Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men. Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Matthew 5:13-16

Tomorrow

Tomorrow I'll Be The Witness , I Should have been today
I'll take some time to share Gods love, And even kneel to pray

For surely those I pass today, Will be here on the morrow
And then maybe I'll have the time, To warn them of hells sorrow

But then I heard a voice so sweet, Speak to me so soft and low
If tomorrow never comes for them, Where will that lost one go?

And so dear Lord this prayer I pray, Please help it to come true
Help me to do my part TODAY, To reach someone for you

Written by Billy R Douglas

Cousin Leroy

Leroy jr was sitting on the steps eating candy just as fast as he could unwrap it. A man passing by saw what he was doing and said, "All of that candy is not good for you and will spoil your appetite". Junior replied, "I don't know about that but my grandpa Buford lived to be a 102." The man said "WOW, by eating candy?" "No", Junior replied,... "By minding his own business."

The Patient

In the doctor's office, two patients are talking. "You know, I had an appendectomy last month and the doctor left a sponge in me by mistake." "A sponge!" exclaims the other. "And do you feel much pain?" "No pain at all," says the first, "but do I get horribly thirsty"

The Hunting Party

A hunting party is hopelessly lost. "I thought you said you were the best guide in Maine!" one of the hunters angrily said to their confused leader. "I am," replied the guide. "But I think we're in Canada now."

The Forgetful Wife

While on a road trip, an elderly couple stopped at a roadside restaurant for lunch. After finishing their meal, they left the restaurant and resumed their trip. When leaving, the elderly woman unknowingly left her glasses on the table and she didn't miss them until they had been driving about twenty minutes. By then, to add to the aggravation, they had to travel quite a distance before they could find a place to turn around, in order to return to the restaurant to retrieve her glasses.

All the way back, the elderly husband became the classic grouchy old man. He fussed and complained and scolded his wife relentlessly during the entire return drive. The more he chided her, the more agitated he became. He just wouldn't let up one minute. To her relief, they finally arrived at the restaurant. As the woman got out of the car and hurried inside to retrieve her glasses, her husband yelled to her, "While you're in there, you might as well get my hat and the credit card."

The Spelling Bee

Teacher: Class, we are going to have a spelling bee this morning.

Teacher: Stanley, spell "orange".

Stanley: Hmmm, do you mean the fruit or the color?

The Speedster

Nick lives in a subdivision that branches off the main highway. He drives a Corvette, and thinks the only two speeds are "STOP" and "FULL SPEED."

One day, when he was late for work, he comes tearing out the road from his house, tops the little hill before getting to the main road, and sees a police car blocking the road. He slams on the brakes and comes to a screeching halt about 6 inches from the police car. The policeman, who had often seen him driving fast, walked up and said, "Mister, I've been waiting for you all morning..."

Nick replied "Well, I got here as fast as I could!"

Worthy Is The LAMB

Pastor Billy R Douglas

And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war. His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself. And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God.

Revelation 19:11-13

And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

Revelation 19:16

What a glorious picture of the triumphant Savior. Going forth to the Battle of Armageddon. As he rides forth King of Kings, and Lord of Lords, Captain of the host of Heaven. It is still noted by the Holy Spirit through John, that he wears a vesture dipped in blood! The greatest testimony of who he is and what he has done!

As John the Baptist would proclaim on the banks of Jordan, "...Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world." John 1:29. In the book of Revelation alone, which deals with future events, both on earth and in Heaven he is called THE LAMB nearly 30 times! It is true he that will never be crucified again, he will never be whipped at the whipping post again! He will never have to give his life again! But he will forever be the LAMB OF GOD! He is without a doubt the King of Kings, Lord of Lords, Prince of Peace, and so much more!

But above all else, his crowing Glory is that he is the Lamb of God who defeated sin and Satan by his death on Calvary's Cross!! The work he came to do he finished as the LAMB! John could have said, behold the King, behold the Prince, behold the Prophet, because he was all of those things! But more than anything, he was and is the Lamb of God!

From eternity he chose to be the perfect sacrifice for the sins of man. And that is exactly what we must believe of him, in order to be forgiven of sin and to be saved. Believing that he is King of Kings and Lord of Lords is not enough. Believing that he is Prince of Peace is not enough. Believing that he was a great man or a great prophet is not enough! We MUST believe that he is the Lamb of God who gave his life for us on the cross. Worthy is the LAMB!

And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands; Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever. And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever. Revelation 5:11-14

Until next time may the LORD bless and keep you is our prayer. Pastor Billy R Douglas

But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot: Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you,

1 Peter 1:19-20

A Hunter Awakened And Saved

One day I was standing on a bridge over a brook. I heard the hunter's horn. Very soon I saw the hounds coming towards me in full cry. Before they got near, a hare ran up the field close by, and then down the side of the brook; every now and then leaping into the water, as if to throw the dogs off the scent. When the hounds came up they were at fault. The foremost hunter came to me and said, "Have you seen the hare?" "Yes," I said. "Which way did she take?"

"You must find that out," said I; and I went on to say, "Man, I am a hunter for souls. Death on the pale horse with all the dogs of hell is upon your track. They are pursuing you as you are pursuing the hare; and unless you flee to Christ, you will lose your soul." "Oh!" he said, and rode away.

Shortly afterwards, when preaching, I made use of the incident. The arrow found the heart of a drinking, gambling, sporting man, who was in the audience. That night he sprang out of bed in terror, screaming, "LORD, SAVE ME! LORD, SAVE ME!" His wife jumped up and asked him what was the matter. "Oh," he said, "I thought Death on the pale horse was after me."

He lay down again; but scarcely had he fallen asleep when the same dreadful vision returned. Once more he cried to God to save him. Again he fell asleep, and a third time the dream came. He cried out: "If I don't begin to pray, I shall be in hell before day."

In the darkness of the night the two of them knelt in prayer, and the poor, death-hunted sportsman, by betaking himself to the River of Life, was enabled to baffle the hell-hounds that were crying out for his soul.

May the Lord teach us to use simple examples from our lives as illustrations to others for God's glory and the furthering of His Kingdom.

Gods Providence

Michael Combs

Lord, how we wish we were not so easily seduced by the glittering attractions of this world. All too often we are drawn to the empty treasures of this earth rather than the satisfying riches of Your grace. You have given to us the everlasting wealth of spiritual life and Your future kingdom...and yet still we pursue contentment from that which will one day turn to dust.

Oh, that we would take greater delight in hiding Your Word in our hearts, communing with You all day long, and appreciating Your blessings in our lives. May we seek fulfillment in loving, serving, and praising You. Help us to let go of the insignificant so that our hands and hearts are free to cling instead to that which is significant. We praise You, Lord, for all the riches we possess in You., The Source Of True Riches!

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you.

1 Peter 1:3-4

The Importance of Standing on Truth (Pt. 1)

Pastor Steven Huston

“Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.” Ephesians 6:13

Every month the Trumpet sends out articles that inform, stir, and point to Jesus as our only hope. We painstakingly do so because it's important for Christians to stand on the truth, for the truth. God is the Author of truth and He alone sets the standards. As believers, it's our duty to discern good from evil, to teach the difference between the holy and the profane, and to proclaim truth in a winsome manner. That means doing so with compassion in love. Neither we nor you can afford to remain silent in a time when evil is hardly discerned and confusion abounds; therefore, we must study the Word, be in prayer, and strengthen ourselves through daily devotions. That's our responsibility; God, in His sovereignty, keeps His word, meets our needs, upholds, strengthens, and sustains us. What happens when a Christian neglects this sacred and sober duty of standing boldly on truth, diametrically opposing falsehood? The answer is found in Judges 17:11-13; it's devastating to the believer (v. 11), gives the unbeliever a false sense of authority (v. 12), and gives the unbeliever a false sense of security, misrepresenting God and His Kingdom (v.13). Each believer has something in common with the Levite priest of Judges 17. According to 1 Peter 1:9 we are also priests, “But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.” It's my prayer that being part of a royal priesthood is as far as the similarity goes; for as the Family Worship Bible Guide states, “The Levite was a religious mercenary who abandoned the God-given ministry that was his heritage to serve man-made gods for personal gain...He had no convictions or concerns apart from himself...True worship and true Christian service demand loyalty to God and His Word. We must be willing to pay the price of faithful discipleship that we may receive the ‘well done, good and faithful servant’ (Matt. 25:23).”

What does it mean for Christians to belong to a royal priesthood, to be a peculiar people? Priests do not live for themselves; they live for the ones they serve. They were to serve God by representing Him; likewise, as we represent Jesus, His character is to be the defining quality of our lives. As one devotional writer put it, “Jesus is our High Priest. He placed himself between God and us and caused God's grace to meet our need, and therefore we were redeemed. As Christians we stand between Christ and his Cross on the one hand and the world in its lostness on the other. Our business is to cause that grace of Christ and the need of the world about us to meet. As the Father sent Jesus to us, Jesus sends us to his world and ours.” Jesus' life was a seamless whole. Whether he was showing compassion or dealing with sin or rebuking those who belonged to the “church,” His life was one of worship and love for the Father and man. Likewise, worship and holiness, driven by love, must not be relegated to our “spiritual lives” alone. It must seamlessly weave its way through all our pursuits because our redeemed and sanctified life has its source and sustenance in the one, true God who is holy, holy, holy and is love.

It's such seamlessness that causes us to stand boldly and definitively on the truth and for truth, regardless of temporal gain, loss, or persecution. Now that we have an idea of who we are in Christ, let's look at Judges 17 to better understand the dangers of not “standing, having done all to stand.” First, it's devastating to the believer. Verse 11 teaches us that “the Levite was content to dwell with the man.” It's a gradual and slippery road that leads to contentment in being unequally yoked. This Levite priest of the true and living God, one who served the Holy One of Israel, was content to turn mercenary, settling for a meager ten shekels and a shirt. His response, when approached by Micah to leave his priestly high calling to participate in idol worship, should not have been contentment; it should have been one of abject horror and righteous indignation. Don't be too hasty in casting aspersions upon this fellow without some honest self-examination. How often do we appear content before a watching world and our Savior's eyes when given the opportunity to stand boldly yet lovingly, responding with silence or a milquetoast word, fearing confrontation or rejection? I fear that our price is often much less than ten shekels and a shirt. For what do we trade our priestly high calling? Acceptance? Friendship? Position? Avoiding persecution? The possibilities are nearly limitless; may God forgive us and help us to do better. In balancing the two greatest commands upon which hang all the law and the prophets (Matthew 22:37-40), let us take Puritan John Trapp's words to heart. “Some warmth must be in a reproof but it must not be scalding hot.” Let's be sure that we are definite in our belief and trusting in the power of the Holy Ghost to stand faithfully on those beliefs. The days are evil; the pressures are great. Live holy. Stand boldly. Speak with love. (To be finished next month)

Reesie's Recipes

Velvet Salad

9 oz. cool whip

8 oz. sour cream

8 1/4-oz. can crushed pineapple with juice

3 oz. box lime jello

1 cup chopped pecans or walnut, if desired

Whip all ingredients together by hand (except nuts) until "powdered" form of jello is thoroughly distributed. Fold in nuts if desired. Chill for at least an hour before serving. Different jello flavors may be used are great for different holidays.

Easy Scalloped Potatoes

6 to 8 potatoes, sliced

1 can cream of mushroom soup

1 can cream of onion soup

1 small can mushrooms, sliced

Place sliced potatoes in casserole dish. Mix soups and fold in mushrooms. Add mixture to potatoes. Bake at 350 for one hour.

GREAT COOKBOOK!

over 300 recipes

ONLY $7.00 each

Or $5.00 each when you buy 2 or more!!

Stew

2 lbs stew meat

1 can cream of mushroom soup

1 can cream of celery soup

Cut meat into smaller pieces and place in a casserole dish. Mix soups and pour over meat. Bake at 325 for three hours. Serve over noodles, rice or mashed potatoes.

Vanilla Cream Bundt Cake

Cake

1 box white cake mix, not with pudding in the mix

1 (3.4-ounce) cheesecake flavored instant pudding

1 cup sour cream

1/2 cup milk

1/2 cup vegetable oil

4 large eggs

1 teaspoon vanilla extract

Glaze

2 cups powdered sugar

2 tablespoons butter, melted

3 tablespoons milk

1 teaspoon vanilla extract

Preheat the oven to 350°F. Generously grease with nonstick cooking spray and lightly flour a 10-cup Bundt pan. In a large bowl with a hand mixer beat all of the cake ingredients. Mix on low speed for 30 seconds; scrape edges of the bowl. Beat on medium speed for 1-2 more minutes, until well combined. In the bundt pan, pour cake batter and spread evenly. Bake for 30-35 minutes or until a toothpick inserted into the center of the cake comes out with only a few crumbs. Let the cake cool completely (at least 1 hour) before applying the glaze. GLAZE: Add the powdered sugar and melted butter to a medium bowl; stir until combined. Whisk in the milk and vanilla, mixing until completely smooth. If you'd like the glaze to be thinner, add more milk 1 tablespoon at a time until it is a pourable consistency. Pour glaze over the top of the cake, letting the glaze drip down the sides.

Signs, Wonders and Miracles

Ron Bliss

I asked a sign that God was there, And much to my surprise
The darkness 'round me faded and, The sun began to rise.
I asked God for a miracle, And 'for my thoughts were done
A message on my telephone, I had a new grandson.
I asked God for some peace of heart, That I'd not soon forget
To take away, this day of gray, The sun began to set.
My heart is left to wonder at, The greatness of God's being
He sends us signs and miracles, In all that we are seeing.
Each day is full of miracles, Each day there is a sign
That God is there and that he cares, And it's all by design.
He made this world and everything, The human eye can see
Then He came down from Heaven and, He died for you and me.
That we might know eternity, Beyond imagination
He gave us time, we should prepare, Escaping Hell's damnation.
The greatest miracle He gave, More than we'd ever guess
His willingness to share with us, His blessed righteousness.
Man's hand is on this world today, The signs are loud and clear
This time belongs to Satan and, The end is getting near.

The Harvest

Carroll Roberson

But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd. Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few; Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest. Matthew 9:36-38

The religious leaders in Jesus' day were not leading the people in the ways of the God of Israel. The Pharisees were following what other rabbis had taught and the Sadducees were hirelings only thinking about their positions and money.

Try to imagine how this broke our Savior's heart when He saw the multitudes coming to Him! It's the same way today, ministry has turned into people following a tradition or a denomination and many of the preachers are not true shepherds, they are hirelings. May we all pray that God will raise up godly shepherds because the harvest is great and the laborers are few. It's all about building up God's kingdom!

On January 26th, I received a phone call around 6 AM that woke me from my sleep. It was the news that my niece (Tonia Shocklee), who was raised with me, so she was more like a sister. Had passed away unexpectedly sometime during the night. I was stunned and shocked then...I still feel that way today. I cannot seem to wrap my mind around the fact that she is gone. Yet, I must, because she is.

The LORD called her home to be with him. Life goes on but it is not the same, nor will it be, until we reunite once again on Heavens shore. As far back as I can remember she loved to sing. She would sing at home when we were kids. Later she would sing in church...and continued to do so up until the time she went home to be with the LORD. It was her calling and anyone who knew her, knew that.

Put First Things First

Pastor Mike Vaughn

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness: and all these things shall be added unto you. Matthew 6:33

What are the things He is talking about that will be added unto us? He's talking about physical and material things. He's talking about food, clothes, finances, etc. God knows that we have need of material provision while on the earth and He tells us what to do to get it. He says seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness. In other words put first things first. Many people seek the things. That ends in frustration and anxiety. Jesus said when we seek the kingdom, the things will be added unto us. What does it mean to seek the kingdom. It means to seek God and the things of God including His word.

When we seek first the kingdom of God we are exercising faith in a God that cannot fail. "Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you O ye of little faith." Matt. 6:30 The next time you are tempted to worry about your situation, remember to seek first the kingdom of God. Put first things first.

You are loved with an everlasting Love., Pastor Mike

It's Never As Bad As It Seems

George Whitten

For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock. Psalms 27:5

The world these days is full of bad news, with the aftershocks of Covid, an ongoing war in Ukraine, tensions throughout the Middle East, and the natural disasters that continue to take place. It's a time of trouble all right, and for us believers, it may sometimes be hard to believe – but it never is as bad as it seems. Let me illustrate with a joke I like to share with my messages.

Way out west (in America, of course), a cowboy is driving down a road, his dog riding in the back of his pickup truck, his faithful horse in the trailer behind. As he takes a curve on the highway he suddenly loses control of the vehicle and has a terrible accident. Sometime later, a State Police officer comes on the scene. A great lover of animals, the officer's attention is first drawn to the horse. Realizing the serious nature of its injuries, he says "Your horse is in bad shape", and he draws his service revolver and puts the animal out of its misery. Then walking around the accident he finds the dog, also critically wounded, and whining miserably in pain. This grips his heart and he says "Your dog is in bad shape too", and he quickly ends the dog's suffering as well.

Finally, the police officer locates the cowboy, who has suffered multiple fractures and can barely breathe. "Hey, are you okay?", he says. The cowboy takes one look at the smoking gun in the trooper's hand and quickly replies, with unexpected energy, "Never felt better!" We are pilgrims in this dangerous world, which will wound us at times so badly it will seem unbearable – yet we have this promise from God, "in the time of trouble He will hide me". Our true life for us as believers is hidden in Him. So when the world approaches us with a smoking gun, ready to put us out of our misery, perhaps we can find a supernatural strength, and simply say, "I never felt better!" www.worthydevotions.com

A Word for TODAY!

By Sister Michelle Deuling

Verse for Today: But as for you, ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive. Genesis 50:20

Additional passages for Today: Genesis 37:18-20; 45:5-8; Romans 8:28; Proverbs 3:5; Daniel 6:1-5

Thought for Today: God uses what we see as terrible situations to bring about blessings. Trust that He knows better and be faithful even when our rights have been violated.

Story for Today: Davey grabbed the bat and shoved on the helmet as he strode onto the field and took his place in the batter's box. Keeping his eyes focused on the ball that would be coming his way, he took a deep breath and prepared to make a connection. He just needed to get on the base. "One at a time" was the instruction the coach had been giving. The ball came flying fast and inside. Davey stepped back and was rewarded when he heard the ump call out, "Ball!" He stepped back into the box and this time he swung and made a solid connection. The ball flew over the infielders' heads and landed just out of reach of the right fielder. Davey ran as fast as he could. He rounded the bag but was stopped by the first base coach. Davey's team played well that day and ended the game with a win. Davey had brought in 4 of the 9 runs his team had scored and he had played well on the field also. Being a team player wasn't always easy, but Davey tried his best to always include the others and make them look good whenever he could. There were a few of his teammates that were jealous of Davey and would try to make him look bad by throwing poorly to him to make him miss the plays or trying to make it seem like he had made a mistake.

Davey was surprised at his next game to find that he was sitting on the bench. He wasn't allowed to play at all that day and was terminated from the team the following week. Davey knew that he hadn't done anything wrong. But he heard the rumors that said differently. Chris and Tony had concocted a story that was believed by others and had resulted in him being removed from the team. Davey was not happy to have such accusations come at him without a chance to defend himself. However, he had just finished reading the story of Joseph in the Bible and decided he would trust God to handle this situation for him. He continued to do well. He prayed for the boys and cheered on his team from the sidelines. A few days later when he was called into the office, he thought he would be given a chance to at least hear what he was being accused of doing wrong; however, that was not the case. Davey listened as the principal went over the termination notice with his parents and saw the paperwork for his transfer. He was being relocated.

Davey continued to give his troubles to God. He asked God to help him be faithful. He started the new school and was asked to join the swim team. Since it was too late in the season to play on the baseball team, Davey decided he might as well give it a try. It was a shock to his whole family when they realized that Davey was a natural and was by far the best swimmer at his new school. Davey continued to improve and broke record after record. It wasn't very many years before it was obvious that he would be a candidate for the Olympics. But more importantly, his ability to swim fast and well was appreciated the day that he saved the lives of three teenage boys that were out on the lake and couldn't make it back to their boat. Chris, Tony, and Johnny were humbled when they realized who it was that had saved their life.

Questions for Today: When people wrong you, do you trust God enough to let Him work out the details, even when it looks like the wrong is winning? Do you seek to get your own revenge or do you let God?

Prayer for Today: Dear Heavenly Father, Thank You for knowing how to work all things out for our good. Please help us to trust You. Please help us to do right even when we have been wronged. In Jesus' Name, we pray. Amen.

God's Simple Plan of Salvation

My Friend: we are about to ask you the most important question of your life. Your joy or your sorrow for all eternity depends upon your answer. The question is: Are you saved? Do you know Jesus Christ as your personal LORD and Saviour? It is not a question of how good you are, nor if you are a church member, but have you put your faith in Jesus? Are you sure you will go to Heaven when you die? The Bible makes the plan of salvation plain and simple. Romans 10:13 says For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. Call on Jesus today. Put your faith and trust in him and ask him to forgive you of your sins and to be your LORD and savior and you will be born again...SAVED!! Do this today, tomorrow may be too late! Please write or call us if you have made the decision to accept Jesus.
