

HAPPY NEW YEAR
2025

The Faithful Few

As you walk through the earth
With its toil and its mirth,
With its shadows, or skies of bright blue,
You will find some folks shirking,
While most of the working
Is done by the faithful few!

Where there's someone in need
Of a neighborly deed,
Or a cause needs a dollar or two;
If trouble is brewing,
Or something needs doing—
Just call on the faithful few!

When the pastor makes pleas
That we go to our knees,
For souls that are lost through and through,
You will find that the staying,
The fasting and praying,
Are done by the faithful few!

When the battle is past
And my anchor is cast
On the shores of the blessed and true;
When my soul makes the landing,
I'll find where they're standing,
And I'll stand near the faithful few!

Cousin Leroy

Employer: "We need someone responsible for this job."

Leroy: "Sir your search ends right here! In my previous job whenever something went wrong, everybody said I was responsible."

Signs You Ate To Much Over The Holidays

- ~ Doctor tells you your weight would be perfect for a man 17 feet tall.
- ~ You are responsible for a slight but measurable shift in the earth's axis.
- ~ Paramedics bring in the Jaws of Life to pry you out of the EZ-Boy.
- ~ You set off 3 earthquake seismographs on your morning jog.
- ~ Representatives from the Butterball Hall of Fame called twice.
- ~ Your arms are too short to reach the keyboard and delete this.

Exercise

Son: I watched a guy do 50 push-ups in a row. Can you do that, Dad?

Dad: Of course, son. I could probably even watch someone do 100 push ups

Dream House

We had built our dream house some years ago, and furnished it with quality pieces as we could afford them. Now the delivery truck carrying the last purchase, a new bedroom suite, was pulling into the driveway.

"Finally!" I exclaimed, flinging open the front door as the driver walked up to the house. "I've been waiting twelve years for this!"

"Don't blame me, lady," he said. "I just got the order this morning."

The Lost Purse

A lady lost her handbag in the bustle of Christmas shopping. It was found by an honest little boy and returned to her. Looking in her purse, she commented, "Hmmm.... That's funny. When I lost my bag there was a $20 bill in it. Now there are twenty $1 bills." The boy quickly replied, "That's right, lady. The last time I found a lady's purse, she didn't have any change for a reward."

The Salvation of the LORD

Pastor Billy R Douglas

Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation. Isaiah 12:3

Even in our darkest night, or fiery trial. There is joy to be found in the salvation of the Lord. There is no greater gift. Oftentimes the storms of life causes us to lose sight of that. But the truth of the matter is, in sunshine or rain. Knowing Jesus is all that matters. So no matter what the coming year may hold. Or the heartache and trouble that last year left in its wake. Don't lose sight or gratitude for the glorious gift of salvation! Hold on to Jesus, and he will see you safely through!

Although the fig tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no meat; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls: Yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will joy in the God of my salvation. Habakkuk 3: 17-18

Amazing Grace..Will always be my song of praise.

For it was grace, that brought me liberty,
I do not know, just why He came to love me so.
He looked beyond my faults and saw my need.

I shall forever lift mine eyes to Calvary,
To view the cross, where Jesus died for me
How marvelous, His grace that caught my falling soul
He Looked beyond my faults and saw my need.

(Dottie Rambo)

Until next time may the LORD bless and keep you, Pastor Billy R. Douglas

FEATURED MUSIC CD (2004)

"DON'T OVERLOOK SALVATION" by Billy R. Douglas

1. Don't Overlook Salvation
2. Help Me
3. Could You Walk A Mile
4. Bye & Bye
05. Noone Worships There Anymore
06. Walk Them Golden Stairs
07. Coat Of Many Colors
08. Ive Got A Mansion
09. Gone
10. Don't Wanna Go Alone

Order your copy of this music project recorded 20 years ago...10 great songs that we know will be a blessing to you.

Available for a Love Gift of Any Size

A Word to the Wise – New Year’s Challenge

Pastor Steven Huston

“Where no counsel is, the people fall: but in the multitude of counsellors there is safety.” Prov. 11:14

Most of our readers will be familiar with Solomon’s challenge – more of a command really: “Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.” (Prov. 3:5-6) No part of these verses can be lifted up as more important, but how often do we “Trust in the Lord” by our “own understanding” instead of going to God’s Word in EVERY instance for sound counsel and direction? The challenge I’m issuing is to simply “in ALL your ways acknowledge him.” That’ll take real dedication to ask yourself every time, “What does the Bible say about that?”

Today’s verse warns that a multitude of counsellors is necessary for safety. While this is a general principle, it still requires us to receive real counsel – wise, godly, biblical counsel and a willingness to follow that counsel. I knew a young lady who, when trying to decide what to do about various situations, would ask many people for advice: her pastor, biblically knowledgeable and godly mother and grandfather, sisters, friends, and others. Instead of accepting godly counsel, she would continue seeking advice from others until she heard the counsel that matched her own desires. It didn’t matter that 25 might counsel against her choice while only 1 or 2 agreed with her. It strongly reminded me of the foolish, high-minded, insolent son of Solomon – Rehoboam (1 Kings 12) In 2 Chron. 12:14 we are told that the evil he did was because he had not prepared his heart to seek the Lord. It’s my prayer, dear reader, that you will prepare your heart to seek the Lord this year; if you’ve already been seeking Him, I pray that you will seek a deeper walk with and understanding of Christ.

Had that rascal Rehoboam sought his counsel from the sources his father and grandfather (King David) found refuge, comfort, wisdom and guidance in, he and Israel would’ve been the better off for it. Solomon wrote, “Where there is no vision, the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he.” (Prov. 29:18) In the midst of his longest psalm of praise for the Word of God, David points to where his counsel comes from – “Thy testimonies also are my delight and my counsellors.” (Ps. 119:24) Another great challenge would be to memorize the whole of Psalm 119; at least read it daily for a month (or year).

As we take “Thy testimonies” for our counsellors, let us recognize two things. 1) “Testimonies” is plural. We never hang our hat on one verse to make a life-long doctrine or decision; there must be agreement with the whole of the Bible. Look at the context and search out the whole counsel of God for it will never contradict itself. Ask yourself, “Does this thing help me to grow in godliness and holiness; does it help or hinder my walk with God?” Read Titus 2:11-15 for a short list of what Jesus teaches and how our transformed walk should look like.

2) “Thy testimonies” are the Word of God. The gospel of John tells us that “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.” (1:1) And he further proclaims: “And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.” (1:14) To this end, we recognize that Jesus is our Counsellor if we will go to Him and seek wisdom and guidance from Him. This should be no surprise; Isaiah told us “his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor...” (Isa. 9:6)

I’m not saying that there is never a need to go to a counsellor, BUT I would never go to a counsellor who is NOT a BIBLICAL counsellor. There are many “Christian” counsellors who are not BIBLICAL counsellors. First and foremost, what does the Bible say about it – “in all thy ways acknowledge him.”

This IS a millstone moment

Pastor Steven Huston

“And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.” (Mark 9:42)

As we step into this New Year, I want to draw your attention to the fact that we are to be lights and ambassadors in this dark world (2 Cor. 5). We are to speak truth into those around us, particularly in regard to Jesus’ atoning work on the cross. But friends, it’s not just a truth to speak into the spiritual lives of those around us. It’s a transforming truth that affects and heals all areas of our life. God has blessed us with a sphere of influence that is specific to each one of us. There are people that we can reach that no one else reaches quite like we do. So, reach out with compassion to those in our sphere who are sin-sick.

Too often we shy away from the topic of sin; it’s uncomfortable and very often not well received – particularly nowadays, when it comes to sexuality and gender. Understand, there’s a political agenda that is engulfing our schools, doctors, large swathes of “churches,” and social media in an attempt to swallow up our children and young adults. This agenda attacks our young people, falsely promising to fix a psychological disorder with a physiological solution, which, directly or indirectly, affects every family in America to some extent or another: youth gender dysphoria (“transgenderism”). At this point some of you will be tempted to stop reading – PLEASE KEEP READING anyway!

Our young people cannot afford our silence; it is so very important that we see the hurt behind the façade, that we show the compassion of Christ by speaking truth lovingly, and that we are informed with the societal and political facts that have brought this nation and our children to where they are. Ask yourself, why is it that all of a sudden children and young adults are thinking that they’ve been born in the wrong body, as if God, after thousands and thousands of years, got confused and began making mistakes – PERISH THE THOUGHT!

Whatever masking these drugs and surgeries may provide, they will never bring about the change and satisfaction promised. We need to speak reality into the lives of those around us. We need to love them enough to NOT go along with their deceived mind. We need to love them enough to say, “If you are born male, every cell in your body will continue to shout out, ‘I’m a man!’ no matter how well it may be hid. Regardless of how you may try to convince yourself, reality does not go away.” We don’t discount their feelings, but we do compassionately speak truth into their lives – regardless of what sin is trying to overtake them.

If we are Christians, then at the very least let us speak truth into these hurting “gender dysphoric” souls, addressing them according to their God-ordained pronouns and birth-given names – not apologetically or angrily, but compassionately. Many of you are likely familiar with Jesus’ parable of the “Good Samaritan” in Luke 10:25-37. These youth have been hijacked by “robbers” with an agenda; left beaten by politicized counsellors, doctors, and social media; and stripped of the dignity of who God made them to be. They are “left for dead” by such “robbers” who care nothing for them or who are themselves deceived. Let us bring the balm of truth to heal their wounds and be willing to “pay” for whatever such actions may bring.

Any sin beats, robs, and leaves its victim for dead. This year, let us have compassion enough to bring the balm of truth into the lives of those around us – friend or stranger. F.B. Meyer exhorts us, “Make no distinction of race or creed; but wherever you come across a man who has been stripped, beaten, robbed, and is half-dead, don’t wait for other men to succor him, but bind up his wounds; minister to him, and treat him as though you loved him with the natural love of brotherhood.”

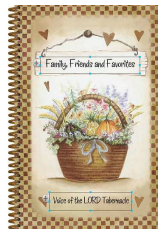

Reesie's Recipes

Fiesta Taco Dip

- 2 (8oz) cream cheese, softened
- 1 8oz. sour cream
- 1 T. Taco Bell taco seasoning
- 1 lb ground beef, cooked & drained
- 1/4 cup chopped onion (cook with ground beef)
- 16 oz. salsa
- 2 cups shredded taco seasoned cheese
- Frito scoops

Mix with a mixer cream cheese, sour cream and taco seasoning until creamy. Stir in salsa, onions, and ground beef. Spread evenly into a 9x13 pan. Top with shredded cheese. Bake at 350 until cheese is melted. Serve with Frito scoops.

GREAT COOKBOOK!

“Family, Friends & Favorites”

over 300 recipes

ONLY $7.00 each Or $5.00 each when you buy 2 or more!!

Swedish Meatballs

- 3 lbs. ground beef
- 1 pkg. beefy onion soup mix
- 2/3 cup evaporated milk
- 4 T. Worcestershire sauce

Sauce

- 3/4 cup brown sugar
- 2 cups ketchup
- 4 T. Worcestershire sauce

Mix meatball ingredients and let stand for 5 minutes. Shape into balls and broil for 10 minutes. Place in crock pot. Mix sauce ingredients together. Pour over meatballs. Cook until hot. Do not stir.

Golden Fruit Salad

- 1/2 cup sugar
- 2 T. corn starch
- 1 T. lemon juice
- 1/3 cup orange juice
- 1 large golden delicious apple, diced
- 1 large red delicious apple, diced
- 2 large bananas, sliced
- 1 (20oz) can pineapple chunks, drained (reserve juice)
- 1 (16oz) can mandarin oranges, drained
- whole green grapes

Whole red grapes, optional

Mix together first 4 ingredients with reserved pineapple juice. Stir and boil for 1 minute. Cool mixture 5 to 10 minutes. Pour hot mixture over fruit. Leave uncovered until cool.

“Father, where shall I work today?”

And my love flowed warm and free,
Then he pointed me toward a tiny spot
And said, “Tend that for me.”

I answered quickly, “Oh, no, not that!
Why no one would ever see,
No matter how well my work was done,
In that little place for Thee.”

And the word He spoke, it was not stern,
He answered me tenderly:
“Ah, little one, search that heart of thine;
Art thou working for them or Me?

“Nazareth was a little place,
And so was Galilee.”

~ Unknown

No Root, No Fruit

Have you ever wondered why you do what you do? One former Navy pilot tells how he was living a wilder life than he knew he should live. He decided his problem was that he was being led astray by his friends in flight training. So he arranged to finish his work in the program early and be transferred to another field nearby. Yet, it wasn't long, he said, before he was back in the same old bars, with the same girls, just with different friends. One night out-on-the-town he wondered, "Why do I do this?" And he realized, "Because I like to." Before a person becomes a Christian-I mean a real Christian, not just someone who says he is-his "want-to" is broken. He is not interested in God. He is bored by church and by reading his Bible. He cannot "make" himself "want to" do right and he cannot "make" himself "want not" to do wrong. When a person is born again, God repairs his "want-to." Even though he still feels the pull of temptation, he will have a new set of desires.

He will love God and want to talk to God in prayer and see what God has to say to him in His Word, the Bible. He wants to be around other people who love God; church attendance becomes meaningful. There is a new desire to obey God. Why do we do what we do? The answer is simple: we do what we do because of what we are. It's like fruit trees. Apple trees bear apples, pear trees produce pears, peach trees grow peaches. The fruit is the natural result of the nature of the tree. I suppose you could tie apples to a peach tree, but that would not make it an apple tree. In the same way, adding religious activities to one's schedule doesn't make one a Christian. Just as the fruit of the tree naturally flows from the nature of the tree, even so the attitudes, words, and actions of our lives reveal the true nature of ourselves. Jesus said, "Even so, every good tree bears good fruit, but a bad tree bears bad fruit....Therefore, by their fruits you will know them" (Mat. 7:17, 20).

THE STORY BEHIND THE SONG

Living For Jesus

Living for Jesus is one of the greatest hymns of self-consecration; it was written by the author's daughter constantly humming its tune to her father.

Thomas Obadiah Chisholm (1866-1960) was educated in a one-room schoolhouse, but became a teacher, associate editor of his hometown newspaper, editor of the Pentecostal Herald, ordained a Methodist minister in 1903, and wrote over 1200 poems – 800 of which were published in such periodicals as The Sunday School Times, Moody Monthly, and Alliance Weekly (and many of these were eventually set to music). At 27-years-old Chisholm became a Christian under the ministry of Henry Clay Morrison, founder of Asbury College and Seminary.

C. Harold Lowden had written both the tune for what is now known as Living for Jesus and the tune's original words under the title Sunshine Song, but, now, two years later while preparing a collection of hymns for publication, he felt that the song needed a stronger text. He changed the title to Living for Jesus and sent 51-year-old Thomas Obadiah Chisholm the tune and title, requesting new lyrics.

Though Chisholm proclaimed that he knew nothing about writing words to a pre-existing tune, Lowden stated that he "believed God had led me to select him" to provide a text to this music. Thomas could not read music, so he asked his daughter to hum the melody over and over to him. She did so until the words came to him.

Why did Chisholm write songs? "I have sought to be true to the Word, and to avoid flippant and catchy titles and treatment. I have greatly desired that each hymn or people might have some definite message to the hearts for whom it was written." He certainly met that goal in O to Be Like Thee, Great Is Thy Faithfulness, and Living for Jesus.

First verse and refrain: Living for Jesus, a life that is true/Striving to please Him in all that I do/Yielding allegiance, glad-hearted and free/This is the pathway of blessing for me. Refrain: O Jesus, Lord and Savior, I give myself to Thee/For Thou, in Thy atonement, didst give Thyself for me/I own no other Master, my heart shall be Thy throne/My life I give, henceforth to live, O Christ, for Thee alone.

For His Glory

How oft have you sought some reward for a task you said was "for the Lord?"

How oft have you felt a stinging slight and felt that you were not treated right?

How oft have you said "I quit, I am through. Nobody says 'thanks' for the things I do."

How oft have you felt the precious thrill that comes from just being in His will?

How oft did you count earth's glory dim compared to the joy of serving Him?

What is it your heart has longed for?

Does praise of men or HIS smile mean more?

"Picture This" (2024)

01. More Than A Picture 02. The New Church Down The Road
 03. God Likes To Work 04. The God On The Mountain
 05. Picture This 06. A Heart That Will Never Break Again
 07. The Day The House Of God Stood Still 08. Leaving On My Mind 09. Help Me 10. Why Me Lord 11. One More River

Order your copy today!

Available for a Love Gift of Any Size

Special Sermon on CD

"A CRY FROM HELL"

Over the years we have heard many testimonies from people being touched and saved while listening to this POWERFUL sermon on HELL! If you have not heard this sermon order your copy TODAY! Order more than one copy to share with others.

Free upon request

Nancy's Nuggets Of Wisdom

Stand Still & See The Salvation Of The Lord

Sister Nancy Willis

"And Moses said unto the people, fear ye not, stand still, and see the SALVATION OF THE LORD, which he will show to you today, for the Egyptians whom ye have seen today, ye shall see them again no more forever. The Lord shall fight for you, and ye shall hold your peace."
 Exodus 14:13&14

The children of Israel were in one of the biggest battles of their lives. They were troubled on every side. Some complained against Moses saying they should never had left Egypt; some cried unto the Lord, they knew they couldn't save themselves. Moses told them to calm down, to stand still and see the salvation of the Lord – salvation here meaning deliverance. God was going to deliver them out of this battle and never again would they have to face the Egyptians. I believe we can be in a battle for a long time, and maybe even forget that when we started out how the Lord said he would bring us through, that he would fight the battle for us. And like the children of Israel we too, complain and say how we should just quit because we can't do it. And it's true we can't, but if we do like Moses said, if we stand still and be quiet and let the Lord fight our battles, we too can see our enemies destroyed. Not by us but by God. (November 2006)

The Lambs Book Of Life

by Pastor Billy R. Douglas

Sermon on CD Available free upon request

Ministry Resources

Worldwide Radio

VOTL Radio / WOTL Radio

Listen 24/7 on your computer, laptop, smart phone, Roku and more! 2 Stations ONE MESSAGE...the Gospel of Jesus Christ

www.VOTLRADIO.com

www.WOTLRADIO.com

Video

Watch our latest and archived sermon videos

www.youtube.com/votltabernacle

Podcast

Listen to and download archived sermons and radio broadcasts

www.votlradio.podomatic.com

Newsletter Archives

View and print our latest edition of THE TRUMPET as well as past issues

www.thetrumpetonline.com

Weekly Radio Programs

The Voice of the LORD Broadcast

The Old Gospel Ship

Airing on FM, AM & Internet stations across America

For more information and Ministry resources visit our websites

www.votlradio.com

www.wotlradio.com

www.voiceofthelordministries.com

www.votlministries.com

www.theoldgospelship.com

www.thetrumpetonline.com

www.facebook.com/votltabernacle

VOTL Voice of the LORD Tabernacle
Ministry Outreach Center

The Message of the Cross - JESUS the WAY the TRUTH the LIFE
www.VOTLRADIO.com / www.voiceofthelordministries.com

Bible Devotion Daily Text Messages

Bible verse & short devotion

To sign up simply text
(270) 313-8753

www.facebook.com/pastorbillyrdouglas

VOTL LIVE webcast

8 PM (CT) - NIGHTLY

A Word for TODAY!

By Sister Michelle Deuling

Verse for Today: John 4:28 The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men, Additional Passages for today: John 4:1-30; Matthew 10:42

Thought for Today: When God becomes real to us, in our excitement, we may forget the things of this world as we share the Living Word.

Story for Today: Kyle pulled on his dark suit coat and grabbed his sunglasses off the counter as he headed out the door of his two-bedroom apartment. The location and accommodations were everything the young man had desired. After finishing his education at the four-year college his parents had encouraged him to attend, he quickly landed a job and found this apartment, which completed the final phase of establishing himself in his chosen career. Grabbing the keys to the red fiat she had been babying along for the last six months, Jasmine whispered the rote prayer that she had heard since childhood asking the "big man up there" to get her to work again. Jasmine was not a religious person. She had learned about a god as a child and supposed that there was something that kept the universe from falling apart, but her people had just done their own thing and hoped for the best. Chad had fixed her car just before he left her for another girl and the car had been holding its own since. Shelby had warned Jasmine that finding a guy at the bar normally didn't result in finding a person with the best character, but she hadn't paid much attention and last month had met Brent at the local pub. This new guy, like the other four before him, didn't seem to desire real commitment. However, Brent had been more than willing to move in since he was in between jobs. Arriving at the restaurant where she had been waitressing, she was surprised to see Kyle waiting to open her door. She had known Kyle for years but they didn't seem to run in the same circles as she liked to party and he was a Jesus freak with responsibility written all over his face. Why was he here again? She had seen him yesterday when she was leaving and was surprised that he had returned at this early of an hour! After a brief greeting, Kyle asked Jasmine if she would visit his grandmother at the hospital. Astonished with the request, Jasmine sputtered about having to work and not knowing what she would say to the elderly woman. Kyle calmly asked her if she would talk to her. She quickly replied that she had no clue what to talk about with a lady she didn't know. Kyle then shared the truth about Jesus. He told how Jesus had come to earth to save those who had done wrong from the punishment they deserved. Jasmine eyed him skeptically as she explained that her family had a different view of the ruler of the universe. Kyle wasn't deterred from his mission and he opened the Bible that he had in his suit coat as he showed her the scriptures that explained how Jesus had been born without sin, how he had lived a sinless life but had given his body to be destroyed to pay the price for everyone that would believe and receive Him as their Lord and Savior. As Kyle talked, Jasmine's eyes were opened. She forgot all about the time, and that she had been heading to work, as she learned about God and his forgiveness, mercy, and grace. Kyle offered to continue the discussion with Jasmine and her husband later but was told that Jasmine didn't have a husband anymore. She explained that after three divorces she had decided that marriage was not for her. Kyle was grateful that his old acquaintance had chosen to answer honestly and asked if she had a current boyfriend. Thinking of Brent, she acknowledged and offered to make the introductions. She got into her car and asked him to follow her without even stopping to let anyone know why she wouldn't be at work. She was so happy to know God that she didn't even pause to wonder what would happen to her job when she didn't show up for work.

Questions for Today: Have you ever been like Kyle, waiting to share God with someone who doesn't even realize how desperately they need a savior? What about the excitement that Jasmine exhibited that put all thoughts for the things of this world out of her mind as she embraced the deep love of God that would provide all she needed? Do you still, or have you ever, loved God that much?

Prayer for Today: Dear Heavenly Father, Thank You for revealing Yourself to us. Like when You met the woman at the well, You met her where she was and revealed Yourself to her, and in her excitement, she left the mission she had been on and went with the mission You gave her; please help us to have that excitement and never lose it. Please help us to keep our eyes focused on You and on doing what You desire for us to do. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Weekly Radio Outreach

The Voice of the LORD Broadcast

VOTL / WOTL Radio
www.votlradio.com
www.wotlradio.com

WXPS FM 92.1 - Spartanburg, SC

91.5 FM McDaniels / Leitchfield /
Central City KY

98.3 FM Rockport Indiana /
Owensboro KY

91.1 FM Hiseville / Glasgow KY

WPAK 1490 AM Farmville, Virginia

WOTG Radio - Pinellas Park, FL

WBLB 107.5 FM 1340 AM
Pulaski, VA

The Old Gospel Ship

VOTL Radio
www.votlradio.com

WOTG Radio - Pinellas Park, FL

WXCF-AM 1230 - Covington, VA

WKEY-AM 1340 - Covington, VA

WKEY-FM 103.5 - Covington, VA

WRMV FM 94.5 - Madison Heights, VA

WPAK 1490 AM Farmville, Virginia

Showers of Blessings 104 FM
Pago Pago, American Samoa

WJJT FM 105.9 WJJT AM 1540
Jellico, TN

WYAP-LP 101.7 FM - Clay, WV

WGAA 1340 AM - Cedartown, Georgia

RKP Radio 1710 AM - Washington, PA

South Wind Radio - Montesano, WA

ASLN Radio - Cordova, Alaska

GCIN Radio - Wiggins, MS

WNY Radio - Youngstown, NY

WHSB Radio - Columbus, OH

Swain County Christian FM
Bryson City, NC

WTRP 1620 AM
Lagrange, GA

CCRG & WUUK 105.7 FM
Erie, PA

WBPS FM 101.9 Cambridge, Ohio

WBLB 107.5 FM 1340 AM
Pulaski, VA

Country Gospel Radio
Essex United Kingdom

SOGR Radio
Powell, TN

OTNT FM
Northeastern Minnesota

God's Simple Plan of Salvation

My Friend: we are about to ask you the most important question of your life. Your joy or your sorrow for all eternity depends upon your answer. The question is: Are you saved? Do you know Jesus Christ as your personal LORD and Saviour? It is not a question of how good you are, nor if you are a church member, but have you put your faith in Jesus? Are you sure you will go to Heaven when you die? The Bible makes the plan of salvation plain and simple. Romans 10:13 says For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. Call on Jesus today. Put your faith and trust in him and ask him to forgive you of your sins and to be your LORD and savior and you will be born again...SAVED!! Do this today, tomorrow may be to late! Please write or call us if you have made the decision to accept Jesus.

VOTL Tabernacle
216 Hill St. Livermore, KY

Services

Sunday Morning Service 11 AM

Everyone Welcome

Submit your Prayer Request to:
Voice of the LORD Ministries
P.O. Box 541 - Livermore, KY 42352
Phone: 270-313-8753
Email: voiceofthelordministries@juno.com