V - VICTORY
O - OVER
T - THE E - ENEMY

I'm not talking about politics in this election year. Here is what the LORD brought to my mind: We know that by the blood of Jesus and the victory that he won on Calvary and defeating death and rising from the tomb gives us victory over the enemy when we place our faith completely in the finished work of Christ and not try to add our own works to what he has already done. His VICTORY OVER THE ENEMY is our victory when we place our faith in him! So we can VOTE to place our faith exclusively in what Christ has done and have victory or if we don't we will live in defeat. It is just as simple as that!

For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God? 1 John 5:4-5

HOW IMPORTANT IS PRAYER TO YOU?

Nathan Hale, a great American patriot during the Revolutionary War, was captured and hung by British soldiers. His now famous final words were, "I only regret that I have but one life to lose for my country." He was willing to die for his nation and its freedom. During the final days of World War II, it was apparent that the Japanese were fighting a losing battle. Yet many of their pilots, dubbed "kamikaze," willingly flew suicide missions. There was great honor in dying for a cause. The pilots were willing to die for glory. Not long ago, a mother in Philadelphia went back into a burning building to rescue her children who were trapped inside. After saving two, she died in the flames trying to save the other two. The mother was willing to die for her children. In the ancient empire of Persia, a law was passed making it a crime punishable by death to pray to anyone but the emperor. One aged government official refused to obey the edict. It was his conviction to pray three times daily to the one true God. As a result, he was cast into a den of lions. Even though God saved Daniel, Daniel was still willing to die rather than give up his duty of prayer. How important is prayer to you? Is it worth dying for? Or, would someone need to pass a law demanding daily prayer or a trip to the lions' den to get you to pray? People are willing to die for that which is of great importance to them. Prayer should be that important! It is our link to God. Without the lifeline of prayer, we grow spiritually weak. Do not neglect the privilege that God has given to us as His children to pray.

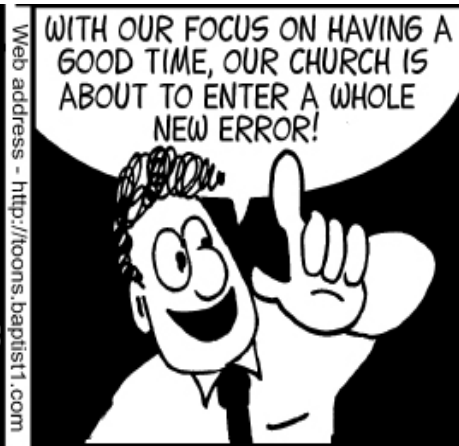

Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.

Cousin Leroy

In an effort to get little Leroy to go to sleep one night Leroy decides to tell him a story about his old grand pappy Tillard. Back in the frontier days, a westbound wagon train was lost and low on food. No other humans had been seen for days, when finally they saw an old mining camp and an "Old Man" sitting neath a tree. It was my great great great grand Pappy Tillard. The leader rushed to him and said, "We're lost and running out of food. Is there someplace ahead where we can get food?" "Well," old pappy Tillard said, "I wouldn't go up dat hill un down the other side. Some feller told me not to go over that hill or you'll run into a big bacon tree." "A bacon tree?" asked the wagon train leader. "Yep, ah bacon tree." The leader goes back and tells his people that if nothing else, they might be able to find food on the other side of the next ridge. "So why did he say not to go there?" some of the pioneers asked. "Who knows, maybe the old man don't like bacon." So the wagon train goes up the hill and down the other side. Suddenly, Indians attack from every side luckily the wagon train barely manages to escape back to the old mining camp and there sat old Pappy Tillard. The exhausted and startled wagon leader starts shouting, "There was no bacon tree on the other side of that hill! There was hundreds of Indians, we barely escaped." Pappy Tillard held up his hand and said "Um, wait a minute." He then starts scratching his head and after a minute of deep thought said. "Well I be a possum in a turnip bush, I made myself a big mistake. It wernt no bacon tree. It wer a ham bush!"

An American attorney had just finished a guest lecture at a law school in Italy when an Italian lawyer approached him and asked, "Is it true that a person can fall down on a sidewalk in your county and then sue the landowners for lots of money?" Told that it was true, the lawyer turned to his partner and started speaking rapidly in Italian. When they stopped, the American attorney asked if they wanted to go to America to practice law. "No, no," one replied. "We want to go to America and fall down on sidewalks."

Having just moved into his new office, a pompous, new colonel was sitting at his desk when an air man knocked on the door. Conscious of his new position, the colonel quickly picked up the phone, told the airman to enter, then said into the phone, "Yes, General, I'll be seeing him this afternoon and I'll pass along your message. In the meantime, thank you for your good wishes, sir." Feeling as though he had sufficiently impressed the young enlisted man, he asked, "What do you want?" "Nothing important, sir," the airman replied, "just here to hook up your telephone."

A minister was forced to stop by a traffic cop to pull over for speeding. As the cop was about to write the ticket, the minister said to him, "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy." The cop handed the minister the ticket and said, "Go thou and sin no more."

When Faith Cries Out
Evangelist Chree Lynn Simms

Web Site: www.fwem.comEmail: faithworks4u@hotmail.com

"And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with His disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, sat by the highway side begging. And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou Son of David, have mercy on me. And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou Son of David, have mercy on me. And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; He calleth thee. And he casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus. And Jesus answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight. And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way." Mk 10:46-52

Tenacious faith gets results. Bartimaeus employed an unyielding faith when the right opportunity presented itself and it won a new life for himself and his family. Unyielding, dogged and just plain old raw faith will always get God's attention. Why? Because it is the building material for every miracle you've ever seen. (Heb 11:1) God Himself used it to create the universe and all that is, then He gave to every man, woman and child the potential for this kind of faith. (Rom 12:3) Bartimaeus used cantankerous faith. When the reverent crowd began to shush him, he only got louder and bolder. He didn't care that they thought him rude. He didn't listen when they probably said so. His miracle was walking by and he was not going to give it up for anyone! Raw faith will shut your ears, eyes and mind to anything that tries to come against it. When you are using raw faith you will refuse to receive a bad report, instead you will cry out even the more until the doubt and unbelief around you is finally drowned out by faith's cry! I'm sure there were some people around him that day that felt sorry for "poor ole Bartimaeus" and tried to "prepare" him just in case his miracle did not come. They didn't want to see him crushed if his hopes became dashed. I want to tell you right now, that kind of "preparation" is not Biblical. You will receive what you expect. Don't let anyone around you try to "prepare" you to expect the worse, especially when it's a life or death situation. Let your faith cry out even the more. Do whatever you have to do to get away from that kind of reasoning. Get rude if you have to, or just walk away from them if you can. Tell them that they can either believe God with you or remove themselves from the situation. You don't need their sympathy when they are not actively agreeing with your faith. It will only prove detrimental for you. After all, it's not their life on the line, but yours. Be cantankerous with your faith. As far as we know, no one in the crowd was standing with Bartimaeus in faith. He was the only one who believed that Jesus would help him and his cantankerous faith irritated and even angered some of the people. Your's probably will too. There may be some who will whisper that you've gone a little "off your rocker" or you've become too fanatical for comfort. There may be some who will become offended because you refused to listen to their counsel to become quieter with your faith and you refused to prepare yourself in the event that you might not receive. But raw faith will believe God more than even the circumstances surrounding it. Besides, their tune will change when your faith in God has wrought your miracle and the same people who stood against you, will slap you on the back and declare (rather loudly) that they always knew that God would come through for you. When they do, please be kind and just nod and say, "Yes sir, my God is truly good!" This happened with Bartimaeus as soon as Jesus called for him. The attitude of the whole crowd amazingly changed and the same people who were standing against him were suddenly for him. In this account, we are not told if Bartimaeus was already "living the life" or if he had ever attended a faith teaching meeting. We are told that his faith made him whole. It was the same faith that caused Bartimaeus to cry out even the more as the opposition around him became stronger. He used raw faith. He used cantankerous faith. He used tenacious faith. When you use that kind of faith it is always personal. When you use that kind of faith it is always powerful, and ultimately, that kind of faith can stand even when it's just between you... and God. So, be of good comfort friend and don't stop believing. The same faith that made Bartimaeus "whole" can do the same for you.

"Never Forget
Sister Nancy Willis

Sometime ago I heard a song about a little orphan boy, and a King of great wealth.. The King had no children of his own, so he decided to adopt this little boy. The little boy who was poor, dirty, and only had torn ragged clothes. , he was very happy to get adopted. So when the King adopted him, he gave him the finest of everything, after all he was now the son of a King. He had a great inheritance. One day the King noticed a box of old clothes sitting in the corner. He asked his son why didn't he throw them away, the son said because I never want to forget where I came from. A lot of people after they get saved they seem to forget where the Lord brought them from. They think they are better than anyone else. They have forgot that they to at one time was lost in sin. They judge people and never show love and compassion. They have forgot that they too used to be in this condition. And if not for the mercy and grace of God would still be there. In Matt. 18;11- it tells us that Jesus came to save those which was lost. And I thank him so much for saving me, and I never want to forget where he brought me from. How one day he saved me, adopted me, and now I to am a child of THE KING.

"We can preach the Gospel of Christ no further than we have experienced the power of it in our own hearts." - George Whitefield

CORNERSTONE
Rev. Billy R Douglas

Another Gospel

But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. Galatians 1:8

This month we continue looking at the false doctrines and teachings of the Catholic church. Once again we will be taking the actual teachings from the Catholic Catechism which is the document laying out the doctrines of this church and comparing them to what the Word of God says.

“SALVATION THROUGH THE CATHOLIC CHURCH ALONE?”

The Second Vatican Council's Decree on Ecumenism explains: "For it is through Christ's Catholic Church alone, which is the universal help toward salvation, that the fullness of the means of salvation can be obtained." Here we see the unbelievable heresy that states that salvation can only be obtained through the Catholic Church. This is why it is such a traumatic thing for one who belongs to the Catholic Church to be thrown out or excommunicated. Because according to their teachings if a person is not allowed to be a member of the Catholic church or to take communion then their soul is lost and there is no salvation for them. Unfortunately this is not the only denomination that teaches this damnable doctrine...there are others as well that claim unless you are "part of their denomination" you cannot go to heaven. How sad and HOW WRONG! The way to heaven is not through a denomination or religious organization...the way to Heaven is the same today as it has always been. The way to heaven is JESUS nothing more nothing less. When he said on the cross as he was dying "IT IS FINISHED" he meant what he said and he said what he meant. Calling on Jesus and accepting his finished work on the Cross is the only way of salvation...not baptism...not communion...not works...not having your name on a church book BUT having your name in the Lambs book of life by accepting Jesus as LORD and Saviour! The Catholic Catechism goes on to state..."Basing itself on Scripture and Tradition, the Council teaches that the Church, a pilgrim now on earth, is necessary for salvation ... thereby affirmed at the same time the necessity of the Church which men enter through Baptism as through a door." Anyone that is taught this doctrine would think that one could not be saved who, knowing that the Catholic Church was founded as necessary by God through Christ, if they refused either to enter it or to remain in it. There is only one scripture from the word of God needed to disprove this teaching, Jesus said in John 10:9 I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. There is no salvation by any other means than JESUS! The Catholic Church also teaches that as long as you believe in the "Creator"...The Catholic Catechism makes this clear when it states the following "The plan of salvation also includes those who acknowledge the Creator, in the first place amongst whom are the Muslims; these profess to hold the faith of Abraham, and together with us they adore the one, merciful God, mankind's judge on the last day." This is one of the most damnable doctrines in the world today...in other words forget that Jesus said in John 14:6...I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. And as long as you believe in God the Father you can be saved...the Word of God plainly teaches that you cannot get to the Father...the Creator...the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob UNLESS you go through the Son, Jesus! It is not enough to just believe in a God...you must believe in Jesus. We have seen this gospel of compromise rear its ugly head even in Church's and preachers that should know better...preachers like Joel Osteen and Billy Graham who in an effort to be politically and religiously correct make statements that lead people to believe that you "might" be able to go to heaven even is you reject Jesus...my friend there is no message any more clear in the Bible than this...you MUST be born again and that ONLY Comes through the one who died for your sins on the old rugged cross...salvation only comes through Jesus. Next month we will continue looking at the Catholic church... we will be looking at the role of the Pope and the teaching of prayers for the dead. It is our prayer that this series will be enlightening and helpful to you. Until next time may the LORD keep you is our prayer

SALVATION CORNER

We have set aside this corner of THE TRUMPET to show God's Plan of Salvation. If you are unsure where you will go when you die, please listen to what God has said in His Word:

FIRST . . . GOD LOVES YOU!

"For God so loved the world that he gave His only Begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have Everlasting Life" Jn. 3:16

SECOND . . . MAN IS A SINNER, AND SIN HAS SEPARATED HIM FROM GOD!

"For there is not a just man upon Earth, that doeth good and sinneth not" Eccl. 7:20.

"For all have sinned and come short of the Glory of God" Rom. 3:23.

THIRD . . . JESUS CHRIST IS THE ONLY REMEDY FOR SIN!

"For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God . . ." I Pet. 3:18.

"Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under Heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved" Acts 4:12

FOURTH . . . YOU MUST RECEIVE JESUS CHRIST AS YOUR PERSONAL LORD AND SAVIOUR.

Jesus calls this experience the "new birth." He told Nicodemus: ". . . Except a man be born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God" Jn. 3:3.

We invite you now to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as your personal Saviour. "But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His Name" Jn. 1:12.

Pray this prayer and mean it with all of your heart:

Dear Lord Jesus, I now realize that I am a sinner. I accept the fact that You died for me on the rugged Cross of Calvary. I now open my heart's door and receive You as Saviour and Lord of my life. Please take Full control of me and help me to be the kind of Christian You want me to be. Amen.

If you prayed this prayer in all sincerity, you are now a Child of God. So that we might rejoice with you, we invite you to fill in the information below and mail it to the address on the back of this newsletter.

TODAY I ACCEPTED JESUS AS MY LORD AND SAVIOUR.

His Blood Will Speak For Me, prt 2

"His Blood Will Speak For Me"
WRITTEN BY: BETTY JEAN ROBINSON

vs. 1

There are times these old eyes fill with tears.
When memory recalls the passing years.
So many things I've left undone I can't do now.
My hope is anchored in His cleansing power.

chorus:

I thank my Lord His precious Blood will speak for me. It's not what I've done, but what He did on Calvary. When I stand before His throne, holding nothing of my own, I'll rest assure, His precious Blood will speak for me.

vs. 2

I've thought it over and I'm ready to go home.
These temporal things will be past on when I am gone. Oh to see His blessed face, my heart sings out "Amazing Grace". Sweet Lamb of God your precious Blood will speak for me.

GLORY TO GOD! My Savior's Precious Blood will speak for me. Not only today, but In That Day! I began to sing, "When I stand before His throne holding nothing of my own, I can rest assure His Precious Blood will speak for me." His Blood is speaking today..."Come drink of the Water of Life freely." Rejoice Child of God! Your name is written in the Lamb's Book of Life! No matter what age you are today, "He will prop
every leaning side!"

Ephesians 1:7, "In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace;"

Until next time, the Lord bless you,
