CELEBRATE

Your DEPENDENCE on JESUS

I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. John 15:5

*LORD I Can't even walk
without You holding my hand
The mountains to high
And the valleys to wide
Down on my knees
I've learned to stand
Because I can't even walk
Without You holding my hand*

Hope For the Hopeless

And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown. Jonah 3:4

When the prophet Jonah entered Nineveh, he gave a message of hopelessness – in 40 days your city will be destroyed! He did not say, Nineveh will be destroyed "unless", but emphatically prophesied destruction to the people of the city — seeming to say their situation was hopeless. Yet hearing this message Nineveh repented, and because their repentance was genuine God spared the city for a season and many lives were saved. Jonah's prophecy of judgment was averted, and Nineveh's destiny was changed by their response to the deep conviction from a message of doom. That's how it is with God. He is so compassionate, so longing to forgive and restore people to Himself showing how His mercy triumphs over judgment. Is there a "prophecy of doom" over your life? Are your sins piled so high that God's judgment seems irrevocable and imminent? Don't despair ... repent! With our compassionate God there is hope even when it seems all is lost. You may have wandered very far from Him — but if Nineveh, a pagan city, hardened and ripe for judgment and "hopelessly" heading toward destruction, could be saved — shouldn't you also have hope if you turn back to the Lord? Don't give up – with Jesus there is always hope! George Whitten www.worthydevotions.com

You Are Not Alone

Behold, I go forward, but he is not there; and backward, but I cannot perceive him: On the left hand, where he doth work, but I cannot behold him: he hideth himself on the right hand, that I cannot see him: But he knoweth the way that I take: when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold. Job 23:8-10

Well in case some people don't know, I have been in the hospital 4 weeks with 4 more weeks to go. And trust me there has been times I have not felt The Lord. Like Job I have looked in front of me, in back of me, on the left and on the right. And I could not see him or feel him. My brother would text me and tell me even though I felt alone, I was by no means alone. You see as with job The Lord was hiding himself. He was wanting me to walk by faith. His word says he will never leave us or forsake us. In what ever battle we are going through he will go with us all the way. So what ever happens in the coming weeks, I know everything's gonna be alright.....When all you have is God, you have all you need.

Though I know not what awaits me, What the future has in store, Yet I know that God is faithful, For I've proved Him oft before

Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. Hebrews 13:5

Church of the Covered Dish

Cousin Leroy

Leroy's little Bertha Mae was talking to her teacher about whales. The teacher said it was physically impossible for a whale to swallow a human because even though it was a very large its throat was very small. Bertha Mae stated that Jonah was swallowed by a whale because the Bible says so. Irritated, the teacher rolled her eyes and said that a whale could not swallow a human; it was physically impossible and that she didn't care what the Bible said. Bertha Mae said, "When I get to heaven I will ask Jonah." The teacher asked, "What if Jonah went to hell?" To which Bertha Mae replied, "Then you can ask him."

Shopping List

A wife asks her husband, "Please go shopping for me and buy one carton of milk and if they have avocados, get 6." A short time later the husband comes back with 6 cartons of milk. The wife asks him, "Why did you buy 6 cartons of milk?" He replied, "They had avocados."

I Heard That

Three elderly men are walking through the park. The first says, "It sure is windy." The second responds, "No it isn't, it's Thursday." The third says, "I am too. Let's get something to drink."

School Days

On the first day of school, the kindergarten teacher said, "If anyone has to go to the bathroom, hold up two fingers." A little voice from the back of the room asked, "How will that help?"

Growing Old Together

We are growing old together,
And as we go down through the years
We are sharing everything in sight--
The laughter and the tears.

Now as we sit across the breakfast table,
Our two hands intertwined,
Will you lean a little closer, dear, and tell me
Which pills are mine?

The Unopened Letter

The man whispered, "Let me hear you God" And a meadowlark sang. But the man did not hear. So the man yelled "God, show me your power" And the thunder & lightning rolled across the sky. But the man did not notice. The man looked around and said, "God, let me see you." And a star shined brightly. But the man did not see. And, the man shouted, "God, show me a miracle" And a life was born. But again the man did not notice. So, the man cried out in despair, "Touch me, God, and let me know you are here" thereupon, God reached down and touched the man. But the man brushed the butterfly away and walked on. The man spoke in final desperation "Speak to me God" as his Bible lay closed and dust covered. I cannot count the times over the years that someone has told me "I wish the Lord would speak to me" or "The Lord never speaks to me"...oh but my friend He has and He is! He has given us 66 books which contain over 30,000 verses ALL intended for YOU. The Bible says in 2 Timothy 3:16-17 All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works. All scripture breathed of God given to man...His Word, His love letter to you! You see God is always talking the question is are we listening? Leaving the book unopened and wondering why you never hear from God would be the same as if your soul mate, the one you loved wrote you letter after letter expressing their love...yet you left them all unopened and then sit and wondered why your true love never told you how they felt or if they loved you. President Ronald Reagan once said "Within the covers of the Bible are the answers for all the problems men face." You see the LORD did not leave us without answers...man just simply is always looking for answers in the wrong places. Man struggles, toils and staggers while the letter remains unopened. A childhood accident caused poet Elizabeth Barrett to lead a life of an invalid before she married Robert Browning in 1846 As a child, Elizabeth had been watched over by her strict father. When she and Robert were married, their wedding was held in secret because of her father's disapproval. After the wedding the Brownings sailed for Italy, where they lived for the rest of their lives. But even though her parents had disowned her, Elizabeth never gave up on the relationship. Almost weekly she wrote them letters. Not once did they reply. After 10 years, she received a large box in the mail. Inside, Elizabeth found all of her letters; not one had been opened! Today those letters are among the most beautiful in classical English literature. Had her parents only read a few of them, their relationship with Elizabeth might have been restored. People run to buy the latest best seller looking for answers when every answer they need can be found in....the Word of God. Don't let HIS letter to you sit unopened and then spend your life wondering what He has to say or how He feels about you. For within its confines you can find true peace, true contentment, true love and the answers for which you seek. For you see in His letter you will find the revelation of the Prince of Peace the giver of life, the Lover of your soul...Jesus Christ. I want to close this month with the words of a song called "The Old Love Letter"...I found an old Love Letter that was written just for me. It told me how much I am loved, sweet & tenderly. With a broken heart I read each line of God's love for me. It was written by a nail scarred hand at Calvary! Oh how this old Love Letter spoke to my heart & soul. I was captured by every word as I watched His love unfold. With special care He wrote it down for all eternity. It was written by a nail-scarred hand at Calvary! I found the old Love Letter, the pages stained with red. I am yours eternally is what the postscript said. I treasure my Letter that he nailed upon that tree. My tears stains it's pages every time I read. Oh how this old Love Letter spoke to my heart & soul. I was captured by every word as I watched His love unfold. With special care He wrote it down for all eternity It was written by a nail scarred hand at Calvary! Open His Love letter...He is speaking...are you listening? Until next time May the LORD bless and keep you. Pastor Billy R Douglas

America's Call to Repentance

A true patriot does what is best for his country regardless of whether it is popular or not. He takes a stand and speaks the truth whether it's politically correct or not. What is best for this country, any country, is to turn to the One True God and call upon Him. America must stop poking God in the eye and repent of her wicked ways. America must remember where she has come from, Who has birthed her, recognize the danger she is in because she's turned her back on her Creator, and turn her feet back into the "old paths" seeking God's face and His pleasure once more. Zechariah one opens with a reminder, a call to repentance, and a warning. May we heed these things before it's too late. O America, repent and return to the One true God, Jehovah God Almighty, Creator of Heaven and earth and all that therein is! There will be NO mercy without return, and no return without mercy. Hurry and run headlong to this repentance and return; I fear the day of grace is so very short, and we could list off messenger of grace after messenger of grace who have passed away. They have preached; they have prophesied; they have warned; but still America wanders lustfully after her own way instead of God's way. O America, sin creates distance from God. The sinner is alienated in heart, and turned back from God in his works and in his pursuits. Unless you repent, if you keep chasing the wind, you will reap the whirlwind. Nineveh was evil but repented AND WAS FORGIVEN when it was but 40 days away from divine destruction. They were given a 100 year reprieve. Even as God spoke through the prophet Haggai, so He calls out to this country, "Consider your ways!" (v 5, 7). Take your eyes off the temporal and focus on the eternal. Stop looking to your own pleasure and look to the pleasure and good will of God. O America, repentance is a FULL-RETURN to God. God does not desire for you to give up a little of what is keeping you from fellowship with Him. God wants an entire renunciation of sin; He desires you to come close to Him and fellowship with Him. He reminds you in the book of James that if you will draw near to Him, He will draw near to you. O America, seek the face of God rather than your selfish desires; cling to that which is good and reject that which flies in the face of your Creator. O America, God calls you and all men to this repentance. He no longer "winks at sin" but is ready to punish it with divine retribution. God desires that none should perish. Can't you hear Him calling out to you, "Surrender your selfishness; love life and the divine natural design; come back to the 'old paths' and walk in holiness with your God." O America, to whom much has been given, much shall be required. Consider your ways; fully repent; seek the face of God; and be a shining light upon the hill. Draw all men to Calvary for the coming of the LORD is near. "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land." (2 Chronicles 7:14) O America, consider your ways, repent, draw near to God, and allow His blessing to fall on you once more. Press on humbly in repentance. Bro. Steven Huston 103 N. Division Ave. Fremont, Michigan 49412

Freedom is a Choice

JOSHUA 24:15

Choose you this day whom ye will serve . . . as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

In America, every year July 4th brings with it festivities, fun, food, family and friends, and fireworks—all as a celebration of national freedom. But even with all the celebrating and fun, many Americans are still caught in the web of bondage on a mental, emotional, relational, financial, vocational or spiritual level. Most often, we ourselves create the chains that bind us by making poor or sinful choices. The longer I live, the more convinced I am that life is a series of choices, each choice has a consequence, and we must live with the consequences of our choices. In order to have true freedom in your life, then, you must make wise choices. Will you choose good over evil (Psalm 34:14; Romans 12:21)? Obedience over rebellion (Proverbs 10:8; Hebrews 13:17)? Truth over deceit (Colossians 3:9; Proverbs 12:22)? Kindness over dishonor (Ephesians 4:32; Proverbs 14:2)? Every day you make hundreds of choices and these form the basis for your lifestyle. Seek God's wisdom in all of your decisions, not the wisdom of the world, the flesh or the devil (James 3:17). Take the sometimes difficult step of saying, "I'll do it God's way!" even though it may mean avoiding the easy road. In the long run, the freedom that comes with making godly choices is definitely something to celebrate! Lord, we lift to You our praise and adoration for the blessings You give us each day as we choose to walk Your way. By Ann Shorb

“Moving Forward”

By: Evangelist Mike Heltsley

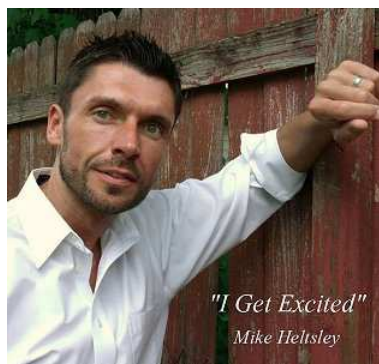

Scripture Reference: Exodus 14:15-16

The Lord shall fight for you, and ye shall hold your peace. 15 And the Lord said unto Moses, Wherefore criest thou unto me? speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward: 16 But lift thou up thy rod, and stretch out thine hand over the sea, and divide it: and the children of Israel shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea.

Summary: We need to believe in God, Pray to God and He will in return instruct and direct us. If we can trust in God, have total confidence in Him, we will have results. Beloved, I have come to minister to you about moving forward. And am praying that this message will encourage someone in the mighty name of Jesus. In order to move forward, the first thing that's needed is: BELIEVE We need to believe in The Lord and stop moaning, Moses at this level supposed to pray to God, talk to God, because God has spoken to him to take the children of Israel forward, rather God said to him why are you crying to me. God has seen that Moses is bothered, Are you also bothered about something or are you in a situation that's bothering you, Beloved don't cry to God. You need to believe. INSTRUCTION Psalms 32:8 - I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye. Beloved in order to move forward, you need instruction, but you can't receive instruction from God if you don't believe or if we continue crying or moaning. I believe when Moses heard God say "Wherefore criest thou unto me?" He must have been relieved. When you believe in God, He will instruct you, no matter what you going though, God is waiting to give you instruction. Go to God in prayer; ask him for instruction and He will answer you. Stop crying to God. DIRECTION Jeremiah 29:11 - For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end. Beloved there is difference between instruction and direction, In the above text after the lord instructed Moses to tell the children of Israel to move on (Instruction) and to lift up your rod, God then directed him to stretch out his hand over the sea and divide it. Beloved if you can believe in God more, Go to God in prayers concerning your issues and He will not only instruct you, but also direct you. He is our director. TRUST Psalms 20:7 - Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the name of the Lord our God. Proverbs 3:5-6 - Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. 6 In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Moses trusted in God, we all need to put our trust in The Lord, when you believe in God, He will instruct you and then direct you. Trusting in The Lord is very important, no matter what situation you are, if you can trust in God, He will see you through. He sees your issues and He's just waiting for you to approach Him in the appropriate way and not crying. Crying won't help. Trusting God will. CONFIDENCE Proverbs 3:26 - For the Lord shall be thy confidence, and shall keep thy foot from being taken. Moses was confident that God would deliver them, when you put your confidence in God, you get results, remember you can believe in a friend, but don't trust him; you can also trust a friend but don't have confidence in him. Same way you can believe that a Bank is real, but not trust them with your money, you can also trust them but have no confidence that they can manage your money for you. But with God you need not doubt, rather believe in Him, let Him instruct you, Let Him direct you, trust and put your confidence in God and you will get results.

The Battle Rages

"That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is Spirit" John 3:6

Do you know someone who just rubs you the wrong way? No matter what you do or say they want the opposite? Well there is only a couple of answers to this problem. One is to get an arbitrator, and the other is to have absolutely nothing to do with them. By the way.... the second solution (having nothing to do with them) is not an option when considering scuffles in marriage. Seeking a counselor there is always the best solution. I was speaking here of people you work with or associate it with through some social activity. In any case, you are expected to be professional or at the very least civil in your dealings with other people. The problem is, if you're like 90% of the people who face this predicament, you try to handle it yourself... and it's a constant battle. There is another battle that we face everyday that is even more intense than that. This battle is fought on grounds where you alone must face the aggressor. This battle is fought in the inner recesses of your mind and heart. Listen to how Paul describes it: I'm sure you've heard it before... "For that which I do I allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I. Rom 7:16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good. Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not. For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do." Ro. 7:15 - 19 (KJV) Sound familiar? One thing I have learned through life is that relationships are either vertical or horizontal. The vertical relationship of course refers to Spiritual matters, while horizontal relationships have to do with others (or flesh). So, where do you think your dislike for your co-worker comes from? Does God dislike your co-worker? Listen, when you're vertical relationship is right, your horizontal relationship will be right. It's so true... the biggest battles we fight every day are the battles within. We know right from wrong, and good from bad, still we find it easier to give in to our inbred sin nature than to practice walking in the spirit. Any one can gossip, and put down another person, but it takes a man or woman of God to let patience have it's perfect work in us. I can't even pretend to know what your battles are every day, but I do know from experience that..."Those who live according to the sinful nature have their minds set on what that nature desires; but those who live in accordance with the Spirit have their minds set on what the Spirit desires. The mind of sinful man is death, but the mind controlled by the Spirit is life and peace." Romans 8:5,6 There is one other battle most of the WORLD is fighting and that battle is raging in not just the mind but is effecting the heart (both physically and spiritually) and that is anger and utter fear over the POWERFUL EVIL in the WORLD today. Little girls being abducted from schools, and used by EVIL Militia for their own purposes and thrown in mass graves; Countries - even the USA - deep into such wickedness and debauchery all for the sake of money and WORLD dominance; threats of retaliation if writings such as this one are discovered by the INTERNET POLICE; and Christians young and old are being targeted for exile at the least or annihilation at the most. Let me just say that things are not as they were, and every believer must get in touch with God - and before you leave your house today - everyday... ask God to release His Spirit within you. Begin living the text for today: "That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is Spirit" John 3:6 (KJV) Where there are situations that seem impossible to handle, remember that Man's extremities, are merely God's opportunities to work, and LEAD YOU VICTORY.

God's Simple Plan of Salvation

My Friend: we are about to ask you the most important question of your life. Your joy or your sorrow for all eternity depends upon your answer. The question is: Are you saved? Do you know Jesus Christ as your personal LORD and Saviour? It is not a question of how good you are, nor if you are a church member, but have you put your faith in Jesus? Are you sure you will go to Heaven when you die? The Bible makes the plan of salvation plain and simple. Romans 10:13 says For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. Call on Jesus today. Put your faith and trust in him and ask him to forgive you of your sins and to be your LORD and savior and you will be born again...SAVED!! Do this today, tomorrow may be to late! Please write or call us if you have made the decision to accept Jesus. We would love to send you some material to help you with your new life with the LORD.
