Fear Not

*For the Lord will not forsake His people for His great name's sake: because it hath pleased the Lord to make you His people
1 Samuel 12:22*

There is much talk of fear - fear of the economy, of war, of losing one's home, and so many things we are now facing. However, if you are a child of God, I can share no greater encouragement with you that the promises in God's Word! Romans 8:31 says, "What then shall we say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?" So, "Why are thou cast down, O my soul? And what art thou disquieted within me? Hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise Him who is the health of my countenance" (Psalm 42:5). When everything is falling down around us, we can rest in the Lord knowing as the old song says, "This world is not my home, I'm just passing through." Another old song says, "He's a shelter in time of storm." Praise be to God! Nahum 1:7 says, "The Lord is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in Him." Thank you Lord! "For we walk by faith and not by sight" (2 Corinthians 5:7).

Doubt sees the obstacles,

Faith sees the way.

Doubt sees the blackest night,

Faith sees the day;

Doubt dreads to take a step,

Faith soars on high. Doubt questions,

"Who believes?"

"Faith answers, "I."

Find yourself a place of prayer. Get in the Secret Place of the Most High God, in Jesus Christ. Find your hope and Faith in Him.

Until Next Time,

Like A Wall

by Heidi Viars - www.heidiviars.com

She was holding on to my hand as she walked across the stone wall. She talked away and skipped along knowing she was safe, there on top of the wall, which ran along the path. Suddenly she stopped. Her eyes became fear-filled and her whole body tense. Her grip tightened on my hand. "Mom, I am scared!" The drop on one side of the wall was deep. Our path and the wall were now leading us across a deep ravine. I tried to tell my seven year old child that she was safe holding on to my hand. It seemed no matter what I said, her fear was greater than her trust in my hand. Finally I said, "Honey, the wall has not changed! It's still the same safe and strong wall you were skipping over just a few moments ago!" Her grip became tighter. She slowly put one foot in front of the other. As I walked next to my child, I heard my Father speak to my heart. "Keep your eyes on me, not your circumstances. I do not change. I am strong to carry you, no matter the circumstances that draw your attention!"

Thank You, Lord, for never changing.

You were the same yesterday as You are today.

You are the same today as You will be tomorrow.

Show me how to stand strong on You.

Help my eyes to stay fixed on You.

Keep me from looking to the left or the right.

Show me how to walk in assurance and confidence

That You safely lead me on all paths.

*Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day,
and for ever. Hebrews 13:8*

God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good? Numbers 23:19

Cousin Leroy

Leroy was a very nervous flyer. During a trip to visit his sick aunt in Indiana his flight was delayed twice because of mechanical problems. Then, after the plane had taken off, he noticed the lights began flickering. A Man next to him mentioned this to a flight attendant. "I'll take care of it," she said. Moments later the lights went out. Clearly she'd solved the problem by turning off the lights. Leroy thought about that for a moment, leaned across the aisle and said, "Whatever you do, please don't ask about the engines."

Love Is In The Air

Leroy asked Bubba if he had bought his wife a gift for Valentine's Day. "Yep sure nuff, I bought her a belt and a bag," replied Bubba. "Wow that sounds great," Leroy added, "I hope she appreciated the thought." Bubba smiled as he replied, "So do I, and hopefully the vacuum cleaner will work better now."

Leroy's Smart Cousin

Leroy's cousin Billy Bob had just spent 3 years in college and was home for a visit. Sitting around the dinner table one night, Leroy said, "Well cousin, you done gone to college, so you must be perty smart. Why don't you speak some math fer' us?" "Ok, Leroy." said Billy Bob, "Pi R squared." After a moment, Leroy scratched his head and said, "Why cous, they ain't teached ya nothin'! Everybody knows Pie are round, cornbread are square."

Indian Weather

A film crew was on location deep in the desert. One day an old Indian went up to the director and said, "Tomorrow rain." The next day it rained. A week later, the Indian went up to the director and said, "Tomorrow storm." The next day there was a hail-storm. "This Indian is incredible," said the director. He told his secretary to hire the Indian to predict the weather and to pay him whatever he wants. However, after several successful predictions, the old Indian didn't show up for two weeks. Finally the director sent for him. "I have to shoot a big scene tomorrow," said the director, "and I'm depending on you. What will the weather be like?" The Indian shrugged his shoulders. "Don't know," he said. "Radio is broken."

Where Are We

A husband and wife were driving through Louisiana. As they approached Natchitoches, they started arguing about the pronunciation of the town. They argued back and forth, then they stopped for lunch. At the counter, the husband asked the waitress, "Before we order, could you please settle an argument for us? Would you please pronounce where we are very slowly?" She leaned over the counter and said, "Burrrr-gerrr Kiiing."

The Baby

A woman gets on a bus with her baby. The bus driver says, "That's the ugliest baby that I've ever seen. Ugh!" The woman goes to the rear of the bus and sits down, fuming. She says to a man next to her, "The driver just insulted me!" The man says, "You go right up there and tell him off – go ahead, I'll hold your monkey for you."

Love in Deed & in Truth

My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue;
but in deed and in truth. 1 John 3:18

I recently shared this scripture via text message with several of my friends and one of them asked the question... "What does it mean to love in deed and in truth?" The answer to that question can be found by looking at the first part of the verse... "let us not love in word, neither in tongue" simply put it means let us not only talk the talk BUT let us also walk the walk. It is one thing for me to tell someone that I love them it is another for them to "see" that love in action. The greatest love ever known to mankind of course is the love that God has for us as described in John 3:16 "For God so loved the world..." but suppose it just stopped right there. Although it is nice to hear that God loves the world that love would have really been of no benefit to mankind had that been the end of the story. Oh but thank the LORD it didn't stop there but goes on to say "THAT HE GAVE"... here we see the Love of God in action. The Father so loved that HE GAVE His Son... and the Son so loved that HE GAVE His life. All of this for a lost and dying world and all of this because of the Love of God! The world has a saying that "Actions speak louder than words"... it is one thing to say you love but to show that you love is something altogether different. For if we say that we love YET we never act upon that love, we never give of our selves, our substance... our lives... to whom then is that love a benefit? Maybe a better question to ask ourselves is this "If I only love in word and tongue... is that really love at all?" The Bible teaches us that "faith without works is dead"... maybe the same thing can be said about "love" without action. The Bible says in James 2:15-16 "If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food, And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?" Jesus told His disciples in John 13:35 "By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another." In other words: if we show love by our actions the world will SEE that love... trust me the world is not impressed with church folk who talk about love but never show any! I pray that something that I have said makes us all stop, and think for a moment AND then after that to begin to try and show love not in word and tongue only BUT in deed and in truth. I want to close with this... During the 17th century, Oliver Cromwell, Lord Protector of England, sentenced a soldier to be shot for his crimes. The execution was to take place at the ringing of the evening curfew bell. However, the bell did not sound that evening so no shots were fired. The soldier's fiancé had climbed into the belfry and clung to the great clapper of the bell to prevent it from striking. When she was summoned by Cromwell to give an account for her actions, she wept as she showed him her bruised and bleeding hands. Cromwell's heart was touched and he said, "Your soldier shall live because of your sacrifice. Curfew shall not ring tonight!" Her actions did indeed speak louder than words. until next time, Pastor Billy R, Douglas.

One minister told of a wife who came into his office full of hatred toward her husband. "I do not only want to get rid of him, I want to get even! Before I divorce him, I want to hurt him as much as he has hurt me!" The minister suggested an ingenious plan "Why don't you go home and act as if you really love your husband. Tell him how much he means to you. Praise him for every decent trait. Go out of your way to be as kind, considerate and generous as possible. Spare no efforts to please him. Make him believe you love him. Then — after you've convinced him of your undying love and that you cannot live without him, drop the bomb. Tell him you want a divorce. That will really hurt him. "With revenge in her eyes, she smiled and exclaimed, "Beautiful, beautiful! Boy, will he ever be devastated!" And she did it with enthusiasm. For two months she showed love and kindness, she listened, served and reinforced. When she didn't return to his office, the minister called. "So. are you ready now to go through with the divorce?" "Divorce?" she exclaimed. "Never! I discovered that I really do love him." This woman's actions changed her feelings. Whether it's a tough relationship, a long-time fear, or a task that seems too big for us to accomplish, sometimes we need to act in faith and love in order to see it conquered! Whatever it may be, let's give it to the Lord today and ask Him to motivate us to go forth with strength and passion — for His sake! George Whitten

REESIE'S RECIPES

Potato Casserole

by Janon Estes

- 2 lb. package frozen hash browns
- 1 can cream of chicken soup
- 1/2 stick margarine, softened
- 1 (16oz) sour cream
- 1/3 cup minced green onions
- 1 1/2 cups cheddar cheese

Top with browned and crumbled bacon (optional)

Mix together all ingredients and bake
45 minutes at 350.

Breakfast Casserole

- 1 (16 ounce) package Pork Sausage
- 10 eggs, lightly beaten
- 3 cups milk
- 2 teaspoons dry mustard
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 6 cups cubed bread
- 2 cups shredded sharp Cheddar cheese
- 1/2 teaspoon black pepper
- 1/2 cup sliced mushrooms (optional)
- 1 medium tomato, chopped (optional)
- 1/2 cup thin-sliced green onion (optional)

Preheat oven to 325 F. In large skillet, cook sausage over medium-high heat, stirring frequently until thoroughly cooked and no longer pink. In large mixing bowl, combine eggs, milk, mustard and salt; stir well. Distribute half the bread evenly in a buttered 9 x 13 x 2 inch baking dish. Sprinkle with half the pepper, half the cheese, half the sausage and half of each optional ingredient. Repeat layering using remaining bread, pepper, cheese, sausage and optional ingredients. Pour egg mixture evenly over casserole. Bake uncovered for 55-60 minutes, or until eggs are set. Tent with foil if top begins to brown too quickly.

Almond Joy Cake

- 1 box Chocolate cake mix
- 2 1/2 cups sugar
- 14 oz. coconut
- 12 oz. chocolate chips
- 1 large can pet milk
- 24 large marshmallows
- 1 stick margarine
- 3 oz. slivered almonds

Preheat oven to 350. Grease and flour two 9x13 pans. Mix cake according to box directions. Divide evenly into two pans. Bake about 20 minutes, let cool. In a large sauce pan bring 1 cup pet milk and 1 cup sugar to a rapid boil. Stirring constantly. Stir in marshmallows until dissolved. Add coconut and pour evenly over both cakes and cool. Bring to a boil 1/2 cup pet milk 1 1/2 cups sugar, stirring constantly. Add margarine and chocolate chips. Stir until melted. Add almonds. Pour over cake mixtures evenly and let cool.

Beef Stroganoff

- 1 lb. Ground beef
- 1 slice of onion, chopped
- 1 can beef broth
- 1/2 bad egg noodles
- 1 can cream of mushroom soup
- 1 can golden mushroom soup
- 1 (16oz) sour cream

Brown ground beef and onion together in skillet, drain. Cook noodles in beef broth until tender. Add soup to noodles and broth. Add ground beef to noodle mixture, add sour cream and mix together. Put in a 13x9 pan and cook in the oven on 350 until hot.

The Graces of Solitude and Silence

"He sitteth alone and keepeth silence, because he hath borne it upon him. He putteth his mouth in the dust; if so be there may be hope." Lamentations 3:28-29

We live in a day and age when many people feel lonely but they know nothing of solitude. There is much heartache so they fill their alone moments with social media, sitting in McDonald's drinking coffee or being on the phone, hoping to fill that void, hoping to put a band aid on their loneliness and pain. When men feel great anguish of heart they generally turn to self-pity or filling their sphere with people, hoping to forget their pain or loneliness for the moment. Some don't like to be alone because they don't like themselves; but like the old song goes, "No matter where you go, there you are." Some people like to just be busy or help others, but we all need to find time to be alone, really alone, with no one else but God. Not only do we know little of solitude but our society seems to know nothing of silence either. Oh the cacophony that fills our homes and ears. Where once we said, "Silence is golden," we now seem to be saying that "Silence is terrible." How can we possibly hear from God when we keep noise in our ears throughout the day and night? We have mp3 players, radios, i-touches, notebooks, Bluetooth devices, and the list goes on. Heaven help us if we are in the house alone; the problem is heaven "can't" help us because we refuse to hear from heaven, turning on radios, TVs, or listen to our favorite Billy Douglas CD to drown out the silence. We fill our lives with amusements; the word literally means "to not think." Folks, please don't get me wrong. I love listening to sermons, hearing my friend Billy or Evangelist Heltsley sing or preach; there's nothing wrong with good music, godly messages, or times of social interaction. The problem is this; we don't stop to just hear from God! There ought to be times when we just turn everything off, get "into our closets" with no one and nothing except God! Instead of filling our senses with chatter and song, let God fill your senses. Instead of hanging with friends and laughing, take some time to just "hang with God," listening for His voice. Let Him entertain your soul. Let Jesus lead you by the still waters, feeding you at His banqueting table, anointing your head with the oil of His Holy Spirit! "O taste and see that the Lord is good!" Allow His blessing to flow over you; bask in His presence, not looking for a blessing or you may miss it. Friends, JESUS IS THE BLESSING! Too often, we fill our time and our ears with so much that we don't leave room for the blessing of Jesus, the filling of God's Spirit. Don't be surprised if this comes hard; we are not used to it. Satan will bombard your mind, the phone will ring, and your mind will wander. Trust in the Lord and persevere. The hurt may grow stronger even as Jeremiah speaks to in our verse from Lamentations, press on into Christ and humble yourself to Him. Solitude and silence are so closely related to the meditation we spoke of last month. Take your Bible; don't rush through things; allow Jesus to be enough, as He feeds you, gives you refreshment, whispers to you, and fellowships with you. Allow God to drown out all people, thoughts, and sounds. Listen to Him; it's all about Him; it's not about you. Then with the solitude of the Saviour, the silence of His voice alone, submit to what it is He is leading you to do. He may give you a call to repentance; humble yourself to His will. Jesus may give you a call to further praise and worship; do just that! God continues to give grace to the humble; humility is shown through obedience. It starts with Who God is, what He has done, and because of those things we must act; we are to live faithful and holy lives because He is just that, faithful and holy. Solitude, silence, and meditation are gifts to you from God that you should unwrap each day. Oh how we need more of Him and less of us! Let me close with a quote from Charles Spurgeon: "There are times when solitude is better than society, and silence is wiser than speech. We should be better Christians if we were more alone, waiting upon God, and gathering through meditation on His Word spiritual strength for labour in his service. We ought to muse upon the things of God, because we thus get the real nutriment out of them. . . . Why is it that some Christians, although they hear many sermons, make but slow advances in the divine life? Because they neglect their closets, and do not thoughtfully meditate on God's Word. They love the wheat, but they do not grind it; they would have the corn, but they will not go forth into the fields to gather it; the fruit hangs upon the tree, but they will not pluck it; the water flows at their feet, but they will not stoop to drink it. From such folly deliver us, O Lord. . . ." Press on friends, be strong in the Lord; listen to Him.

Brother Steve Huston 103 N. Division Ave. Fremont, Michigan 49412

But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint. Isaiah 40:31

O Faithless Generation

By: Evangelist Mike Heltsley

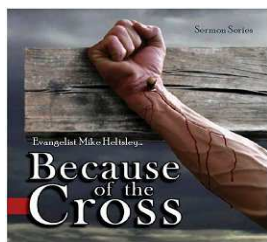

Scripture Reference: Mark 9:17-24

And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit; 18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not. 19 He answereth him, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me. 20 And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming. 21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child. 22 And oft-times it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us. 23 Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth. 24 And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief.

Summary: Unbelief permeated the culture of Jesus' day, just as it dominates many sectors of our modern world. Jesus' ministry to a boy with seizures contains jewels of insight to help keep us from being influenced by our faithless culture. The bottom line is that we see an "O Faithless Generation." (1) "O FAITHLESS GENERATION" — we face that today, as they did then. Virtually all unbelievers — and, sadly, most Christians — turn immediately to doctors for healing needs, rather than to the Lord. Interestingly, Jesus included even His disciples in the rebuke as an "O faithless generation." Unbelief is contagious! The culture around us is faithless. Watch out, lest its pernicious influence spread to you. The rest of this account gives us some clues to overcoming the infectiousness of unbelief. (2) "BRING HIM UNTO ME" — Jesus Christ is Lord of all. Jesus is Lord over demons, as here Jesus is Lord over blindness, deafness, cancer, and every other disease. Jesus is Lord over fig trees...tall waves...bread and fish. In great need? "Bring the boy TO [JESUS]." (3) " BUT IF THOU CANST DO ANYTHING" — too low an appraisal of Jesus. Remember, Jesus walked on water, healed every disease and sickness, raised the dead, rose from the dead! There should never be an "if you can" on our lips. James 1:6 - But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed. Doubt says, "Jesus, you either can't or won't do it."(4) "IF YOU CAN?" — Jesus' reaction was amazement. In Mark 8, the disciples mentioned forgetting to bring bread to eat. Jesus reminded them of His having fed the 4,000 with 7 loaves and the 5,000 with 5 loaves. Then He said, "Do you still not understand?" Jesus was saying to them [and us]: "No more of this 'if you can!'" (5) "ALL THINGS ARE POSSIBLE" —Enlarge the horizons of what you are looking to the Lord for. Don't limit God! Mark 10:27 - And Jesus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible. Jeremiah 32:17 - Behold, I am the Lord, the God of all flesh: is there any thing too hard for me? Jesus has been able to save billions of people previously dead in sins. (6) "TO HIM THAT BELIEVETH" — Matthew 21:22 - And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive. Hebrews 11:6 - But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. If you believe in God, you will seek Him! Not man and man's wisdom. Not the ways of the world, which only reinforce unbelief. (7) "LORD, I BELIEVE" — Good! That's what the Lord wants to hear from our lips. (8) "HELP THOU MINE UNBELIEF" —This is honesty and sincerity before the Lord. Acknowledging our weakness and asking for help. And he looked for help in the right place — To JESUS he said, "Help thou mine unbelief!" In summary, a faithless culture teaches and spreads unbelief. You can come through victorious and full of faith, if you: 1. Remember Jesus' words: "Bring the boy TO ME." Jesus is "Lord of ALL." 2. Remove "IF you CAN" from your vocabulary in talking with the Lord. He CAN! And He said, "I AM WILLING!" 3. Believe Jesus' words that "EVERYTHING is possible for him who BELIEVES." Everything! 4. Respond to Him with: "I DO believe!" 5. And look to Him for help to remove any remaining doubts — "Lord, help me overcome my UNbelief!"

No Mercy

"My brethren, count it all 'joy when ye fall into divers temptations; Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience." James 1:2,3 (KJV)

One of the main hindrances to the faith in our day and age are so much the temptations that the devil places on us individually, as the trials that we face because of family and friends and colleagues. So why are we supposed to count it all joy? Good question. No one sees much joy in some of the hardships we go through and here's the reason for that. We are stuck in the hardship and fail to find the Victory over it. We get bogged down by our emotion and sometimes - even our will to live. Some things that people have written in about this past week for prayer are mind boggling and I can see where they would just be in shock - yet PLEASE LISTEN TO THE LAST PART OF THAT VERSE! READ IT ALOUD WITH ME WILL YOU? James 1 verse 3... "Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience." I have had numerous people come right out and tell me that they never thought a man of God would go through some of the things I have. In fact, I've had a few that have gone so far to say that Preachers (and the like) were obscure from such trials. I think what they meant to say was that since we try to live an exemplary life as a Pastor that we wouldn't get ourselves into some of the things a "normal" person would. But, I'm here to tell you we are normal and many of us have children who are living in sin, and many of us wonder how we're going to pay this month's light bill; we're just normal people too. The difference is that God has called us to work "full-time" at helping others in their Christian walk through teaching and preaching; through fellowship and visitation; through helping to feed and clothe the poor . . . we do have a full life. That's another difference between us and many others who work in the secular world. We work all hours of the day and night. You've heard the phrase, "need has no season" and that's a true statement. So you see, when trials come our way, having been going all hours - we may tend to react just as anyone else does. But, if we're smart, we learn from the old-timers in our church. That's what I began doing many years ago. When things like the death of our son hit us some 24 years ago, we looked to people who had been through it. People who had weathered many storms not through the help of psychology, but through faith in God. Now, I have to stop and say that Osella and I have a very dear friend in the hills of Virginia who is one of the best counselors we have ever met. We didn't know that when we met her. All we knew of her was that she was a prayer warrior and "on fire" for the Lord. Later we found out that in her 60's she went back to school and got her degree in Psychology and she is amazing - and a wonderful Christian. Now in her 70's - and still going, she has a lot of practical experience to offer those who come to her. So, Christian Psychologists and Christian Counselors can be helpful if they lead us back to the faith. They can be helpful if they remind us that it is the cross that makes the difference and that we can begin "there" and build on that - working "patience" with future trials and putting faith to the test. One precious lady I knew from the Salvation Army (Brigadier Bongers) was herself a recent widow at the time, In fact she was proud of the fact that she was one of the only doughnut girls left alive at the time from WWII). I was going through a rough time in my ministry and one day she said to me, "Leftenant" God must really trust you a lot, and have something big for you to do for Him some day, because He has allowed you the privilege of this trial of your faith." I will never forget that! The thought that God trusted "me" meant something and somehow made it easier to see that bottom line... that amidst it all, He had it all worked out. It was my job to now trust Him and to just "stand". The Apostle Peter said it this way... "That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:" 1Pe 1:7 (KJV) Nothing brings glory and honor to the Lord like trusting Him and standing fast in our faith during the hardships of our lives. He will never fail ... we need not fail either!

Editors Note - Pastor Wayne is currently battling some serious health issues. I would like to ask you to please prayerfully consider sending him a get well card and possibly a love offering to the address above to help Bro. Wayne & Sister Osella through this difficult time. I am sure he would appreciate anything that you could send. Most of all please continue to lift him up in prayer.

"But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid." Matthew 14:27

One of the reasons why Jesus allowed the disciples to go through the storm was to teach them how to not be afraid of anything, even death itself. Our precious Lord assures us that He will never leave us in the darkest moments of life. We will never be effective in His kingdom until our fears are replaced by faith!

God's Simple Plan of Salvation

My Friend: we are about to ask you the most important question of your life. Your joy or your sorrow for all eternity depends upon your answer. The question is: Are you saved? Do you know Jesus Christ as your personal LORD and Saviour? It is not a question of how good you are, nor if you are a church member, but have you put your faith in Jesus? Are you sure you will go to Heaven when you die? The Bible makes the plan of salvation plain and simple. Romans 10:13 says For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. Call on Jesus today. Put your faith and trust in him and ask him to forgive you of your sins and to be your LORD and savior and you will be born again...SAVED!! Do this today, tomorrow may be too late! Please write or call us if you have made the decision to accept Jesus. We would love to send you some material to help you with your new life with the LORD.

A Time To Give...

To every thing there is a season, and a time...Ecc 3:1

It is time once again to ask for your help. This newsletter is just one of the many ways that this ministry is reaching around the Globe with the message of Jesus. Your financial support is so very important to keep this work going. Please prayerfully consider sending a love gift today.
