A Song In The Night

Oh, to suffer that kind of grief and not know the blessed Holy Spirit, and have Him help us. Nowadays they medicate people for such deep grief so they can barely remember it. How much more healing for the Comforter to help us bare what must be borne. Many of those good mountain people already knew the blessed Holy Spirit, because years earlier God had sent out His Spirit across our region, and a Holy Ghost revival had set those hills on fire. My Mammy had had that experience, but the rest of us - and oh, dear God! - so many others, still walked in fear, poverty, and darkness. Who knows what went through the minds of those parents who sent their brave mountain sons off to that great world war, boys who never had left home before in their lives, and many boys never returned to the mountains. Always, too, you saw the mountain mothers rocking on their front porches, holding aprons up in front of their weeping eyes, the day their teenage sons went to work in the coal mines. There went their boyhood forever, and all their mama's hopes, as they headed for those dark, dangerous, underground places to who knows what... poisonous gasses, cave-ins, or at the least, black lung disease. How could those parents stand it, unless they had God? Mammy knew the comforter, but her son, our daddy, did not. You don't reach God through your mother or father, but only through a one-on-one encounter with God that our Daddy had not yet had. Grief comes to every person on this earth at some time or other, but it seemed like it went so much deeper with those mountain people whenever they lost one of their own. They had so little anyway that such grievous loss seemed unbearable. The fear of such tragedy stalked them every day of their lives. ...

Let Your Light Shine

A little old Jewish lady is flying out of New York City on her way to Miami Beach. She looks at the businessman sitting next to her and asks him, "Excuse me sir, but are you Jewish?" The man responds politely, "No, ma'am, I'm not Jewish." After a little while, she again asks him. "You're really Jewish, aren't you?" Again he responds, "No, ma'am, I am not Jewish." Barely 10 minutes later, the little old lady asks him once more, "Are you sure you're not Jewish?" Finally, in exasperation and in a final effort to shut her up, he replies, "OK. Yes, ma'am, I am Jewish." "Funny," she says, looking puzzled. "You don't look Jewish!" Makes me wonder. If anyone approached me and asked me, "Are you a Christian?" and I answered, "Yes", would they be inclined to say, "Funny, you don't look like a Christian"? I'm not talking about looking like the world's stereotype of a Christian -- but maybe more so in my actions and in my deeds. Is my Christianity something that can be seen by the people who see me every day. I know what I believe, but is that belief translating into action? Can anyone tell?

Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Matthew 5:14-16

Do you look/act like a Christian?

By Alan Smith (edited)

Lord, I'm not perfect

Though sometimes I try to be,

But thank God I am forgiven

Please LORD let them see Jesus in me

And if there is anything in my life

That is wrong and should not be,

Please forgive me and help me live

So people can see Jesus in me.

Cousin Leroy

Leroy and his cousin Ray were dragging their dead deer down a trail back to their truck. Another hunter approached pulling his along too. "Hey fellas , I don't want to tell you what to do, but I can tell you that it's much easier if you drag the deer in the other direction. Then the antlers won't dig into the ground." After the third hunter left, the two decided to try it. A little while later Leroy said to Ray, "You know, that guy was right. This is a lot easier!" "Yeah," Ray added, "but we're getting farther and farther away from the truck!"

Bubba At The Doctor

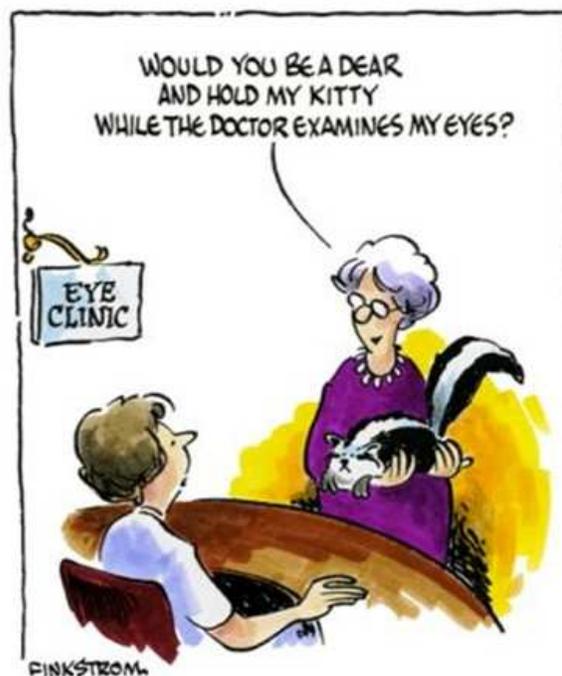

Bubba: "I have a terrible pain in my left side. I think it's appendicitis!"

Doctor: "No, that can't be. The appendix is on the right side."

Bubba: "So THAT'S why it hurts so much! My appendix is on the wrong side!"

Lazy

A site foreman had ten very lazy men working for him, so one day he decided to trick them into doing some work for a change. "I've got a really easy job today for the laziest one among you," he announced. "Will the laziest man please put his hand up." Nine hands went up. "Why didn't you put your hand up?" he asked the tenth man. "Too much trouble," came the reply.

A Cry From Hell

And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried; And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments... Luke 16:22

This passage of scripture is taken from the story that Jesus told in one of his sermons in Luke the 16th chapter. Contrary to the belief of the Jehovah's Witness Church and many other denominations THIS IS NOT a parable...this is a true account. Jesus never calls this a "parable" as a matter of fact in this story Jesus even tells us the name of the beggar...that alone is enough to let us know that this was something that actually took place. In the 3 1/2 years of Jesus ministry he spoke and warned of hell many times. He probably spoke of hell more than he did of Heaven. That tells me that this was something that Jesus took very seriously and something that he wanted people to know the truth about. Yet in today's "religiously correct society" you will be hard pressed to turn on your television or to walk into most churches on any given Sunday and find a preacher preaching on this subject. You will not hear it preached in the "MEGA" churches across our country. Why? Are they afraid they will offend their crowd? Afraid they will scare some of them off? Well my friend if you do not know Jesus Christ as your personal Lord and saviour...YOU SHOULD BE SCARED! Because the next breath you take may be your last and if you leave this life without knowing Jesus you will go to hell. This rich man died lost and undone without God and was in hell over 2,000 years ago...he is still in hell today! If you read the story you will find that there is no way out...hell is eternal. And once the rich man found out that none could come to him to comfort him and that there was no way out he begged Abraham to send Lazarus the beggar to WARN his family not to come to this awful place! I believe with all my heart that there are millions of souls in the pit of the damned that cry out...PLEASE SOMEBODY GO AND WARN THEM NOT TO COME TO THIS AWFUL PLACE!! They cry out for you to share the gospel...they cry out for Pastors who preach nothing more than a "false feel good message" to warn them not to come to this awful place!! We have preachers and teachers standing in front of thousands...millions each Sunday and all they will tell them is "you can be rich"...."you can be the best you"....you can have YOUR BEST LIFE NOW! Never warning them of the damnation and torment to come if they do accept Jesus Christ as LORD and Saviour! You cannot preach what Jesus preached and never mention this subject because he included it in his teachings as much as any other subject that he spoke on! What a terrible thought to be one of these preachers that will not preach the truth, that never warn of the flames of hell for if they do not change they will indeed one day hear these cries for themselves as they stand in the midst of the eternal flames of hell as the lost claw at them with weeping and gnashing of teeth and cry...WHY DIDN'T YOU WARN ME...WHY DIDN'T YOU WARN MY FAMILY...I watched you every Sunday on television...I came to your church and you NEVER...NOT ONE TIME talked to me about this awful place!! We must share the message of Jesus with the world today because tomorrow may be too late! Tell them of heaven yes BUT also warn them of the hell to come should they reject Him! Let them know that there is only one way to avoid hell and make heaven their eternal home and that is to accept Jesus Christ and his finished work on the Cross in this life for in eternity it will be too late! There will be no altar call in hell....Until next time, Pastor Billy R Douglas

- 2 cups mayo
- 1/3 cup sugar

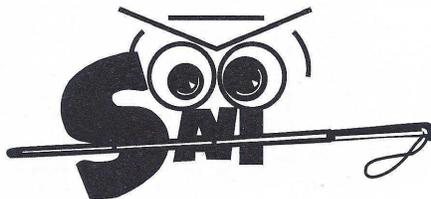

Mix mayo and sugar and set aside. Crumble up half of corn muffin mix in a 9x13 pan and put bacon on top. Mix together all vegetables and put on top of bacon. Pour mayo mixture over vegetables and top with the other half of the muffin mixture. Refrigerate.

Dad's MIA

June is often dedicated to graduations, marriages, open houses, and some early vacations. There's another special day in June. Father's Day: a day to honor our dads by giving thanks to God for them and by showing them how much we appreciate them. As we look around us we may well notice that there are many dads who are missing in action. I certainly am not making light of those valiant men who have gone off to war and have died; there's a spiritual war that has claimed the lives of countless males and Satan has either made them prisoners of war or has gotten them to buy the lie and they are just missing in action. It's a painful reality. Look around you. If men were busy being real dads and fighting the fight for their families, if they were standing strong having done all to stand, we wouldn't see places like Baltimore go up in flames and fury. Racism and race-baiting wouldn't be tolerated and those who promote it wouldn't have the grasp on our sons and daughters that it has. Homosexuality wouldn't be in the hands of the Supreme Court and it wouldn't be invading "the church," our culture, or our communities. Teenagers would be respectful instead of promiscuous, helping at home instead of running the streets, and brought up in the fear and admonition of God. By this we can see that even in the church we have dads who are MIA and POWs. Even if a dad is home but not spending time with his children he is MIA. If he's not training them as he ought, he's MIA. If he's so caught up in work, pornography, alcohol, or some other vice, if he's so self-absorbed that his family comes second only to him, he's a POW in his own self-made prison. Vice by vice he's laid down brick by brick a cell of his own choosing. Choice by choice he's forged the chains of his own bondage. If he's taken his keys of freedom and given them to the government or some peddler of filth and corruption, he's chosen his own jailer but it's a jail, a cell, and a chain, just the same. Don't get discouraged; please keep reading on. I'm not looking for Mayberry but I'm tired of this Mayhem! I'm not looking for the "good-ole-days" because I hear they weren't so good. What I am looking for are men who truly desire to train up their children in godliness, men who are willing to pass the torch of true freedom and liberty on to their children by raising them up in the nurture of Jesus. We need dads who will—in this dark day—shine the Light of the world (Jesus, the Christ) into their homes and into the lives of their children that God has blessed them with. Voddie Baucham states it best when addressing parents: "If parents have raised their children to be great doctors, lawyers, athletes, or musicians, but have not trained their children to honor them and obey God, they have failed!" Dads, your God-given responsibility is to train your children in godliness, to teach them about the Holy God Who created them, and created them for His own good pleasure. Your real job is to train them in holiness and righteousness, to raise them to love the one true God with all their heart, all of their mind, all their soul, and all their strength. If you won't do this then you are MIA or a POW; the world will take them, train them to hate their Creator, and lead them to an eternal hell. They may grow up to be "respectable" but God is no respecter of persons; without the love of Jesus shining in their lives, hell will still be their home. Paul had one goal in mind, to win Christ. After he listed off all his earthly blessings and "church" standings, his civility and greatness, he said it was worth less than a pile of manure to him in the light of Jesus. Give me Jesus or give me nothing! "Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ," (Philippians 3:8) We will never be perfect dads but we have a heavenly Father who IS perfect and holy. He gives power and strength for us to raise our children as soldiers of and for Christ. He is a gracious and loving God. I thank Him for giving me a Dad who loved me and did what he could to train me in holy living. I thank God for my Dad. Press on in living faithful and training your children in the fear and admonition of the Lord!

“Understanding Your Enemy” part 01

By Evangelist Mike Heltsley

As people who have been born again of God's Spirit, we have been delivered from the power of darkness. There was a time when all of us were under the influence and the jurisdiction of Satan's kingdom and domain. Now that we have been born again and translated into the kingdom of God, we should not take lightly that we still have an enemy who wants to bring harm to us and render us ineffective as ambassadors of God's kingdom. Colossians 1:13 - Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son Ephesians 6:12 - For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. I believe it is important for us to understand the tactics and cunning devices of God's arch enemy. Therefore, in this message today I want to talk about Satan, who he is, his origin and fall and how he seeks to work in our lives. The Bible says we are not to be ignorant of his devices. 2nd Corinthians 2:11 - Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices. I believe many Christians are walking around in defeat and even in backslidden conditions, simply because they have not been aware of the enemy's cunning devices in their lives. We need to understand that Satan is the arch enemy of God and the church. That means he is your arch enemy as well, if you belong to God. His intent is to destroy the work of God in your life by any means possible. Therefore we should understand just who this enemy is and how he works. In warfare many victories are won by those who understand and know the moves of their enemy. In spiritual warfare it is much the same way, the more we know and understand the tactics of our enemy the more on guard we will be, as well as being able to thwart his attacks. 1st Peter 5:8 - Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: I. Who Is Satan Today. 1. He Is A Powerful Angelic Being With Power To Deceive. Let's remember that he is still a powerful angelic being of great beauty and is still able to transform himself into an angel of light and to even transform his ministers into ministers of righteousness. 2nd Corinthians 11:13-15 - For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. 14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. 15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works. Matthew 24:24 - For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect. 2. He is the god or the Prince of this World John 14:30 - Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me. 2nd Corinthians 4:4 - In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. II. Satan's Major Tactics and Works. 1. He Works through Deception and Subtlety. 2nd Corinthians 11:3 - But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. In writing about America's problems with our own national security, Jim Banford, author of "The Puzzle Palace", said, "Once you've sold one secret you're usually hooked. They don't start by asking to get a top secret document. They usually ask for something innocuous, like a telephone directory. Once a person starts, they're hooked at that point." Isn't that the way Satan operates? He tempts us to make little compromises that seem so insignificant and end up ensnaring us in sin. His deception often times comes through the word of God itself. He will take God's word and either question it, take away or add to it. He will try to wrest the scriptures to our destruction as well as his. This is how he was able to deceive Eve. He caused Eve to question God's Word. Genesis 3:1 - Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the Lord God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden? He Quoted Half Truths to Jesus. Matthew 4:3-11 - And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread. 4 But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. 5 Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple, 6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone. 7 Jesus said unto him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God. 8 Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; 9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me. 10 Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. 11 Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, angels came and ministered unto him. He twists or Wrests the Scriptures.

Get A Grip

"O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust; avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called: Which some professing have erred concerning the faith." 1 Timothy 6:20,21 (KJV)

The Greatest and best WORD that I could give to the WORLD today is GET A GRIP OF YOUR SOUL! Within it (your soul) are housed the things that you believe in, that you trust in, that you KNOW to be fact! It is that part of your body that is LIFE and is ALIVE and filled with the very POWER OF GOD HIMSELF. It is that unseen, un-found, undiscovered part of the human makeup that belongs to God, and is where HE etches His imprint upon us, for it is "...in him we live, and move, and have our being;" Act 17:28 (KJV) In a day where the spirit of the anti-christ is running roughshod over WORLD GOVERNMENT and setting the stage for the "coronation" of the evils of 666 to once and for all attempt to destroy any remnant of Godliness on this Earth, we need a people who are grounded in the WORD of God. A people who are COMMITTED TO THE "TRUST" OF THE GOSPEL - that rich treasure of Heaven placed into earthen vessels, kept pure and uncorrupt, diligently preserved, and faithfully dispensed. Paul speaks very urgently in our text today and charges Timothy to "keep this very charge": to take heed of the calling of God on His life. He wasn't speaking about his present state or his possible future state, he was speaking of the whole work of his ministry, his "everyday life", and instructing him to do it without spot - conducting himself in such a way that he would not expose himself to any blame nor incur any blemish. Talk about GETTING A GRIP OF YOUR SOUL! Friend it is a time where regardless of what you see and hear, that you first remember what you have anchored your faith in. You can't go by what others say and do ... that just makes you a part of the status quo. Whether you are in the ministry or not - YOU HAVE A CHARGE TO KEEP! Jesus has asked every believer to go into ALL THE WORLD and preach the Gospel. That means to speak LIFE into spirits that are broken; to declare the WORD of the Lord even in the presence of all failure and loss. It means to get alone with God and to stir up the fire in your belly to such a fevered pitch that you have something to talk about wherever you go. It means having the intimate knowledge of a God who sees and knows everything about you; and when you faint and find yourself in the midst of brokenness, to KNOW THAT YOU KNOW THAT YOU KNOW that He will declare Himself in the midst of your weakness - for His strength is made perfect in weakness. In other words my friend... it is time to GET A GRIP OF YOUR SOUL!

Speak Salty

Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.
Colossians 4:6

What is it about salt? And how do I season speech with it? Gracious speech is sweet, yet Paul says to season it with salt. A friend of mine makes this interesting breakfast of quinoa grain mixed with some oatmeal, coconut oil, dried fruit and nuts with some date honey to sweeten it. Then..might seem strange, he adds salt. Salt brings his healthy breakfast to a new level of flavor. Salt carries all the other flavors to a new level of palatability. It brings a wonderful balance to the sweet porridge. Take out the salt in any recipe and there's something vital missing. What is it about salt? By itself, salt doesn't taste so great. It's too strong. Yet add it to the recipe and its power becomes the very thing which brings life to the food. I think salt is that element of God's truth that enhances, preserves and strengthens us. Speech seasoned with salt will encourage or warn, it will impart life and prevent decay from setting in, or stop it in its tracks. Stopping decay is reversing a fundamental element of the Fall. Salt is vital to life and salted speech is too. Believers need to be "salty" in a world that is falling apart from the suffusion of sin and decay. Our message is sweet. God forgives, He loves, He brings eternal life. Yet these wonderful truths exist in an awful context of death and decay which we must not ignore by only speaking graciously. We must add salt.

God's Simple Plan of Salvation

My Friend: we are about to ask you the most important question of your life. Your joy or your sorrow for all eternity depends upon your answer. The question is: Are you saved? Do you know Jesus Christ as your personal LORD and Saviour? It is not a question of how good you are, nor if you are a church member, but have you put your faith in Jesus? Are you sure you will go to Heaven when you die? The Bible makes the plan of salvation plain and simple. Romans 10:13 says For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. Call on Jesus today. Put your faith and trust in him and ask him to forgive you of your sins and to be your LORD and savior and you will be born again...SAVED!! Do this today, tomorrow may be too late! Please write or call us if you have made the decision to accept Jesus. We would love to send you some material to help you with your new life with the LORD.
