A Sound Heard No More...Revisited

As I have crossed America these many years, I have wondered - when did the church bells stop ringing in America, calling her people to the house of God? I remember growing up in the Kentucky Mountains and hearing that grand old church bell ringing - 6:30, first bell; 7:00, second bell - calling us to come into His house to worship Him. We walked up the mountain and when the moon was full it lit a silver path for us. Oh, how beautiful, with the doors opened in summer and the sound of "Amazing Grace" and other songs from those worn old hymnals. That heavenly sound of the children and the old saints singing would ring across the hills. I'm so glad to say that old church bell where I grew up is still ringing so faithfully after all these years, but now so few are walking up the mountain to church. There is a different sound in America now. Why have a church bell ringing? I have heard where people complained about the chimes in the city churches making noise and making some folks nervous, so they must not ring - it is "disturbing the peace." What peace? There has never been so much noise in my lifetime as now - noise in the air, noise in the streets, noise everywhere - even noise in the church. Even more important than the church bells, where is the cross? It has disappeared from many churches - outside and inside. Could it be that America is rich now and thinks that she does not need God? In Revelation 3:17 & 18, God said concerning the Laodicean church, "Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked: I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see." We need only the SOUND OF A MIGHTY RUSHING WIND (Acts 2:2). Do you hear the sound of the church bell? Do you hear the sound of the cross calling you? Revelation 3:20 says, "Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: If any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me." Do you hear his voice? It is the most beautiful sound you will ever hear. If you will open the door, HE WILL COME IN!

CHURCH OF THE COVERED DISH by Thom Tapp

"Due to the current economic condition of our church, we are now providing 'first class' seating for all tithers."

Cousin Leroy

After Leroy had purchased movie tickets for him and his wife, she went inside to find seats while Leroy got himself some popcorn, peanuts, goobers, a hot dog and a large drink. By the time he was served, the previews were being shown. Leroy stumbled his way through the dark, sat down and gave his wife a big ole kiss. Then in the dark of the theater he heard a familiar voice say, "Leroy, I'm back here."

Dad

"Dad, will you help me with my homework?"
"I'm sorry," replied the father. "It wouldn't be right." "Well," said the boy, "at least you could try."

A merry heart doeth good like a medicine: but a broken spirit drieth the bones. Proverbs 17:22

Questions to Ponder

- Why don't they just make mouse-flavored cat food?
- Why do we put suits in a garment bag and put garments in a suitcase?
- Why are they called apartments, when they're all stuck together?

3 Little Pigs

A teacher was reading the story of the Three Little Pigs to her class. She came to the part of the story where the first pig was trying to gather the building materials for his home. She read, "And so the pig went up to the man with the wheelbarrow full of straw and said: 'Pardon me sir, but may I have some of that straw to build my house?'" The teacher paused then asked the class: "And what do you think the man said?" One little boy raised his hand and said very matter-of-factly, "I think the man would have said, 'Well, what do ya know?! A talking pig!'"

Grandpa's Words of Wisdom

Wisdom has as much to do with knowing "what not to say" as it does with knowing what to say!

Here are some examples of things better left unsaid...

"Congratulations on your wedding day! Too bad no one likes your wife."

"How could two people as beautiful as you have such an ugly baby?"

"Congratulations on your promotion. Before you go, would you like to take this knife out of my back. You'll probably need it again."

"Happy Birthday! You look great for your age...Almost Lifelike!

"You are such a good friend that if we were on a sinking ship and there was only one life jacket.... I'd miss you heaps and think of you often."

Dealing With Memories

Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

Philippians 4:8-9

I want to share with you this month on "Dealing with Memories." My mind thinks back on the old song we sang, "Precious Memories." Just read over the chorus of the song: Precious memories...how they linger...How they ever flood my soul...Then the stillness of the midnight... Precious sacred scenes unfold. Memories can be good or they can be bad. All of us at one time or another has had both of them. In the 4th chapter of Philippians, Paul here in verses 8 and 9 is telling us to think on the following things that are true, honest, just, pure, lovely, of a good report and so on. Satan in this final hour, is running to and fro throughout the earth trying to get the believer to constantly focus on things that are completely opposite of our above text. I heard a preacher say one time that the mind is the devil's playground. See if we allow the enemy to keep reminding us of the bad memories from our past, we cannot have victory like we should. I see more people today, especially Blood-Bought Believers, who have the answer to life's problems which is Jesus Christ and His finished work at the Cross, still always dwelling on the negative and not dwelling on the good things of God. You can't be a blessing to someone if you are always dwelling on those bad things that have happened to you. Remember the devil is the accuser of the brethren...he always wants to keep reminding us of our past mistakes. Thanks be unto God through Jesus Christ and his shed blood, our sins can be forgiven. Have you truly laid your burdens at the foot of the Cross? Please do so today and accept God's forgiveness from your past mistakes and memories. In God's eyes, once you repent and confess your sins and it's under the blood...they are gone. The very memory of your failure. Glory be to God! When the devil reminds you of your past, just remind him of his future! See the child of God has no past when it's put under the blood of Jesus and the devil has no future! Don't forget that our May Sermon CD for the month is the message I recently preached at VOTL Tabernacle: "Dealing With Memories"

YOU'RE NOT HOME YET

If you've got two or three minutes I'd like to tell you a story. The story I wanna tell you is about a preacher who went over seas to fight a war. Now this is a war forgot and not for any country. And he fought a long long time and he won a lot of souls to the LORD. But finally this preacher got old and he was coming home. He just happened to be on the same ship with someone who we would call a famous celebrity. When the boat docked in the harbor there were thousands there to meet the celebrity. They cheered and cheered and carried him off on their shoulders. But you see there wasn't no one there to meet the preacher. No one to cheer to one to greet him. The old preachers eyes filled with tears and he looked into the heavens and said LORD did you forget? And it seemed like the heavens broke open as the Father said "No my son I didn't forget...but you must remember that you're not home yet." I can still hear my Lord's voice ringing "There'll be a crowd to greet you a choir of angels to meet you. I didn't forget but my son you're not home yet."

But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. 1Co 2:9

LOVE'S COVERING, PART 2

"First Love"

Rev. Billy R. Douglas

Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love. Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent. Revelation 2:4-5

We spoke last month about "God's love for us"...this month I want to try and talk about "our love for God". There really is no comparison....God loves us with a love that is "unconditional"...no matter who we are...or what we have done his unexplainable love remains the same! Mans love for him however is a different story...so many have turned their back on the LORD and literally shook their fist in his face, spewing words of hate simply because things in life did not go the way they wanted them to. Many that have been offended by others take it out on God...many who have lost loved ones to death turn away from God...it seems at the times when man should depend on God the most they withdraw from him. And of course we all at one time or another have been guilty of the sin mentioned in the above passage of scripture...this church and really all of the churches after this one that would be rebuked were guilty of "leaving their first love". In other words God was no longer at the top of their list of priorities...he no longer was "first" in their life. So many times people allow money, fame, family, the pleasures of the flesh and other worldly things to come between them and the LORD. Most of us would recognize that and realize this to be truth...but did you know we as Christians can allow "good things" to do the same thing? I heard someone say once that "church was their life"...as important as church is...and it is very important. IT MUST NOT BE "YOUR LIFE". Jesus and Jesus alone should be our LIFE! I can speak for preachers...since I am one...many times if we are not careful we can get so caught up in the work that we forget the one that we are working for! There is a great example of this in the Word...the Bible says in Luke 10:38-42 Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house. And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word. But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me. And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things: But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her. Here we find Martha in the kitchen...was she doing something bad? No, she was preparing a meal for Jesus...she gets to looking around for Mary and cant find her and comes to Jesus and what do you know there she is at the feet of the Master! And in seeing this she said Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? In other words here I am doing all "the work"...working for you LORD and here Mary is at your feet...my my my what a picture of truth we find here! It is so easy to excuse our lack of a prayer life or fellowship with God by just blaming it on how busy we are doing the work for him or just busy doing what we consider "good things". Then Jesus answers her with this...Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things: But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her. Jesus was not saying that what Martha was doing was a bad thing but he was trying to tell her that "THIS is what is most important"! What a picture of putting FIRST THINGS FIRST! What a shame to do so much work for the Master without ever really getting to know the Master! So you see whether they be bad things or good things...if it comes before Jesus in our life...we are missing the mark! Take these words that Jesus spoke to the church of Ephesus to heart today dear soul...if you have found that Jesus is no longer your first priority in life...Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent. Put God first in your life remember what he has done for you and the great love that he has for you and you will find it is not to much to ask for us to put him first and everyone and everything else after that! until next time may the LORD bless and keep you is my prayer. Bro. Billy

What Shall It Profit A Man...

A young man asked his minister to officiate at his brother's funeral. "Let me see," said the minister. "Your brother was thirty-two years old?" "Yes." "He worked hard for twenty years, didn't he...so hard that he never even had time to come to church?" "Yes." "Well, what did he get out of it?" "He left eighty acres of fine land, money in the bank, and thousands of dollars in insurance." "Yes, that's what you get out of it; but what did he get out of it?" "Oh, we are going to buy him an expensive oak casket!"

EMERGENCY

Have you ever thought about an ambulance? An ambulance tears around town with its siren blaring. It is always going to a crisis or leaving a crisis. It is built for emergencies. Many people live the same way. They run their lives with a siren going. Every day is desperate, and every moment is a crisis, or preparation for one. Such an hurried existence leaves no room for smelling roses or enjoying sunsets. Even worse, it leaves no time for sharing friendships, building love, and most important a relationship with Jesus. Finally, what if some of the things you are tearing around to do did not get done? Suppose you substituted a quiet walk around the block or time off to call on a friend or even better time out to read the Bible? Suppose you wrote an encouraging note to someone who really needed it? Or spent some time in prayer and fellowship with God? Would your world fall apart? Or would it perhaps bring everything back into perspective?

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Matthew 6:33

Thy Rod And Thy Staff

Osella Clabaugh - In The Garden Ministries - www.inthegarden.us

"Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me." Psalms 23:4 (KJV)

When you feel down and distressed, where do you turn to? Do you turn to your spouse; a friend; to your pastor? Maybe you turn to a funny movie or go out to eat or even buy yourself something new, thinking that "it" will make you feel better. Where do you turn? Psalms 23:4 says "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me." It is said that on each shepherd's staff (during Biblical times), you would find carvings of his daily diary, and what he believed to be God's Words to him. Often he would look back over that staff, and as he read of the experiences he had gone through and how God was faithful, he would find strength to guide him through the dark lonely nights on the hillsides with his sheep. After fighting away the wolves and wild dogs to protect his sheep he would be tired and weary he would find himself leaning on his staff to give him strength to "hold him up". His staff and his rod, were used to guide the sheep and to protect his flock. Now, that second verse of Psalm 23 says, "He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters...", yet the strange thing about sheep is that they are a very nervous animal. It is almost next to impossible for them to be made to lie down unless four requirements are met. These four things are, freedom from fear, tension, aggravation and hunger. The sheep know their shepherd and only the shepherd can help relieve these anxieties. God is our shepherd and He is there to guide and direct us. Sometimes when we want to go the wrong way and do the wrong things, He is there with His staff, (God's word), to help bring us back into the fold. We, like the sheep, need to know our Shepherd. We need to rely on Him completely. When we are down and distressed we need to turn to our Shepherd. Let's do that together today shall we?

Psalms 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

SALVATION CORNER

We have set aside this corner of THE TRUMPET to show God's Plan of Salvation. If you are unsure where you will go when you die, please listen to what God has said in His Word:

FIRST . . . GOD LOVES YOU! "For God so loved the world that he gave His only Begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have Everlasting Life" Jn. 3:16

SECOND . . . MAN IS A SINNER, AND SIN HAS SEPARATED HIM FROM GOD! "For there is not a just man upon Earth, that doeth good and sinneth not" Eccl. 7:20. "For all have sinned and come short of the Glory of God" Rom. 3:23.

THIRD . . . JESUS CHRIST IS THE ONLY REMEDY FOR SIN! "For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God . . ." I Pet. 3:18 "Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under Heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved" Acts 4:12

FOURTH . . . YOU MUST RECEIVE JESUS CHRIST AS YOUR PERSONAL LORD AND SAVIOUR. Jesus calls this experience the "new birth." He told Nicodemus: ". . . Except a man be born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God" Jn. 3:3.

We invite you now to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as your personal Saviour. "But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His Name" Jn. 1:12.

Pray this prayer and mean it with all of your heart: Dear Lord Jesus, I now realize that I am a sinner. I accept the fact that You died for me on the rugged Cross of Calvary. I now open my heart's door and receive You as Saviour and Lord of my life. Please take Full control of me and help me to be the kind of Christian You want me to be. Amen.

If you prayed this prayer in all sincerity, you are now a Child of God! So that we might rejoice with you, please write, call or email us today and we will send you some material to help you with your new walk with the LORD!
