I Will Remember

I will remember the words of the Lord, surely I will remember thy wonders of old..

PSALMS 77:11

Have you ever went through a battle or needed deliverance and you didn't know what to do? Well here is your answer, thank back to your other battles you had, Do you remember how the Lord delivered you. Remember how when your back was against the wall, and the Lord stepped in and moved. When Jonah was in the belly of the whale he remembered the Lord, when David went to fight the giant he remembered how the Lord had delivered him from the lion and the bear, and he knew the same God would deliver him now. In Psalms 77:11 David said he would remember the works of the Lord, he would remember the works of the Lord, he would remember how when there seem to be no way out, God would move for him, So brothers and sisters let me encourage you in the Lord, he is your source of help in times of trouble!

Happy Thanksgiving

Sing unto the LORD, O ye saints of his, and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.

Psalms 30:4

Thanksgiving It's More Than A Day

As Thanksgiving Day rolls around,
It brings up some facts, quite profound.

We may think that we're poor,

Feel like bums, insecure,

But in truth, our riches astound.

We have friends and family we love;

We have guidance from heaven above.

We have so much more

Than they sell in a store,

We're wealthy, when push comes to shove.

So add up your blessings, I say;

Make Thanksgiving last more than a day.

Enjoy what you've got;

Realize it's a lot,

And you'll make all your cares go away.

Written By Karl Fuchs

*In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.

Church of the Covered Dish

(C)1999 by Thom Tapp ttapp@bellsouth.net

Cousin Leroy

Leroy's Aunt Lulu received a letter one morning, and upon reading it burst into floods of tears. "What's the matter ma?" Uncle Festerdinkle asked. "Oh dear", sobbed Aunt Lulu, "It's my favorite nephew Claud. He's got three feet." "Three feet?" shouted Uncle Festerdinkle. "Land sakes...are you sure ma?" "It's right here in black and white," said Aunt Lulu, "his mother's just written to tell me he's grown another foot!!!"

Rules are Rules

Hospital regulations require a wheel chair for patients being discharged. While working as a student nurse the young lady found an elderly gentleman already dressed and sitting on the bed with a suitcase at his feet. She quickly went and came back with a wheel chair. The old gentlemen insisted he didn't need any help to leave the hospital but she would not hear of it. Not letting him get out another word she insisted rules were rules. Reluctantly he let her wheel him to the elevator. On the way down she asked him if his wife was meeting him. 'I don't know,' he said. 'She's still upstairs in the bathroom changing out of her hospital gown.'

Say What

On a hot summer day, a farmer and his dog were riding in a wagon pulled by two horses. After riding several miles, one of the horses said, "Whew, sure is hot today." The farmer, obviously surprised, said aloud, "Wow, I didn't know that horse could talk!" The dog replied, "Neither did I."

Advice

A doctor and a lawyer were talking at a party. Their conversation was constantly interrupted by people describing their ailments and asking the doctor for free medical advice. After an hour of this, the exasperated doctor asked the lawyer, "What do you do to stop people from asking you for legal advice when you're out of the office?" "I give it to them," replied the lawyer, "and then I send them a bill." The doctor was shocked, but agreed to give it a try. The next day, still feeling slightly guilty, the doctor prepared the bills. When he went to place them in his mailbox, he found a bill from the lawyer.

In Every Thing Give Thanks

In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.
1Thessalonians 5:18

The above passage is probably one of the harder scriptures for us as Christians to apply to our lives. Realizing that we are all just flesh and blood it should come as no surprise that we allow things, circumstances and life in general to effect the thanksgiving that we give to the LORD. At first thought you might say "Oh no that doesn't effect the way I worship, praise or give thanks" but I am sure if all of us thought for a moment (or maybe less) we would see clearly that those things do effect us in that way. All of us go through trials and face things in life that make it difficult for us to understand why they happen. We may even find our selves asking God "Why LORD?". And that's ok...we are human and he knows that. As a minister I have probably heard the statement "I Don't understand why this had to happen" more than any other. And more times than not my answer to that has always been that I don't understand it either BUT I know what God's Word says and I know that if we will trust in Him...hold to His Word that He will see us through. Romans 8:28 says "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose." When we realize that He has promised us in His Word that no matter what we are facing, no matter what we are going through that He will take those "things" and cause them to work together for our good. Then we can find that faith that causes us to give Him thanks in every thing! We don't have to like it, we don't have to understand it, we just have to say LORD your Word tells me that you will cause these things to work for my good and I trust you...I trust your Word. During harvest time in India years ago, the story is told of an old widow who arrived at her church with an extraordinarily large offering of rice – far more than the poor woman could be expected to afford. The pastor of the church did not know the widow well. But he did know that she was very poor and so he asked her if she were making the offering in gratitude for some unusual blessing. "Yes," replied the woman. "My son was sick and I promised a large gift to God if he got well." "And your son has recovered?" asked the pastor. The widow paused as tears came to her eyes. "No," she said. "He died last week. But I know that he is in God's care; for that I am especially thankful." This woman had learnt this great truth...to give thanks in all things. It wasn't what she wanted, and I am sure there were times she wondered why BUT she realized that her son had received the ultimate healing, never to be sick again. She realized that her Heavenly Father knew best and that she and her son were in His loving care. LORD, let us not dwell on the "things", the troubles and trials of life that we don't understand. Help us to turn our heart and our faith toward you, our source of hope, our strength, our Heavenly Father and to give thanks in spite of all those things for we know that we are in your loving care...and that no matter what happens nothing can change that. Until next time. Pastor Billy R, Douglas

REESIE'S RECIPES

Peanut Butter Pudding Dessert

- 1 cup all-purpose flour
- 1/2 cup cold butter, cubed
- 1-1/2 cups chopped cashews, divided
- 1 package (8 ounces) cream cheese, softened
- 1/3 cup creamy peanut butter
- 1 cup confectioners' sugar
- 1 carton (12 ounces) frozen whipped topping, thawed, divided
- 2-2/3 cups cold milk
- 1 package (3.9 ounces) instant chocolate pudding mix
- 1 package (3.4 ounces) instant vanilla pudding mix
- 1 milk chocolate candy bar (1.55 ounces), coarsely chopped

Place flour and butter in a food processor; cover and process until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Add 1 cup cashews; pulse a few times until combined. Press into a greased 13-in. x 9-in. baking dish. Bake at 350° for 25-28 minutes or until golden brown. Cool completely on a wire rack. In a small bowl, beat the cream cheese, peanut butter and confectioners' sugar until smooth. Fold in 1 cup whipped topping. Spoon over crust. In another bowl, whisk milk and both pudding mixes for 2 minutes. Let stand for 2 minutes or until soft-set. Spread over cream cheese layer. Top with remaining whipped topping. Sprinkle with chopped candy bar and remaining cashews. Cover and refrigerate for at least 1 hour before serving.

Pecan Pie Cobbler

- Pie Crust
- 3 cups sugar
- 2 1/2 cups Karo syrup
- 1 1/2 stick butter, melted
- 9 eggs
- 3 cups pecans

Pre-heat oven to 350. Roll out crust and place in 9x13 pan. Mix sugar and syrup, then add melted butter until well blended. In a separate bowl beat eggs. Add eggs to mixture, then stir in pecans. Bake approx. 1 hour and 5 minutes or until butter knife inserted in middle comes out clean.

Peach Glazed Ham

- 1 fully cooked bone-in ham (8 to 10 pounds)
- Whole cloves
- 1 can (12 ounces) lemon-lime soda
- 1-1/2 cups packed dark brown sugar, divided
- 1 cup water
- 1 jar (12 ounces) peach preserves
- 6 tablespoons butter, cubed
- 1/4 cup honey
- 1 teaspoon prepared mustard
- Dash ground cloves
- 1 can (8 ounces) sliced pineapple, drained
- 3 canned peach halves

Score surface of the ham, making diamond shapes 1/2 in. deep; insert a clove into each diamond. Place on a rack in a well-greased foil-lined roasting pan. Pour soda over ham. Spread 1 cup brown sugar over ham. Add water to pan. Cover and bake at 325° for 1-1/2 to 2 hours. In a large saucepan, combine the preserves, butter, honey, mustard, ground cloves and remaining brown sugar. Cook and stir over low heat until butter is melted and sugar is dissolved. Uncover ham; brush with glaze. Arrange the pineapple slices and peach halves over ham, securing with wooden toothpicks. Bake, uncovered, for 25-30 minutes or until and ham is heated through.

White Cheddar Scalloped Potatoes

2 cups (8 ounces) shredded sharp white cheddar cheese

Preheat oven to 375°. In a large saucepan, heat butter over medium-high heat. Add onion; cook and stir until tender. Stir in flour and seasonings until blended; gradually whisk in milk. Bring to a boil, stirring constantly; cook and stir 2 minutes or until thickened. Stir in soup. Remove from heat; stir in sour cream. In a greased 13x9-in. baking dish, layer half of each of the following: potatoes, ham, cheese and sauce. Repeat layers. Bake, covered, 30 minutes. Bake, uncovered, 40-50 minutes longer or until potatoes are tender.

Biblical Accuracy versus Political Correctness

We live in a day when biblical accuracy and political correctness are at polar opposites of one another. You will have to choose to be one or the other for you cannot be both. Truth has been sacrificed for the banquet of unity and the Bible has been twisted unto belief. People, including the church, twist it so that none are offended and everyone can believe it. I so appreciate Paul Washer's quote which goes something like this: "When people say, 'Judge not lest ye be judged,' I say, 'Twist not the Scripture lest ye be like Satan.'" Folks, they have misconstrued, misrepresented, and misinterpreted the Word of God until it no longer resembles God's truth but people feel good about it and no one is condemned; so, "praise the Lord!" The True Bride of Christ shall stand firmly in opposition to the tides of political correctness when her Bridegroom's honor is at stake. We are to be a people of strength and virtue. We are called to be holy and blameless, without spot or wrinkle, that we may be ready for our Husband's return. Jesus expects a faithful bride, one who will be true to Him regardless the cost. No, it will not be a popular stand but it will be one which is worthy of our soon coming King. You are familiar with John the Baptist losing his head over a stand for holiness (Matthew 14:1-12). John the Baptist found that when you "lose your head" (look foolish) over holiness, you may actually lose your head. Hardship seems to be the norm for a people of faith. If you doubt this, if you think there is room for political correctness in preaching the Word of God then I exhort you by the very word of God to read the Scriptures daily to see if those things be so; go grab your Bible and read Hebrews 11, Philippians 1, and remember Paul's words to Timothy in 2 Timothy 3:12; "Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution." Remember Christ's own words to the disciples: "If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you. If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also." (John 15:18-20) Friends, we serve an holy and unchanging God. He is the Creator and He makes the rules. It doesn't matter how many judges, politicians, or pastors say a thing is right or good; it doesn't matter what percentage of society says there is no absolute truth. What God has deemed to be wrong or evil IS wrong and evil. Whatever God has deemed to be true IS absolutely true! God has NOT abdicated His throne and no matter how much society and government would like to, no one can overthrow Jesus, the King of kings and Lord of lords, hallelujah! Jesus IS absolute truth, absolutely! Take great care to not buy the lie of Satan or political correctness. Press on in truth! Be faithful to He Who is called the Faithful and True witness. Be men, women, and children who follow after biblical accuracy rather than political correctness. Brother Steve Huston 103 N. Division Ave. Fremont, Michigan 49412

I Love To Fish

"And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men." Mark 1:17 (KJV)

We use to go fishing a lot I love fishing, My children loved to go fishing with Wayne and I. The kids all go fishing and take their children with them. They all love fishing. Sadly, Wayne and I haven't been able to go fishing lately. We still talk about the good times we had sitting on the banks. We talk about fishing with our grand children. Fishing gave us a chance to get a break from the world and just relax and meditate and on a good day, maybe catch a fish or two. My son when he was young would always move to where ever one of the rest of us was getting bites. But, it always seemed that my daughter, Rebecca that would set patiently and only with a bamboo pole always caught the most and largest fish. Later in years when we took two of our grandchildren fishing. Annabelle only wanted enough worm on the hook to cover it. She spent most of her time walking up and down the banks of the rivers, looking for frogs and flowers. Her brother Jacob always wanted a big worm that would have covered 4 hooks on his hook. He'd look at grandpa and say I need the biggest worm so I can catch the biggest fish. Then, grandpa we can cook it and we all can eat it. I liked the way Jacob was thinking his appetite for catching the big one created in him great expectation. What is our appetite for affecting the world around us for the Lord's sake? How much do we hunger to change things in peoples' lives through the gospel and through ministry. And how does that affect our expectations you ask? Jesus said "Blessed are those who HUNGER AND THIRST for righteousness." How would you compare your hunger for God to your expectation? If your hunger is great and genuine then it's likely that God will move you towards people who need Him, to those who are hungry for righteousness. You my friend as a Christian are a fisherman. Fishing for souls. Remember Jesus said in Mark 1:17 "And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men." God bless you, Sister Osella Clabaugh

“You Need the Baptism in the Holy Ghost!” conclusion

We are all called to be witnesses who are full of the Holy Ghost and power! You Must Realize You Do Not Have All Jesus Wants You to Have Unless You Are Baptized With the Holy Ghost! John the Baptist preached in Luke 3:16 - John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire: Beloved, the Bible makes it very clear: When Jesus comes to you, He desires to baptize you with the Holy Ghost and fire! The Holy Ghost brings fire - a red-hot, consuming love for Jesus. Why are so many believers hot one minute and then cold the next, never totally yielded, never sold out? Is it because they refuse to let Jesus baptize them with the Holy Ghost? “When (the Holy Ghost) is come, He will reprove... of sin” (John 16:8). Could it be that these believers are not convicted because the Holy Ghost has not yet moved in - that He has never been invited to take His rightful place in them? If the Holy Ghost were in residence He would be convicting, convincing, probing - holding them to the Word. He is God’s plumb line. Anything that does not measure up to Christ, He reveals - and He convicts us and empowers us to conform to His Word! Truly He becomes our Comforter in this, because as He convicts us of sin He empowers us to remove it. That is true comfort! You Must Be Willing to Let Go of Decorum! That is Your Pride: Etiquette - Primness - Starchiness! In both the Old and New Testaments, the Holy Ghost fell upon people in the most unusual ways! He shook buildings. People’s tongues began to praise Him - in new tongues. The Holy Ghost took full control! At Pentecost he came with a mighty, rushing wind! Fire fell! Acts 2:4 - And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. Can you imagine what this crowd looked like to passersby - 120 people, all preaching and praising God at the same time and in different tongues? It must have looked like drunken chaos! When the Holy Ghost comes down, things get shaken up. Acts 4:31 - And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness. Some say, “The Spirit came down at Pentecost. We don’t need to pray for Him to fall on us now.” But throughout the Book of Acts, after Pentecost, the Holy Ghost was still falling on believers! He fell at the house of Cornelius: “While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them” (Acts 10:44). Again, they spoke with tongues! He fell at Ephesus: “The Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied” (Acts 19:6). The Holy Ghost will never make you do anything stupid. But He will come upon you in such a way that sinners may think you are drunk! He is not welcome in many churches because He is thought to be too noisy, too upsetting, too unpredictable! The Holy Ghost Is Received by Faith! Galatians 3:2 - This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? Saints, this message should ignite your faith, - and by faith you should lay hold of God’s great promises! James 1:6-7 - But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed. 7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord. The Lord says, “Open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it” (Psalm 81:10). Praying for the gift of tongues should not be our focus; we ought to pray to be baptized in the Holy Ghost - and speaking in tongues are an expression of His indwelling. Have you asked God for this gift? Are you seeking the Holy Ghost? Are you continually knocking? Luke 11:13 - If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him? Simply ask and you will receive! Seek your heavenly Father for the baptism of the Holy Ghost, and He will give it to you! The Holy Ghost is the HOUND OF HEAVEN, and He is hunting down sinners and the backslidden everywhere. They are falling under an incredible “misery,” and are beginning to hate their sin for the first time. They are feeling an urge to seek spiritual help. That, my friends, is the powerful ministry of the Holy Ghost. We face a mad devil on the loose in our world today. He is unleashing all the power at his command; and legions of evil powers are digging in for the final conflict with heaven. It is going to take more than the dead, powerless religion practiced by most denominations. Our modern church programs are silly - carnal - and the laughing stock of hell. Demonic hordes will simply walk all over backslidden, apostate Christians and pastors. Unclean, unholy Christians are weak, powerless and afraid of Satan’s power. They can no more stop the onslaught of Satan than an ant can stop an armored tank. But Satan cannot stand up to a righteous, Holy Ghost-filled child of God who walks in faith and obedience. Show me a truly Holy Ghost-possessed believer, and I’ll show you one who puts the legions of hell to chase. We don’t need bigger churches or more Christian TV or more sophisticated religious methods! We need more Holy Ghost-baptized saints - separated and sanctified - who will live and walk and talk in the power given them! We need to be on our faces crying out to God for a fresh Pentecost: that the Holy Ghost would again fall upon us, our churches, our pastors and evangelists - and rid ourselves once and for all of everything profane and fleshly. God, send the Holy Ghost! Fall upon us! Baptize us mightily. And send us forth against satanic strongholds with an uncompromising faith that He will prevail in our day!

God's Simple Plan of Salvation

My Friend: we are about to ask you the most important question of your life. Your joy or your sorrow for all eternity depends upon your answer. The question is: Are you saved? Do you know Jesus Christ as your personal LORD and Saviour? It is not a question of how good you are, nor if you are a church member, but have you put your faith in Jesus? Are you sure you will go to Heaven when you die? The Bible makes the plan of salvation plain and simple. Romans 10:13 says For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. Call on Jesus today. Put your faith and trust in him and ask him to forgive you of your sins and to be your LORD and savior and you will be born again...SAVED!! Do this today, tomorrow may be too late! Please write or call us if you have made the decision to accept Jesus. We would love to send you some material to help you with your new life with the LORD.
