*Abstain from all appearance of evil.
1Thessalonians 5:22*

But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils. Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils. 1 Corinthians 10:20-21

That I May Know Him

That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death; Philippians 3:10

I'm so glad I know who JESUS is...he's not just someone I heard about or just someone I read about....But he is someone who I know personally!! Someone who knows more about me than I know about myself. He is the most important person you will ever meet. He will love you when no one else even wants to see the sight of you. AND what's also so great is that not only do I know him BUT that he knows me! One day he said Nancy if you will forsake all and follow me, that I could live with him throughout eternity. That no matter what comes against me, he would be there to fight all my battles, that he would have everything under control...MY, MY, WHAT A GREAT PRIVILEGE IT IS TO KNOW HIM

CHURCH OF THE COVERED DISH by Thom Tapp

"I just realised why no one was in church today... I forgot to unlock the doors."

Cousin Leroy

Little Leroy, jr opened the big family Bible. He was fascinated as he fingered through the old pages. Suddenly, something fell out of the Bible. He picked up the object and looked at it. What he saw was an old leaf that had been pressed in between the pages. "Pappy, pappy, look what I found," he called out with excitement. "What have you got there, Jr.?" With astonishment in his voice, he answered, "I think it's Adam's drawers!"

The Wonder Pill

Bob had this problem of getting up late in the morning and was always late for work. After a few weeks of this, his boss was mad and threatened to fire him if he didn't do something about it. So Bob went to his doctor, who gave him a pill and told him to take it before he went to bed. He got a great night's sleep and got up before the alarm in the morning. After an enjoying breakfast, he cheerfully drove to work. "Boss," he said, "The pill actually worked!" "That's all fine," said the boss, "But where were you at yesterday?"

Golfing Buddies

"Bob, why don't you play golf with John anymore?" asked a friend. "Would you play golf with a guy who moved the ball with his foot when you weren't watching?" Bob asked. "Well, no," admitted the friend. "Neither will John," replied Bob.

Top 10 Things To Never Say To A Police Officer

- 10.. Sorry, Officer, I didn't realize my radar detector wasn't plugged in...
9. Aren't you the guy from the Village People?
8. Hey, you must've been doin' about 125 mph to keep up with me! Good job!
7. You're not gonna check the trunk, are you?
 6. I pay your salary!
 5. So, uh, you on the take, or what?
 4. Wow, Officer! That's terrific. The last officer only gave me a warning, too!
 3. Do you know why you pulled me over? Okay, just so one of us does.
 2. I was trying to keep up with traffic. Yes, I know there is no other car around - that's how far ahead of me they are.
 1. Well, when I reached down to pick up my bag of money from the bank robbery, my gun fell off my lap and got lodged between the brake pedal and the gas pedal, forcing me to speed out of control.

Church Behavior

A Pastor one morning during Sunday school wanted to point out the proper behavior for church. He was trying to ask the youngsters, rules that their parents might give before taking them to a nice restaurant.

"Don't play with your food," one second grader cited.

"Don't be loud," said another, and so on...

"And what rule do your parents give you before you go out to eat?" the Pastor inquired of one little boy.

Without batting an eye, the child replied, "Order something cheap."

The Danger of the Occult in America

The Danger of the Occult in America goes far beyond just the celebration of Halloween but it is impossible to talk about the danger of the occult without mentioning the celebration. Many people have the "mistaken" idea that Halloween is a Christian holiday. The truth is it is not nor has it ever been a "Christian" celebration.

Known as the Festival of the Dead in Great Britain it was a night of satanic activity by a people known as the Celts and the Druids...it was on this night that they worshipped who they believed to be the god of the dead who they called "Sah-ween". As the Catholic missionaries swarmed Britain and Ireland seeking the mass conversion to Catholicism their orders from Pope Gregory in 601 A.D. was to cunningly convert the Druid rituals into Catholic rituals. The Catholics converted the ritual of Samhain (sah-ween) into the festival of All Saint's Eve, a time of celebration and prayer to dead "Saints." How Biblical is that? So How did this celebration that began across the seas make its way to America? Halloween was not celebrated in this country until 1845. At that time multiplied thousands of Irish emigrants flooded into New York because of the Great Famine of 1845-46. They brought with them the old Druid Holiday the Festival of the Dead now known as Halloween. Gradually celebrating this day spread throughout the rest of the country. Over the years Halloween has become a highly commercialized event involving most communities, schools, business, government offices, and even churches throughout the U.S. Today, children and adults alike wear the costumes and play out the rituals of this seemingly harmless event without ever considering their origins and true meaning or possible the consequences. I can hear many of you now saying..."What can it hurt?"...to answer that I will share with you what I believe to be the most dangerous thing about this celebration and the other things of the world that present to our young people the world of darkness and the occult. Through entertainment, movies, television, video games and the repetitive celebration of this unholy day the hearts of even many of the most devout followers of Jesus have been calloused to the occult and the works of darkness. So much so that when someone dares to speak or teach against it somehow they become the odd man out for taking a stand against that which God has already condemned. This ministry has been attacked, criticized and even taken from the airwaves in certain areas simply because we had the audacity to speak out against the participation in the occult... some have even complained saying that we are too repetitive in our efforts since we teach on it and send it out in our newsletter each October. But the truth is, even though many have heard and read our teaching on this subject EVERY year without fail we hear from people who are hearing it for the first time. In this country we have been so bombarded with the occult that most have simply become "used" to it...it has become the norm instead of the unacceptable. Looking into Gods Word we see this happen to Lot, Abraham's nephew. When it came time for them to separate Abraham allowed Lot to choose the direction in which he wanted to go and the Bible says that Lot "pitched his tent toward Sodom"...in doing this we find that Lots soul becomes vexed...Why? Because he set his eyes upon the people...their ways...their conversation and even though at first this may have been repulsive to Lot over time he became more and more like them...so much so that he called them "brethren" and even went so far as to offer his daughters to the perverted men of that city. You see the longer you behold something...the more you are around IT...the more acceptable it becomes. Someone once said what one generation tolerates the next generation accepts! How true that is! We have been so exposed for so long to the occult that we no longer look at things the way the early church did. The Word of God forbids all involvement in the occult, our Christian forefathers would not have touched it with a ten foot pole! Yet today much of the church not only do not speak out against it THEY PARTICIPATE in it themselves! Halloween is now the second biggest money making holiday in this country! Gods Word says "Suffer not a witch to live."...Now am I saying stone them? No...certainly not! BUT how can we justify petting them....consulting them...dressing like them...accepting them as nothing more than fun?? This type of practice AND the condoning of such is STILL an abomination in the sight of God. Take the time to seek the Lord for His direction in this matter and we are confident that you too will see the occult, witchcraft and the celebration of halloween for what it really is....the works of darkness. May the LORD help us all to shun the works of darkness and embrace the things of the Kingdom of God...and as always to be the light that we are suppose to be in a world of darkness. Until next time...Pastor Billy R. Douglas

REESIE'S RECIPES

Butterfinger Cake by Melissa Willis

- 1 box German chocolate cake mix
- 1 can eagle brand milk
- 1 jar smuckers caramel topping
- 1 8oz. Cool whip
- 5 to 6 snack size butterfingers, crushed

Bake cake as directed on box. Poke hole in cake while it is still warm. Pour eagle brand milk and caramel topping over cake while still warm. Let cake cool completely. Top with cool whip and sprinkle with crushed butterfingers.

Snickers Cream Cheese Pie

- 8 ounces cream cheese, softened
- 1 1/2 cups powdered sugar
- 1/2 cup creamy peanut butter
- 3 regular sized Snickers candy bars, chopped
- 16 ounces Cool Whip, thawed
- 2 (6 ounce) chocolate or graham cracker pie crust

In a large mixing bowl, beat cream cheese, sugar and peanut butter until creamy. Stir in chopped candy bars, saving a little to sprinkle over top. Gently fold in the Cool Whip just until mixed. Pour into crusts, sprinkle with remaining candy and refrigerate overnight.

Mashed Potato Cupcakes

- 2 cups mashed potatoes
- Cooked bacon crumbled or Real bacon pieces
- 3/4 cup shredded cheese
- Chopped green onion
- Sour cream, if desired

Preheat oven to 375. Grease muffin pan. Mix together all ingredients. Stuff in to a greased muffin tin, run a fork along the top and brush with melted butter or oil. Bake at 375 degrees or until tops are crispy and golden. Serve with sour cream if desired.

Chicken Noodle Casserole

- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 3 tablespoons margarine, melted
- 2 (10 3/4 ounce) cans cream of chicken soup
- 2 cups shredded cheddar cheese, divided
- 1 cup milk
- 3 1/2 cups chopped cooked chicken breast
- 2 1/2 cups cooked macaroni or pasta/noodles
- Salt & pepper
- 2 Tablespoons margarine, melted
- 1/4 cup Ritz cracker crumbs

In a large skillet over med-high heat, saute onions in butter until onions are tender. Add in soup and 1 1/2 cups cheese; gradually stir in milk. Cook over medium heat until cheese melts; stir in chicken and macaroni; taste and adjust seasoning with salt and pepper. Transfer mixture to a greased 2 1/2 quart casserole; sprinkle with cracker crumbs, drizzle 2 Tablespoons melted margarine over crackers. Bake in a preheated 350° oven for 30 minutes or until heated through

Pizza Pull-Apart Bread

- 2 (14 oz.) cans of Pillsbury pizza dough
- 2 cups shredded Mozzarella cheese
- 1/2 tbsp. basil leaves
- 1/2 tsp. dried oregano
- 1/3 cup oil
- 1 (8 oz.) package of pepperoni (cut into quarters)
- 1 cup Parmesan cheese

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Spray Bundt pan well. Cut pizza dough into quarters. Add all the ingredients in a bowl & toss so that the oil is spread evenly on each piece of dough. Bake in oven for 30 minutes (or until the top is & and center is cooked) If the middle is still not cooked thoroughly, leave it in oven for another 5 minutes at a time until it's done. Remove from oven & let rest for 5 minutes. Flip over on to a plate & serve with marinara/pizza sauce for dipping.

Lucifer Rising

The significance of Halloween today isn't so much of whether or not it was a day of mass human sacrifice by the Druids, derived from the sacrifices to Moloch, even though it certainly was. What we must understand about Halloween in modern times is that it's a mass magical operation to promote the works of darkness and to desensitize people to witchcraft and the occult. To understand that, we must understand how an occult magic operation works. The late 20th century customs of Halloween especially in the United States may as well have been composed and directed by Aleister Crowley. Crowley wrote satanic rituals in the form of dramatic plays. The actors would take on the the character of a god or goddess, or demons that the magician would invoke. It's really very simple. By acting like the thing, you become the thing. Crowley combined masquerade with Kabbalist invocations of demonic personality traits. He embedded them in dramatic scripts and in song lyrics. It doesn't even matter if a participant is aware they're to become possessed, they only need to be persuaded to act out and hear the words. This in fact is the how behavioral engineering has been done through the Hollywood movies, television shows and music industry. Halloween has become a multi-billion dollar industry. Though it's roots and history go back some 200 years before Christ Halloween as we know it in America didn't exist until around 1950. But it seems as though the big push can be traced back to the year of 1966 with what the 1966 Madison Avenue marketing blitz called "The Year of the Monster" which glamorized Halloween as a 'lifestyle'. The blitz included a plethora of gory toys, the glamorizing of witchcraft and the occult through television with shows and movies, including prime time sitcoms like "The Adams Family", "The Munsters" and "Bewitched". This push was backed by interests which we now identify as 'Illuminati' and Satanic. I lived through it, so I have no doubt about it. American children used to be protected by laws which no longer exist. They were protected by families and normal society. Before television it wasn't so easy for self avowed witches to get inside their heads. The Illuminati recognized Halloween as the opportunity to do that. Anton La Vey (Howard Levey) started the Church of Satan in 1966. This wasn't coincidental. La Vey's cult photos were on display in the major magazines. La Vey thus was promoting the occult, gothic, Halloween image as a lifestyle. Halloween for Satanists today is a celebration of 'Lucifer Rising'. And that is exactly what they see with the "rising" popularity of the occult, witchcraft and magic with each passing year in America and around the world. Halloween is religious indoctrination and formation into Druid paganism, witchcraft, and Satanism. I was initiated into Halloween in 1959. I as a little boy. My grandmother let me choose a costume at the Five and Dime. I went straight for a latex red devil mask that came with shiny red rayon cape. When I wore the mask, I felt transformed into something more powerful than myself. After Halloween night, my grandmother took it away because I persisted in wearing it. Neighbors were beginning to talk. Years later I learned in an anthropology course that masks, chants and dancing are used to invoke spirits. "The person wearing the mask feels internally transformed and takes on temporarily the qualities of the god or demon represented by the mask". The Satanic Bible ranks Halloween as one of the two most important festivals on the Satanic calendar...that alone should be enough to cause someone to pause and reconsider participating in this "celebration". “You Need the Baptism in the Holy Ghost!” Part 02

The Holy Ghost comes to drive out all the remaining claims of the old sinful life! He purges all evil powers. He puts down all rule and authority of the enemy. He raises up a holy standard, and He notifies Satan and his demon hordes that this temple belongs wholly to Jesus! “All principalities and powers of darkness, take heed: Your claims is lost! This is my house, and I have moved in to make Jesus Lord of this body, soul and mind!” If you have the Spirit of Truth, you will soon line up with God’s Word and love to do so! He begins to reveal the mind of Christ to you. And when you read and hear the Word, you tremble and have the power to obey! The first message He discloses is this in John 14:26 - But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you. I have often wondered how those calling themselves Christians can distort the Word of God - how they can read the clear warnings contained in the Bible and yet ignore them. They lead a double life! They invent their own standards and mix freely with the world. They are two people - split personalities. One part continues to do everything sinful and evil, while the other one says, “But that’s not me. The real me loves Jesus!” Scripture makes this division clear: 2nd Corinthians 6:14-18 - Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? 15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? 16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 17 Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you. 18 And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty. How can any lover of Jesus miss or distort this? How can an actor and actress play in raunchy, sex-and-violence movies and say with a straight face, “God told me to”? How can Christians rent evil movies or go to filthy places and say, “I am a witness for Jesus”? It is because the Spirit of truth is not in them! They need the Holy Ghost to come in and open their blinded eyes! Jesus said in John 14:16-17 - And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; 17 Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. All the preaching, counseling and Bible reading you can absorb will be dead to you unless you have the Holy Ghost living in you! He makes you to understand and know it is God speaking! You need the Holy Ghost, for He is the Spirit of Truth who “shall teach you all things.” You won’t be sidetracked by a distorted, compromised gospel. John 16:13-14 - Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come. 14 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you. Holy Ghost Baptism Is For You! Do you really want the Holy Ghost? Do you want Him to fall upon you and baptize you with fire? You have to be convinced this is for you. You must come to the place where you know you are nothing, have nothing and can do nothing without the power and leading of the Holy Ghost. You must know He is still baptizing, still falling upon believers - possessing their bodies! Acts 2:38-39 - Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. 39 For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. Every hour of every day, multitudes worldwide are being baptized with the Holy Ghost! They have read of this promise in the Bible or have heard it preached. So they cried out claiming the promise, and they have been baptized! The baptism is especially for those living in these last days. Acts 2:17-18 - And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams: 18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy: Jesus told a parable about a certain man who got up at midnight, went to a friend’s house and asked for three loaves of bread (Luke 11:5-13). This parable is about the need for the Holy Ghost - about seeking, asking and knocking! This man had been in his home when a friend arrived from a long journey and was hungry. But the man had nothing to give him. This represents a lack of power, spiritual weakness! So the man who had nothing to give went to the one who had bread. This man who had nothing to give needed the power of the Holy Ghost. He was desperate! Beloved, it is midnight and you have family and friends who are hungry and needy - yet in yourselves you have nothing to offer. You need the Holy Ghost! And He is yours for the asking: “How much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?” (Luke 11:13). God wants you to live and walk in the Spirit. You should not have to run to find someone else to meet a person’s need. You are called to speak the Word of God as the Spirit moves on you, and to lay hands on the sick and cast out devils just as the apostles did. We are all called to be witnesses who are full of the Holy Ghost and power! Be watching for the conclusion of this article in next months issue

Simple, Powerful Faith!

"The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe." John 20:25 (KJV)

To all of us, there comes a time when faith is not enough. Circumstances may look dark, and to find a place of solace in Christ, seems hopeless, and often leaves our hearts wanting and in desperate straits. Have you often times wondered why, when we make a decision for Christ, there always seems to be so much adversity that comes against us? Could it be that God is testing us? Could it be that God wants to see what we're made of? Perhaps. I am sure that there are those who could argue a well thought out discourse on the rudiments of Divine Testing. Yet, for our purposes of what I believe that the Lord wants us to focus in on for today - is simple; even basic. It comes down to the very core of our belief in Christ Himself and sometimes, unfortunately, what other people see of the Christ that is in us. Thomas, the disciple, was always the skeptic. In fact, he earned the name - perhaps somewhat deservedly of "doubting Thomas". While other disciples had seen the risen Lord - Thomas, for whatever reason was not there when Jesus came to them. As the others tried to tell him that the Lord had risen - just as He said... Thomas was having none of it. His reply was classic and is something we talk about in our youth meetings; Ministerial Retreats and of course, back home in our own sanctuary. Why? Because one of the things that is basic to the Christian faith, is the sum total of the power of who we are as Christians. One of the first things we learn is that seeing isn't always believing - yet the opposite is the ROCK on which Jesus built the church. Yet we find Thomas much like many of us today. You know what I'm talking about; we have to see results. We have to see God heal in order to believe that He can. They have to see their situation "turn-around" by morning for them to rely on this Christ of the Human Road. Thomas went so far as to say, "Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe." Sounds kind of morbid to say the least - but you would be surprised to hear some of the things I have seen people do - to escape the bounds of the finite to taste the intrinsic excellence of the Spirit. Why? TO BELIEVE! To have something to grab hold of even when life seems anemic and frail - never letting go, knowing now what lies beyond their grasp. When Jesus allowed Thomas the ability to trust his finger into the holes in his hands and feet, and his entire hand into His riven side... Thomas "got it"! He looked deep into the Lord's eyes and gave probably one of the greatest testimonies that ever came forth from his lips in just 5 words when he said, "My Lord and my God." Sometimes the most powerful answer to life's most far-reaching challenges to faith - is to simply believe.

Remain Faithful

Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. 1 Corinthians 4:2

In the early 1800's a preacher gave a message to call men to join him on the mission field in Africa. In the audience were only a few women along with a boy. The pastor knew that few women were expected to volunteer to face harsh African jungle conditions. However, he gave the message; and no one responded. What he didn't realize was that he had touched the heart of a little boy whose name was David Livingstone. This boy would grow up to spend the rest of his life ministering to Africa's unreached tribes. David Livingstone was touched by the faithfulness of a pastor who gave his message when there seemed to be no obvious fruit from its delivery - and that made all the difference! The lesson is this: we are not in charge of results, but only responsible to be faithful to what God has given us to do. You may not be seeing any fruit from your obedient labor at the moment - it may appear next week, next year or a century from now, but in its time the fruit will appear, and may be greater than you could have ever imagined. Heaven will, one day, reveal the fruit of lives we have touched by our faithfulness! Be encouraged - and don't give up. Your faithful stewardship will produce its true harvest which will never fade or pass away!

God's Simple Plan of Salvation

My Friend: we are about to ask you the most important question of your life. Your joy or your sorrow for all eternity depends upon your answer. The question is: Are you saved? Do you know Jesus Christ as your personal LORD and Saviour? It is not a question of how good you are, nor if you are a church member, but have you put your faith in Jesus? Are you sure you will go to Heaven when you die? The Bible makes the plan of salvation plain and simple. Romans 10:13 says For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. Call on Jesus today. Put your faith and trust in him and ask him to forgive you of your sins and to be your LORD and savior and you will be born again...SAVED!! Do this today, tomorrow may be to late! Please write or call us if you have made the decision to accept Jesus. We would love to send you some material to help you with your new life with the LORD.
