My Name Is Gossip.

I have no respect for justice.

I maim without killing.

I break hearts and ruin lives

I am cunning and malicious

& gather strength with age.

The more I am quoted

the more I am believed.

My victims are helpless.

They cannot protect themselves against me because

I have no name and no face.

To track me down is impossible

The harder you try, the more elusive I become.

I am nobody's friend.

Once I tarnish a reputation,

it is never the same.

I ruin marriages.

I destroy churches.

I ruin careers and

cause sleepless nights,
heartache and indigestion.

I spawn suspicion

I generate grief.

I make innocent people

cry in their pillows.

Even my name hisses.

I AM CALLED GOSSIP.

Before You Repeat A Story,

Ask Yourself...

IS IT TRUE? IS IT FAIR? IS IT NECESSARY?

WOULD I WANT IT DONE TO ME?

Cousin Leroy

The mayor of Leroy's town went ice fishing. He saw Leroy and Junior fishing in a spot at the bend of the lake and set up near to where they were fishing. He set up his gear, cut a hole in the ice, and dropped his line into the water. After a few hours he hadn't gotten a single bite, yet he noticed that Leroy and Junior had caught dozens of fish. He walked over to them and asked: "Hey, what's your secret?" Junior looked up at him and said:

"Mmu motta meep ba mmrms mmrm." The mayor asked again with a puzzled look on his face: "What did you say?" This time Leroy answers: "Mmu motta meep ba mmrms mmrm." Again the mayor asks: "What??" Just about that time Junior spits into his hand and says, "You gotta keep the worms warm!"

The Little Finch

Jan's youngest son was three years old when one of his finches died. It was winter and she couldn't bury the bird, so she flushed it down the toilet. She had no idea that her little Tommy had seen her do it until she went into his room and heard him crying. Trying to make him feel better, she told him that his bird was with God now. He stopped crying, looked up at her a bit bewildered, and asked, "God is in the toilet?"

Dear God

There was a man who worked for the Post Office, whose job it was to process all the mail that had illegible addresses. One day, a letter came to his desk addressed in shaky handwriting to God. He thought he should open it to see what it was about. He opened it and read:

Dear God,

I am an 93-year-old widow, living on a very small pension. Yesterday someone stole my purse. It had $100 in it, which was all the money I had until my next pension check. Next Sunday is Christmas, and I had invited two of my friends over for dinner. Without that money, I have nothing to buy food with. I have no family to turn to, and you are my only hope. Can you please help me? Sincerely, Edna

The postal worker was touched. He showed the letter to his fellow workers. Each of them dug into their wallets and came up with a few dollars. By the time he made the rounds, he had collected $96, which they put into an envelope and sent to the woman. The rest of the day, all of the workers felt a warm glow for the kind thing they had done. Christmas came and went. A few days later another letter came from the old lady to God. All of the workers gathered around while the letter was opened. It read:

Dear God,

How can I ever thank you enough for what you did for me? Because of your gift of love, I was able to fix a glorious dinner for my friends. We had a very nice day and I told my friends of your wonderful gift. By the way, there was $4 missing. I think it must have been those thieves at the Post Office. Sincerely, Edna

The Board Meeting

'There will be a meeting of the Board immediately after the service,' announced Reverend Morris. After the close of the service, the group gathered at the back of church for the announced meeting. However, there was a stranger in their midst. He was a visitor who had never attended their church before. 'My friend,' asked Reverend Morris, 'did you understand that this is a meeting of the Board?' 'Oh, yes,' came the answer from the visitor, 'and after that sermon, I'm about as bored as you can get.'

The God Of My Salvation

Although the fig tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no meat; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls: Yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will joy in the God of my salvation. The LORD God is my strength, and he will make my feet like hinds' feet, and he will make me to walk upon mine high places. To the chief singer on my stringed instruments. Habakkuk 3:17

What powerful words we find in the above passage of scripture from the great prophet of God. In a nut shell he was saying I will praise the LORD and rejoice in Him not because everything is going good BUT in spite of the fact that they are not!! For regardless the trial...the toil or the loss HE IS the God of my salvation! As we close out another year and start a new one I am sure everyone who reads this can look back and see how we have all suffered loss and faced valleys and trials yet here we are as we embark upon the year 2016 and we are still holding...CLINGING to Him...knowing that regardless of what has happened or what will happen HE IS the God of our salvation HE IS the LORD God of our strength! There is an old old song that says "I don't need to understand I just need to hold His hand", I know today that many things happen that we just cannot seem to get a grasp on. The loss of loved ones, sickness, financial loss and the list goes on. But nevertheless none of these things can move or destroy our faith in HIM because although these things certainly touch our emotions, our feelings, our body...NONE of them can touch our salvation as long as we keep our eyes on our God! Knowing that no matter what comes and no matter what goes He has already promised us in His Word that He will see us through and when it is all said and done, when the battle is over we will reign victorious with Him!! When I was young there was a preacher that came through our little church to hold revival and something he said has always stuck with me. He said as a child he loved to read western books but that he would always read the back of the book first. Then he said no matter what happened in chapter 4, 5 or 6...no matter how bad it looked for his hero he had already read the back of the book and knew that everything was going to be alright!! Let me encourage you today my friend...no matter how bad the storm may seem, no matter how bad the trial may get, no matter how painful the loss or the agony of the circumstance. We have already read the back of the book and we know that everything is going to be ok because the God of our salvation has promised in His Word that if we will hold fast to Him and trust in His Word that He has already won the victory for us!! The Apostle Paul would write in Romans 8:28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. He didn't say "we feel" or "we think" because his statement had nothing to do with feelings or carnal knowledge or anything that could be seen with the natural eye! He was speaking of knowing by faith! Faith in what? Faith in Gods Word...in His promise to do so!! So Although the fig tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no meat; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls: Let us rejoice in the LORD and joy in the God of our salvation for we have already read the back of the book and we know that we know that we know we can trust in Him and stand upon His Word!!

Until next time may the LORD bless and keep you is my prayer. Pastor Billy R. Douglas

Shout It Out

But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand. Ezekiel 33:6

I heard an old story recently, about a man who tried to save the city of Sodom from destruction. He shouted and screamed, trying to warn them of their coming judgment if they don't turn away from their sin, but the people ignored him. One day someone asked the man, "Why bother everyone? There's really nothing you can do to change them." "Well, maybe there isn't," he said, "but I still shout and scream to prevent them from changing me!" Sadly, our world today seems to be a lot like Sodom -- and the wickedness all around us is only increasing. We too must do anything we can to keep ourselves from being sucked in! The fields are ripe for the harvest and the laborers are few! We need to wake up from our sleep! Shout, scream, repent, whatever we have to do to get that sin away from us and get our focus on the task at hand, furthering God's Kingdom! George Whitten - www.worthydevotions.com

A New Year Stands Before You...What Will You Do?

As we step into the New Year, it's important to both reflect upon the things which have taken place in our lives and in our nation, as well as to decide and declare where we'd like to be when 2016 closes, should the Lord tarry. Within our nation we've seen much ground surrendered to Satan; American's have had freedoms stolen from them, we've seen a huge decline in morality, increasingly God's people have found themselves persecuted, and Scripture and the law of the Land, the Constitution, have been ignored, undermined, and circumnavigated. What a bleak year we've experienced indeed. What about your own life? Have you grown spiritually? Have you surrendered ground to Satan? Has there been an increase in your freedom in Jesus and in praise or has complaining become the order of your day? President Ronald Reagan once said that America is the last bastion of freedom; there is a lot in that statement to take in. Think about its meaning and move outward from there. What will it mean if that bastion is removed? What does it mean to you and what does it mean to the rest of the world? What would the world be like without the America that once was? The America that IS, is not so free and has less influence on the world than the America that once WAS. Are you content to watch this "city on a hill" fade out into obscurity or do you desire to start reclaiming surrendered ground? Our influence diminishes as our capacity for freedom wanes. Our capacity for freedom wanes as we move further and further from our moorings, our godly heritage. It takes more than a "party" election to bring us back; it takes men and women who are willing to do the right thing and push back the tyranny, making room for freedom to rule once more. It takes godly men and women to pray for the Spirit of God to fall down upon us and for us to point society in the right direction once more. It takes men and women who are willing to be called names, be misunderstood, perhaps even to give up their lives, land, fortunes, and sacred honor because this current society will not accept such men and women. In short, it will take men, women, and children who are willing to reclaim surrendered ground by making the Word of God the ultimate authority in their lives; they must become people of prayer who will pray clear through, surrendering to the will of God instead of their own will. With every desire, every hope, every decision, and every prayer, our response must be in unison with our Lord, "Nevertheless thy will be done." We must come to the point of desperation where we want revival and cannot live without it. Are you willing to drink from whatever cup Jesus puts before you for the sake of the Gospel? for the sake of revival? for the sake of reclaiming surrendered ground? Have no doubt; God promises that this will bring increased persecution. We see examples of such faith being persecuted in Hebrews 11. We read in verse 37 that "They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;" and finally we read "(of whom the world was not worthy smile emoticon." Friends, such victorious faith, faith which reclaims surrendered ground would rather be counted worthy to suffer with Christ than to be found worthy of this world! Decide now of whom you desire to be worthy. Decide what you want from the year 2016; with every decision, there is a cost. With every choice, there is a consequence. Each of us will either be drawn closer to Jesus or will become more callous to Him; what do you choose? We are called to redeem the time for the days are evil; what will you do with this New Year? Will you continue to surrender ground or will you start reclaiming it? I'm not talking about name it and claim it preaching; I'm talking about praying clear through in faith. I'm talking about reading and submitting to the authority of God's Word, walking victoriously IN Christ by faith, and living the holy life that our Savior commands. Let us stand IN Christ regardless the cost. Let us pray IN Christ with perseverance. Let us make sure that we are biblically accurate rather than politically correct. Press on friends; press on IN Jesus.

"Desperation and Revelation" 12-28-15

Why is it true that desperation precedes revelation? When the course of our every day life is moving along without emergency, we often times fail to seek God as we ought to. But when a dire circumstance raises its head, when there is a threatening storm on the horizon, that's when we finally look to God. Oh Saint of God, this ought not to be so! We ought to be desperate for God every single hour of every single day. We should live with the constant recognition that without Him we can do nothing. Without His assistance, His guidance, His grace, we are helpless! That doesn't mean that we are to live in a constant state of despair or have a negative attitude towards life in general, or even fail to walk by faith! It simply means that being desperate is that honest moment when we look to God in a state of utter dependence. And He, seeing our need, full of compassion and mercy, is always gracious and answers are heartfelt cry. Whenever we become desperately dependent, He reveals the required answer. So stay desperate for Him!

John 15:5 I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing.

"He That Dwelleth In The Secret Place"

By: Evangelist Mike Heltsley

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. 2 I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust. 3 Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence. 4 He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler. 5 Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day; 6 Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday. 7 A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee. 8 Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked. 9 Because thou hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation; 10 There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling. 11 For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. 12 They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone. 13 Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet. 14 Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name. 15 He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him. 16 With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation. Psalm 91:1-16

Summary: Psalm 91 emphasizing the blessings of dwelling in the secret place of the Almighty Surveys have proved this is one of the favorite Psalms of the people of God. It was found to be one of the 50 favorite passages of many Christians. It is the Psalm that carried many of the missionaries in China through the turmoil of the Boxer Rebellion at the turn of the century. One missionary said that her family would have literally lost their minds had it not been for the help and strength of the 91st Psalm. Yet this is the Psalm known by the devil and quoted by him in Matthew 4:5-6 - Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple, 6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone. It is a shame that the devil who hates God and all that is good knows the Bible while many Christians who say they love God do not! Let us look into this great psalm given to us through Moses and see the message God has for us this hour. I. NOTICE THAT THE PSALM AND ITS PROMISES ARE ONLY TO A SELECT FEW. Psalm 91:1 - He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. As with many passages and verses in the Bible, you cannot claim the promises unless you meet the requirements. There are conditional and unconditional promises of God found in the Bible. Most promises that begin with the word "if" are conditional. God promises to do something if we do something. There are some passages that are also limited to people who live a certain way. Romans chapter 8 is one such passage. Romans 8:1 - There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. Our text, Psalm 91 is another. If you live according to Psalm 91:1 then the psalm is yours. Notice the requirements of Psalm 91:1 Psalm 91:1 - He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. "He that dwelleth" - not visiteth, professeth, wisheth "Dwelleth" means "abides". (See John 15:4 - Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.) "In the secret place" - not near, toward, or previously resided at. "Secret place" - many people dwell in the sinful world, some dwell in the gospel church, but are you in the secret place with God. The secret place refers to the Holy of Holies in the Temple. Symbolically the place where God dwelt with His people. Only the High Priest could enter it but the people could all enter it in their hearts. The Secret Place is the place of heart where I hide in the fellowship and will of God. What a shade from the heat of life. What a refuge from the satanic storms. What a fortress from the temptations and troubles of life. Are we in personal, secret, abiding, and communion with God? II. NOTICE SEVERAL PROMISES OF THE PSALM He promises refuge in vs. 2-4 He promises protection from fear in vs. 5-10 He promises strength in vs. 7 He promises to give the help of angels in vs.11-12 III. NOTICE THE SEVEN "I WILL'S" OF THIS GREAT PSALM Psalm 91:14 - 16 - Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name. 15 He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him. 16 With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation. 1. I will deliver him - vs.14 All people have times when they need God's help. Isaiah 43:1-2 - But now thus saith the Lord that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine. 2 When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee. 2. I will set him on high - vs. 14 This means he will help him to rise above his problems. Ephesians 2:6 - And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: 3. He shall call upon me and I will answer him - vs. 15 The promise of the privilege of prayer. There is a lot of calling today but little answering. Probably because we are not in dwelling or abiding in Him. John 15:7 - If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you. 4. I will be with him in trouble - vs. 15 Job 14:1 - Man that is born of a woman is of few days and full of trouble. You don't have to look for trouble, it will find you. Notice in verse 11 - For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. It teaches us that God at times will send angels to help but at times God says "Move over, I'll take charge here". 5. I will deliver him and honor him - vs. 15 Moses honored God and God honored him. Moses refused the treasures of Egypt and God gave him treasure in heaven. Moses gave up family in Egypt and God gave him a nation to family. He gave up fame and power and God gave him fame and honor. The Apostle Paul gave up the wisdom of the world only to be used to write the Epistles. 1st Samuel 2:30 - Wherefore the Lord God of Israel saith, I said indeed that thy house, and the house of thy father, should walk before me for ever: but now the Lord saith, Be it far from me; for them that honour me I will honour, and they that despise me shall be lightly esteemed. 6. With long life will I satisfy him - vs. 16 Satisfaction cannot be bought with money. God will satisfy you with long life. IT WILL LAST FOREVER! Romans 8:18 - For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. 7. And show him my salvation - vs. 16 Are you under his wings?

When The Sun Doesn't Rise

Pastor Wayne Clabaugh, I

June 14, 1953 - December 02, 2015

"But thou, O LORD, art a shield for me; my glory, and the lifter up of mine head."

Psalms 3:3 (KJV)

My Wife and I like to watch the sunrise together. We have found a little spot where the ground is high enough and the view is clear - facing east, and there we sit and watch as the Lord our God comes and paints the sky every morning with His "Glory Brush", and we gasp with every stroke until the sun is so bright that we cannot look upon it anymore.

Eyes closed ... it is time for prayer. How I thank God for those breath-taking moments as we say hello to the Father and bless his name for that 15 minutes to half an hour every morning. It's awesome! I'll never forget the first time that the sun didn't come up. It was an overcast and rainy and just a dingy grey. On those kind of days one might ask, "Where are you Lord?" How come you have not risen for me today? I am waiting and yet you are not here. I have never flown in an airplane so I don't know by experience, but my wife always says, beyond those dingy clouds is a silver and golden lining. She tells me of the beauty of the heavens just on the other side of those clouds as the airplane rises just past the drift of those weighty clouds, and I once again gasp in my mind as I picture the awesome glory of it all. Often in the lives of many, the sun doesn't rise. For whatever reason, many aren't even looking for a silver lining let alone a golden one. When they see the dingy clouds, they feel that's all they deserve or at least, that too them is what life is made of. There is no awe, no "Glory Brush" no hope or looking forward to tomorrow's sunrise ... just moving from one day to the next, expecting tomorrow to possibly be worse than today or at least the same ... no hope. Oh my friend if that is you ... The Lord wants so to be your GLORY! He wants so much to be the lifter up of your head and to be your shield throughout all of your troubles. (ref., Psalm 3:3) Imagine the disciples, if you will, there in their storm-tossed boat, ready to capsize and Jesus wasn't there. Imagine that one thief on the cross, ready to believe in a God above and ready to ask forgiveness of his sins in life - as his last dying wish, and Jesus the redeemer, the blessed gift and giver of eternal life, was not there. Imagine if you will, that one fleeting moment in your life as one of your loved ones closed their eyes in death, breathing their last breath in this life, and the presence of the Lord had not been there in that room ... Now that would be darkness and that would be an lost feeling of emptiness. But Oh my friend, Listen to David as he tells it like it is this morning. Despite all of your short-comings, despite all of your conditions that would depress or dispirit your sunrise... The Lord wants so to be your GLORY! He wants so much to be the lifter up of your head and to be your shield throughout all of your troubles. (ref., Psalm 3:3) Call on HIM today, and let him shine in your life and let Him break through the clouds and be the lifter up of your head. Pastor Wayne Clabaugh, I

As most of our readers know Pastor Wayne had been sick for some time...it saddens our heart but brings joy to our soul to tell you that Pastor Wayne went home to be with the LORD a few days ago. Some might say "he lost his battle with sickness". BUT those of us who know Christ and the salvation that HE brings know today that he did not lose anything but rather he WON the victory and has made it home. He fought a good fight...he kept the faith, he finished his course and has received his crown! After having the honour of knowing Brother Wayne for many years and being blessed by his friendship and his ministry I have no doubt that as he left this old temporal world and stepped over in to eternity he heard the Master say "Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord."

I am blessed to have called this man of God my friend.

Please keep Pastor Wayne's family in your prayers and prayerfully consider sending an offering in his memory to Sister Osella at - Osella Clabaugh - P.O. Box 8883 - Saint Joseph, MO 64508

He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall: But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

God's Simple Plan of Salvation

My Friend: we are about to ask you the most important question of your life. Your joy or your sorrow for all eternity depends upon your answer. The question is: Are you saved? Do you know Jesus Christ as your personal LORD and Saviour? It is not a question of how good you are, nor if you are a church member, but have you put your faith in Jesus? Are you sure you will go to Heaven when you die? The Bible makes the plan of salvation plain and simple. Romans 10:13 says For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. Call on Jesus today. Put your faith and trust in him and ask him to forgive you of your sins and to be your LORD and savior and you will be born again...SAVED!! Do this today, tomorrow may be too late! Please write or call us if you have made the decision to accept Jesus. We would love to send you some material to help you with your new life with the LORD.

A Time To Give...

To every thing there is a season, and a time...Ecc 3:1

It is time once again to ask for your help. This newsletter is just one of the many ways that this ministry is reaching around the Globe with the message of Jesus. Your financial support is so very important to keep this work going. Please prayerfully consider sending a love gift today.
