TRACKS OF GOD

"Father," said Thomas, looking up from his studies. "How do you know there is a God?" "Why do you ask that question? Do you doubt the existence of God?" asked the father. "Well, I heard one of the professors say that we could not be sure that there is a God. Is there any way really to know?" "Well, my boy. Do you remember the other day that you were laughing about Robinson Crusoe's dismay at discovering that there were other persons on the island beside himself? How did he discover them? Did he see them? No, he discovered one track of a bare foot in the sand, and he knew that it could not be his own. He knew that only a human being could have made it, and he knew that whoever made it could not be far off, for the tide had not yet reached it. All those things he knew to be true, although he had not seen a human being within miles of the island. And the knowledge was all gained from a mark in the sand. "If one print of a bare foot in the sand is absolute proof of the existence and presence of a human being, what are we to suppose when we see the prints of the Master's shoe, as Bunyan calls it, covering the whole wide world? We see on mountain and valley the print of the fingers of God. We see a million plants and flowers and trees that only God could make grow. We see all the rivers and the springs of the world fed from invisible specks of atmospheric moisture. What do all those things mean those millions upon millions of footprints on the clay of the world? They mean God living, present, ruling, and loving! They mean God and nothing else!"

GOD'S WIFE

A little boy about 10 years old was standing before a shoe store on the roadway, barefooted, peering through the window, and shivering with cold. A lady approached the boy and said, "My little fellow, why are you looking so earnestly in that window?" "I was asking God to give me a pair of shoes," was the boys reply. The lady took him by the hand and went into the store and asked the clerk to get half a dozen pairs of socks for the boy. She then asked if he could give her a basin of water and a towel. He quickly brought them to her. She took the little fellow to the back part of the store and, removing her gloves, knelt down, washed his little feet, and dried them with a towel. By this time the clerk had returned with the socks. Placing a pair upon the boy's feet, she purchased him a pair of shoes. She tied up the remaining pairs of socks and gave them to him. She patted him on the head and said, "No doubt, my little fellow, you feel more comfortable now?" As she turned to go, the astonished lad caught her by the hand, and looking up in her face, with tears his eyes, answered the question with these words: "Are you God's Wife?"

And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three;
but the greatest of these is charity. 1 Cor 13:13

Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

The Church of the Covered Dish

The teacher was helping one of her kindergarten students put his boots on. He asked for help and she could see why. With her pulling and him pushing, the boots still didn't want to go on. When the second boot was on, she had worked up a sweat. She almost whimpered when the little boy said, "Teacher, they're on the wrong feet." She looked, and sure enough, they were. It wasn't any easier pulling the boots off than it was putting them on. She managed to keep her cool as together they worked to get the boots back on - this time on the right feet. He then announced, "These aren't my boots." She bit her tongue rather than get right in his face and scream, "Why didn't you say so?" like she wanted to do. Once again she struggled to help him pull the ill-fitting boots off. He then said, "They're my brother's boots. My Mom made me wear them." She didn't know if she should laugh or cry. She then mustered up the grace to wrestle the boots onto his feet again. She said, "Now, where are your mittens?" He said, "I stuffed them in the toes of my boots..."

Cousin Leroy

An out-of-towner accidentally drives his car into a deep ditch on the side of a country road. About thirty minutes later ole Leroy happened by with his big old horse named Benny. The man asked for help and Leroy said Benny could pull his car out. So he backed Benny up and hitched him to the man's car bumper. Then he yelled: Pull, Nellie, pull! Benny didn't move. Then he yelled "Come on, Pull Ranger! Still, Benny didn't move. Then he yelled really loud: Now pull, Fred....pull hard! Benny just stood there. Then Leroy calmly said Ok, Benny now pull. Benny pulled the car out of the ditch. The man was very appreciative but curious. He Leroy: I really appreciate that, but why did you call your horse by the wrong name three times? Why, old Benny's blind and if he thought he was the only one doin the pullin he wouldn't even tried

Super Granny

An elderly lady did her shopping and upon returning to her car, found four males in the act of leaving with her car. She dropped her shopping bags and drew her handgun, proceeding to scream at them at the top of her voice, "I have a gun and I know how to use it! Get out of the car you scumbags!" The four men didn't wait for a second invitation but got out and ran like mad, whereupon the lady, somewhat shaken, proceeded to load her shopping bags into the back of the car and got into the driver's seat. She was so shaken that she could not get her key into the ignition. She tried and tried and then it dawned on her why. A few minutes later she found her own car parked four or five spaces farther down. She loaded her bags into her car and drove to the police station. The sergeant to whom she told the story nearly tore himself in two with laughter and pointed to the other end of the counter, where four pale white males were reporting a car jacking by a mad elderly woman described as white, less than 5' tall, glasses, and curly white hair carrying a large handgun.

Not In Vain

Evangelist Chree Lynn Simms

Web Site: www.fwem.comEmail: faithworks4u@hotmail.com

But thanks be unto God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord. 1 Cor. 15: 57-58

My sister looked up the word vain and provided me with this definition. Vain means: fruitless, empty, ineffectual, pointless, useless, trivial, unfruitful, worthless, unsuccessful, and vapid. Vapid meaning spiritless, lifeless, flat and dull. The above scripture states that our labor is never in vain in the Lord. That means whatever you do in the service of our King out of a true heart of love and faith will always accomplish something good, not only in your own life and walk with the Lord, but also in the lives of those who are recipients of the work. It also means that no prayer you've ever prayed in faith is useless and there is no time you've ever given in obedience to Gods Word that doesn't produce something good in you life as well as in the lives of those you've given to. The enemy of your faith may try to convince you other wise, he may try to tell you that no matter what you do in the Lord it will never make a difference in this world but according to the above scripture that kind of thinking is just plain wrong. Prove God at this. Take this scripture to heart and believe it and stand on it. If you're a preacher, stand up with confidence knowing that every sermon you preach accomplishes something good in the lives of the hearers and faith is always activated in the listening hearts. Know that God will never send you out for nothing and that someone will always be helped, saved, healed or delivered in some way. The Word of God is powerful in you and will never be preached in vain. When you pray in faith, believe this Word and know that your prayer is always useful, always powerful and always effectual. When you give, believe the Lord for maximum effectiveness of your giving to help the recipient, and go ahead and be bold enough to believe for maximum return. Your giving in obedience to the Lords command will never be in vain. If you sing, sing with confidence knowing that someone is being inspired and motivated by your song. When you walk in love, even when it is difficult, believe this scripture and know that love will never fail you and will always work something good in your life and in the life of the ones your love is aimed toward.. No matter what you do in the Lord, even if its cleaning the church, mowing the lawn of a sick neighbor, or making cookies for the bake sale, filling a pew, helping to feed a needy family or whatever it may be, your service to others is never in vain. God will always make us victorious in our service to Him through our Lord Jesus Christ! He is always good to His Word. Believe Him and watch your every effort become more powerful than you ever imagined and as you become successful in your service to Him you will find that success in this area will breed more successes until your whole life is filled with His victories!

WORLD CHANGERS

Pastor Wayne Clabaugh, I

"To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God" Acts 1:3 (KJV)

The greatest story ever told was not that Jesus came to this world, born of a virgin Mary, and heralded as the "Son of God", "The prince of Peace" or even "Immanuel, God with us". The greatest story ever told was not in the sermon on the mount, or the healing of the blind man, or even the raising of Lazarus. The greatest story ever told, was not in the Agony of the garden prayers as our Lord searched for another way to redeem the human race, and He said "Father, if it be thy will let this cup pass from me." And as much as Calvary, and the events leading up to it mean to our faith - they still are not the key to the greatest story ever told. While it is true, that had He never come to this earth born of a Virgin, & conceived by the Holy Spirit . . . and had He not performed signs and wonders that proclaimed Him as someone with special powers . . . and had He not been such a teacher even at age 12 that He would confound them with His wisdom . . . and had he not not been willing to take up our cross, and become our sacrifice, there would be no story. Yet the story just begins at the cross. What "you" tell someone about Jesus today, and the change He has made in your life, is the greatest story that will ever be told. Yes, my friend, without your voice and without your witness, someone may be eternally lost! Share "your" faith in Christ with someone today and become a "World Changer" right where you live and work. Tell your husband Jesus loves him; or tell your wife that Jesus loves her. Tell your kids Jesus has a plan for their lives and pray with them about it. Tell your your neighbor; your bus driver; the taxi-driver; the news-stand guy! TELL EVERYONE YOU MEET THAT HE HAS RISEN AND SHOW THAT HE HAS BY YOUR TESTIMONY! YOU WILL BEGIN TO CHANGE THE WORLD! Father: Give me the resolve today to become a WORLD CHANGER in Your Name. Give me the words to say and the courage to day them. Use me in a mighty way today, In Jesus' Name I Pray. Amen.

Never Forget

Sister Nancy Willis

Sometime ago I heard a song about a little orphan boy, and a King of great wealth.. The King had no children of his own, so he decided to adopt this little boy. The little boy who was poor, dirty, and only had torn ragged clothes. , he was very happy to get adopted. So when the King adopted him, he gave him the finest of everything, after all he was now the son of a King. He had a great inheritance. One day the King noticed a box of old clothes sitting in the corner. He asked his son why didn't he throw them away, the son said because I never want to forget where I came from. A lot of people after they get saved they seem to forget where the Lord brought them from. They think they are better than anyone else. They have forgot that they to at one time was lost in sin. They judge people and never show love and compassion. They have forgot that they too used to be in this condition. And if not for the mercy and grace of God would still be there. In Matt. 18;11- it tells us that Jesus came to save those which was lost. And I thank him so much for saving me, and I never want to forget where he brought me from. How one day he saved me, adopted me, and now I to am a child of THE KING.

CORNERSTONE

Rev. Billy R. Douglas

Autopsy Of A Dead Service

So many times we in the Pentecostal movement are guided by our feelings or what we feel. We leave church and say that we had a good service IF we felt the goose bumps, did the Holy Ghost boogie or jumped a pew. And if none of that happens we usually go out thinking...WOW, that was dead! Too often saints drag in like dead lice find their spot on the pew and look at the preacher or song leader as if to say....do something...get me excited make me feel the Spirit and then I will worship and praise. I know this because I have, as the world puts it..."Been there Done that"! For some reason down through the years we have come up with the mindset that church is for us to be blessed BUT in reality we have it backwards. We come together not so we can feel the goose bumps or be overwhelmed by the Spirit BUT we come together to pray, to worship and to exalt the name of the LORD together. Psalms 100:4 says "Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name." No place does it say...AFTER you feel the Spirit or get excited THEN offer up thanksgiving and praise. In Luke 19:46 Jesus said, "It is written, My house is the house of prayer:...". Once again he said NOTHING about praying when we FEEL like it or when the Spirit falls. Now, that being said don't get me wrong, I LOVE to feel it and run the aisles and jump the pews BUT the LORD is teaching me that IT AINT IN THE FEELING! We should never come into church with the attitude that we will worship and praise Him when the Spirit falls. So many times we are setting there waiting for God to move and HE is waiting for us to do what we are suppose to do....WORSHIP and PRAISE Him. Psalms 22:3 says "But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel." WHAT A PROMISE! He "dwells" in the midst of our praises! So you see the only way we can have a bad service is if we don't do what we are suppose to do....because it has NOTHING to with what we feel and everything to do with WHAT WE DO. Did we pray? Did we Praise? Did we worship? My Pastor used to say "You get out of it what you put into it". So more than likely the next time you walk out of church thinking "Wow that service was dead"...it probably wasn't the service....IT WAS PROBABLY YOU.

But as for me, I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple. Psalms 5:7

"Room in the Inn"

A young man at the age of 33 picked up an old dusty bible one day and started to read. As he flipped through the many pages he suddenly stumbled upon a story in the first chapter of Luke. He marveled at the circumstances surrounding the conception of this child by a virgin. His interests rapidly ignited with a fervent desire to learn more about this story. By the time he reached the Second chapter he was in total awe. How can an Innkeeper turn his back on a woman that is great with child as stated in verse five? Eventually this young lady would find herself in a barn surrounded by filthy, smelly farm animals. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn. Luke 2:7 This young reader's first response was to frown and snuff toward the innkeeper until he suddenly began to observe his surroundings. While taken away in the spirit he realized that nothing has changed even until today. His vision first journeyed him to a middle school campus where he saw a spiritual sign hanging at the flag pole that read, "You can't say Under God when you recite The Pledge of Allegiance". At the school entrance there is a spiritual sign that stated, "You can't use the word Jesus in this school". Later he found that the court room forbids the hanging of The Ten Commandments on it's walls. A business man says, "Don't talk about Christianity here because you might offend other employees. The military commander welcomes prayer at ceremonial events but your prayer must be written and screened first. We don't want you to say Jesus and cause conflict with other service members. The store owner's police are to greet every customer with a smile but instead of Merry Christmas you have to say happy holidays. We could offend a customer. Maybe even loose one. What about you? Do you have room for Jesus? Some would say, sure I believe in God, but this Jesus story, I'm just not sure. 1 John 14:1 says: Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. I ask you again, "Do you have room for Jesus?" He has room for you. 1 John 14:2 says: In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. The bible instructs us to allow the word of God to renew our views on life. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God (Romans 12:2). We must take a stand for Jesus as Paul did in Romans 1:16 For I am not ashamed for the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth; Is there room for Jesus in your life? If so, He has also prepared a place for you. Tell someone today that Jesus is your Lord. Ask them if He is theirs. There is still room at the cross.

LET US PRAY FOR OUR CHILDREN

Another "Amber Alert" just came on the television news today. Another child abducted at gunpoint from among a group of little children waiting at the school bus stop. America's beautiful children -millions aborted in the womb, and so many in danger who are alive. Jesus loves the little children. Matthew 19:14 says, "But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven." America was safe when I was a child. We played in the mountains near our home all day without fear of people. I remember the only thing we were afraid of was the little graveyard, because when one of the "younguns" said they saw a "haint" (that is a mountain word for ghost), we would head for the house! Today, we hold our children's hand everywhere we go -we even have fear of them playing in the yard. The word says, "The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God" (Psalm 9:17). Praise the Lord, I know of a few watchmen on the wall who are warning America. Their message is God's mercy toward us. "Seek the Lord while He may be found, call ye upon Him while He is near" (Isaiah 55:6)He is our Savior, our Great Defender, our Sanctuary praise His Holy Name!

Let Us Pray For Our Children Writer: Betty Jean Robinson Publisher: Melody Mountain Music, BMI

Let us pray for our children, let us pray. Let us pray for our children, let us pray. There's an enemy among us trying to take their souls astray. Let us pray for our children, let us pray. We must fight for our children, we must fight. We must fight for our children, we must fight. There's an enemy among us trying to take our children from us. Let us pray for our children, let us pray. Come and lay them on the altar one more time. Tell Satan, You can't have my children, they are mine. He can't cross that crimson flood, they are covered with Jesus' blood. Come and lay them on the altar one more time. We must pray for our children, let us pray.

Psalm 46:1 says that God is our refuge and strength, a very present (right now) help in trouble. Psalm 42:8 says that the Lord will command His loving kindness in the daytime, and in the night His song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life.

Until next time, the Lord bless you,
His Handmaiden, Sister Betty Jean Robinson
