Look to Jesus

(By Charles H. Spurgeon)

[Edited]

"Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God." Hebrews 12:2

It is ever the Holy Spirit's work to turn our eyes away from self to Jesus; but Satan's work is just the opposite of this, for he is constantly trying to make us regard ourselves instead of Christ. He insinuates, "Your sins are too great for pardon; you have no faith; you do not repent enough; you will never be able to continue to the end; you have not the joy of His children; you have such a wavering hold of Jesus." All these are thoughts about self, and we shall never find comfort or assurance by looking within. But the Holy Spirit turns our eyes entirely away from self: He tells us that we are nothing [in ourselves], but that "Christ is all in all." Remember, therefore, it is not [just] thy hold of Christ that saves thee—it is Christ; it is not thy joy in Christ that saves thee—it is Christ; look not so much to thy hand with which thou art grasping Christ, as to Christ; look not to thy hope, but to Jesus, the source of thy hope; look not to thy faith, but to Jesus, the author and finisher of thy faith. We shall never find happiness by looking at our prayers, our doings, or our feelings; it is what Jesus is, not what we are, that gives rest to the soul. If we would at once overcome Satan and have peace with God, it must be by "looking unto Jesus." Keep thine eye simply on Him; let His death, His sufferings, His merits, His glories, His intercession, be fresh upon thy mind; when thou wakest in the morning look to Him; when thou liest down at night look to Him. Oh! let not thy hopes or fears come between thee and Jesus; follow hard after Him, and He will never fail thee.

"My hope is built on nothing less
Than Jesus' blood and righteousness:
I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
But wholly lean on Jesus' name."

"God is Always Faithful"

Pastor Loren Larson

Whenever a believer goes through a difficult time, the lost world around them is likely to stand up and criticize them for their faith. Unbelievers may taunt them and ask, "Where is your God now?" Or they might say, "I thought you said God would always come through for you?" All these attacks are meant to cause further doubt and hurt in a time of extreme pressure. These are the times when our faith is proven to be genuine or will simply fade away into the obscurity brought on by fear, doubt, and unbelief. It is impossible for mortal man to fully understand the purpose and reason why God does what God does. However, the Christian can be assured of the character of his heavenly Father. God will never cause or allow something that can't be turned around for our good if we will but believe Him to do so. So my answer to the doubters, to the critics, to the unfaithful, and unbelieving is simply this. "My God is in the heavens and He will do whatever He needs to do to create a blessing for me. I trust Him, I believe in Him, and if you hang around long enough you're going to see that my God will always come through for me."

Psalm 115:2-3 Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is now their God? But our God is in the heavens: he hath done whatsoever he hath pleased.

Faithful

*Lord God Almighty, faithful Your Name!
All history is stamped: You are faithfully the same.
Not one broken word: every purpose will stand.*

How different Your people! How failing we are in thought, word and deed. How wandering our hearts!

*Oh Lord, make us faithful; faithful to You;
faithful to one another; faithful to truth.*

*Your Word is our light: help us stand true.
Although it might cost, may we be faithful to You.*

Cousin Leroy

Leroy was driving his John Deere tractor along the road with a trailer load of fertilizer. Tim a little boy of eight was playing in his yard when he saw ole Leroy and asked, 'What've you got in your trailer that stinks so bad?' 'Manure,' Leroy replied. 'What are you going to do with that stuff?' asked Tim. 'Put it on my strawberries,' answered Leroy. Tim replied, 'You ought to come and eat with us, Maw puts cream and sugar on our strawberries.'

Bubba's Job Application

Bubba was in bad need of a job and had been looking for one everywhere. Finally he heard of a new computer store that was opening up in town. Once in the store to apply for the job they gave him a "simple" form with a list of things to find out how familiar Bubba was with computers...here is the list and Bubba's descriptions...

Log on: when you want to make the cabin warmer.

Mega Hertz: when you not careful getting the firewood.

Hard drive: manoeuvring around those rocky fields on the northern range when there is snow in the ground.

Windows: what to shut when it's cold outside.

Byte: what skeeters do.

Modem: what I did to the hay fields.

Keyboard: where the keys hang.

Mouse: critters that chewed the holes in my socks.

Needless to say Bubba did not get the job.

Let Me In!!!

The little country church was an old building with the restroom located behind the pulpit. There was an outside door as well as an inside door to access it. One Sunday morning the pastor was getting loud and fired up preaching on Rev. 3:20. With great emotion he exclaimed that the Lord is standing at the door of your heart and crying, "Let Me in. Let Me in!" He walked over to the door just off the pulpit. He knocked on it and again reminded the church that God was at our heart's door crying "Let Me in. Let Me in!" when back came the cry of an elderly gentleman, "Just a minute....I'm not done yet!"

The New CEO

A large company, feeling it was time for a shakeup, hired a new CEO. This new boss was determined to rid the company of all slackers. On a tour of the facilities, the CEO noticed a guy leaning on a wall. The room was full of workers and he wanted to let them know that he meant business! The new CEO walked up to the guy leaning against the wall and asked, "How much money do you make a week?" A little surprised, the young fellow looked at him and replied, "I make $300 a week. Why?" The CEO then handed the guy $1,200 in cash and screamed, "Here's four weeks' pay, now GET OUT you slacker and don't come back." Feeling pretty good about himself, the CEO looked around the room and asked, "Does anyone want to tell me what that goof-off did here?" From across the room came a voice, "Pizza delivery guy from Domino's."

The ONLY HOPE

Let thy mercy, O LORD, be upon us, according as we hope in thee.

Psalms 33:22

Some years ago two preachers were taking a walk one evening. Their conversation drifted to the subject of religion and the state of the world. They were not enthusiastic about the outlook and were just about to agree that the whole world was on the toboggan slide to hell without any hope when they chanced to pass a little chapel. From within came the words of a familiar hymn:

There is a fountain filled with blood Drawn from Immanuel's veins;
And sinners plunged beneath that flood, Lose all their guilty stains.

As his face lit up, one preacher said to the other, "As long as people get together and sing that song, there is hope for the world, after all."

The dying thief rejoiced to see that fountain in his day;
And there have I, though vile as he, washed all my sins away.
Washed all my sins away, washed all my sins away;
And there have I, though vile as he, washed all my sins away.

The song "There is a Fountain Filled With Blood" was written by William Cowper in 1772 after an attack of mental sickness in which he tried to commit suicide more than four times...each time his attempts would fail. After recovering, Cowper came to realize how God can erase the stain of any sin.

The only hope for the world today...the only hope for this nation today is found in the shed blood of the Lamb of God...the finished work that Jesus did on the cross of Calvary! Today on the political scene we hear much about how we are going to "Make America Great Again"...the Word of God is very clear that this is an impossibility UNLESS a nation turns to God. Without that it can never be a great nation! The Bible says in Psalms 33:12 "Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance." from that verse alone we know that if a nation whose God is the LORD is blessed then it stands to reason that a nation that forsakes God is cursed. And this is borne out by another passage in Psalms 9:17 "The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God." That sounds pretty plain to me! So you see no matter how well off a nation is financially...no matter how prosperous it seems to be, it will NEVER be great if it has forsaken God. America was founded upon the Word of God and faith in Him. What happens to a structure once the foundation begins to deteriorate? We all know what happens...the building will collapse. That is exactly what we are seeing right before our eyes in this nation. The more America forsakes God the less stable it becomes. And there is only one remedy for that my friend and it is not found in a man or a woman...it is not found in a political party! It is found when the people of a nation fall to their knees and turn back to the God that raised her up and made her great in the beginning. It is found when THE CHURCH sets its face like flint toward the old rugged cross and the finished work of Gods ONLY begotten Son and proclaims to a lost and dying world that hope is found and can ONLY be found in Jesus Christ and His shed blood!! There is only one light that dispels darkness, there is only one truth that destroys every lie, there is only one way of salvation and that is through Jesus Christ and Him alone. President George Washington had it right when he said "It is impossible to rightly govern a nation without God and the Bible"!! Without that any semblance of greatness is an IMPOSSIBILITY!! It would behoove each and every one of us to spend time in prayer each day for this nation and for the condition of the church. Until next time, Pastor Billy R. Douglas

O LORD, the hope of Israel, all that forsake thee shall be ashamed, and they that depart from me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken the LORD, the fountain of living waters. Jeremiah 17:13

In a large bowl, combine all ingredients. Pour into a 4-1/2-qt. baking dish or aluminum pan. Bake, uncovered, at 350° for 45-60 minutes.

The Holy Walk of Fatherhood

“Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty! Early in the morning our song shall rise to Thee; Holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty! God in three persons, blessed Trinity! Holy, holy, holy! All the saints adore Thee...All Thy works shall praise Thy name in earth and sky and sea...”

Most are familiar with this precious hymn of the faith; my heart wells up within me whenever I hear it. With Father's Day just around the corner, our minds should be drawn to the fact that, as fathers, we are to point our children, wife, and those in our sphere of influence to our Holy Father God. We have the responsibility to train our children to walk in holiness and to praise God in all things. It's my sincere desire that God would be able to say of me as He did of Abraham: "For I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the LORD, to do justice and judgment; that the LORD may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him." (Genesis 18:19) Anyone that knows me will tell you I'm no Abraham; but my goal is to raise my children in the fear and admonition of the LORD. I want them to walk in the way of holiness no matter how much the world opposes them. I want to see them love the Lord their God with EVERYTHING that they are because HE IS GOD. If their outward life of holiness doesn't flow from an inward heart of purity, it will mean nothing. My thoughts align with the apostle John, "I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth." (3 John 1:4) But... That doesn't happen in a vacuum. Taking them to church is important; but it's not enough. I NEED to be with my children; they NEED me to instruct them with my voice and my life. As Deuteronomy 6 instructs me, I must instruct them to know and obey the commands of God. I am to teach them everywhere we are and in every way, that the Lord is One God and that His ways are for our benefit. We do what is right because it is right and HE IS GOD! Fellow dads, the world desires to steal our child's heart, soul, and mind. Our God-given responsibility is to show our children that there's a real difference between the fool's gold that our society tempts them with and the true gold of holiness, the treasure that is not only found in Jesus, but is Jesus Himself. As men whom God has blessed with children, we must consciously give them back to Him. We must like heavenly watchdogs, guarding diligently the things they watch, listen to, and read. Pay close attention to who their friends are and the influences that surround them. It's God's grace that saves; but we too have a responsibility to raise them in the fear and love of our Lord! Why bring children into the world only to populate hell? Pray for them, pray with them, do your heavenly duty by nurturing them in the blessings of God's word, and a lifestyle of, thanksgiving, love, and respect. We are duty bound to teach them to honor their father and mother, to train them to be submissive to authority, particularly the authority of God and His Word. This is not just your boy or your girl; this is a soul that is headed for an eternal destination. They will forever be in the presence of God or they will be in a Christ-less eternity of darkness and torment, a place of eternal gnashing of their teeth. Oh how we must look at them and train them with eternity in view! With all the allurements that desire to steal our children's virtue, we have no choice but to be earthly sentries over their eternal souls. It's not only a blessing to guard the things our children hear, see, say, and do, but it's an even greater privilege to teach them the whole counsel of God, to bring them to the Lord, and to instruct them in the ways of wisdom and holiness. Family altar times are perhaps the most important times of the day for our families. If possible, let us open and close our days with them in prayer and a word from the Scriptures. Encourage them to ask for wisdom, live out holiness, being faithful in pure in word, thought, and deed. Let us take every opportunity to share with them how our circumstances should be viewed in light of God's Word and that our responses should also fall in line with His instruction. Show them how the Bible speaks to the current events of our day. This being the case, it's ever so important that we ourselves walk in holiness; we must never be in the frame of mind that says, "Do as I say, not as I do." Our personal prayer time and study in the Word is vital if we are to lead our family and instruct them in the way of righteousness. Oh how we must guard our own heart and mind, always keeping our focus single, and that single focus being on Jesus. We can't give away what we don't have and our actions speak louder than our words. So keep in mind, like Elijah, we are always standing before the God of Israel who lives. (1 Kings 17:1) We must keep our minds stayed on Him, our feet resolutely in His way, and our mouths continually caring for and instructing our family in holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord. Men, ours is a solemn calling and a sacred duty. Let us not shirk these earthly responsibilities which hold such awesome, eternal consequences. There will be days that we feel too tired, too worn, too sick...point those in your charge heavenward anyway. Press on in the power and strength of the Lord.

“Now Know I That The Lord Saveth His Anointed” conclusion

By Evangelist Mike Heltsley

Scripture Reference: Psalms 20:1-9

The LORD hear thee in the day of trouble; the name of the God of Jacob defend thee; 2 Send thee help from the sanctuary, and strengthen thee out of Zion 3 Remember all thy offerings, and accept thy burnt sacrifice; Selah 4 Grant thee according to thine own heart, and fulfil all thy counsel. 5 We will rejoice in thy salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up our banners: the LORD fulfil all thy petitions. 6 Now know I that the LORD saveth his anointed; he will hear him from his holy heaven with the saving strength of his right hand. 7 Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the name of the LORD our God. 8 They are brought down and fallen: but we are risen, and stand upright. 9 Save, LORD: let the king hear us when we call.

Some families are in want of stability and cohesiveness. We can never use the language of the Laodicean church and say, 'We have need of nothing.' Our needs are great but the Lord's resources are inexhaustible. The New Testament points out some types of man's needs: Material — Matthew 6:31-32 - Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? Wherewithal shall we be clothed? 32(For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. Physical — Luke 9:11 - And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing. Personal — Luke 10:42 - But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her. Moral — John 13:10 - Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all. Social — 1st Corinthians 12:21 - And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you. Spiritual— Hebrews 10:36 - For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise. Mental— James 1:5 - If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. Philippians 4:19 - But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus. III. There is help for those without strength to go on. Proverbs 24:10 - If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is small. There are times in life when life can seem overwhelming. You may even feel like your life is a journey on a restless and troubled sea. You need help to make it through another day but feel like you're all helpless and all alone. I have good news for you there is help for everything you're going through. Even though you feel like you can't take another step, you may still have to walk the valley but you don't have to walk it alone on your own strength. (Read 2nd Chronicles 14) - When Asa was king of Judah, an Ethiopian named Zerah attacked Judah with an army of 1,000,000 warriors and 300 charioteers. Outnumbered and without the military strength needed to defend themselves rather than frantically looking to others for deliverance, Asa leaned on the Lord. 2nd Chronicles 14:11 – And Asa cried unto the LORD his God, and said, LORD, it is nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with them that have no power: help us, O LORD our God; for we rest on thee, and in thy name we go against this multitude. O LORD, thou art our God; let no man prevail against thee. Psalms 28:7 - The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in him, and I am helped: therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with my song will I praise him. God delights in giving strength to those who are weak who will run to Him. Isaiah 40:29 - He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength. All of God's Giants have been weak men. Hudson Taylor, founder of the China Inland Mission, knew the secret of strength through weakness. Complimented once by a friend on the impact of the mission, Hudson answered, "It seemed to me that God looked over the whole world to find a man who was weak enough to do His work, and when He at last found me, He said, 'He is weak enough—he'll do.'" All God's giants have been weak men who did great things for God because they counted on His being with them." Isaiah 40:31 -But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint. Man's greatest weakness is spiritual. We read in Romans 5:6 - For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. As sinners the Bible declare that we are "without strength." This carries the idea of being "powerless". It speaks of people who are "utterly helpless with no means of escape." The idea is that the lost sinner stands before God with absolutely no ability to change what he is. We are powerless to escape sin, to escape death, to resist the devil, to please God in any way. The whole essence of this statement is that man is unable to change his sinful nature by his own effort. He is totally without strength and weakened by his sins. John 1:12 - But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

A Word for TODAY!

By Sister Michelle Deuling

Verse for Today: Colossians 3:13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

Additional passages for Today: 2 Cor. 2:4-10; Matt 6:12-15; Matt. 18:21-35; Mk 11:25-26; Luke 17:3-4; I Jn 1:9

Thought for Today: Do you forgive as Christ? He offers forgiveness to all. Do you?

Story for Today: "I am not sorry, and I never will be!" shouted Rachel at her younger brother Stevie. They were at it again. Stevie and Rachel often spent their day causing trouble for one another. But, this time Rachel had went too far! Stevie had spent weeks, no months, collecting and preserving the butterflies that were now a ruined mess. Rachel had no idea but, these were worth a quarter of his grade and now there was no way to recoup, let alone finish this project. How would he ever come up with a new idea, do all the research and still have time to do a model, or small craft let alone write the papers. He just turned in the rough draft for this one to his teacher yesterday. There were only two weeks left before the final copy was due and he would have to start from scratch. With his collection destroyed there wouldn't be enough time or resources to get more butterflies. He had been grateful to get them on their migration through this past spring and he had only been finding one here and there lately. Definitely not enough to re-do the whole project! And to add fuel to the fire, Rachel had done it on purpose. She was mad because he had eaten the last of the ice cream and to pay him back, she had dumped his volcano lava he'd been saving, all over the 4' x 4' board his collection was mounted to. The lava had eaten away the wings and parts of the bodies, staining the board in the process. He could see it now. His decent grade would be almost failing and that would be on his permanent record! But worse than that, last night at devotions his Dad had been talking to them about being a forgiving person. He knew he hadn't been giving his ALL to God and last night he and his Dad had prayed. He asked God to forgive him and to help him to be more forgiving. Dad had prayed that Stevie would see the opportunities and choose God's way before reacting in a sinful manner. And now he recognized the test. It would be so easy to teach his sister a lesson. She may be 16, but, sometimes she acted like she was 6! Instead of dwelling on this, Stevie determined to do something to help him respond in a godly way. First he chose to pray! God would need to help him with this one! Next, he would take Dad's advice and pray for his sister. He would choose to forgive her following Christ's example. Next, he would need to find something good he could do for her. And he would praise God for at least 10 things while he was doing that good thing. He knew he didn't deserve to be forgiven by God. But, he was grateful that God chose to forgive him. And though Rachel didn't deserve to be forgiven, he needed to forgive her. As Stevie made his way to the store to pick up Rachel's favorite ice cream, he began to thank God, beginning with thanking God that his sister didn't always ruin his projects!

Questions for Today: Do you think Rachel and Stevie lived in a godly home? Why or why not? Did Rachel respond correctly when angry with her brother? What can you learn from Stevie to help you when you face trials? Do you think that Stevie made a good choice in how he responded?

Song for Today: *Read your Bible pray everyday, pray everyday, pray everyday. Read your Bible pray everyday and you'll grow, grow, grow! And you'll grow, grow, grow. And you'll grow, grow, grow! Read your Bible pray everyday and you'll grow, grow, grow!

Don't read your Bible, don't ever pray, don't ever pray, don't ever pray. Don't read your Bible, don't ever pray and you'll shrink, shrink, shrink! And you'll shrink, shrink, shrink. And you'll shrink, shrink, shrink. Don't read your Bible don't ever pray and you'll shrink, shrink, shrink!

Take some time today to pray: Heavenly Father, Thank you for your forgiveness! Thank you for your mercy and grace! Thank you that you were willing to offer forgiveness even when we didn't want it. Thank you for forgiving completely! Help us to be like you! In Jesus' name, AMEN

God's Simple Plan of Salvation

My Friend: we are about to ask you the most important question of your life. Your joy or your sorrow for all eternity depends upon your answer. The question is: Are you saved? Do you know Jesus Christ as your personal LORD and Saviour? It is not a question of how good you are, nor if you are a church member, but have you put your faith in Jesus? Are you sure you will go to Heaven when you die? The Bible makes the plan of salvation plain and simple. Romans 10:13 says For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. Call on Jesus today. Put your faith and trust in him and ask him to forgive you of your sins and to be your LORD and savior and you will be born again...SAVED!! Do this today, tomorrow may be to late! Please write or call us if you have made the decision to accept Jesus. We would love to send you some material to help you with your new life with the LORD.

A Time To Give...

To every thing there is a season, and a time...Ecc 3:1

It is time once again to ask for your help. This newsletter is just one of the many ways that this ministry is reaching around the Globe with the message of Jesus. Your financial support is so very important to keep this work going. Please prayerfully consider sending a love gift today.
