A Helping Hand

A nurse took the tired, anxious serviceman to the bedside. "Your son is here," she said to the old man. She had to repeat the words several times before the patient's eyes opened. Heavily sedated because of the pain of his heart attack, he dimly saw the young uniformed Marine standing outside the oxygen tent. He reached out his hand. The Marine wrapped his toughened fingers around the old man's limp ones, squeezing a message of love and encouragement. The nurse brought a chair so that the Marine could sit beside the bed. All through the night the young Marine sat there in the poorly lighted ward, holding the old man's hand and offering him words of love and strength. Occasionally, the nurse suggested that the Marine move away and rest awhile. He refused. Whenever the nurse came into the ward, the Marine was oblivious of her and of the night noises of the hospital - the clanking of the oxygen tank, the laughter of the night staff members exchanging greetings, the cries and moans of the other patients. Now and then she heard him say a few gentle words. The dying man said nothing, only held tightly to his son all through the night. Along towards dawn, the old man died. The Marine released the now lifeless hand he had been holding and went to tell the nurse. While she did what she had to do, he waited. Finally, she returned. She started to offer words of sympathy, but the Marine interrupted her. "Who was that man?" he asked. The nurse was startled, "He was your father," she answered. "No, he wasn't," the Marine replied. "I never saw him before in my life." "Then why didn't you say something when I took you to him?" "I knew right away there had been a mistake, But I also knew he needed his son, and his Son just wasn't here. When I realized that he was too sick to tell Whether or not I was his son, Knowing how much he needed me, I stayed." I came here tonight to Find a Mr. William Grey. His Son was Killed in Iraq Today, and I was sent to Inform him. What was this Gentleman's Name? The Nurse with Tears in Her Eyes Answered, Mr. William Grey...

Wasted Years

Sister Nancy Willis

How many years did we waste before getting saved?

How many years of our past life were eaten by the canker worm of sin and rebellion. Now we know if we have repented it's all under the blood. But have you ever wished you could go back and do things different? But we can't. So no matter how ashamed you are about your past there is nothing you can do. However God said he would restore what the canker worm has eaten. JOEL 2; 25 SAYS AND I WILL RESTORE TO YOU THE YEARS THAT THE LOCUST HATH EATEN, THE CANKERWORM AND THE CATERPILLER AND THE PALMERWORM. As long as we live we may feel the remorse and guilt of our wasted years. But in the Lords eyes our past is a dead issue, In Philippians 3;13 Paul said forgetting those things which are behind. press forward to the high calling of God. God said I have loved you with an everlasting love, Israel had an incurable wound, they had rebelled and turned their backs on God, But God restored them. The bible said God ransomed Israel from a hand that was stronger than them, and he will do the same for you and me. Are you being devoured even now, the worms of the devil eating away at your life? You can start all over again, and stop wasting your time. His law of restoration can begin right now. he can make everything new, your past wiped clean. In Matt. 12;13 Jesus healed a man with a withered hand. The Lord said stretch forth thin hand and he stretched it forth and it was restored whole. When Jesus restores you the old wounds can't even be found. We must take those old wounds, worries, and sins to the Lord and he will restore to us everything the cankerworms have eaten. THEN WE MUST PRESS TOWARD THE HIGH CALLING OF GOD.

CHURCH OF THE COVERED DISH by Thom Tapp

“Due to the current economic condition of our church, we are now providing ‘first class’ seating for all tithers.”

Cousin Leroy

Ole Leroy was on his way to visit his sick momma and had to take a flight to get there...nervous about flying already he became even more nervous when fifteen minutes into the flight, the captain announced, “Ladies and gentlemen, one of our engines has failed. There is nothing to worry about. Our flight will take an hour longer than scheduled, but we still have three engines left.” Thirty minutes later the captain announced, “One more engine has failed and the flight will take an additional two hours. But don’t worry...we can fly just fine on two engines.” An hour later the captain announced, “One more engine has failed and our arrival will be delayed another hour. But don’t worry...we still have one engine left.” Leroy, trying to keep his cool turned to the man in the next seat and sighed, “If we lose one more of them there engines, we’ll be up here all day!”

Grandpa’s Words of Wisdom

Whatever we keep back from God, the devil is sure to get.

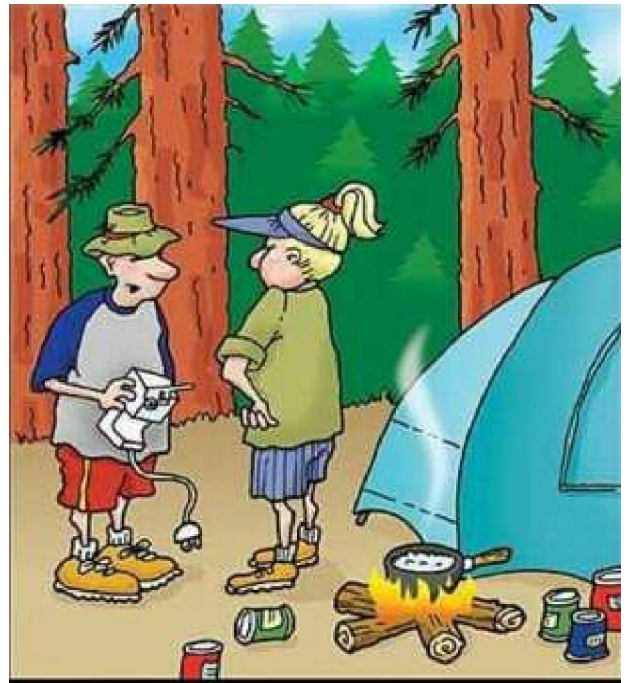

When you plan to get even with someone, you are only letting that person continue to hurt you.

There is no right way to do a wrong thing.

Finding someone who WANTS to work is more scarce than hens teeth.

Everybody wants the glory but nobody wants the responsibility.

Someone who swallows everything will sooner or later get choked on something

“Listen, all you said was “Grab the can opener.”

Worship

Worship brings all kinds of responses, as I observed in church recently. An elderly woman was standing with eyes closed and hands raised in prayer and praise. The three-year-old standing in the pew in front of her turned around and gave her a high-five!

“JESUS: The Only Name”

Acts 4:12 - Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

Jesus is: the voracity of truth, the verity of love, the victory of grace, the visibility of God! Its honey to the taste, harmony to the ear, healing to the soul! Jesus...It's the only name people take in vain. The only name people swear by. The only name which stirs up such hate and venom. The only name which produces love in the hearts of many who speak it. And it is the only name that can save us. For nearly 2,000 years the name of Jesus has not just reformed alcoholics, but transformed them. Purified prostitutes, made liars tell the truth, turned haters into lovers, turned wife beaters into docile men, made whoremongers faithful, cleaned up cursing mouths and has saved a many of souls from hell! I want to tell you that the name of JESUS is powerful! The Bible declares in Philippians 2:9-11 - Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: 10 That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; 11 And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. For some reason people gets upset when you say the name of Jesus. We can mention anyone else's name but when that name is spoken, it creates so much controversy among folks. People gets fighting mad, especially some church people when you say or even pray in the name. I really think they just want to keep it "hush, hush" so it doesn't upset their little perfect religious order. The name of the Lord is sacred. It's a holy name. At that name angels bow down, demons tremble and Satan has to flee. The name Trump may open doors of finance, Einstein may open doors of brilliance, Michelangelo may open doors of art, but the name of Jesus will open to you the doors of heaven! Romans 10:13 - For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. I tell you today that I love the name of Jesus. It's so precious to say and to hear. There's just something about that name. I still get excited when it's mentioned. Names are very significant in the day in which we live. Proverbs 22:1 - A GOOD name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favour rather than silver and gold. Let me rattle off some names and you call out the first thing that comes to your mind: Judas [traitor], Thomas [doubter], Hitler [murderer], Abraham Lincoln [honest Abe] and so on...What do you think about when you hear the name of God? The Bible has over 300 names of God. That's because it's impossible to capture the full character of God in any one attempt.

Gen. 22 - Jehovah Jireh: The Lord will provide ~ Ezek. 48 - Jehovah Shammah: The Lord is there

Jer. 23 - Jehovah Sidon: The Lord our righteousness ~ Exodus 6 - El Shaddai: The Lord is sufficient

Exodus 15 - Jehovah Rapha: The Lord our healer ~ Exodus 17 - Jehovah Nissi: The Lord our victory

Judges 6 - Jehovah Shalom: The Lord our peace ~ Genesis 14 - Jehovah Elim: The Most High God

Matthew 1 - Jesus...there's just something about that name!

So remember the name of Jesus is a holy and beautiful name, his last name is not "DAMN" either. Don't abuse it by how you use it but cherish that wonderful name!!!

What did Jesus mean, “You must be born again?” John 3:3,7

When Jesus Christ was talking to Nicodemus, a Pharisee and a ruler of the Jews, Jesus told him, “you must be born again”. Just what exactly did Christ mean? What was he talking about anyway? Well using the Bible as our criteria, which we must, let’s go to the Word of God and find out just what he meant. First of all the term “born again” means that we have already had a natural birth but now must have a spiritual birth which comes by faith in Christ and what he has done for us at the cross and is available to all. In Hebrews we are plainly told that Christ has become our high priest because of what he did at the cross for us and incidentally, did away with the priesthood of man completely. Jesus Christ is our one and only example we have and can look to. We should strive to be as much like Christ as possible, both in our words and in our deeds. If we take our hearts and eyes off of Christ, we are in for a fall. To be sure, Jesus said “we must be born again” and take on the new birth, the spiritual birth. The Greek word for “again” is another, which means “from above”. As stated, the spiritual birth, not the physical birth is Born Again. The Born Again experience refers to the basic foundation of the Gospel, in which one must experience if one is to be saved. This is which constitutes Salvation or Redemption. And there is none other. This New Birth is totally of God and not of man. “For by grace are you saved through faith (in Christ)”. To be sincere is not enough to be saved. To be saved one must be “Born Again” (i.e. the New Spiritual Birth. We are not saved by works but by Grace...Eph 2:8-9). The New Birth makes a glorious change in us. We don't sin anymore on purpose. Godly love takes over. Life takes on a whole new meaning. We hate our old and sinful life style, we lived before. It's a whole complete transformation. The Bible has a whole lot to say about faith. We must believe that God is just as his word says he is. “If one be in Christ, he is a new creature: behold (look) all things are become new...2 Cor 5:17. Without faith it is impossible to please God...Heb 11:6. Knowing this that our old man is crucified with him (Christ) that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth (from now on) we should not serve sin...Rom 6:6...Knowing this —HIM, refers to that person the believer was before he/she was saved, totally depraved, unregenerate, lacking the life of God. To sum it all up? Simple...Just read, get to know it, live it, and believe the Holy Word of God. That's it? That's it! And you will be “Born Again”. Really make this your motto (saying) and belief. “If God said it, I believe it and that settles it”. Compiled and submitted by Charles McLaughlin - 760 Whitmer Rd. Sacramento, KY 42372

COMPLAINING, GOSSIP AND A BIG MOUTH!

I want to talk about complaining for a moment then about running the mouth. I have been told many times in my life that I complain to much so its something that I have had to pray to the LORD to help me with. One place we do a lot of complaining is in church. Here is some that I have heard in my time. (1) Its always the same old songs. (2) Its to hot or to cold. (3) The preacher preaches to long. (4) The benches are to hard. (5) The services are to long. (6) The music is always to loud. (7) I cant stand their singing. (8) The church is to big or small. (9) Nobody shook my hand. (10) The preacher didn't speak to me. Now these are some that I have heard but I'm sure there's plenty more that could be added to this. This is a way the devil uses to get your mind off of what you should be doing and that is lifting up the name of JESUS. The bible says, do all things without murmurings and disputing. Philippians 2;14.(KJV) The bad thing about murmuring and complaining is before long you will find yourself gossiping to someone about your complaints. The bible says, “and the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.” James 3:6.(KJV) As long as your running your mouth about somebody you don't have time for GOD. This will hinder your walk with the LORD because your feeding your flesh instead of you spirit. The bible says, death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof. Proverbs 18;21.(KJV) Gossip has destroyed families, destroyed marriages and caused many to quit church and it will kill you spiritually. Instead of running people down we need to pray for them and lift them up. I challenge you to take ONE week and keep up with how many times you complain about something or how many times you talk about someone, it may surprise you how often we do it and not realize it. I pray this message will encourage someone to lift up their brothers and sisters instead of running them down after all we are suppose to be Christians and its our job to pray for everyone. The bible says, “Whoso keepeth his mouth and his tongue keepeth his soul from troubles.” Proverbs 21:23.(KJV) Until next time GOD bless you all.

REESIE'S RECIPES

Chocolate Cherry Angel Cake

- 1 package Betty Crocker 1-step white angel food cake mix
- 2 tablespoons baking cocoa
- 1 can (16 1/2 ounces) pitted cherries in heavy syrup, undrained
- 1 tablespoon cornstarch
- 1 (8 oz) frozen whipped topping, thawed
- 1/2 teaspoon almond extract

Heat oven to 350°F. Make cake mix as directed on package for angel food (tube) pan -- except stir cocoa into cake mix (dry). Bake 37 to 47 minutes or until top is dark golden brown and cracks feel very dry and not sticky. Cool completely. Mix cherries and cornstarch in 2-quart saucepan. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens and boils. Boil and stir 1 minute. Cool completely. Mix whipped topping and almond extract; spoon onto slices of cake. Top with cherry mixture.

Moonlite Corn Muffins

- 2 eggs
- 1 1/2 cup milk
- 1 1/2 cup butter milk
- 1/2 cup oil
- 1/2 cup melted butter
- 3 Tbsp. sugar
- 1/2 cup self rising flour
- 3 cups self rising corn meal

Bear eggs in large mixer bowl. Add milk, buttermilk, oil and melted butter, mix. Add sugar, flour and cornmeal, mix well. Pour into greased muffin tins. Bake at 500 degrees for 10 minutes.

- 1/2 box Velveeta cheese, cubed
- 1 lb bacon, cooked and crumbled

Combine first four ingredients in large soup pan. Bring to boil. Cover and reduce heat. Simmer for 30 minutes. Stir in soup, milk, cubed cheese and bacon. Heat until cheese is melted. Dip into bowls and garnish with sliced green onions.

Wait On The Lord

*"Wait on the Lord: be of good courage, and He shall strengthen thine heart: Wait I say on the Lord."
Psalms 27:14 (KJV)*

There's just no other way to put it...I was angry! I couldn't believe such things could be said about me! Why, I'd like to...Have you ever felt that way? When someone wrongs us, our first response is that of shock. Our second response is the desire for retaliation, and our third response is a gnawing, burning pain in the gut that just never seems to go away. Would this be a good time to remind you to: "Wait on the Lord: be of good courage and He shall strengthen thine heart. Wait I say on the Lord." Well, it might be good advice, but it might not be such a good time. With our first reaction being shock, you might hear your self saying: "What do you mean wait on the Lord!?" Wait on the Lord for what? I'm tired of waiting on the Lord every time I get dumped on. Maybe it's time I started letting people know how I feel." Your second reaction to such a reminder being retaliation might go something like, "I'll show you how to wait on the Lord... like I need courage to perform the righteous acts I'm about to perform." "Why I'll..."Come on now, we've all had days like this: It's the age we live in. We're always in a hurry, never getting caught up... and because we don't have time, we often find that instead of getting caught up, we just "get caught". I believe this is the one of the biggest reasons that we have problems in our relationships, because we forget that "the horizontal relationship" we have with those around us, depends on "the vertical relationship" we have with God. "Well okay brother Wayne... you're right about the relationship thing; and I guess it wouldn't hurt me to slow down a little". "In fact, I know that I need to set aside time to be alone with God - but when? I don't have time to "WAIT" on God". Well, I know you're not going to hear this - but it sounds like something you need right now. That same scripture says that you're to..."Be of good courage." "Be of good courage?" Now wait just a minute here! Just because I didn't go running off half-juiced and hell-bent on retaliation, doesn't mean I'm going to wimp out entirely and get happy about it when people wrong me. In fact, I'll tell you what I ought to do... I ought to just quit. That's what I ought to do! Huh? He says that, "HE will Strengthen your heart ...""Strengthen my heart?" Well I know that in my exuberance my blood pressure may have a tendency to raise a little...but...Huh? "Wait I say on the Lord!" "Wait on the Lord?" Friend, we've all been there. In fact you may have heard it described as "The point of no return; or the black hole of emotion; or the emotional landfill;" Yet the reality of this verse is summed up in the 13th verse of this same chapter where David says... "I had fainted unless I had believed to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living." ALRIGHT!!! A confession we can sink our teeth into. "God if it wasn't for you in my life . . .if it wasn't for the trust I have in you to see me through this ... I would retaliate! I would do something stupid, and end up in bondage to myself, or be locked up in jail. But I trust you Lord. "Teach me thy Ways, Oh Lord, and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies. Deliver me not over to the will of mine enemies, for false witnesses are rising up against me, and such breathe out cruelty." Ps 27:11-12. My friend, can you come to this place with me today? Believe me, I know what anger's all about and I know first-hand what it can do to you and to others. What's more, God knows how angry you are. He tells us in Ephesians 4:26 to "Let not the sun go down upon your wrath . . ." The very word "let" means we have a choice. Will we wait on the Lord today, and be of good courage to others and to ourselves? Let God strengthen your resolve to be of good courage. Let Him teach you His ways, which are high above man's ways. Let Him deliver you in such a way that all the world will see the hand of the Lord in your life. Today, have the "stop and smell the roses" kind of waiting on God. Experience the "be still and know that I am God" kind of waiting. Again I say "wait on the Lord."

A Call From Hell

There is a call that haunts my soul, A call that comes from down below.
A cry that haunts my dreams at night, A call of pain, of grief and fright.
These words so full of hurt and pain. They call for me they call my name.
They beckon me to tell the lost, Of sins great shame and what it cost.
To tell them one, to tell them all, To warn them of this fiery fall.
These words that haunt me I must tell, You see this is A CALL FROM HELL.

SALVATION CORNER

We have set aside this corner of THE TRUMPET to show God's Plan of Salvation. If you are unsure where you will go when you die, please listen to what God has said in His Word:

FIRST . . . GOD LOVES YOU! "For God so loved the world that he gave His only Begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have Everlasting Life" Jn. 3:16

SECOND . . . MAN IS A SINNER, AND SIN HAS SEPARATED HIM FROM GOD! "For there is not a just man upon Earth, that doeth good and sinneth not" Eccl. 7:20. "For all have sinned and come short of the Glory of God" Rom. 3:23.

THIRD . . . JESUS CHRIST IS THE ONLY REMEDY FOR SIN! "For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God . . ." I Pet. 3:18 "Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under Heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved" Acts 4:12

FOURTH . . . YOU MUST RECEIVE JESUS CHRIST AS YOUR PERSONAL LORD AND SAVIOUR. Jesus calls this experience the "new birth." He told Nicodemus: ". . . Except a man be born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God" Jn. 3:3.

We invite you now to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as your personal Saviour. "But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His Name" Jn. 1:12.

Pray this prayer and mean it with all of your heart: Dear Lord Jesus, I now realize that I am a sinner. I accept the fact that You died for me on the rugged Cross of Calvary. I now open my heart's door and receive You as Saviour and Lord of my life. Please take Full control of me and help me to be the kind of Christian You want me to be. Amen.

If you prayed this prayer in all sincerity, you are now a Child of God! So that we might rejoice with you, please write, call or email us today and we will send you some material to help you with your new walk with the LORD!

Joy Comes In The Morning

There is a scripture that says, "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning" (Psalm 30:5). Have you suffered the loss of one so dear to you? I guess I took for granted that my two precious daughters, my only children, would outlive me. To my sorrow, they were called away. To every one of you who sorrow today, I can tell you who know Him, that He will send the blessed Comforter like a blanket of peace. He will cover your broken heart. When memories catch you unaware, remember what Isaiah said, "Surely He hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows" (Isaiah 53:4). Jesus said, "I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you" (John 14:18). Precious one, let us cast all of our care upon Him because He cares for you and for me. And, remember Psalm 147:3 that says, "He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds." If you have tasted the bitter waters of affliction, Job of old said, "God maketh my heart soft" (Job 23:16). Don't let your loss make you bitter, but let it draw you nearer to the Lord than you ever have been. Hearts that have suffered can help others that are in trouble. Teach us, Lord, to learn from our sorrows. Thank you, dear Jesus. Someone penned these words...

"God hath not promised skies always blue, Flower strewn pathways all our lives thro God hath not promised sun without rain, Joy without sorrow, peace without pain. But God hath promised strength for the day, Rest for labor, and light for the way, Grace for the trials and help from above, Unfailing sympathy, undying love."

And, I penned these words in a song:

"Ride out your storm, God is right there with you. You may not feel him, but you're not alone. You're hurting now, but your morning is coming. Hold onto Jesus and ride out your storm."
