A Song In The Night

"It is easy to sing when we can read the notes by daylight; but he is skillful who sings when there is not a ray of light to read by, who sings from his heart. No man can make a song in the night of himself; he may attempt it, but he will find that a song in the night must be divinely inspired....Since our Maker gives songs in the night, let us wait on him for the music....Let us not remain songless because affliction is upon us, but tune our lips to the melody of thanksgiving. It has been said that what the nightingale is among birds, The Shepherds psalm is among the psalms, for it has sung sweetly in the ear of many a mourner in his night of weeping, and has bidden him hope for a morning of joy. I will venture to compare it also to the lark, which sings as it mounts, and mounts as it sings, until it is out of sight, and even then is not out of hearing." Charles Spurgeon

Psalms 23 - A Psalm of David.

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

*He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Heartprints

(Author Unknown)

Whatever our hands touch--
We leave fingerprints!
On walls, on furniture,
On doorknobs, dishes, books,
As we touch we leave our identity.

Oh, Lord, please where ever I go today,
Help me leave heartprints!
Heartprints of compassion
Of understanding and love.
Heartprints of kindness
and genuine concern.

May my heart touch a lonely neighbor
Or a runaway daughter,
Or an anxious mother,
Or, perhaps, a dear friend!

I shall go out today
To leave heartprints,
And if someone should say
"I felt your touch,"

May that one sense be...YOUR LOVE, LORD
Touching through ME.

Cousin Leroy

Leroy and Bubba were doing some carpenter work on a house. Bubba who was nailing down siding would reach into his nail pouch, pull out a nail and either toss it over his shoulder or nail it in. Leroy, figuring this was worth looking into, asked, "Why are you throwing those nails away?" Bubba explained, "When I pull a nail out of my pouch, about half of them have the head on the wrong end and I throw them away." Leroy in disbelief with a look of confidence on his face, said "Bubba, Bubba, Bubba! Don't you know anything? Those nails aint defective! They're for the other side of the house!."

The Surgery

A surgeon was checking on a patient who had a hernia operation three days before. The doctor asked the man why he had not gotten out of bed. "I hurt," the man said. "You don't know how it feels." "I know exactly how it feels," the doctor said. "I had the same procedure last month, and I was back at work two days later. There's no difference in our operations." "Oh yes there is," said the patient. "You had a different surgeon."

A Drink of Water

A small boy is sent to bed by his father. Five minutes later: "Da-ad..." "What?" "I'm thirsty. Can you bring me a drink of water?" "No. You had your chance. Lights out." Five minutes later: "Da-aaaad..." "WHAT?" "I'm THIRSTY...Can I have a drink of water??" "I told you NO! If you ask again I'll have to spank you!!" Five minutes later... "Daaaa-aaaad..." "WHAT?!!!" "When you come in to spank me, can you bring me a drink of water?"

The New Clerk

The bank manager noticed the new clerk was not very good at counting money and adding up figures. "Where did you get your finance education?" he asked. "Yale," replied the lad. "Oh, that's quite impressive. And what's your name?" barked the manager. "Yim Yohnston," he replied.

Daily Exercise

Begin by standing on a comfortable surface, where you have plenty of room at each side. With a 5-lb potato sack in each hand, extend your arms straight out from your sides and hold them there as long as you can. Try to reach a full minute, and then relax. Each day you'll find that you can hold this position for just a bit longer. After a couple of weeks, move up to 10-lb potato sacks. Then try 50-lb potato sacks and then eventually try to get to where you can lift a 100-lb potato sack in each hand and hold your arms straight for more than a full minute. After you feel confident at that level, put a potato in each sack.

The Careful Driver

On a long drive from Virginia, Joe thought that he was traveling at a reasonable speed, but the flashing blue lights in his rear-view mirror made him realize that He must be over the limit. Joe handed the officer his license and made small talk while his wife dug through the glove compartment for the registration. "I'm usually very careful about my speed," Joe said. As his wife handed him the paperwork. The officer studied it and then gave it back. "Sir," he said gruffly, "this is not your registration." This is a warning ticket you received for speeding in South Carolina.

The Great Price of Freedom

*And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom...
Acts 22:28*

In the above passage of scripture we read a statement by the chief captain to the Apostle Paul that really isn't meant in the exact line of thought that brought this article about. But while reading this chapter a few days ago the words found in this verse jumped off the page at me and left me in tears. "With great sum obtained I this freedom"...when I read that I begin to think about the "great sum", the price, THE RANSOM that was paid for us. The price given that we might have eternal life through Christ Jesus and His death on the cross. I want to share with you something that you may or may not have heard before but I pray that in some way it drives home the point that I am trying to make. There was once a big turntable bridge which spanned a large river. During most of the day, the bridge sat with the length running up and down the river parallel with the banks allowing ships to pass freely on both sides of the bridge. But, at certain times of the day, a certain train would come along and the bridge would be turned sideways across the river allowing the train to cross. A switchman sat in a small shack on one side of the river where he operated the controls to turn the bridge and lock it into place when the train crossed. One evening when the switchman was waiting for the last train of the day to come, he looked off into the distance through the dimming twilight and caught sight of the train's light. He stepped to the controls and waited until the train was at a prescribed distance when he was to turn the bridge. He turned the bridge into position, but to his horror, he found that the locking control didn't work. If the bridge was not locked securely into position, it would wobble back and forth and the ends when the train came to it, causing the train to jump the track and go crashing into the river. This would be a passenger train with many people aboard. He left the shack with the bridge turned across the river and hurried to the other side of the river where there was a lever which he could use to operate the lock manually. He could hear the rumble of the train now and leaned back-ward to apply his weight to it, locking the bridge. Many lives depended upon this man's strength. Then, coming across the bridge from the other direction, he heard a sound that made his blood run cold. "Daddy, where are you?" His four-year-old son was crossing the bridge to look for him. His first instinct was to cry out to the child, "Run! Run!" But the train was too close. The tiny feet would never make it across the bridge in time. The man almost left the lever to run and snatch up his son and carry him to safety, but he realized he could not get back to the lever in time. Either the people on the train or his son must die. He took just a moment to make his decision. The train sped swiftly and safely on its way and no one on board was even aware of the tiny, broken body thrown mercilessly into the river by the rushing train. Nor were they aware of the pitiful figure of a sobbing man still clinging tightly to the locking lever long after the train had passed. They didn't see him walking home more slowly than he had ever walked before to tell his wife of the choice he had made and of the loss of their son. I realize that this may not be as clear of a picture of Calvary as one would hope. But if somehow we can begin to comprehend the emotions that went through this man's heart, maybe we can get a glimpse, if even a small one of the great love of our Heavenly Father when He sacrificed His Son to bridge the gap between us and eternal life. And of the GREAT PRICE that was paid..."With a great sum obtained I this freedom..." Such mercy, such unselfish love has never been known before or since than that of the love of the Father when he gave His only Son for a lost and dying world. And not just the Father BUT in the story the little boy didn't have a choice in what happened BUT in the great plan of redemption the SON...Jesus Christ did have a choice. He chose to lay down His life so that we can live. Can there be any wonder that the earth trembled and the skies grew dark as Jesus hung there on the cross when the great price for the plan of redemption was paid. Sadly most of mankind just like those on the train speed along through life without giving a thought to what was done or of the great sacrifice that was made. Those on the train didn't even know what the Father had done for them...much of the world doesn't know either and its up to us...not just to be thankful everyday, EVERY MOMENT of our lives for the price paid for our freedom BUT to also tell those who do not know of this wonderful act of love done on their behalf. LORD may we never lose sight of the great sacrifice made for us!

Until next time...Pastor Billy R Douglas

The Virtuous Woman

Devotions from the book of Proverbs by Brother Steven Huston

Proverbs 31:1 “The words of king Lemuel, the prophecy that his mother taught him.” The name Lemuel means “unto God” or “one dedicated unto God.” The virtuous woman is a godly woman who dedicates her children and those in her sphere of influence to the Lord. She is a woman who, like Hannah of old, yearns for motherly influence and directs the steps of her “children” in the nurture, admonition, and fear of the Lord, dedicating and preparing them for the Lord’s service. She weeps in prayer for them with a heart focused on God and their good. “The prophecy” is actually a burden. Her heart is burdened with divine wisdom from God and she feels that it is her divine duty to impart this godly wisdom to her children with an urgency for their own soul and a heart of love for her Creator. Her desire is for her divine Bridegroom and that her “children” may grow to love Him as she does and that they may become like their “Father,” imitating His perfect love, His holiness, mercy, compassion and love of Truth. This burden is placed upon her by God and for God. “that his mother taught him.” We are all teaching something; what is it that you are teaching? The virtuous woman teaches by example. She shows a love for God and leads by diligence. She walks in wisdom, integrity and purity. She teaches with her words, her heart, and her walk. (Read Titus 2:3-5) Heavenly Father, help me to impart Your wisdom to my “children.” May Your princes and princesses learn to walk in Your righteousness by Your living example through me. Amen.

Proverbs 31:2 “What, my son? and what, the son of my womb? and what, the son of my vows?” What shall I say? What shall I teach? What is the mind of God that I should instruct my “child” in the Lord’s fear and admonition? Remember, this is your “son,” your sphere of influence. It’s a special God-given relationship for which you are responsible and will some day give an account for. What shall you say for their safety and yours? This is of your womb; it’s not just about your sphere but it’s about you as well. Every child is a special part of his mother. You painfully bore him and you, sometimes painfully, bear a responsibility to point others to their Creator. With this in mind, what shall you say? Is there anything which can outweigh the influence of a godly mother? She vows to dedicate and lead her “children” to the Lord and His service. She prays with her heart and tears that her “child” would never be the prey of Satan. Dedicating herself and her sphere to the Lord is not enough; she prayerfully teaches, trains, and leads others to the Lord with the urgency felt from her vow to do so. If we would have more men of such godly influence as Samuel, we must first have more virtuous women as Hannah. O Creator and Giver of Life, give me the words to say, the patience to teach, and burden my heart with an urgency to do so IN YOUR STRENGTH. Remind me daily, it’s ALL about You, not about me. I thank You for the sphere You have given me. May I be diligent in fulfilling Your will. In Jesus’ name, Amen.

Proverbs 31:3 “Give not thy strength unto women, nor thy ways to that which destroyeth kings.” Are you praying for discernment? This mother knew her son’s tendencies well enough to give him warning. These warnings may have come from knowing their generational tendencies or he may have already shown these besetting enticements in his own life. Regardless, she loved her son enough to give godly counsel, warn against sin, and encourage him in a righteous walk befitting of kings and princes. The virtuous woman is strong enough to give godly counsel to those in her sphere; she loves enough to warn and to speak truth into their lives. Whether accepted or rejected she stands strong and speaks truth because she loves God and she loves her “children.” It was godly counsel for the law warned against taking many wives (Deuteronomy 17:17). It ran contrary to God’s perfect design for marriage—one man, one woman, in sacred covenant with God, for life. Had Solomon followed after this advice he would have continued to walk in wisdom, his heart would have kept in tune with God, and perhaps his kingdom would not have been divided (I Kings 11:3). Lemuel and Christians today are soundly warned against licentiousness. We would do well to use our liberty as the apostle Paul exhorts, “...only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.” (Galatians 5:13) Father, give me discernment by Your Spirit and by Your strength may I speak truth which is timely. I plead in Jesus’ name, Amen.

“Are You A Full Gospel Christian?” conclusion

by Evangelist Mike Heltsley

Acts 19:1-2, 6 - And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples, 2 He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost. 6 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied. Declare the “full gospel” message of the God-given power that comes with the baptism with the Holy Spirit, with the evidence of speaking in tongues. This Holy Spirit baptism is completely distinct from water baptism — Acts 1:5 - For John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence. Jesus made it unequivocally clear that water baptism and Holy Spirit baptism are two entirely distinct experiences. The reception of God’s power when we are filled with the Spirit is “good news” that is too infrequently preached from pulpits today. Acts 3:2-7 - And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple; 3 Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms. 4 And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us. 5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them. 6 Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk. 7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength. Declare the “full gospel” message of divine healing. For the sick and infirm, the promise of divine healing is “good news” indeed! It is an integral part of the full gospel. Mark 16:17 - And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; Declare the “full gospel” message of deliverance from demons. Unbelievers can be greatly vexed by demons, even to the point of demon possession. The full-gospel message is that “those who believe ... will drive out demons”. John 14:12 - Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father. Declare the “full gospel” message of the authority of the believer. If we believe, we can do mighty works like those that Jesus did — “the works that I do shall he [the believer] do also.” The commission from Jesus Christ to us, His people, is to do His works and even greater! Mark 11:21-23 - And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away. 22 And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God. 23 For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith. Declare the “full gospel” message of mountain-moving faith. Great obstacles can be surmounted by faith in God. Mighty miracles are possible through faith in God. When Peter marveled at the miracle Jesus had performed, Jesus replied simply, “Have faith in God.” 1st Corinthians 1:7-8 - So that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ: 8 Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. There is not a shred of evidence in the New Testament that God intended the supernatural spiritual gifts to die out early in the Church Age. To the contrary, the Scriptures clearly teach that the gifts of the Holy Spirit are for today as well as for the early Church. Declare the “full gospel” message of the Hebrews 6 fundamentals of our Christian faith. Hebrews 6:1-2 - Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God, 2 Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. In sum, let’s purpose to follow Paul’s apostolic example, to “fully preach the gospel” and to “declare ... all the counsel of God.” That will include (but not be limited to): 1. Repentance 2. Salvation; being born again 3. Water baptism 4. The baptism with the Holy Spirit 5. Speaking in tongues as the evidence of our Spirit baptism 6. Gifts of the Spirit 7. Power over demons 8. The authority of the believer 9. Mountain-moving faith 10. Doing the mighty works Jesus did 11. The Hebrews 6:1-2 foundational truths of our faith.

Under His Wings

"He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty." Psa 91:1

Did you know that there is a place in God where you can work and live - the Bible calls it "abide" and always be in the presence of the Almighty God. Think about it. That doctor's appointment, that airplane ride, that business meeting, that dark lonely street you just dread everyday? Now that in and of itself is a wonderful thought that you can trust God to guide you and protect you and to "keep" you in all of your life circumstances. But here's the thing . . . that isn't just a given! That's not something you wake up doing one day and feel safe because you just know God is there - somewhere. The passage tells us that "He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty". If you are "abiding in the shadow of The Almighty God today" you know all about that secret place in God. It's not just under "the shadow" of His wings, but it's "under" His wings where you learn to trust Him; learn to know His mind and heart and to walk in his ways. It's under His wings where you hear Him say, "For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end. Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you". Jer 29:12 Do you feel like your standing out on a limb this morning and someone is there with a limb-lopper just waiting to take away the only safe-place you have left in the world? Well, Jesus will come to your aid and He will deliver you "from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence". (ref., Ps 91:3) If you're not under His wings today, come quickly to the side of God the Father who loves you and always has your best interest at heart today and every day. You are the apple of His eye and He loves you. Let's pray: Father God - It is my desire today to be under the shadow of your wings as I go about my daily duties. But Oh Father - Help me to remember how important it is to seek that place of refuge; that place of shelter "under" your wings in order that I might not sin against thee. In Jesus' Name I Pray, Amen.

Sow Into the Lives Of People

But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest. And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all. Mark 9:35

Once there was a king who decided to set aside a special day to honor his greatest subject. When the big day arrived, a large gathering took place in the palace courtyard and our finalists were brought forward. The first person was a wealthy philanthropist. This man was deserving of the king's honor because of his great humanitarian efforts. He had given much of his wealth to the poor, building orphanages, schools and hospitals throughout the land. The second was a celebrated physician. This outstanding doctor was deserving of honor for rendering his faithful and dedicated service to the sick for many years and discovering medicines that saved many lives. The third was a distinguished judge. He was noted for his wisdom, his fairness and his many a brilliant decision. The last person presented before the king was an elderly woman. Her manner was quite humble, as was her dress.

She hardly looked the part of someone who would be honored as the greatest subject in the kingdom. What chance could she possibly have, when compared to the other three, who had accomplished so very much? The king was intrigued, to say the least and was somewhat puzzled by her presence. He asked who she was. Then the answer came: "Well, my king, do you see the philanthropist, the doctor, and the judge over here? She was their teacher!" This woman had no wealth, no fortune, and no title, but countless lives were helped, healed and changed through her giving. We never know whose lives we're touching. I'm sure someone prayed — someone gave — someone shared the Gospel with some of the greatest evangelists, preachers and givers we know. Let's serve the Lord by sowing unselfishly into the lives of the people he's put in our path — so that they may become great in God's Kingdom!

God's Simple Plan of Salvation

My Friend: we are about to ask you the most important question of your life. Your joy or your sorrow for all eternity depends upon your answer. The question is: Are you saved? Do you know Jesus Christ as your personal LORD and Saviour? It is not a question of how good you are, nor if you are a church member, but have you put your faith in Jesus? Are you sure you will go to Heaven when you die? The Bible makes the plan of salvation plain and simple. Romans 10:13 says For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. Call on Jesus today. Put your faith and trust in him and ask him to forgive you of your sins and to be your LORD and savior and you will be born again...SAVED!! Do this today, tomorrow may be to late! Please write or call us if you have made the decision to accept Jesus. We would love to send you some material to help you with your new life with the LORD.
