Unto thee, O God, do we give thanks, unto thee do we give thanks: for that thy name is near thy wondrous works declare. Psalms 75:1

Forgive Me When I Whine

Today upon a bus, I saw a lovely maid with golden hair; I envied her—she seemed so gay, and how, I wished I were so fair; When suddenly she rose to leave, I saw her hobble down the aisle; she had one foot and wore a crutch, but as she passed, a smile.

Oh God, forgive me when I whine, I have two feet -- the world is mine.

And when I stopped to buy some sweets, the lad who served me had such charm; he seemed to radiate good cheer, his manner was so kind and warm; I said, "It's nice to deal with you, such courtesy I seldom find"; he turned and said, "Oh, thank you sir." And then I saw that he was blind.

Oh, God, forgive me when I whine, I have two eyes, the world is mine.

Then, when walking down the street, I saw a child with eyes of blue; he stood and watched the others play, it seemed he knew not what to do; I stopped a moment, then I said, "Why don't you join the others, dear?" He looked ahead without a word, and then I knew he could not hear.

Oh God, forgive me when I whine, I have two ears, the world is mine.

With feet to take me where I'd go; with eyes to see the sunsets glow, with ears to hear what I would know. I am blessed indeed. The world is mine; oh, God, forgive me when I whine.

O give thanks unto the LORD, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever. Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy;
Psalms 107:1

Cousin Leroy

Leroy, the Misses, and the children were attending church one Sunday morning. As the church service got underway, the old minister said to the congregation, "Let us pray." Then in his very BOOMING preacher-sounding voice, he began, "Father, we know we are but dust..." During the short spiritual pause before the next phrase of the prayer, little Leroy Jr was heard in a loud whisper asking his mom, "Mommy, what is butt dust?"

First Date

Leon asked Bubba, "Bubba, I know you're crazy about that little daughter of yours. What are you going to do when she starts to date?" Bubba replied, "I figure I'll take the first young man aside, put my arm around his shoulder, and pull him close to me so that only he can hear. Then I'll say, 'Do you see that sweet, little young lady? She's my only daughter, and I love her very much. If you were thinking about touching, kissing, or being physically affectionate to her in any way, just remember... I don't mind going back to prison.'"

Pest Control

Leroy's cousin Goober works for a large exterminating company. One of the rules of the company is that he has to confirm each appointment by phone the night before his service call to that household. One evening he made such a call, and when a man answered the phone, he said, "Hi, this is Goober from A to Z Pest Control Company. Your wife phoned us." There was a long silence, and then he heard the man on the other end say, "Honey, it's for you. Someone wants to talk to you about your relatives."

Holiday Bonus

The owner of a company tells his employees, "You worked very hard this year, therefore the company's profits increased dramatically. As a reward, I'm giving everyone bonus...a check for $5,000!" Thrilled, the employees gather round and high five one another. "And if you work with the same zeal next year, I'll sign those checks!"

Wedding Vows

During his wedding rehearsal, the groom approached his pastor with an unusual offer. "I'll give you $100 if you'll change the wedding vows, and leave out the 'love, honor, obey, and forsake all others' part." He pressed a $100 bill in the pastor's hand and walked away with a satisfied smile. On the day of the wedding, the groom was feeling pretty pleased when the pastor got to the part where the vows are exchanged. The pastor looked him in the eye and asked, "Will you promise to bow before her, obey whatever command she gives, fulfill her every wish, serve her breakfast each morning, and promise that you'll not look at another woman as long as you both shall live?" The groom gulped and looked astonished, but he finally said "Yes" in a tiny voice. He then leaned in toward the pastor and whispered, "I thought we had a deal!" The pastor pressed the $100 bill back into his hand and whispered in return, "She made me a much better offer."

The Butterfly

Two caterpillars are sitting on a leaf when a butterfly zooms by, startling them. One turns to the other and says, "Boy, you'll never get me up in one of those things."

The Lost Will Die Today

Pastor Billy R Douglas

Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest. John 4:35

A few weeks ago during my prayer time at church these words came to my mind..."The Lost Will Die Today". At first I thought for sure I had heard them before in an old hymnal. And maybe I had, but when my search for the song came up empty I once again took it before the LORD in prayer. And I began to think...maybe if I had not heard them in a song perhaps it was something the LORD wanted me to write. As I sat down at my desk the Holy Spirit began to write these words through me. And at the end of each verse I could hear the Holy Spirit whisper this refrain..."The Lost Will Die Today". I want to share those words with you this month. Words from the Holy Spirit that I pray will touch your heart the way that they touched mine. Words that I pray will stir your spirit the way that they stirred mine.

As We Travel Here And There

And Go Along Our Way

We Act As If It Will Never End

But The Lost Will Die Today

We Must Hurry We Don't Have Time

Not One Kind Word To Say

So Many Things To Keep Us Busy

But The Lost Will Die Today

No Time To Warn Of Hells Hot Flames

To Share The Life The Truth The Way

No Time To Do The Work Of God

But The Lost Will Die Today

So Let Us All Who Follow Christ

Fall On Our Knees And Pray

Beg For The Burden Of The LORD

For The Lost Will Die Today

I pray that as we read these words along with the scripture that we started out with that the importance of reaching the lost TODAY becomes more real to us than ever before! The reality that time stands still for no one and that we can ill afford to put off till tomorrow what MUST be done today! Each and every one of us who have been born again are called to reach the lost. Through the life that we live, the testimony that we can give...the light that we can be to a dark and a lost world! Don't let the enemy convince you that it is not your responsibility, because it is! William Booth the founder of the Salvation Army once penned these words..."Not called!" did you say? 'Not heard the call,' I think you should say. Put your ear down to the Bible, and hear Him bid you go and pull sinners out of the fire of sin. Put your ear down to the burdened, agonized heart of humanity, and listen to its pitiful wail for help. Go stand by the gates of hell, and hear the damned entreat you to go to their father's house and bid their brothers and sisters and servants and masters not to come there. Then look Christ in the face — whose mercy you have professed to obey — and tell Him whether you will join heart and soul and body and circumstances in the march to publish His mercy to the world." Let me leave you with these words that I close every church service with and the scripture from which they are inspired. Go and be the light that you are supposed to be. And show the love of Jesus to everyone that you can! Matthew 5:16 "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven."

Until next time may the LORD bless and keep you and Happy Thanksgiving! Pastor Billy R Douglas

“Satan Hates You But Jesus Loves You!” conclusion

Evangelist Mike Heltsley

God's Way Proverbs 22:6 - Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it. Ephesians 6:4 - And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. According to the Bible, children are to be TRAINED in the ways of God, not in the ways of men. Human traditions and philosophies are irrelevant. Every parent will be accountable to God for seeing to it that their children are TRAINED in righteousness. Friend, you've seen Satan's way, and it is evident throughout our society that his way is the way of sin, misery, danger, destruction and death. God has a much better way. John 14:6 - Jesus said, ". . . I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." Acts 4:12 says, "Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved." The Lord Jesus Christ has come and PAID for your sins by shedding His own Blood on Calvary. By receiving Him as your Saviour, you can be WASHED from all your sins in His precious Blood (Rev. 1:5; Col. 1:14; Acts 20:28; I Pet. 1:18-19). Notice these important words from Romans 5:8-9: "But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him." Jesus PAID your way to Heaven for you! By receiving Him as your Saviour, you will be receiving God's ONLY means of Salvation. Are you willing to forsake YOUR righteousness and receive Jesus Christ as your Saviour, your ONLY HOPE for Salvation? Romans 10:13 says, "Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." Romans 10:9 says, "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. Are you willing to forsake your own righteousness, and trust Jesus Christ alone? He will save you just as He promised. Why not receive Him today and trust Him to give you a better way of life? How can you be a proper parent for your children if you aren't a true Christian? Why not receive Jesus Christ today and start applying Biblical principles in the training of your children?

Until next time, let your light shine for Jesus! Evangelist Mike Heltsley

What Is Truth?

Pastor Mike Vaughn

Pilate saith unto him, What is truth?...John 18:38

One cannot be fully satisfied until he discovers Truth. The words of Pilate that were spoken to Jesus still echo from two thousand years ago. "What is Truth?" Millions have searched for truth in foreign lands, philosophies, and religion and still they remain empty and unfulfilled. I had my own personal quest years ago and I discovered Truth in a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. He is the Truth. You will not be able to understand the world around you nor discover the meaning of life without an encounter with Jesus Christ. He is life, He is Peace, and He is truth. Jesus declared in John 14:6; I am the way, the truth and the life". Many have said, "If I surrender all to Jesus then I could not be happy, for I will be forfeiting my will, resulting in bondage. I understand how reason would arrive at such a conclusion but it is just the opposite. When you give Jesus your total allegiance, and invite Him to be your Lord & Savior; it's then you receive a freedom you didn't know existed. John 8:32 says, "And you will know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." If you are still searching for truth, may I suggest look to Jesus. By the way...He's waiting.

You are Loved with an everlasting Love, Mike Vaughn

Lamentation for America

Pastor Steven Huston

“How doth the city sit solitary, that was full of people! how is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, and princess among the provinces, how is she become tributary!” (Lamentations 1:1)

It's fitting that the Jews have named this book “Kinnoth,” meaning “tears.” Jeremiah had cried, wishing his head was as waters, and his eyes as fountains of tears. He wept day and night for the sins and sufferings of the daughters of his people. I wonder, who cries for America? Who is so deeply touched by America's heinous sins, in light of a holy God whose righteous and terrible judgments will NOT be stayed forever, that they cry out with Thomas Jefferson, “I tremble for my country when I reflect that God is just; that his justice cannot sleep forever.” Jeremiah starts his lamentation out with contrasting the heights of Jerusalem's splendid blessings to the depths of her despair, only to be outdone by her depravity of sin. Her suffering was great; the memory of her former times of blessing enhanced that suffering. Such suffering was made unbearable by the knowledge that this is the fruit of her sin; she brought this devastation upon herself by her treachery and unfaithful conduct toward the Lord her God. Jehovah, Lord of hosts, had separated and sanctified her to Himself. He alone was her Protector, Provider, and the Glory in her midst; but she wouldn't walk worthy of her mercies, corrupting her way. The Lord became her enemy; if Judah wouldn't respond with gratitude and obedience, then she would be laid bare by Jehovah's righteous judgments. Here before us sits an illustrative picture of America's future—painted by Jeremiah's laments, tears, burden—if she/we will not repent. Already in some areas we see this as cities burn, businesses are looted, and chaos fills our streets. It wasn't enough to not teach true history—history from a Providential view—but we see them trying to tear down all remembrance of our heritage, like taking prayer out of school and wanting to remove all memory of God from our public square. That's not only the socialist way; it's the devil's way. But as we see in Jerusalem and Judah—and soon in America if we do not repent and return to the one true God Who blessed us and raised us up—our cities will be as empty as the aborted womb; we will be a laughingstock among the nations; and we will have moved from creditor nation to debtor nation to slave nation. Like America's 9/11, Jerusalem's sorrow was not a godly sorrow that worketh repentance unto salvation. It was so incredibly short-lived. We exhibited some sorrow but refused to be separated from our sin. If God would send His own children (Jerusalem) into captivity, why should we expect any less? Remember, Jehovah Lord of hosts has blessed America and raised us up; but like Judah, and Israel before her, we have squandered these blessings. We have sinned greatly against the Holy One of Israel, our Creator, Benefactor, and Redeemer. Our sin, like chains, is dragging us down to Jonah's watery grave but we don't have the sense to cry out to God in repentance, recognizing the depth of our sin and the depth of its offense—our offense—against a holy God. We continue to murder our young, excuse sin and be Biblically illiterate, allow our courts to condone immorality, and find ourselves becoming used to lawlessness and a lack of justice. We continue to be entertained by godlessness, laughing at sin, and paying for streaming services that support all manner of wickedness and pornography. We've been on a long path to reprobation that ends in divine and righteous retribution if we will not repent, turning from our wickedness and crying out to God for mercy. The seeds of reprobation were planted as America and the church slowly turned from righteous self-denial to selfishness, using our liberty as a means of self-gratification rather than glorifying God with our thoughts and lives. That reprobate seed was watered with godless entertainment and a lowering or nullifying of the standard in teaching the difference between the holy and the profane. Society's mind was being changed; but her actions maintained a façade of morality, albeit to a lessening degree. Not redeeming the time nor guarding Biblical beliefs, the mind of America became reprobate; and, a reprobate mind leads to a reprobate life. Here we are. Let us see Jerusalem's fall; let us read Jeremiah and his lamentations. Let us recognize that we (America), like Israel and Judah, have changed our God for gods that are no gods; that we have refused the fountain of living water to dig out cracked and broken cisterns that hold no water; and that we have refused to be broken to tears of repentance although God has been calling us out. Let such prayerful reading of these holy books bring us to a right fear of God, a hatred of our sin, and a humble return unto the Lord. If not, we will remain entangled in the yoke of sin, experience what it is to be the enemy of God, and feel the weight of His judgment. America, cry out in repentance NOW! At the time of this writing I have no idea who will have won the presidency. In regards to this writing, it doesn't matter. God had blessed us with a reprieve under President Donald J. Trump; but, what has the church—what have we—done with it? If COVID has done anything, it has shown us how fragile our liberty and our faith is. It has shown clearly the godlessness of much of our government and our society. Regardless of who has won the election we must humble ourselves, repent, pray for mercy, dig deep down in the Word, and grow boldly in Christ.

Reesie's Recipes

Broken Glass Tart

- 1 small box grape jello, prepared as directed
- 1 small box cherry jello, prepared as directed
- 1 small box lime jello, prepared as directed
- 24 graham crackers, mashed fine
- 1 cup sugar
- 1/3 cup melted margarine
- 1 envelope unflavored gelatin
- 1/4 cup cold water
- 1 cup pineapple juice
- 1/2 pint heavy whipping cream

Jell separately the three kinds of jello. Cut into small cubes when firm. Set aside 1 cup of graham cracker crumbs for topping. Add 1/2 cup sugar and 1/3 cup melted margarine to remaining crumbs and press into the bottom of a 9x13 pan or dish. Dissolve one envelope unflavored gelatin in 1/4 cup cold water. Heat 1/4 cup pineapple juice and add to the dissolved gelatin. Add the remaining 3/4 cup pineapple juice to the gelatin mixture. Whip whipping cream: add 1/2 cup sugar. Mix with gelatin mixture, then refrigerate until partly firm. Fold in cubed jello. Pour over crumb crust and refrigerate several hours until firm. Sprinkle with topping.

Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name. Psalms 100:4

Watergate Salad

- 1 small box pistachio pudding
  - 16 oz can crushed pineapple, in syrup
  - 1 (8oz) bowl cool whip
  - 1 cup miniature marshmallows
  - 1/2 cup coconut
  - 1 cup pecan pieces
- Mix dry pudding with pineapples then stir in all other ingredients.

Myrtle's Banana Pudding

- 3 Tbsp flour
- 2 cups sugar
- 2 cups 2% milk
- 3 egg yolks
- 1 stick of margarine
- 1/2 tsp vanilla
- Graham crackers
- Bananas

Mix flour and sugar to get the lumps out. Add milk to sugar and flour mixture. Beat eggs with a fork. Then add eggs, margarine and vanilla to the mixture. Heat on low. Stir until thickened. Layer crackers, bananas and pudding in a 9x13 dish.

Holiday Ham

- 1 whole boneless ham, approx 7 to 8 lbs
- 1 can sliced pineapple, in syrup
- 2 lb bag brown sugar

Heat oven to 250. Place ham in baking pan. Drain syrup from pineapples into a large mixing bowl. Place pineapples on top and sides of ham with toothpicks to hold them in place. Pour 2 lbs of brown sugar into the bowl with the syrup and stir with a spoon until well blended. Mixture will be thick. Pour over ham. Cover with foil. Cook in oven for 1 hour per pound. Remove from oven. Drain glaze from ham. Let cool before slicing. Slice ham. Drizzle glaze over ham.

BEWARE Of Your Thoughts!

George Whitten

For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; 2 Corinthians 10:4-5

Picture this -- you come home from a long day of work -- you walk into your living room -- plop down on your couch in exhaustion -- and there in the corner of the room -- your eyes are drawn to something moving -- it's a rattlesnake! Do you say to yourself, "Oh, I'm too tired to worry about that now, I'll deal with it later?" Of course not! You jump up right away, find a bat or something, alert your family, call the neighbors, 911, the fire department, the national guard, and start praying with all your might! It's a life-threatening situation! Though it may sound extreme, negative thoughts, which are lies, opposed to God's truth and character, should be treated the same way when they enter our minds. We ought to immediately sense their danger and rise to action; take that thought captive and bring it under submission to the truth of God's word. These thoughts are as poisonous to our minds and souls as rattlesnake bites are to our bodies. If we realize that danger, we'll be extremely vigilant to watch what we allow to sneak into our minds and remain there. Thoughts cannot be taken captive until they appear and are recognized. So we need to watch them carefully and consider whether they're good and true or not. Bad thinking comes in many forms. Dangerous thoughts can be obvious and easily recognized as sinful and evil or destructive, lustful, vengeful, spiteful, and vain; or they can be subtle as snakes, quietly lying in the background like clever rationalizations or spiritual pride. Whatever form they take is dangerous to our spiritual well being, and this word from Paul exhorts us to deal with them on the spot, just as if a snake had entered the house. Your mind is active and thinking during every waking hour, (and also of course in your dreams). Developing a habit of watchfulness over your thinking is a challenging discipline that will change your life and protect your spiritual house. Knowing the word of God is a tremendous help since the word contains God's thoughts which are the corrective for our bad and wrong thinking. So pay attention! What was that my mind just told me? Is that true and good, blessed and holy...or is it a snake? Respond accordingly...and fast! www.worthydevotions.com

Our God Walks With Us

Sister Nancy Douglas Willis

If I have found grace in thy sight, shew me now thy way, that I may know thee...and he said, My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest; Exodus 33;13-14

Moses was embarking on a new journey through the wilderness headed for their promise land. He would receive the ten commandments in the morning and they would leave Sinai for the promise land. God would make a new covenant with his people and lead them as a cloud and a fire. He would feed them, give them water and clothe them until they reached their inheritance. Then he would go before them in battle to defeat their every enemy. To make this journey, Moses needed God's direction and God's presence. He said, 'My presence shall go with you'. What a promise! Moses said, if thy presence go not with me, carry us not hence... or I'm not going without you. Is that not the cry of your heart? I need you Lord to go with me and direct me and if you won't go with me...don't send me. Exodus 33;16 For wherein shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? Is it not in that thou goest with us? So shall we be separated. I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth. We are embarking on a new year. We have no idea what we will face before the years end. As long as we know his presence goes with us...we have rest. We trust his promises to us. We have found grace in his sight. He is walking with us. He has made us to be separate from all nations of the earth...our God walks with us...

Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. Hebrews 13:5

A Smooth Stone

I would like to share some words with you from a Chinese brother that was born in 1900 and was severely, severely persecuted throughout his life. His name was Wang Ming-Dao and he died in 1991 at the age of 91. His is an amazing story of persecution, standing firm, falling, knowing the mercy and forgiveness of God, and standing firm again, relying on the promises of God. Listen carefully to his words: "There are so many stones in the brook that you cannot count them. Yet in every ten you cannot find more than one or two that are useable. There was no room in David's pouch for stones which had not been polished smooth. The process of attrition was essential. In the same way those believers who have not yet experienced trials and afflictions, and who have not yet been disciplined by God, are still not ready for his use. What I am anxious to know is whether I myself am qualified to be a 'smooth stone' in the hand of my God."

A Prayer for Thanksgiving Day

By Debbie McDaniel

Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all ye lands. Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing. Know ye that the LORD he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name. For the LORD is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations. Psalms 100:1-5

All across our nation, Thanksgiving is a day that we set aside in order to do one thing. Be thankful. And usually what goes along with it, is lots of food, family and friends, laughter and fun, times of giving to others in need, maybe some football, or traditions that you've recognized through long years. And sometimes too, there is also loneliness. And struggle. Or deep loss. Feelings of hurt and painful circumstances that you're still trying to hurdle over. Whatever you're facing, in the midst of all of it, may we remember again that God gives us the opportunity each and every day, to give worship and thanks to Him. Every morning He gives us breath, is His invitation to come joyfully into His Presence. He reminds us that He alone is God and we belong to Him. He assures us that His plans in our lives are for good, that his love covers us securely, and His faithfulness extends from generation to generation. No matter what, He's given us so many reasons to choose thankfulness and joy this day. Let's do what the Psalmist of this great chapter teaches us to:

- Shout for joy. - Worship the Lord with gladness. - Come before Him with joyful songs. - Know that He is God.
- Enter His gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise.- Give thanks to Him and praise His name.
- Recognize His goodness, love, and faithfulness, through all the generations of our family.

Dear God, Thank you for your goodness and for your blessings over our lives. Forgive us for when we don't thank you enough, for who you are, for all that you do, for all that you've given. We're so grateful for your amazing love and care, for your mercy and grace, for always working on our behalf, even behind the scenes when we're unaware. Thank you that you are always with us and will never leave us, even through loss and the most difficult of times. Thank you for your incredible sacrifice so that we might have freedom and life. Help us to set our eyes and our hearts on you afresh. Renew our spirits, fill us with your peace and joy, this Thanksgiving Day and every day. We give you thanks and praise, for You alone are worthy! In Jesus' Name, Amen.

In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.

1 Thessalonians 5:18

A Word for TODAY!

By Sister Michelle Deuling

Verse for Today: John 8:9 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

Additional passages for Today: Romans 2:14-16; 1 Timothy 1:5-7

Thought for Today: It's not enough to know right from wrong. To be Holy, one must live what they know to be right.

Story for Today: Angelica downloaded the app to her phone and quickly shut it off. She headed to the kitchen and started to load the dishwasher. She saw the list her Mom had left on the fridge of things she wanted Angelica to help with. She took the pork chops from the freezer and put them in the sink with some cold water to thaw and then went into the bathroom with her phone. Mabto was the new app her friends were all talking about and she wanted to know what it was all about. She quickly opened the app and began to set it up. She knew her parents would be upset if they knew, but she would just check it out and then take it back off the phone. As she scrolled through the pages opening different screens to get the whole picture, she started to see what all the excitement was about. After playing the first couple of levels, the guilt wasn't nearly as bad, until someone knocked on the door and she realized she had been in the bathroom for at least 30 minutes. She quickly shut down the game and closed out of the app. She shoved her phone in her back pocket and tried to look nonchalant as she unlocked the door and headed out. That night as she slept the visions in her head of skulls and birds didn't allow for a very restful night. "Mind and Body Take Over" seed had been planted. She saw the levels that taught how to beat the enemy. Only the enemies were innocent children. She woke up in a cold sweat. She quickly grabbed her phone and removed the app. After school when her friends gathered and started talking about Mabto again, she understood all that they were talking about and in the daylight it didn't seem as bad. She loaded it back on her phone on the way home. She started to play it again even though it didn't seem right. She was so engrossed in winning that she didn't notice Jamison, her younger brother and a couple of his friends enter the room. He saw what she was playing and the boys started to watch. When her last life was gone, she realized she had an audience and immediately regretted her actions. That night at dinner Jamison told her parents what she had done. And that night during devotions the whole family heard the story of the woman caught in adultery found in John chapter 8. Jamison started to squirm. He knew that he had done some of the games his parents didn't approve of either. Angelica was relieved that her parents knew the truth. She was also grateful to know that she could find forgiveness. She also decided that she didn't want to ignore her conscience anymore and that she wanted to please God by going to the Bible for the standards of what was good rather than her friends.

Questions for Today: Where do you go to find the truth? What is your standard for right and wrong? How often do you ignore your conscience to do what you want to do?

Prayer for Today: Heavenly Father please help us to not only read your word, but to obey what we read as we seek to understand you more each day. Help us to seek to do right and to encourage other believers rather than condemning them. In Jesus' Name Amen

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

God's Simple Plan of Salvation

My Friend: we are about to ask you the most important question of your life. Your joy or your sorrow for all eternity depends upon your answer. The question is: Are you saved? Do you know Jesus Christ as your personal LORD and Saviour? It is not a question of how good you are, nor if you are a church member, but have you put your faith in Jesus? Are you sure you will go to Heaven when you die? The Bible makes the plan of salvation plain and simple. Romans 10:13 says For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. Call on Jesus today. Put your faith and trust in him and ask him to forgive you of your sins and to be your LORD and savior and you will be born again...SAVED!! Do this today, tomorrow may be too late! Please write or call us if you have made the decision to accept Jesus.
