctifier, my hope, my coming King, my provider. Do I watch the news? Yes. Do I see sorrow? Yes. Do I hear of wars? Yes. Do I see deception in the church, and false teachers? Yes. Do I see signs of the end times? Yes. But, praise be to God, I read Matthew 24 and I hear Jesus talking. I also hear Him say, "Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." Are you walking through a valley where you've never been before? David said, "I will fear no evil." You are only walking through the valley. Trust in your Savior. Hold to His hand - He knows the way out. Hallelujah! Are you a backslider? I know you are miserable - I once was there, but when, at the end of my way, I cried out to Jesus and confessed my sin, He restored to me the joy of His salvation, and filled me with His blessed Holy Spirit and gave me a new song to sing (across much of the world). Dear sinner friend, in the last pages of God's holy word, Jesus said to come, and whosoever (that's you), come and drink of the water of life freely. You can't buy it - Jesus paid the price on dark Calvary's hill. Oh, the blood of Jesus that washes white as snow.

In my song I wrote...

*For there is no other fountain
Where I can be more satisfied
Than in the arms of Christ my Savior,
No blessing I'll be denied.*

May the blessing of the Lord rest upon you this new year.

Until next time, the Lord bless you,
His Handmaiden, Sister Betty Jean Robinson
