Integrity is Greater Than Walls!

These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

Revelation 17:14

The Great Wall of China is one of the Seven Wonders of the World. It stretches over 4,000 miles (6,400 KM) and was built to protect China from the barbaric hordes to the north. The designers of the wall made it so high that it could not be scaled, so thick that it could not be penetrated, and so long that no one could go around it. Yet, during the first hundred years of the wall's existence China was successfully invaded three times, without the wall having been climbed or breached. So how, you ask, did the invaders raid China? Well, the problem wasn't the wall – it was the gatekeepers! In each of these invasions the barbarians simply bribed the gatekeepers who opened the gates, so the enemies just walked right through. The protection of the Great Wall of China was only as secure as its gatekeepers. What a lesson, since, don't we all also have "gates to keep"...our eyes, and our ears, and our mouth? No matter how strong we may feel, we can never forget that these points of entry will be seen by our enemies and there will be attempts to bribe or seduce us so they can break through. We must not allow the "barbaric hordes" to invade our lives by failing to keep careful watch at these entry points –our integrity and our authority depend on the security of our gates!

When The Wind Blows

Many times my heart ponders the blessed simplicity of my Native-American and Kentucky Mountain heritage. My heart yearns for the fullness of my holiness heritage. I want to be described by that old mountain saying, "I'm a woman who chose the good way," and, at the end of my journey folks could say, "You couldn't spot her life." My Grandpa Gray was a Pentecostal Holiness preacher. He played a Guitar and sang. My Mammy Rhodes received the Holy Ghost when the wind of the Holy Ghost and fire blew across the mountains of Eastern Kentucky in the early 1900's. There is not enough room for me to share it all. As a 13 year old mountain child, I walked the railroad track to Sister Rice's house, and as they sang and prayed, Jesus saved me, and I was baptized in the cold, Straight Creek water. The outstanding virtue of these simple people, I remember so well - oh how they loved Jesus and wanted to please Him. We had no desire for material things. We were poor, but rich in Jesus. When the Holy Ghost wind blows, men lay down their plows and shovels and run to the house of God with a hunger to be in His presence. You could hear men praying in the mountains, singing as they plowed the land; women sang His praises as they washed clothes and worked in the fields, looking forward to the next meeting to be in His presence and see Him perform miracles. Persecution seemed to follow the Pentecostal baptism, but they kept loving their enemies through it all. I remember when old Brother Lankford lifted a little sick baby up to Jesus and said, "Here it is Jesus, heal it" and the little baby would be healed. There were so many miracles across the mountains. Please don't misunderstand me, but there will always be something missing until I see that again. Send down the Holy Ghost rain again, Dear Jesus. I believe it's coming, Lord. I came from an obscure place deep in the Kentucky Mountains, and from little known people. But God knew my name even in my Mother's womb, and He called me. As my Sister Martha testifies, "I have failed Him, but He has never failed me." Praise the Lord! May the Lord Bless you is my prayer.

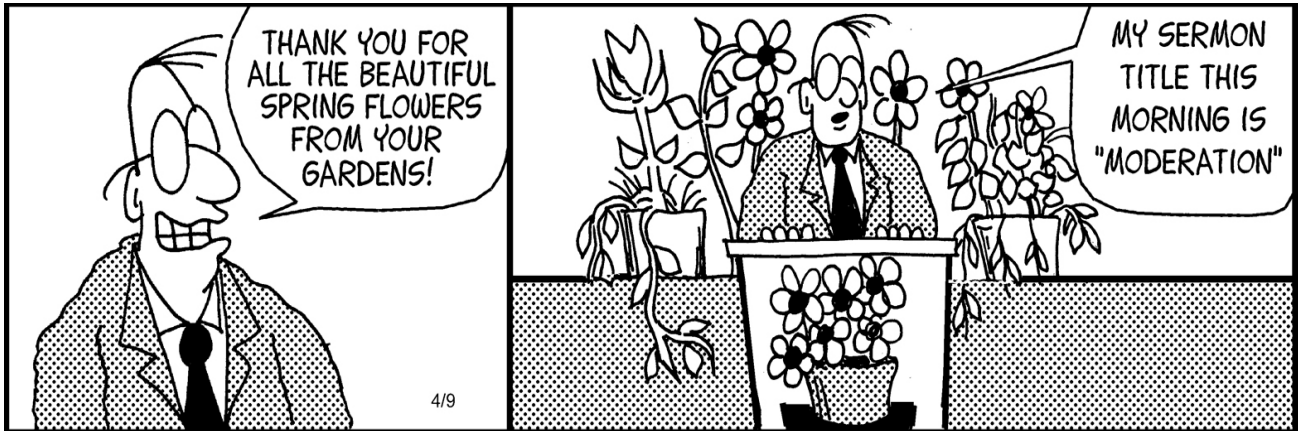

His Handmaiden,

Sister Betty Jean Robinson

Cousin Leroy

Leroy's wife was looking in the mirror and said. "Oh Leroy, What should I do?! I'm not ready for old age! I'm only 50 years old but I look and feel like I'm over 65! My face is all wrinkly, my back is bent over, and my hair is all thinned out." "Well," said Leroy after looking her up and down, "There is one thing about you that still works as good as new." "Oh Leroy!" she said sitting down next to him, "you always know just what to say! What are you referring to?" "Never mind" said Leroy looking down. "C'mon Leroy, please tell me what you were referring to." "Please don't make me." Leroy said. "Leroy I insist." "Well I was going to say how your eyesight seems to be as good as ever!"

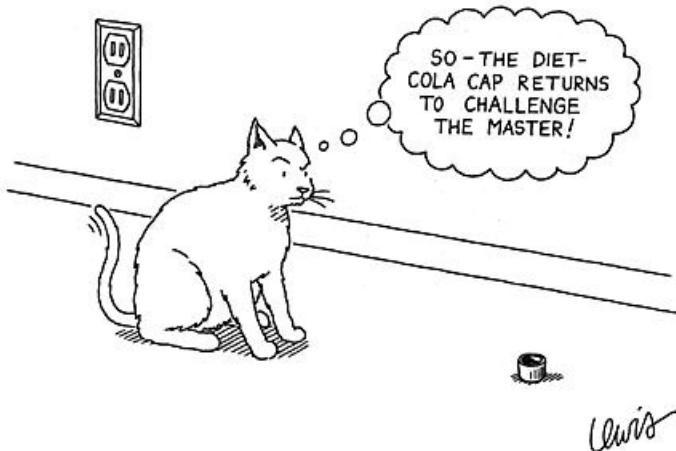

Mysterious Disease

This terrible disease effects millions if not billions of people around the world. It seems to have the following effects. Monday through Saturday they appear to be fine. Plenty of motivation and strength to put in the effort that it takes to work each day, have time for recreation, shopping, etc. BUT then on Sunday mornings these poor victims of this terrible sickness suffer from the following side effects that keep them from even being able to get out of the bed...

Extremely tired and fatigued, Headaches, Back pain, Nausea, Soured stomach, Explosive Diarrhea

Depending upon the person they can experience all of these, some of these or even many other things not listed. Strangely enough come Monday morning (many times even by Sunday afternoon) the sickness leaves as quickly as it showed up. Only to return without warning the next Sunday! If you feel as though you may be a victim to this disease please seek spiritual help immediately!!! This disease can be fatal to your soul!

CAT KUNG FU

The Occult in America

Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelled in the cities of the plain, and pitched his tent toward Sodom. But the men of Sodom were wicked and sinners before the LORD exceedingly. Genesis 13:12-13

When we teach or preach on the subject of "Halloween" the danger that we are speaking of goes far beyond just this one night of celebrating evil. The most critical danger of this celebration is the casual acceptance of the occult...what most of the church calls "fun" God calls an abomination and a cursed thing. Through entertainment...and the repetitive celebration of this unholy day the hearts of even many of the most devout followers of Jesus have been calloused to the occult and the works of darkness. Sadly many things that the early church would have refused and rebuked have become common place in today's modern day seeker sensitive church age. And let me be very plain in what I am saying...I could go into the history of Halloween and the evil roots of it but it can all be summed up in the resounding truth that HALLOWEEN is satanic, it is rooted and grounded in the powers of darkness and it goes against everything that God's Word teaches. With that being said, why is the occult and witchcraft so popular today? Not just in the world but the fact that it has made its way into the church? There are many reasons why the occult is so widely accepted. One of the reasons is that we have been so bombarded with it in our society that people have simply become "used" to it...it has become the norm instead of unacceptable. Looking into Gods Word we see a perfect example of how this has happened. We see this same thing happened to Lot, Abraham's nephew. When it came time for them to separate Abraham allowed Lot to choose the direction in which he wanted to go and the Bible says that Lot "pitched his tent toward Sodom"...in doing this we find that Lots soul becomes vexed...Why? Because he set his eyes upon the people...their ways...their conversation, their way of life!! And even though at first this may have been repulsive to Lot over time it became less and less offensive and he became more and more like them. So much so that he called them "brethren" and even went so far as to offer his daughters to the perverted men of that city. You see the longer you behold something...the more you are around IT...the more acceptable it becomes. Someone once said what one generation tolerates the next generation accepts! How true that is! We have been so exposed for so long to the occult that we no longer look at things the way the church once did. Wickedness and the things of darkness have become part of our everyday lives from movies, television, video games all the way down to the packaging on the food that we buy! Halloween is now the second biggest money making holiday in this country! And sadly many...MANY churches celebrate it with parties, haunted houses and more! Gods Word says "Suffer not a witch to live."...and you could fill in the word "witch" there with any practitioner of evil. Now am I saying stone them? No...certainly not but how can we justify petting them....consulting them...dressing like them...accepting them as nothing more than fun?? Stones aside this type of practice AND the condoning of such is STILL an abomination in the sight of God. Please take the time to pray about this...take the time to seek the Lord for His direction in this matter...take the time to read what His WORD says about this...and we are confident that you too will see that the occult and witchcraft along with the celebration of halloween are indeed the works of darkness and no born again believer should be involved in any of it. Until next time may the LORD bless and keep you is our prayer. Pastor Billy R. Douglas

Happy Birthday Pastor Billy R. Douglas!

On September 23rd Pastor Billy R. Douglas will be celebrating his 50th Birthday!

If you would like to send a card letting him know how much you appreciate him it would be a great blessing. Also when sending the card if you would prayerfully consider sending a love gift to the Ministry in honor of his 50th birthday that would be much appreciated as well.

REESIE'S RECIPES

Pecan Cream Cheese Pie

- 9 inch refrigerated pie crust
- 1 (8 ounce) package cream cheese, room temperature
- 3 eggs, divided
- 3/4 cup granulated sugar, divided
- 4 teaspoons vanilla, divided
- 1/2 cup light corn syrup
- 3 Tablespoons butter, melted
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 2 cups toasted pecan pieces

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Place your homemade or prepackaged pie crust in a 9 inch deep dish pie plate. Using a large bowl, beat the cream cheese, 1 egg, 1/4 cup sugar and 2 teaspoons vanilla together until smooth. Pour the cream cheese mixture into the bottom of the pie crust, spread out evenly, bake for 15 minutes. In another large bowl, add the remaining 2 eggs and 1/2 cup sugar. Whisk together until well combined. Add the corn syrup, butter, the remaining 2 teaspoons of vanilla and salt to the bowl. Whisk until well blended together. Sprinkle the toasted pecan pieces evenly over the baked cream cheese layer in the pie plate. Slowly pour the corn syrup mixture evenly over the pecans. Bake 35 - 40 minutes or until set in the middle. Cool completely. Refrigerate pie. Refrigerate any leftovers.

Watergate Salad

- 1 large pkg. pistachio pudding mix
- 1 (20oz.) can crushed pineapple
- 2 cups mini marshmallows
- 1 large container cool whip

Mix dry pudding mix in a medium/large bowl with pineapples. Add cool whip and marshmallows. Mix well and chill before serving. Refrigerate.

Bacon Wrapped Stuffed Mushrooms

- 1/2 cup green onion, chopped
- 1 package (8 oz) cream cheese, softened
- 20 fresh mushrooms, stems removed
- 1 lb sliced bacon, strips cut in half

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Line a baking sheet with foil. Place a wire cooling rack on the baking sheet. In a medium bowl, mix together green onion and cream cheese. Stuff mushroom caps with the cheese mixture. Wrap each mushroom with half of a slice of bacon, secure with a toothpick, and place on the wire rack. Bake for 20 minutes or until the bacon is crispy.

Breakfast Enchiladas

- 2 cups diced cooked ham
- 1 bell pepper, diced
- 8 green onions, finely sliced
- 2 cups (8 ounces) shredded cheddar cheese
- 10 eight-inch flour tortillas
- 6 eggs
- 2 cups half-and-half
- 1 tablespoon all-purpose flour
- 1/2 teaspoon kosher salt

Lightly spray 13x9-inch (3-quart) glass baking dish with cooking spray. In large bowl, stir together ham, bell pepper, green onions and 1 cup of the cheese. Place 1/3 cup of the ham mixture down the center of each tortilla; roll up and place seam side down in baking dish. In large bowl, whisk eggs, half-and-half, flour and the salt. Pour over the tortillas. Heat oven to 350 degrees. Scatter the remaining cup of cheese over enchiladas. Cover baking dish with aluminum foil and bake for 35 minutes. Uncover, and then bake 10 to 15 minutes longer or until set and cheese melted.

Every Child's True Need

And give unto Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace, for the which I have made provision. 1 Chronicles 29:19

We live in a world that is upside down and topsy-turvy. Even in the church evil is called good and good evil. These things most certainly should not be so. With all the craziness surrounding our souls, we must remember that true peace and joy can only be found in Jesus—nowhere else! There will be the glitter of worldliness that grabs at our eyes but we must refocus and retrain our eyes on Jesus alone. “Looking unto Jesus...” There’s an unspeakable passion in the heart of every parent to see their child happy. The devil has sold us, our children, and even the church a false bill of goods, convincing us of things that will bring happiness to our children; but eventually will only bring heartache and pain to parent and child alike. Parent, read on as the word of God makes clear the road to joy and warns us of the path to trouble. It’s NEVER too early to take heed against the wrong and place our young ones on the path of early piety. There’s not enough room here to do this justice; but we can do a quick flyover and you can do the digging, praying over it, and following the Spirit’s leading. That’s the best way to learn, anyhow. The real happiness of a child will start with the fear of the Lord in his/her parents. David was a man who feared God and sent solemn prayers for piety for his son heavenward with faith. Let us fear the Lord, pray fervently and solemnly for our children, and then be sure that our actions work with our prayers instead of against them. The Wise-man, Solomon, wrote: “The proverbs of Solomon. A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother. Treasures of wickedness profit nothing: but righteousness delivereth from death.” (Proverbs 10:1-2) So often people say they desire happiness for their children and pray for their salvation and purity, only to provide them with “treasures of wickedness,” working against their own happiness, against their child’s happiness, and sadly, against their very own prayers. As we pray for our children to have a perfect heart and a pious mind, let us insist on their obedience to parents and authority—in training them to obey the highest Authority—Heavenly Father. Let us fill their minds with heaven and the heavenly graces, that such wonders may be their goal. Let’s speak often with them about the beauties of heaven and the torments of hell, reminding them that no one is guaranteed their next breath. Talk with them often of where their destination would be should they die now and what their assurance is of their chosen destination. Encourage them to works of righteousness. Oh that we would be more concerned about the state of their soul than we are about what sport they play, the school they’ll attend, or the job they will someday work. Oh that we would take caution of the worldly influences we surround them with: the television or videos we allow them to watch, the games they play, and the friends we allow them to have. There is nothing more important than the salvation of their souls by faith in Jesus. Let us look at some of the signs of conversion, recognizing that only God can see the heart. Dr. Cotton Mather, in 1721, had a few things to say about this. Although written long ago, they are still true today. “A young person brought home to God has his understanding enlightened, his fantasy regulated, his memory purified, his will rectified, his affections brought into order. He gives up his whole heart unto God. He reserves no powers of his mind, but concerning all of them, He says, “Oh! Let my Saviour take possession of it.” “Secondly, as we would bring out children to a profession of piety, so we would exhort them to sincerity of in their profession... You must have your heart engaged in what you do about the service of God.” Not only is the heart to be washed from wickedness, but EVERYTHING that is offensive to God must be banished from it as well. God’s call to Abraham—“Walk before me and be blameless”—is the same call given to the Christian. We do not aim at the praise of men; rather, we aim at pleasing God and praising Him with all that we do. “Thirdly, we cannot be satisfied, except our children endeavor to have a universal obedience unto God... A young person willing to be made perfect and whole, lacking nothing in his obedience to God, willing and wishing to be made perfect in every good work, doing the will of God, denying all ungodliness and leading to a godly, sober, and righteous life, this is one of a perfect heart.” Finally, our children—and all who claim the name of Christ—need to have a heart that is fixed on holiness. Our highest aim is to glorify God in all that we do and in all that we are. Let us be holy as He is holy.

THE GLORY IS DEPARTED

By: Evangelist Mike Heltsley

And his daughter in law, Phinehas' wife, was with child, near to be delivered: and when she heard the tidings that the ark of God was taken, and that her father in law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and travailed; for her pains came upon her. And about the time of her death the women that stood by her said unto her, Fear not; for thou hast born a son. But she answered not, neither did she regard it. And she named the child Ichabod, saying, The glory is departed from Israel: because the ark of God was taken, and because of her father in law and her husband. And she said, The glory is departed from Israel: for the ark of God is taken. 1st Samuel 4:19-22

Around 3,100 years ago, a little boy came into this world with the curious name of Ichabod. His mother, who died giving him birth, named him that as she died. The word means, "the glory is departed." The Bible record indicates that the little boy's father, mother, and his grandfather, Eli the priest, all died on the same day. Ichabod's mother gave him that name because the Philistines had stolen the ark of Israel and because her husband, Phinehas, and his father, Eli, had both died. The final verse of the chapter gives more emphasis to the taking of the ark for the choosing of the name, Ichabod. Ichabod - THE GLORY IS DEPARTED! All of his life, this child's name remembered the fact that the ark of God, which contained the word of God, had been taken by the Philistines. When the Word Of God departed, the glory departed. I repeat: When the scriptures were taken from Israel, the GLORY was taken from Israel. When the word of God was removed, the glory was gone, for the LIGHT was gone. God's word is LIGHT! Psalms 119:105 - Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path Isaiah 8:20 - To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. 2nd Peter 1:19 - We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts: Psalms 119:130 - The entrance of thy words giveth light; it giveth understanding unto the simple. I. THE GLORY CAN DEPART FROM A COUNTRY 1st Samuel 4:21 - And she named the child Ichabod, saying, The glory is departed from Israel: because the ark of God was taken, and because of her father in law and her husband. The light goes out, and the glory is departed, when the word of God is removed! From the laws of its courts Upon what are our laws founded? 1. The "The Ten Commandments" 2. Now the Ten Commandments are banned from our courts. 3. Now what are our laws founded on? The opinions of judges! From the learning of our children In America's schools, the word of God has been replaced by new age psychology, etc. In reality anything other than the word of God is wrong!!! It's either "Back to the Bible" or "Back to the JUNGLE!" From the lives of its citizens Where do we get our Views of right and wrong? Biblical illiteracy in America is at an all-time high II. THE GLORY CAN DEPART FROM OUR CHILDREN Proverbs 17:6 - Children's children are the crown of old men; and the glory of children are their fathers. The glory is gone from children, when God's word is disregarded in the home about: 1. Roles of family members 2. Rules for child raising 3. Restraint of evil-doing III. THE GLORY CAN DEPART FROM A CHURCH Revelation 2:5 - Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent. 1. When love for the word of God is gone...Less and less preaching, more lectures, Powerpoint presentations, drama, and other activities 2. When loyalty to the word of God is gone...The Word Of God being replaced by the teachings of man. 3. When living by the word of God is gone...No longer do we have pastors who are living examples of how to live by the Word of God. No longer have many pastors who will stand for the Word of God regardless of the cost. The results being now we no longer have many church members who will a take that stand for God and His Word. IV. THE GLORY CAN DEPART FROM A CHRISTIAN 1st Peter 4:14-16 - If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified 15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men's matters. 16 Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf. 1. When he quits reading the Bible 2. When he quits receiving the Bible 3. When he quits rejoicing in the Bible Psalm 119:162 - I rejoice at thy word, as one that findeth great spoil.

A Word for TODAY!

By Sister Michelle Deuling

Verse for Today: Colossians 3:14 And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness.

Additional passages for Today: Colossians 3:12-17 Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering; Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness. And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

Thought for Today: Does the Love you Live—Unite or Untie?

Story for Today: Della and Deidra had been best friends for years. Growing up in the inner city had had its challenges but they had survived! Now they were well on their way to making something of their lives. Della had finished high school with honors. She even made it into the top ten in her class! Deidra was on a full ride basketball scholarship. And the two friends were roommates. College life was different in many ways from the lives they had known. There wasn't as much accountability in the classrooms and people more or less did what they wanted. Della found herself invited to many more parties and it seemed like there was always something going on. Deidra too faced many more temptations, but faced them head on like she did most of her life. The girls found a nice church to attend and also found many friends that they could hang out with from church on the big campus. As the year progressed, Della continued to get caught up in the partying and having fun. She stopped spending as much time with Deidra and made lots of new friends. Her grades weren't quite what they had been but she wasn't too concerned. Church sometimes was missed as she woke up late or spent the night with friends that didn't attend. Deidra on the other hand continued to work hard at both school and basketball. She made some new friends from church, but, spent a lot of her time studying and practicing. As she watched Della slipping away, she began to pray for her and asked God what she could do. She began waking Della up to make sure she could make it to church, only to be rebuffed and yelled at by a too tired Della. One day as she read her Bible, God spoke to her and encouraged her not to give up on Della. God told her that He was working on Della and that she needed to be ready to speak. So Deidra continued praying and stayed close to God. It wasn't long before Della was in trouble. Her grades had dropped drastically and she was staying out all hours of the night partying. One morning as Deidra was getting ready, Della came in. Deidra felt God give her a message for Della. She told Della that she had been praying for her. Della didn't seem too impressed but, Deidra continued. She continued to tell Della that she saw what was going on. She told her how her life was in rebellion to God and that God wanted her to stop partying. God wanted her to come back to Him. Della at once dropped to her bed sobbing. She began telling Deidra how badly she felt and how she was afraid she had done too much wrong and that God didn't love her anymore. Deidra shared with her many scriptures that showed that, yes, God was very angry and displeased with Della, but that it wasn't too late. Deidra didn't let any bad behavior slide. She didn't yell or speak in anger. But, she did share all the facts and she gave Della a chance to change!

Questions for Today: Deidra lived out our verses today. She showed she cared and loved God by calling sin, sin and not accepting it, but loving enough to speak the truth and give opportunity to change. What would have happened if Deidra hadn't said anything or had spoken before God led her to? What would have happened if Deidra had become angry and yelled at Della or had given up on her?

Song for Today: If we are the body—Casting Crowns

Take some time today to pray: Lord, Help our lives to live out Your Love. Help us listen to your voice. In Jesus' Name AMEN

God's Simple Plan of Salvation

My Friend: we are about to ask you the most important question of your life. Your joy or your sorrow for all eternity depends upon your answer. The question is: Are you saved? Do you know Jesus Christ as your personal LORD and Saviour? It is not a question of how good you are, nor if you are a church member, but have you put your faith in Jesus? Are you sure you will go to Heaven when you die? The Bible makes the plan of salvation plain and simple. Romans 10:13 says For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. Call on Jesus today. Put your faith and trust in him and ask him to forgive you of your sins and to be your LORD and savior and you will be born again...SAVED!! Do this today, tomorrow may be to late! Please write or call us if you have made the decision to accept Jesus. We would love to send you some material to help you with your new life with the LORD.
